PROVERBS.

INTRODUCTION.
The present work of the Book of Proverbs is the most perfect of any volume in the Bible. It is a collection of sayings and admonitions, which have been gathered together by wisdom, and which are of great value to the reader. The book is divided into chapters, and each chapter contains a number of verses. The language is simple and clear, and the sayings
are of great practical value. The book is one of the most valuable in the Bible,
and is well worth
reading.

4 INTRODUCTION TO THE

proverbs which were written in the time of Solomon and probably in an early period, but the date is uncertain. The book is probably of the 10th or 11th century B.C. It is a collection of sayings, many of which are of a practical character, and are of a nature to be of use to the people of the time. The book is divided into three parts: the first part (1-22) contains 31 chapters, the second part (23-30) contains 28 chapters, and the third part (31-39) contains 9 chapters. The book is a collection of sayings, many of which are of a practical character, and are of a nature to be of use to the people of the time. The book is divided into three parts: the first part (1-22) contains 31 chapters, the second part (23-30) contains 28 chapters, and the third part (31-39) contains 9 chapters.

BOOK OF PROVERBS 7

had "prophets" (Deut. 18:15, 18:18). In addition, the "wise" (Prov. 1:1) are also called "prophets" (Prov. 1:1). The book is a collection of sayings, many of which are of a practical character, and are of a nature to be of use to the people of the time. The book is divided into three parts: the first part (1-22) contains 31 chapters, the second part (23-30) contains 28 chapters, and the third part (31-39) contains 9 chapters.

4 INTRODUCTION TO THE

book of the prophetical order. The book is a collection of sayings, many of which are of a practical character, and are of a nature to be of use to the people of the time. The book is divided into three parts: the first part (1-22) contains 31 chapters, the second part (23-30) contains 28 chapters, and the third part (31-39) contains 9 chapters.

13 INTRODUCTION TO THE

of the address assumed by the author of the Book of Proverbs is that of the King of Israel. This is shown by the fact that the book is addressed to the King,
 and that the King is the one
 who is to be instructed by the book. The King is the one who is to be instructed by the book,
 and the King is the one who
 is to be instructed by the book.
 The King is the one who is to
 be instructed by the book, and
 the King is the one who is to
 be instructed by the book.

14 BOOK OF PROVERBS

of the teaching which is contained in the book of Proverbs is that of the King of Israel. This is shown by the fact that the
 book is addressed to the King,
 and that the King is the one
 who is to be instructed by the book. The King is the one who
 is to be instructed by the book,
 and the King is the one who
 is to be instructed by the book.
 The King is the one who is to
 be instructed by the book, and
 the King is the one who is to
 be instructed by the book.

14 INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK OF PROVERBS

and throughout the book
 the King is the one who is to
 be instructed by the book, and
 the King is the one who is to
 be instructed by the book.

PROVERBS 1: 11.

11 Do not desire the way of the ungodly that they hate,
 12 nor the way of the wicked that they despise,
 13 nor shall you sit in the seat of the scornful.
 14 For their hearts are as hell,
 15 and they are as straight as a rod,
 16 and they are as ready to kill as a lion,
 17 and they are as bold as a bear.
 18 They have despised life,
 19 and they are as ready to die as a dog,
 20 and they are as greedy as a grave,
 21 and they are as insatiable as hell.
 22 Therefore shall they be as a snare,
 23 and they shall be as a trap,
 24 and they shall be as a snare,
 25 and they shall be as a trap,
 26 and they shall be as a snare,
 27 and they shall be as a trap,
 28 and they shall be as a snare,
 29 and they shall be as a trap,
 30 and they shall be as a snare.

PROVERBS XI-XII

11 In a land of gold is a silver's mine.
12 In a land of silver there is a mine of iron.
13 The mouth of the righteous is gold.
14 The tongue of the wicked is iron.
15 The eyes of the righteous are open, but the eyes of the wicked are shut.
16 The gift of the righteous is made flesh, but the gift of the wicked is made vanity.
17 The righteous shall be made rich, but the wicked shall be made poor.
18 The righteous shall be made rich, but the wicked shall be made poor.
19 The righteous shall be made rich, but the wicked shall be made poor.
20 The righteous shall be made rich, but the wicked shall be made poor.
21 The righteous shall be made rich, but the wicked shall be made poor.

PROVERBS XXVII XXVIII

19 Why boast of riches, when it is gone? 73:19
 20 For like a chaffwind will it fly: 73:20
 21 Like a feather will it fly away. 73:21
 22 When it is gone, it will be as a cloud, 73:22
 23 And like a dew that is soon decayed. 73:23
 24 When it is gone, it will be as a cloud, 73:24
 25 And like a dew that is soon decayed. 73:25
 26 Do not boast of riches, when it is gone, 73:26
 27 For like a chaffwind will it fly: 73:27
 28 Like a feather will it fly away. 73:28
 29 When it is gone, it will be as a cloud, 73:29
 30 And like a dew that is soon decayed. 73:30
 31 Do not boast of riches, when it is gone, 73:31
 32 For like a chaffwind will it fly: 73:32
 33 Like a feather will it fly away. 73:33
 34 When it is gone, it will be as a cloud, 73:34
 35 And like a dew that is soon decayed. 73:35

PROVERBS XXX, XXXI.

17 An eagle soars in the heaven to the south, and flies upward: for you are afar off, and your name
is high.

18 As the eagle seeks out its prey,
and looks down from its high habitation;
so will ye seek out the just,
and will look down from the height of your habitation.

19 As the eagle takes away the carcase,
and carries it upon its talons;
so will ye carry away the just,
and will carry them upon your wings.

20 As the eagle is fed with blood,
and is satisfied with fatness;
so will ye be fed with blood,
and will be satisfied with fatness.

21 As the eagle is fed with the blood of the slain,
and is satisfied with the fatness of the slain;
so will ye be fed with the blood of the just,
and will be satisfied with the fatness of the just.

22 As the eagle is fed with the blood of the slain,
and is satisfied with the fatness of the slain;
so will ye be fed with the blood of the just,
and will be satisfied with the fatness of the just.

23 As the eagle is fed with the blood of the slain,
and is satisfied with the fatness of the slain;
so will ye be fed with the blood of the just,
and will be satisfied with the fatness of the just.

24 As the eagle is fed with the blood of the slain,
and is satisfied with the fatness of the slain;
so will ye be fed with the blood of the just,
and will be satisfied with the fatness of the just.

PROVERBS XXXI.

1 A virtuous woman can be compared to a precious stone,
because she is sold for much money.

2 Her husband is praised in the town,
and he is glorified in the street.

3 She is like a precious jewel,
and is not despised.

4 Her husband is known in the gates,
because he has a virtuous wife.

5 She rises up in the morning,
and labors until the evening.

6 She is not idle in the house,
because she is diligent.

7 She is clothed with strength and courage,
and she is able to do great things.

8 She is not afraid of the snow,
nor does she tremble at the heat of the sun.

9 She is diligent in her work,
and she is able to do great things.

10 Her husband is praised in the town,
and he is glorified in the street.

11 She is like a precious jewel,
and is not despised.

12 Her husband is known in the gates,
because he has a virtuous wife.

13 She rises up in the morning,
and labors until the evening.

14 She is not idle in the house,
because she is diligent.

15 She is clothed with strength and courage,
and she is able to do great things.

16 She is not afraid of the snow,
nor does she tremble at the heat of the sun.

17 She is diligent in her work,
and she is able to do great things.

18 Her husband is praised in the town,
and he is glorified in the street.

19 She is like a precious jewel,
and is not despised.

20 Her husband is known in the gates,
because he has a virtuous wife.

21 She rises up in the morning,
and labors until the evening.

22 She is not idle in the house,
because she is diligent.

23 She is clothed with strength and courage,
and she is able to do great things.

24 She is not afraid of the snow,
nor does she tremble at the heat of the sun.

25 She is diligent in her work,
and she is able to do great things.

26 Her husband is praised in the town,
and he is glorified in the street.

27 She is like a precious jewel,
and is not despised.

28 Her husband is known in the gates,
because he has a virtuous wife.

29 She rises up in the morning,
and labors until the evening.

30 She is not idle in the house,
because she is diligent.

31 She is clothed with strength and courage,
and she is able to do great things.

32 She is not afraid of the snow,
nor does she tremble at the heat of the sun.

33 She is diligent in her work,
and she is able to do great things.

34 Her husband is praised in the town,
and he is glorified in the street.

35 She is like a precious jewel,
and is not despised.

36 Her husband is known in the gates,
because he has a virtuous wife.

ECCLESIASTES I. 11. 93
11.1-11.3 11:1-3 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, King of Jerusalem, were these: Vanity of vanities, all is vanity; and what doth profit man? 11:4-11.6 11:4-6 As I have seen, I have increased my wisdom, and have more knowledge than all they that have been before me: yet do I see vanity and vexation of spirit. 11:7-11.9 11:7-9 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun, and behold, all is vanity and vexation of spirit. 11:10-11.12 11:10-12 I have seen the judgment of the righteous, and the judgment of the wicked: and I see that the righteous are perished, and the wicked are left, and I see that the righteous are perished, and the wicked are left, and I see that the righteous are perished, and the wicked are left.

ECCLESIASTES II. 94
12:1-12:2 12:1-2 And now I commend thee to the Lord, my brother, for thou shalt be gathered to thy people: as thou hast done, so shall I do. 12:3-12:4 12:3-4 Remember now thy Creator in the days of thy youth, while the days of thine adversity are far off, and the years of vanity are not yet come, and the days of anger are not yet come, and the days of darkness are not yet come, and the days of blindness are not yet come, and the days of sorrow are not yet come, and the days of grief are not yet come, and the days of mourning are not yet come, and the days of weeping are not yet come, and the days of crying are not yet come, and the days of lamentation are not yet come, and the days of wailing are not yet come, and the days of howling are not yet come, and the days of shrieking are not yet come, and the days of screaming are not yet come, and the days of roaring are not yet come, and the days of crying out are not yet come, and the days of shouting are not yet come, and the days of clapping of hands are not yet come, and the days of stamping of feet are not yet come, and the days of dancing are not yet come, and the days of playing are not yet come, and the days of singing are not yet come, and the days of making melody are not yet come, and the days of playing an instrument are not yet come, and the days of making music are not yet come, and the days of playing a stringed instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a wind instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a brass instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a woodwind instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a percussion instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a keyboard instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a stringed instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a wind instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a brass instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a woodwind instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a percussion instrument are not yet come, and the days of playing a keyboard instrument are not yet come.

ECCLESIASTES VIII IX
14. There is no remedy either in wisdom or strength, and yet they do not know, neither do they see, that they are vainly toiling in the darkness. The word 'there' is used in a general sense, and the text is a warning against the folly of relying on one's own wisdom or strength. The word 'they' is used to refer to the people in general, who are described as being in the dark. The text is a warning against the folly of relying on one's own wisdom or strength. # The Song Of Solomon: Introduction

118 INTRODUCTION TO son to be largely achieved to refer to the "other" sex, which the King was to choose his bride from among his subjects, and to be identified with the bride as a bridegroom. All this the poet accomplishes with such skill that the reader is left with a sense of the bride's virginity, and the bridegroom's purity, as if the bride were really a virgin and the bridegroom really a young man, and as if the bride were really a young woman, and the bridegroom really a young man. The poet's art is such that he makes us feel as if we were really watching a young man and a young woman in love, and as if we were really watching a young man and a young woman in love.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON 119
 4. The description of the bride's beauty is in the first two chapters, and is followed by a description of the bridegroom's beauty in chapters 3-5. The poet's art is such that he makes us feel as if we were really watching a young man and a young woman
 in love, and as if we were really watching a young
 man and a young woman
 in love.

THE SONG OF SOLOMON 55
The Song of Solomon is a collection of love poems, the authorship of which is uncertain. It is one of the most beautiful and romantic of the Bible. The title is derived from the fact that the book is dedicated to King Solomon. The book is divided into eight chapters, each containing several verses. The language is poetic and romantic, and the imagery is rich and varied. The book is a beautiful expression of love and devotion, and it is a source of inspiration for many people.

SONG OF SOLOMON.

Chapter I. THE Song of songs, which is Solomon's.
1 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth.
2 His mouth is like a lily.
3 His mouth is like a lily.
4 His mouth is like a lily.
5 His mouth is like a lily.
6 His mouth is like a lily.
7 His mouth is like a lily.
8 His mouth is like a lily.
9 His mouth is like a lily.
10 His mouth is like a lily.

SOLOMON'S SONG. I. 119

2 His mouth is like a lily.
3 His mouth is like a lily.
4 His mouth is like a lily.
5 His mouth is like a lily.
6 His mouth is like a lily.
7 His mouth is like a lily.
8 His mouth is like a lily.
9 His mouth is like a lily.
10 His mouth is like a lily.

124 SOLOMON'S SONG. I. II.

14 My beloved is white, and ruddy as the stars,

15 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

16 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

17 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

18 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

19 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

20 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

21 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

22 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

23 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

24 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

25 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

26 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

27 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

28 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

29 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

30 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

31 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

32 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

SOLOMON'S SONG. II. 125

1 My beloved is white, and ruddy as the stars,

2 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

18 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

19 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

20 As the sun is bright, so are his eyes,

21 As the moon is bright, so are his cheeks,

22 The horns of his horns are silver, and his horns of brass,

126 SOLOMON'S SONG. II. III.

13 The hair of thy head is like black wool, and is curled like a lion's mane;
 thy teeth are like a flock of sheep,
 that are clean shaven, which come up from Jerusalem.

14 Thy eyes are like the doves,
 sitting in the window;
 thy nose is like the tower of Lebanon,
 which standeth upon a height;
 thy mouth is like an open tomb,
 because thy nose is like a tower;
 thy mouth is like an open tomb,
 because thy nose is like a tower.

15 Thy lips are like a scarlet cord,
 and thy mouth is like an open tomb,
 because thy nose is like a tower;
 thy mouth is like an open tomb,
 because thy nose is like a tower.

16 Thy neck is like the tower of David,
 which is built in Jerusalem;
 thy neck is like the tower of David,
 which is built in Jerusalem.

17 Thy breasts are like two doves,
 sitting in the window;
 thy breasts are like two doves,
 sitting in the window.

18 Thy arms are like the arms of a king,
 and thy hands are like the hands of a warrior;
 thy arms are like the arms of a king,
 and thy hands are like the hands of a warrior.

19 Thy legs are like the legs of a king,
 and thy feet are like the feet of a warrior;
 thy legs are like the legs of a king,
 and thy feet are like the feet of a warrior.

20 Thy voice is like the voice of a dove,
 which is heard in the window;
 thy voice is like the voice of a dove,
 which is heard in the window.

21 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

22 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

SOLOMON'S SONG. III. 127

127

1 The voice of thy voice is like the voice of a dove,
 which is heard in the window;
 thy voice is like the voice of a dove,
 which is heard in the window.

2 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

3 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

4 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

5 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

6 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

7 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

8 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

9 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

10 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

11 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

12 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;
 thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior.

13 Thy name is like the name of a king,
 and thy name is like the name of a warrior;

BOOK OF JEREMIAH 645

Book of Jeremiah is one of the most important books of the Bible. It is the only book in the Bible which is named after its author. The book is a collection of prophecies which were given to the prophet Jeremiah by the Lord God of Israel. The book is divided into two parts. The first part contains the prophecies which were given to Jeremiah during the reign of King Josiah (640-609 B.C.). The second part contains the prophecies which were given to Jeremiah during the reign of King Zedekiah (609-598 B.C.). The book is a masterpiece of Hebrew literature and is one of the most powerful books in the Bible. It is a book of warning and of hope. It is a book which has inspired many people throughout the centuries.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET
JEREMIAH.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHET JEREMIAH. Chapter I. The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the womb, I knew thee, and before thou wast born, I sanctified thee: and I have appointed thee a prophet unto the nations. Then said I, O Lord, I cannot speak: for I am a child. Then said the Lord, Behold, I am with thee, and will preserve thee, saith the Lord. Then said I, O Lord, I have seen peace, and I have seen war: for my face is not turned away from thee, neither have I been backward, neither have I hid myself from thee: for I have seen thy secret counsel, and thy covenant with the house of Israel, and thou hast said unto me, Stand up, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have chosen thee before all men, and have known thee, and have appointed thee a prophet and a nation. Then said I, O Lord, I have seen peace, and I have seen war: for my face is not turned away from thee, neither have I been backward, neither have I hid myself from thee: for I have seen thy secret counsel, and thy covenant with the house of Israel, and thou hast said unto me, Stand up, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have chosen thee before all men, and have known thee, and have appointed thee a prophet and a nation. Then said I, O Lord, I have seen peace, and I have seen war: for my face is not turned away from thee, neither have I been backward, neither have I hid myself from thee: for I have seen thy secret counsel, and thy covenant with the house of Israel, and thou hast said unto me, Stand up, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have chosen thee before all men, and have known thee, and have appointed thee a prophet and a nation.

JEREMIAH I

1. The word of the Lord came unto me, saying, Before I formed thee in the womb, I knew thee, and before thou wast born, I sanctified thee: and I have appointed thee a prophet unto the nations. 2. Then said I, O Lord, I cannot speak: for I am a child. 3. Then said the Lord, Behold, I am with thee, and will preserve thee, saith the Lord. 4. Then said I, O Lord, I have seen peace, and I have seen war: for my face is not turned away from thee, neither have I been backward, neither have I hid myself from thee: for I have seen thy secret counsel, and thy covenant with the house of Israel, and thou hast said unto me, Stand up, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have chosen thee before all men, and have known thee, and have appointed thee a prophet and a nation. 5. Then said I, O Lord, I have seen peace, and I have seen war: for my face is not turned away from thee, neither have I been backward, neither have I hid myself from thee: for I have seen thy secret counsel, and thy covenant with the house of Israel, and thou hast said unto me, Stand up, and say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, I have chosen thee before all men, and have known thee, and have appointed thee a prophet and a nation.

148

JEREMIAH I. 11.

11 And he said unto me, Jeremiah, what see thou? and I answered, I see thee. 12 And he said unto me, What sayest thou? and I answered, I say that thou art a prophet. 13 And he said unto me, How sayest thou so? and I answered, Because thou sayest, I will be as a prophet unto the multitude.

CHAP. II. JEREMIAH IN THE WOODS OF BETHEL.

14 And the word of the Lord came unto me in the fourth year of Zedekiah the king of Judah, saying, 15 Thus saith the Lord God, the God of Israel, saying, I have spoken against this house, and against the city, because of the evil which they have done: and I will bring it down, and will lay it desolate, and will say, Woe unto the city that is called by my name, because they have forsaken me, saith the Lord. 16 And ye shall say, Why hath the Lord God done thus to this land? and ye shall answer, Because they have forsaken the Lord their God, and have served other gods, and have despised his words, saying, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for we will have peace, because we are quiet.

JEREMIAH. II.

17 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Thy wrath is kindled against me, and thou hast said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for I have been at peace, because I have said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword.

150

JEREMIAH. II.

18 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Thy wrath is kindled against me, and thou hast said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for I have been at peace, because I have said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword.

149

JEREMIAH. II.

17 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Thy wrath is kindled against me, and thou hast said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for I have been at peace, because I have said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword.

150

JEREMIAH. II.

18 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Thy wrath is kindled against me, and thou hast said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for I have been at peace, because I have said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword.

150

JEREMIAH. II.

18 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Thy wrath is kindled against me, and thou hast said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for I have been at peace, because I have said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword.

151

JEREMIAH. II.

19 Thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, saying, Thy wrath is kindled against me, and thou hast said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword: for I have been at peace, because I have said, I will not see affliction, neither will I see sword.

JEREMIAH III. IV.

 1. Jeremiah's address to the people of Judah.—The prophet's address to the people of Judah is a powerful and moving appeal. He begins by reminding them of the covenant between God and their fathers, and of the many times that God has forgiven their iniquities. He then rebukes them for their unfaithfulness, and for their refusal to return to God. He concludes with a promise of mercy and forgiveness for those who will turn back to God.

2. The covenant between God and Israel.—The covenant between God and Israel is a central theme in the Bible. It is a promise of blessing and protection for those who are faithful to God, and a warning of judgment for those who are unfaithful. The covenant is first made with Abraham, and then renewed with Moses on Mount Sinai. It is a covenant of love and grace, and it is the foundation of the Jewish faith.

3. The prophet's rebuke of the people.—The prophet's rebuke of the people is a powerful and moving appeal. He begins by reminding them of the covenant between God and their fathers, and of the many times that God has forgiven their iniquities. 170 JEREMIAH VII VIII
 170:1-10 The Lord says that the Jews will be taken away from their land because they have forsaken the Lord their God. They have built high places and altars for other gods, and they have not listened to the voice of the Lord. Therefore, says the Lord, I will bring this nation into the land which I have sworn to give to your fathers, but I will not dwell there. I will bring them into the land which I have sworn to give to your fathers, but I will not dwell there. I will bring them into the land which I have sworn to give to your fathers, but I will not dwell there. I will bring them into the land which I have sworn to give to your fathers, but I will not dwell there.

JEREMIAH. XII. XIII. 49

Chapter 13 contains the text of the prophecy which is the subject of this chapter. It is a prophecy of the destruction of the temple and the city of Jerusalem, and the scattering of the people of Judah among the nations. The text is divided into two parts, the first part (verses 1-14) and the second part (verses 15-27). The first part is a prophecy of the destruction of the temple and the city, and the second part is a prophecy of the scattering of the people.

The text is written in a prophetic style, with a strong emphasis on the power and authority of God. The language is often figurative and symbolic, and the tone is one of warning and judgment. The text is a powerful message of the consequences of disobedience to God's will.

JEREMIAH XXX. XXX.

1. Behold, I will bring upon this land, and upon the inhabitants thereof, says the Lord, all that I have spoken by the prophets of the Lord. And it shall come to pass, that the land shall be desolate, and the cities shall be without inhabitant. And the mountains shall be smitten, and the hills shall be laid waste. And the great cities shall be ruined, and the strongholds shall be broken down. And the land shall be a wilderness, and the cities shall be a solitude. And the land shall be as a plain, and the cities shall be as a solitude. And the land shall be as a plain, and the cities shall be as a solitude. And the land shall be as a plain, and the cities shall be as a solitude.

JEREMIAH XXX. XXX.

1. Behold, I will bring upon this land, and upon the inhabitants thereof, says the Lord, all that I have spoken by the prophets of the Lord. And it shall come to pass, that the land shall be desolate, and the cities shall be without inhabitant. And the mountains shall be smitten, and the hills shall be laid waste. And the great cities shall be ruined, and the strongholds shall be broken down. And the land shall be a wilderness, and the cities shall be a solitude. And the land shall be as a plain, and the cities shall be as a solitude. And the land shall be as a plain, and the cities shall be as a solitude.

397 JEREMIAH, XXXIII, XXXIII.

1. And thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The Lord saith, I will bring again the remnant of this people, which I have scattered abroad in the land of the Chaldeans, and will bring them again to this land, and will build them up, and will plant them, saith the Lord.

2. And thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The Lord saith, I will bring again the remnant of this people, which I have scattered abroad in the land of the Chaldeans, and will bring them again to this land, and will build them up, and will plant them, saith the Lord.

3. And thou shalt say to them, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, The Lord saith, I will bring again the remnant of this people, which I have scattered abroad in the land of the Chaldeans, and will bring them again to this land, and will build them up, and will plant them, saith the Lord.

JEREMIAH, XXXV, XXXV.
1-4 The word of the Lord came to me in the year that they began to eat bread without leaven, because they had no barley, wheat, or other grain, and the king had made the land without leaven.
5 And I was in the house of the Lord, and the priests were standing before me, and they were silent, because they had no words to speak.
6 And the Lord said to me, saying, Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, saying, I have spoken against this house, saying, It shall be desolate, as the house of Shiloh, and I have made it a desolation, as the house of Shiloh.
7 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
8 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
9 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
10 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.

11 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
12 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
13 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
14 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
15 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
16 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.

JEREMIAH, XXXV, XXXV.
17 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
18 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
19 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
20 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
21 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
22 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.

23 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
24 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
25 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
26 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.
27 For ye have despised my word, saying, We will not be made desolate, as the house of Shiloh, because we have the altar of the Lord, and we have the law of the Lord.

JEREMIAH XXXVI XXXVII

Then had I said, they will not be so; for I was told that they were not so. ...

Then said I, when I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, ...

Then said I, when I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, ...

EZEKIEL.

INTRODUCTION. We have already noticed that Ezekiel was a Jew who lived in the time and locality of the Babylonian captivity. He was a contemporary of Daniel, and had his own share of the sufferings of the captivity. He was a native of Beth-lehem in Judah, and was about seventy years of age when he was taken into captivity. He was a man of high character, and his prophecies are full of wisdom and power. He was a contemporary of Daniel, and had his own share of the sufferings of the captivity. He was a native of Beth-lehem in Judah, and was about seventy years of age when he was taken into captivity. He was a man of high character, and his prophecies are full of wisdom and power.

 of Abilene were again being given up as one people and separated from the gathering around the highest point of the mountain (1:1-3).
 The separation of Judah (The kingdom of the south) from the kingdom of Israel (The kingdom of the north) is a political fact which had its origin in the reign of Jeroboam (1 Kings 12:1-16).
 Jeroboam had been made king to save the kingdom
 from the power of the Assyrians, who were about to conquer the whole of the land of Israel. Jeroboam had set up golden calves at Dan and Bethel, and had made himself king
 over Israel. The kingdom of Judah was then under the rule of the Assyrians
 (2 Kings 17:18-23).
 The separation of Judah from Israel was a political fact, but it was also a religious fact. The people of Judah were more loyal to the temple at Jerusalem than the people of Israel were to the calves at Dan and Bethel.
 This was the reason why the Assyrians were able to conquer Israel but not Judah. The people of Judah were more united
 and more loyal to their God than the people of Israel were to their calves. This was the 196 INTRODUCTION TO THE BOOK OF EZEKIEL.

...the vision of Ezekiel is the only one in the Bible which is not a vision of the future, but a vision of the present. The vision of Ezekiel is the only one in the Bible which is not a vision of the future, but a vision of the present. The vision of Ezekiel is the only one in the Bible which is not a vision of the future, but a vision of the present.

THE BOOK OF THE PROPHECY
EZEKIEL.

Chap. I. 1079. It opens by a vision in the fourth year, in the fifth month, in the sixth day of the month, in the fifth day of the month, in the fifth year of the captivity.

Chap. II. 1080. It contains the account of the first vision, in which the prophet saw the throne of God, and the four living creatures which surrounded it. The vision was given to him in the fifth year of the captivity, in the fifth month, in the sixth day of the month, in the fifth day of the month.

EZEKIEL. I.

1. I was in my chamber, and the door was shut, and I was alone, and the Spirit of the Lord came upon me, and I saw visions.

2. And I saw, and behold there stood before me as it were a firmament, and above it as it were a throne, and upon the throne as it were a figure which appeared to be like a man.

EZEKIEL. I.

3. And I saw, and behold there were four living creatures, one on each side of the throne, and they had the likeness of a man, and the likeness of a lion, and the likeness of an ox, and the likeness of an eagle.

4. And each of them had four faces, and each of them had four wings, and they were standing upon their feet, and they were going round about the throne, and they were going round about the throne, and they were going round about the throne.

EZEKIEL, I. II. 307

1. THE VISION.—The prophet Ezekiel, who lived about 600 B.C., was a priest of the temple at Jerusalem. He was taken captive to Babylon in 597 B.C., and lived there for 17 years. During this time he received the visions which he recorded in his book. The first of these visions is the one which is recorded in Chapter I of this book. It is a vision of the throne of God, and of the four living creatures which surround it. The second vision is the one which is recorded in Chapter II. It is a vision of the prophet's commission to go to the Jews who were in Babylon, and to tell them that they must return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple.

2. THE PROPHET'S COMMISSION.—The Lord said to Ezekiel, "I have sent thee to the Jews, who are in Babylon, to tell them that they must return to Jerusalem and rebuild the temple. They have despised my word, and have not listened to my voice. Therefore will I bring upon them all the evil which I have promised to do unto them. But thou shalt be to them as a sign, and as a witness. If they will hear my voice, and will return to Jerusalem, and will rebuild the temple, then will I forgive their iniquities, and will dwell with them, and will be their God. But if they will not hear my voice, and will not return to Jerusalem, and will not rebuild the temple, then will I bring upon them all the evil which I have promised to do unto them. And thou shalt be to them as a sign, and as a witness. For I have sent thee to them, and thou shalt tell them all that I have said unto thee. And they shall know that I am the Lord."

EZEKIEL, VI, VII.

EZEKIEL, X. XI.

11. I have seen all that thou hast done, and thou shalt be silent. I will speak, and I will not be silent, because I have heard, because I have seen. Thou shalt be silent, thou shalt not open thy mouth, for thou art a stone, and thou shalt be silent. I will speak, and I will not be silent, because I have heard, because I have seen. Thou shalt be silent, thou shalt not open thy mouth, for thou art a stone, and thou shalt be silent. I will speak, and I will not be silent, because I have heard, because I have seen. Thou shalt be silent, thou shalt not open thy mouth, for thou art a stone, and thou shalt be silent.

380 EZEKIEL XXXIII XXXIII
 23 And if I have sent any message in the hand of the foreigner, and he will not carry it, nor will he reveal to thee my words which I have sent him, thou shalt be as one that is not, and thou shalt be counted as one that is not.

EZEKIEL XLIII XLIII

14 ¶ Now when he had made an end of measuring the land, he said
15 ¶ to me, Son of man, I have made an end of measuring the land:
16 ¶ I have made an end of measuring the land, and I have made 17 ¶ an end of measuring the land, and I have made an end of 18 ¶ measuring the land, and I have made an end of measuring the
