Christian Classics Ethereal Library

Treasury of David: Volume I

Treasury of David: Volume I

Author(s): Spurgeon, Charles Haddon (1834-1892)

Publisher: Grand Rapids, MI: Christian Classics Ethereal Library

Subjects: The Bible

Old Testament

Special parts of the Old Testament

Contents

The Treasury of David: Volume I	1
Title Pages	1
Preface	3
Index of Authors Quoted or Referred to	4
Psalm I	7
Psalm II	12
Psalm III	18
Psalm IV	24
Psalm V	30
Psalm VI	36
Psalm VII	42
Psalm VIII	48
Psalm IX	57
Psalm X	65
Psalm XI	74
Psalm XII	81
Psalm XIII	86
Psalm XIV	91
Psalm XV	99
Psalm XVI	107
Psalm XVII	118
Psalm XVIII	130
Psalm XIX	147
Psalm XX	163
Psalm XXI	169
Psalm XXII	175

Psalm XXIII	190
Psalm XXIV	201
Psalm XXV	209
Psalm XXVI	222
Indexes	229
Index of Pages of the Print Edition	230

This PDF file is from the Christian Classics Ethereal Library, www.ccel.org. The mission of the CCEL is to make classic Christian books available to the world.

- This book is available in PDF, HTML, and other formats. See http://www.ccel.org/ccel/spurgeon/treasury1.html.
- A free audio narration is available at http://www.ccel.org/ccel/spurgeon/treasury1/mp3.
- Discuss this book online at http://www.ccel.org/node/3687.

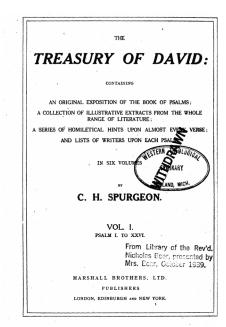

The CCEL makes CDs of classic Christian literature available around the world through the Web and through CDs. We have distributed thousands of such CDs free in developing countries. If you are in a developing country and would like to receive a free CD, please send a request by email to cd-request@ccel.org.

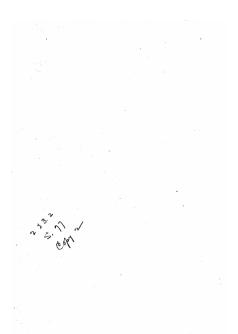

The Christian Classics Ethereal Library is a self supporting non-profit organization at Calvin College. If you wish to give of your time or money to support the CCEL, please visit http://www.ccel.org/give.

This PDF file is copyrighted by the Christian Classics Ethereal Library. It may be freely copied for non-commercial purposes as long as it is not modified. All other rights are reserved. Written permission is required for commercial use.

PREFACE.

MY Perface shall at least possess the virtue of brevity, as I find it difficult to impart to it any other.

The deligitful study of the Padams has yielded me boundless profit and ever-growing pleasure; common graittude constrains me to communicate to others a portion of the benefit, with the prayer that it may induce them to search further for themselves. That I have nothing better of my own to offer upon this periess book is to me matter of deepest regret; that I have anything whatever to present is subject for devout graitfuled to the Lord of grace. I have done my best, but, conscious of many defects, I heartily wish I could have done far better.

The Exposition here given is my own. I consulted a few authors before penning it, to aid me in interpretation and arouse my thoughts; but, still I can claim originality for my comments, at least so I honestly think. Whether they are better or worse for that, I know not; at least I know I have sought beavenly guidance while writing them, and therefore I look for a blessing on the printing of them.

The printing of them.

The properties of the properties of the printing of the most of them of the printing of them.

The printing of them.

The reserviceable to others, if I reserved portions of my reading upon the various Palms; those reserves soon acquired considerable bulk, so much so that even in this volume only specimens are given and not the bulk.

One thing the reader will please clearly to understand, and I beg him to bear it in mind: I am Jet from endorsy at I have quoted. I am neither responsible for the scholarship or orthodoxy of the writers. The names are given that each author may bear his own burden; and a variety of writers have been quoted that the thoughts of many minds might be before the reader. Still I trust nothing evel has been admired; if it be so it is an oversight.

reader. Still I trust nothing evil has been admitteu; n n events plat.

The research expended on this volume would have occupied far too much of my time, had not my friend and anamenesis, Mr. John L. Keys, most diligently aided me in investigations at the British Museum; Dr. Williams's Library, and other tressuries of theological Ione. With his help I have ramesched books by the bundred, often without finding a memorable line as a reward, but at other times with the most satisfactory result. Readers little know how great labour the finding of but one pertinent extract may involve; labour certainly I have not spared: my earnest prayer is that some measure of good may come of it to my brethren in the ministry and to the church at large.

The Hints to Preachers are very simple, and an apology is due to my ministerial readers for inserting them, but I humbly hope they may render assistance to the property of the property of

INDEX OF AUTHORS QUOTED OR REFERRED TO.

Augustine (353—429), 4, 6, 25, 30, 01, 72, 77, 93, 102, 108, 115, 137, 160, 168, 170, 180, 198, 223, 277, 280, 318, 319, 322, 357, 374, 409, 423

Autin, William (1637), 207-209

Ayguss, Michael (1410), 104, 146

Bescher, Henry Ward (166), 131, 357

Bellarmins, Robert (1461–151), 373

Bellarmins, Robert (1461–1611), 373, 383

Bernard (1691–1173), 383, 486

Bernard (1691–1173), 383, 486

Bernard (1691–1173), 383, 486

Bernard (1691–1173), 383, 486

Bibb, Cricial and Explanatory Pocket, 383, 484

Bibb, Cricial and Explanatory Pocket, 383, 484

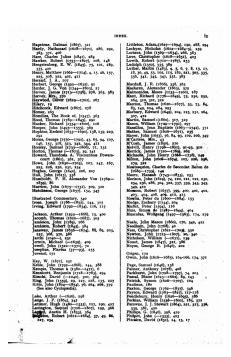

Bibb, Cricial and Explanatory Pocket, 383, 484

Bibb, Raigion Tata Society's Comment, 3, 184

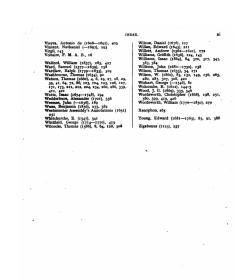

Bibb, Raigion Tata Society's Comment, 184

Bibb, Raigion Tata Society Comment, 184

Bibb, Raigio

| The content of the difficult Passages in Patts, 21(1), 12(1), 1

TILLE—This Peulin may be regarded as The Presence Present, having in §i. a notification of the containts of the endire Book. It is the predintite desire to teach the age to be seen that the containts of the containts of the seen for the seen to the seen for seen to the seen that the containts of the seen that the seen that

EXPOSITION.

BLESSED is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of the

ul. But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he ate day and night.

But his delight is in the law of the Lond; and in his law doth he ceilitat day and night.

"BLESSESD."—see how this Book of Palmis opens with a hencelletin, even did the famous Sermon of our Lord upon the Monar! The word translated pleased "is a very expressive one. The original word is plural, and it is a construction of the least of the le

He walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly,
Nor standeth in the way of sinners.
Nor SITTETH in the SEAT of SCORNFUL.

When men are living in sin they go from bad to worse. At first they merely walk in the counsel of the careless and ungodly, who forget God—the evil is rather practical than habitual—but after that, they become habituated to evil, and they stand in the way of open stanears who wilfully violate God's commandments; and if let alone, they go one step further, and become themselves petitient teachers and tempters of others, and thus they sid to the seal of the scarnial. They have did not become themselves petitient teachers and tempters of others, and the silves of other of the scarnial. They have did not communion with such that the blessings of God belong, can bold no communion with such and are looked up to by others as Masters in Bellal. But the blessings of God belong, can bold no communion, with such things from him as garments spotted by the field; he can be such that they developed the seal of the sea

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

4 The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

We have now come to the second head of the Pagin. In this were the contrast of the ille-state of the wided is employed to heighten the colouring of that fine and pleasant picture which percedent. The more forcible translation of the Vilgate and of the Septingaint version is—" Not set the unpoplit, not so." And we are hereby and of the Septingaint version is—" Not set the unpoplit, not so." And was a the promises " and yet this is just the condition of the ungoodly. Mark the use of the promises" and yet this is just the condition of the ungoodly. Mark the use of the beginness in evil, and are the least of forcilevely of interno. "Oil if such the desire the beginness in evil, and are the least of forcilevely of interno." Oil if such the the data of those who quietly continue in their morality, and neglect their God, what is a negative description of the ungoodly, and the second is the positive picture. Here is their character—" heng are like chaff," intrinsically worthless, dead, undown—" the unit defent damage," " death shall haver the with list terrible biast into the fire in which they shall be utterly consumed.

**Exercises to more than the character is the independent one cinemes in

5 Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

S Interested the disputation of the righteness, assume in the plugment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteness, assume that the plugment is a single plugment of the righteness, and the plugment is a single plugment of the plugm

6 For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the godly shall perish.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAVINGS.

Flykele Pania—At the back of the Carticles is called the Song of Songs by a Hebraian, It being the most excellent, so this Pania may not untilty be entitled, the Pania of Palmin, for It contains in it the very gith and quintessence of Carticlanity. What Jerone saith on St. Pari Epities, the same may I say of this matter. This Pania carries bissections in the frontiepiece; it begins where we all hope to ent: it may well be called a Carticlan's Golde, for it discovers the quick-hope to ent: it may well be called a Carticlan's Golde, for it discovers the quick-hope to ent: it may well be called a Carticlan's Golde, for it discovers the quick-hope to ent: it may well be called a Carticlan's Golde, for it discovers the quick-hope to entitle the parison of the description of the description of the description of the description of the parison of

—John Frij. B.A., 1842.

Verse I.—The passimist saith more to the point about true happliness in this hord Pashin than any one of the philosophers, or all of them put (agether; they than the text the instant. God hash here just the brief into on them And —John Trapp, 1860.

In the passion of the philosophers of the passion of the philosophers, or all of the passion of the passio who lives for the accomplishment of the end for which God created him—Adam Verse 1—" The absolute in its the counted of the nappelly." Mark certain circumstances of their differing characters and conduct. I. The unpoply men has mappedly must be accomplished the conduction of the co

"Let the wicked torsake its wax". Now, blessed is he who stands not it isned a minut. The scorm-the abrought, in reference to himself, all religion and moral feeling to an end. He has sat down—is utterly confirmed in implety, and makes a mock at its. His conscience is search, and he is a believer in all unbellet. Now, blessed is the man who sits not down in his sax;—Advant Ciarke.

It is not not be sits not down in his sax;—Advant Ciarke.

It is not not all the sits of the sits of pearl of great price, to love the law of God and to be separate from the ungodly, all blesschnesses belong to that man; but, if he does not find this jewel, we have the pears of the pure, so all things are lovely unto the loving, all things good unto the spood; and things are lovely unto the loving, all things good unto the spood; he is not a creature. He is perverse unto the pure so all things good unto the spood; he is not a creature. He is perverse unto the pure so the spood of the spood of respeaks of is the only delight that settler blushes nor looks pale; the only delight and gives a repart without an after recoining; the only delight that stands in nativuction with all tense; and like Æssea Anchyres, carries his parents upon nativuction with all tense; and like Æssea Anchyres, carries his parents upon Verse 2—"In All that set which meditate." In the palesset text there is a world holiness and spirituality; and if we in prayer and dependence upon God did with the parents upon the control of the c

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Richard Source.

"All have no rest, but in a nook, with the book.—Thomas a Kempus, visit."

"The "Ameliata." Meditation doth discriminate and characterise a man; rise 2.—" Meditate." Meditation doth discriminate and characterise a man; when the same of the heart, whether the good or had; let me allude 1; is the same than the same of the sam to medication snows wat in the neart—rooms wanter Saints springed.

Meditation chews the cud, and gets the sweetness and mutritive virtue of the Word into the heart and life: this is the way the goldy bring forth much fruit.

The naturalities observe that it to uphold and accommodate hoddly life, there are divers sorts of faculties communicated, and these among the rest: I. An attractive faculty, to retain it to the faculty to assume and draw in the food; 2. A returnive faculty, to retain it augmenting faculty, for drawing to perfection. Meditation is all these. It helps updoment, wisdom, and faith to ponder, discere, and credit the things which reading

PSALM THE FIRST

ons.

Gerse 3 (last clause).—Outward prosperity, if it follow close walking with God, ry sweet; as the cipher, when it follows a figure, adds to the number, though enothing in itself.—John Trapp.

very sweet; as its cipper, when it follows a figure, also to the number, though a be nothing in liver," see East New Section 1. The state of the section of will return.—"Interior the myselfy and interior to death, which sweeps away the soul of the ngody."

Verse S.—"Therefore the ungedig shall not stand in the fundament," etc. And any not a reason abo be conceived thus, why the ungedig can never come to be of its congregation of the righteous; the righteous go a way that God knows, and its consistent of the standard of the standard of the congregation of the righteous go a way that God knows, and the control of the standard of the righteous and the standard of the standard

Verse 1.—May fournish an excellent text upon "Progress in Sin," of "The Purity of the Christian," or "The Blessedness of the Righteous." Upon the last subject speak of the believer as neason—1. By God; 2. In Christ; 3. With all blessings; 4. In all direcumnances; 5. Through time and eternity; 6. To the highest degree.

FSALM THE FIRST.

Vers 1.—Teaches a gody man to beware, (1) of the opinions, (2) of the practical a, and (2) of the company and association of sinula men. Show how meditation are considered to the company and association of sinula men. Show how meditation The instantaling and progressive nature of sin.—J. Mercian.

The sinulation with the verse of the company of difference between the Verse 2.—The Works or Good. 1. The believer's delight in tit. 2. The believer behavior of the company of these was love. Werse 2.—The Works or Good. 1. The believer's delight in tit. 2. The believer is not the believer to delight in. III. How he shows his delight, thinks of it, reads to peak of it, obeyed, it, does not delight in well. "A. "Constant of the progressive of the progressive of the constant of the company of the constant of th sense, but it warrented by the postic perm of the Peatm, which naturally falls (tole four stitumes of three cores cach.

PSALM II.

EXPOSITION.

WHY do the heathern rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth set Themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lonis, and against this antionted, asying.

We have, in these first three verses, a description of the harter of human nature against the Christ of God. No better comment in needed upon it than the apostolic song in Acts iv. 27, 28: "Fee of a truth against thy holy called Jesus, when their control of Jesus, we have the proposition of Irrad, were subtracted to Jesus, when they control of Irrad, were subtracted logically and the proposition of Irrad, were subtracted logically and the proposition of Irrad, were subtracted logically and the subtraction of Irrad, were subtracted logically and the subtraction of Irrad, were subtracted to Irrad, and Irrad, Ir throne of power in the midst of his church. In him is Zion's best safeguard; let her citizens be glad in him.

Against his throws in waste they rear.

All is rising work, with angry roar.

It is will declare the decree: the Loop hath said unto me, Thou art my son; this day have! begotten thee.

8 Ask of me, and I shall give thee the heathen for this inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.

9 Thou shall break them with a rod of iron; thou shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.

It is a for the vessel. This of a demantic form, for now models of the process in the state of the s

To Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

II Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.

PSALM THE SECOND.

The scene again changes, and counsel is given to those who have taken counsel points. They are exhorted to obey, and give the kins of homage and affection "Be visite." It is always wise to be willing to be instructed, especially when the instruction tends to the salvation of the sool. "Be wise now, Bredger," and the instruction tends to the salvation of the sool. "Be wise now, Bredger, when the salvation of the sool. "Be wise now, Bredger, and the instruction tends to the salvation of the sool." Be wise now, Bredger, and the salvation of the sool. "Be wise now, Bredger, and the salvation of the sool. "Be wise now, Bredger, and the salvation of the sool." Be wise now, Bredger, and a salvation of the sool in the salvation of the sool in the salvation of the salva

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Verst 1.—"Why do nations make a roise," tumultuste or rage? The Hebrew verb is not expressive of an internal feeling, but of the ourward agitation which used as an ember of poular commontion, both in the Serfptures and the classics. The past tense of this verb (olay have they reged) refers to the commotion as a laready begin, while the future in the next clause expresses its continuance.—J. A. Alexander, 1850.

Rage." The word with which Paul renders this in the Greek de-rage, pride, and restiveness, as of horses that neigh, and rush into the battle.

**EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

**Residue, from Sustant, to most or nedgh, properly applied to a high-mettled horse. See Acts iv. 25.

**Verse 1—"**A can fishing." A medal was struck by Dioeletian, which still remains bearing the interplation. The name of Christian being extinguished." And a displayed the control of the c wings to a bird. The law of Christ is no more as bands and cords, but as girdles and garters which gird up his loins and expedite his course.—John Trapp.

Verzes 5, 9—It is easy for God to destroy his fees . . . . Behold Phranch, his tees me, his bound, and this horse protunt and phunging, and attaking like lead the me, his bound and horse product and phunging, and attaking like lead God'st classes. Of thirty, Roman emperors, governors of provinces, and other God'st classes. Of thirty, Roman emperors, governors of provinces, and other god of the control of the physicians were put to death because they could not adult the extension of the control of Verse 6.—" Yet have I set my King." Notice—1. The royal office and character of our glorious Redeemer: he is a King. "This mane he hath on his vesture and on his thigh." Rev. xiz. 16. 2. The authority by which he religar; he is "my King," any 50 det he Father, and I have set him my Four evertainties; "The Father flegget his authority, but I own it; I have set him. I have "given him to be head over a him, and things to the church." 3. His particular kingdom over which he rules; I til over "my holy hill of John"—an cunionat type of the goopel church. The temples were a supplied to the church, it is his had-equarters, and the piace of his peculiar residence. Notice the firmness of the divise purpose with respect unto this matter. "Yet have I set "Mr King." it. S., wastereve be the point of his parties to the contrary, he reign by the statest command—supplied to advised, 1022—1000. In threshold King, First, his enemies King; secondig, his saints' King; iderday, his Father's King First, Christ in his enemies King; showed his his saints' King; iderday, his Father's King First. Christ in his enemies Christ is a King show all king. What are all the nightly me, the great, the homourable of the command of th

Secondify. Jesus Christ is his saints' King. He is King of the bad, and of the good; but as for the wicked, he rules over them by his power and might; but the saints, he rules in them by his Spirit and graces. Oh! this is Christ's spiritur sciences, over their judgements and under standings, and nobody hath anything to do here but Christ. Christ is not only he King of nations, but the King of saints; the one he rules over, the other h rules in.

Thirdly, Jesus Christ is his Father's King too, and so his Father calls him: "I have set mg King upon mp holy fill of Zhon." Well may be be our King, when he is related to the State of the

PSALM THE SECOND

17 Christ's

of this world, and so he is King of nations—Condensed from William Days's Cleints Femous 17ths, 1965. The name "Non" Against as "the diseast view "possible the Non-" Zion." The name "Non" Against as "the diseast view "possible the name of the nam

Verse 7.—The dispute concerning the eternal filiation of our Lord betrays mor of presumptuous curiosity than of reverent faith. It is an attempt to explai where it is far better to adore. We could give rival expositions of this verse, but we forbear. The controversy is one of the most unprofitable which ever engage the near of theologisms—C. H. S.

Verse 8.—" Ask of me." The priesthood doth not appear to be settled upon Carist by any other expression than this, "Ask of me." The Psain speaks of his investiture in his kingly office; the apostle refers this to his priesthood, his comission, for both took date at the same time; both bestowed, both confirmed b mission, for both took date at the same time; both bestowed, both confirmed between the confirmed by the confirmed by

After his resurrection, the relater gives them a power and command of akting— Verse 8.—As the limner looks on the person whose picture he would take, and draw his lines to answer him with the nearest similitate that he can, as God looks in give; yet so that Christ hath the pre-emissions in all. Every saint must suffer, because Christ suffered: Christ must not have a delicate body under a credited herefore the contract of the contract of the contract of the contract of the cannot be so exact as that engineed on golds. Now, our contractly to Carls appear, and the sold of the contract of the contract of the contract of the contract of me, "as the Contract of the contract of the contract of the contract of me," as the contract of the contract o italies, indirecting that they are not translations of the Herice, but siddlifous made for the purpose of chicaking the meaning. Now if the "me" and the "for "as left out, the verse will read thus, "Ask of me, and I shall give the beathen, this contract the contract of the state of the stat

Verse 9.—The "red" has a variety of meanings in Scripture. It might be different materials, as it was employed for different proposes. At an early period for the proposes. At a contribution of the proposes of the red proposes and the proposes of the red proposes. At a contribution of the proposes of the red proposes of the red proposes of the red proposes. At a contribution of the proposes of the red pr will not merely brutes, but it will break. "Thou shell break them sith a rod of irea."

Now It is just use he complete breaking as would not readily be effected excepting.

"Thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel." The completeness of the destruction, however, depends on two things. Even an iron rod if gently used or used against a hard and firm substance, might cause little injury; but, in the and it is applied to what will prove as brittle and trangible as "a potter's vessel."

"Thou shalt dash them in pieces." Here, as is other respects, we must fee that the predictions and promises of this Pisalu were but very perturbly Julillies that the predictions and promises of this Pisalu were but very perturbly Julillies and promises of the pisalu were but very perturbly Julillies and promises of the pisalu were but very perturbly Julillies and promises and to the pisalu provided the pisalu pisalu provided the day when the spiritual David kindl come in glory and in majest 22 Zion's King, with a rod of iron to dash in pieces the great antichristical confederacy of kings and peoples, and to take possession of his long-tromised and dearly your of the Lord draws stabe. Dowlet Pleaton.

Verse 10.—" Be wise now, floredyor, O ye kings," etc. As Jesus is King of king and Judge of places, so the copoel is the teacher of the greatest and wisest. If any are so great as to sporm its administrations, fool will make little of them; and if the contract of them. The group lates as high tone before the rules; of the earth, and they who preach it should, like Knox and Meiville, magnify their office by bold rebukes and a scallion in the deevil's kitchem.—C.H. S. C. described sycophast is only fit to be a scallion in the devil's kitchem.—C.H. S. C.

Verse 11.—" Serse the Lord with fear." This fear of God qualifies our joy. They ask tract fear from joy, joy with become light and wasten; and 17 our abstract joy and better light in the lower light and wasten; and 17 our abstract joy and the lower light in the light; in the lower light in the lower light in the light in the lower light in the light in the light in the light in the lower light in the light in the lower light in the light in large light in the light in large light in the light in large light light in large light in large light in large light in the light in large lig their own works; nor without that righteousness, on the other, on which they rest and in which they rejoice in the mercy of God. It is the work of the whole lives on these characters to accuse themselves in all things, not in all things to eliveste these characters to accuse themselves in all things, and in all things to eliverate the characters of the second of the characters of the characters of the characters of the feareth alway." Thus, between the uppers and enther milli-cone (Deut. xxx's, 05, they are broken in pieces and humbled, and the husks thus being bruised off, they come of the self-prevention of the characters of the c

PSALM THE SECONI

Verse 11.—The fear of God promotes spiritual joy; it is the morning star which ushers in the sunlight of comfort. "Walking in the fear of God, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost." God mingles joy with fear, that fear may not be slavish—Thomas Watson, 1860.

Verse 12.—" Kits," a sign of love among equals: Gen. xxxiii. 4; 1 Sam. xx 41; Rom. xvi. 16; 1 Cor. xvi. 20. Of subjection in inferiors: 1 Sam. x. 1. O relligious adoration in worshippers: 1 Kings xix. 18; Job xxxi. 27.—John Richardson Rishon of Ardada. 1655.

Wrest 12.—" Kits the Son, lets he be engry." From the Person, the Son, a will be some property of the Person of the Son, lets he seem of the Son of the So ways: as thy kimman, as thy sovereign; at thy going, at thy coming; at this may be applied to the second of the se • Gregory.

-Shows us the nature of sin, and the terrible results of it if it

Whole Pealm.—Shows us the nature of sin, and the terrible results of it if it could reign.

Nothing is more irradional than irreligion. A weighty thems. The reasons why sinners rebel against God, stated, restrict, insmetted, and repented of convening display of human sin in man's battred of the Mediator.

Yerse 1 and 2.—Opposition to the goopst uncessoable and ineflectual—Two sermons by John Neudon.

We have a serious the serious serious since the serious serious by John Neudon.

It will. Insamment as men oppose of certificial in a since good to hang our travit upon the multitude for their number, the carrant for their soal, the mighty for their countenance, me are the constant of the serious serious serious constants. The constant is serious serious serious constants of the serious serious serious constants. The serious serious serious constants of the serious serious serious constants. The serious serious serious constants of the serious seri

PSALM THE SECOND.

he goopel, a school for those who would have how to rule and judge well. They consider its principles, its exemples, its spirit, etc.

on the principles, its exemples, its spirit, etc.

In the principles, its exemples, its spirit, etc.

In the principles, its principles, its spirit, etc.

In the principles, its principles, its spirit, etc.

In the principles, its principles of spirit, its principles of spirit, its principles, its principles of spirit, its principles of

PSALM III.

. 8). EXPOSITION.

ORD, how are they increased that trouble me | many are they that rise up against me.

a Many there be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God.

Many here be which say of my soul, There is no help for him in God.

Self and the s

"O may my heart in tune be found Like David's harp of solemn sound."

THE PSALMS.

In the from the seventh haven, and he hath. 'head me not of his hely hill.' ' wers to me from the seventh haven, and he hath.' 'head me not of his hely hill.' ' wers to prayers are sweet cordulat for the soul. We need not tear a frowning fld while we rejole in a prayer-hearing God.

Here stands another Selah. Rest awhile, O tried believer, and change the strain a ofter air.

routh while we rejoice in a przyw-hearing Gor a a softer air.

5 I laid me down and elept; I awaked; for the Lorn sustained me.

5 I laid me down and elept; I awaked; for the Lorn sustained me.

6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves gainst me round about.

10 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of people, that have set themselves gainst me round about.

11 David's 1afts enabled him to 1tt down; suchely would certainly have hept that of rouths, surrounded by fost. "So he given this beloved sleep". There is a sleep for the present the state of th betakes himself to his knees, and cries about to Jehovah.

7 Arise, O Lour; save me, O my God; for thou hast smitten all mine enemies splow the cheek bone; i thou hast broken he teeth of the ungodly.

In only loops in his God, but that is so strong a confidence, that he feels the all it well. He compares his enemies to will beasts, and he eclares that God hath broken their jaws, so that they could not hiptor him; "Thou had leaken the feels' god ground. They had spoken against him; "God, therefore, has smillent them upon the cheek home. They seemed as if they would devour him with their months; God and hroken their teeth, and let them say what they will, their totalliss jaws whose head she home. They seemed said they would devour him with their months; God and hroken their teeth, and let them say what they will, their totalliss jaws whose head is broken, and with enemies whose teeth are dashed from their jaws!

8 Salvation belongeth unto the LORD: thy blessing is upon thy people,

Solah. This verse contains the sum and substance of Galvinshite dectrine. Search This verse contains the sum and substance of Galvinshite dectrine. Search Scripture through, and you must, if you read it with a candid mind, be persuaded of the search of t

PSALM THE THIRD.

—With regard to the authority of the Trans, it becomes us to speak, considering the very opposite opinions which have been offered thy stebhard organizations. In the present day, it is too much early stebhard organizations are not supported by the property of the present day, in and a, in many instances, inconsistent with the subject-matter self: while Augustian, Theodoret, and various other early writtens (church, regard them as a part of the inspired text; and the Jewa too make them a part of their chant, and that reablus to comment

a prayer waten is prime of an inaximation of worty specenes.

Whole Pashin—Thus you may planly see how God hath wrought in his church in old time, and therefore should not discourage yourselves for any adode change; but with David, acknowledge your size is God, declare unto him how many there have been been supported by the state of the property of say you, withDwid," Thou, O. Lord, art my defender, and the liften up of my heart. Persuade yourselves, with Dwid, that the Lord is your defender, who had now passed you round about, and it, as it were, a "abid!" that doth cover you on every the lift of lift of

Verse 1.—Abbalom's faction, like a newball, strangely gathered in its motion David peaks of it is one sameard; and well he might; that is people he had so man ways obliged, should almost generally revolt from him, and rebel against him, and cooke for their heads uch a stilly, gloddy young folior as Abasion was. How slipper as the state of th

Verse 2.—When the believer questions the power of God, or his interest in it, his joy gusheth out as blood out of a broken vein. This verse is a sore stal indeed.—William Gurnail.

Verse 2.—A child of God startles at the very thought of despairing of help in Cod; you cannot ver him with naviting so much as if you offer to persuade him, central control of the control of the control of the control of the enemies said of him, as Heeskish spread Rabshakeh's bisaphemous letter before the Lord; they say, "There is no help for me in the "', "but, Lord, if it be so, I sun undone. They say to my soul, "There is no salestion" (for so the word is) "he was a sun to be supported by the control of the control of the control of XXXV. S), and that shall saiting ma, and in due time silence them.—Methem Henry,

Versez 2, 4, 8, —" Stale 722. Much has been written on this word, and still immensing does not appear to be wholly determined. It is rendered in the Targum or Chaldes paraphrase, roly, itealini, per ear, or its dernity. In the Latita Vaigate, and the property of the pro

PSALM THE THIRD.

er respecting its

sat, 'yo satat, to ascend. Those who are disposed to enquire further respecting its meaning, and the uses of musical pauses in general, may be referred to Ugolin, "Thesau. Antiq. Sacr.," tom. xxii.—Abert Barnes, 1888.

were, e.m., h.m., attest Paslma, in Klitis Cachopedia of Biblical Literature.

Vers 3.—"Live up of up held." God will have the body partiace with the soul—as he matters of god up to matters of joy; the lambors silhes in the light of the candle within.—Richard Shis, in the light
There is a litting up of the head by devation to office, as with Pharach's butler; in bedlit haffer sidents, in jadious after sorrow, in restorted and res fall, in levy after a temporary defeat; in all these respects the Lord is the litter up of our head—C. B. S.

Verse 4.—When prayer leads the van, in due time deliverance brings up the rear,—Thomas Waison.

Verse 4.—" He heard me." I have often heard persons say in prayer, "Thomat a prayer-hearing and a prayer-answering God," but the expression contains a superfluity, since for God to hear is, according to Scripture, the same thing as to answer.—G. H. S.

Verse 5.—" I laid me down and slopt; I anawked: for the Lord standard me." The title of the Paint tells as when bayd had this sweet nights rest; not when he key on his bed of down in his statety palace at Jerusalem, but when he fed for the law of the la

Verse 5.—Gurnall, who wrote when there were houses on old London Bridge has quaintly said, "Do you not think that they sleep as soundly who dwell or London Bridge as they who live at Whitehall or Cheapside? for they know that the waves which rush under them cannot hurt them. Even so may the saints requietly over the floods or trouble or death, and fear no Ill."

Vers 7.—7 Aris, O. Lord, "Jebovah! This is a common scriptural mode of calling upon God to manifest his presence and his power, either in wrath or favour. as periods of lancillon or of submer, out of which he is beaught to rouse himself. "Sare me," even me, of whom they say there is no help for him in God. "Sare me, of word me, of whom they any there is no help for him in God. "Sare me, of my God," mine ty covenant and mutual engagement, to whom It therefore have a

Organical Control of the company of the control of

or the first magnitude/of whom the world was not worthy, "Had trails of cross mockings and countings, they were seals with the sword." The property of the state of the state

As a curious instance of Luther's dogmatical interpretations, we give very considerable extracts from his rendering of this Psalm without in any degree endorsing them

Whole Fradm.—That the meaning of this Pralm is not historical, is manifered from many particulars, which militare against its being so understood. And first of all, there is this which the blessed Augustine has remarked; it that the work of all, there is this which the blessed Augustine has remarked; that the work of all, there is this which the blessed Augustine has remarked; that the work of the control of

PSALM THE THIRE

Verse 2.—"There is no help for him in his Gods". In the Habere the expression is simply, "in God," "after that propose on the "the view clearness and force to the expression. As if he had said, They say of me that I am not only described and opposes of his present with all described and opposes of his present with all described and opposes of his present with all thing out of the whole underse that he does not preserve. Which kind of tempstalin Gods seems also to have tasted where he says," Why hat thou set me as a mark against thee?" vit .20. For there is no tempstalion, no, not of the whole word to a man, which there is made to the companion of the companion

Verst 3.—' Fee flow, O Lord, art my helper, my glory, and the litter up of my hand.' Dwidt beer contrasts three things with three; helper, with many rioning up; and the litter up of the head, with the blasphening glory, with many rising up; and the litter up of the head, with the blasphening that the contrast the contrast three the contrast three three

Were 4..." I cried unto the Lord with my tocke, and he head me out of his help Were 4..." I cried unto the Lord with my tocke, and he head me out of his help it, "I will cy," and," he shall hear; "and this pleases he better than the perfect tense, for they are the words of one triumphing in, and "praising and gloritying code, and giving lands: unto him who sustained, preserved, and lifted him up, triumph and rejoice, to speak of those things which they have done and suffered and to sing a senge of praise unto their helper and deliverer; as in Panin rive, 16, and to he had the surface of the surface of the surface of the surface soul. I cried unto him with my month, and he was extolled with my tongue." And also Panin Ivext. 1, "Sing alond unto God our terrength." And so again, so here, being filled with an overflowing sense of gratitude and loy, he sings of the being dead of he having leyst and rose up again, of his occasies being smitten, and of the surface of the suppose delaying God. In the second pressure, then see on a nature we will be address to better concerning (od. in the hird perion, valving, "and he head he address to better concerning (od. in the hird perion, valving, "and he head me," not "and then heardest me;" and only. "I cred unto the Lord," not "I a upon him; which is peculiar to a grateful mind.

Yers b.—" I laid me down and stept; I anaked; for the Lord sustained release, the contrast type of the two steps of two step

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

Verse 1.—" The saint telling his spite to his God. (i) His right to do so. (2) The proper manner of telling them. (5) The fair results of such soly communications. When may we expect increased troubles? Why are they sent? What is our widdom in reference to them? Verse 2.—The lie against the saint and the libel upon his God. Verse 2.—The lie against the saint and the libel upon his God. Defence, Honour, Joy. Show how all these may be enjoyed by faith, even in our worst estate.

—(1) In dangers we should pray. (2) God will graciously hear. (3) We do his answers of grace. (4) We may strengthen ourselves for the future ring the deliverances of the past. (2) Describe happy white, (3) Show re to be enjoyed, "for the Lord sustained ne."—Paths surrounded by enemies and yet triumphant. —(1) Describe the Lord's past dealing with his enemies; "thou hast." at the Lord shoth be our constaint record, "O Lord." O my God. that Lord's past victories as an argument with which to prevail with use the Lord's past victories as an argument with which to prevail with

HEAR me when I call, O God of my righteousness; thou hast enlarged me when I call, o God of my righteousness; thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress; have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer. This is another instance of David's common habit of pleading past mercies as a ground for present favour. Here he reviews his Ebenezers and takes comfort from them. It is not be imagined that he who has helped us in att troubles will leave us in the seventh. God does nothing by halves, and he will never case to help Jordan. exceed to need. The numan chall full every monthing util we cross the Jordan. Observe, that David speaks first to God and then to men. Surely we should all speak the more holdly to men if we had more constant converse with God. He all speaks the more holdly to men if we had more constant converse with God. He The name by which the Lord is here addressed, "God of my righteourness," deserves notice, since it is not used in any other part of Scripture. It means, Thou deserves notice, since it is not used in any other part of Scripture. It means, Thou fighteourness, it is not used in any other part of Scripture. It means, Thou the standard of the scripture of the scr

"Thou hast enlarged me when I was in distress." A figure taken from an army load in a defile, and hardy pressed by the surrounding enemy. God hath herd downs the recks and given me room; in hath broken the horriers and set to the surrounding the set of hath herd downs the recks and given me room; in hath broken the horriers and set in the large of the surrounding the set of the set

Since he chose to love us he cannot but chose to hear us.

4 Stand in awe, and sin not: commune with your own heart upon your bed, and he still. Sclah.

7 Tremble and an not: "How many reverse this counsel and sin but tremble not. O that men would take the advice of this verse and commune with their oan hearts. Searly a want of thought must be one reason why men are so mad as to despite and let them be still, that so in solemn silence they might review the past, and let them be still, that so in solemn silence they might review the past, and of the solemn silence they might review the past, and the solemn silence they might review the past, and the solemn silence they might review the past, and the solemn silence that the solemn silence tha

Ask counsel of thy pillow, and let the quietude of night instruct thee! Throw not away thy soul for nought! Let reason speak! Let the clamorous world be still awaille, and let thy poor soul plead with thee to be think thyself before thou seal its fate, and ruin it for ever! Selah. O sinner! pause while I question thee awhile in the words of a sacred post,

Whether, articly, belief used.

Whether, articly, belief used.

To a Savour's blood apply;

He slowe can make the whole,

To a Savour's blood apply;

For the sacrifices of rightcounters, and the savour's blood apply;

5 Offer the sacrifices of rightcounters, and put your trust in the Loren.

Provided that the rebels had obeyed the voice of the last verse, they would now applying.—What shall we do to be award?—And the present verse, they accepted that the rebels had always to be award in the present verse, they accepted that the same and the same and the same article articles are the same are the same articles are the same a whole confidence and grait, for he who ched for men is the Lond Jenevan.

6 There he many that say, Who will shew us any good? Lond, lift thou up the light of thy countenance upon us.

We have now entered upon the third division of the Pasim, in which the faith of the afflicted one finds utterance in sweet expressions of contentment and peace. There were many, even among brid's own followers, who wasted to see rather times groun after the sense and sight of prosperity, and are sad when darkness overs all good from view. As for worldlings, this is their uncessing erg., "Who direction, their empty hearts are ready to drank he any fine delastion which impostors may haven; and when these fall, they soon yield to despart, and declares that there expressing the state of the sense of the sense may be constant and abiding I

7 Thou hast put gladness in my heart, more than in the time that their corn and their wine increased in the state of the state of

PSALM THE FOURTH.

We should not full to remark that this verse is the saying of the rightcom name, opposition to the saying of the many. How quisidy doubt the tongen bettay to character? "Speak, that I may see thee!" said Socrates to a fair boy. The tail of a built be strown by its sound. Birds reveal their nature by their song, the saying the sa

I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest

S I will both lay me down in peace, and sleep: for thou, LORD, only makest me deall in skilled to the peace of the peace o

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUART SAYBIOS.

Vers 1.—"Her me who I call," the "Path is a good rator and a noble disputer in a strait; it can reason from God's readiness to hear: ""Here me who I call," the "Path is a good rator and a noble disputer in a strait; it can reason from God's readiness to hear: ""Here me when I call to God's and the Company of the coming, and may then tall auteup in the certainty of wast intail greet their eyes on the vicuration meriting.

"Elli morning-shadows flee:
"Ill morning-shadows flee:
"Ill morning-shadows flee:
"And a state of the common of the

In aux.

With sacred sue pronounce his name,
Whom words nor thoughts can reach.

John Needham, 1768.

Verse 6.—Where Christ reveals himself there is satisfaction in the slenderest portion, and without Christ there is emptiness in the greatest fulness.—Alexander Grosse, on enjoying Christ, 1632.

—"Many," said David, "ask who will shew us any good?" meaning

PSALM THE FOURTH.

elf, he leaves out" "many," and prayeth in his own person, "Lord," and prayeth in his own person, "Lord," of the own manner spon us; "at in one would join with him. We form the property of t ever want treasure who has such a golden nine. He is mough without the fact that the property of the property

Verse 8.—It is said of the husbandman, that having cast his seed into the ground, he sleeps and riseth day and night, and the seed springs and grows he knoweth not how. Mark Iv. 26, 27. So a good man having by faith and prayer cast his care upon God, he resiefth night and day, and is very easy, leaving it to his God to perform all things for him according to his holy will—Matther Hurry 2014.

remaineth that you conclude the day well, when you would give yourself to rest a tight. Wherefore, first look hole and take a strict view of your whole and the same and the

"How blessed was that sleep The sinless Saviour knew! In vain the storm winds blew, Till be awoke to others' woes, And hushed the billows to repose.

1.—Is full of mitter for a serious upon, past mercies a plea for present as flat seatence shows that believers desire, expect, and believe in a God rettle prayer. The title—God of any replacemane, may furnish a text (see the prayer in title—God of any replacemane, may furnish a text (see the prayer). The interest of saints 2—Deparating for man a verticuced (1) by continuance in despiting Circuit, a vanity in this heart, and (3) seeking lies in this daily, iff, which is the continual present of the present of th even now—" Then hast;" (3) their position, "in my heart;" (4) their excellence, "more than in the time that their corn and their wints increased." It has been suggest itself—"The unperturbed to the joys of grace desired?"

44

For pages and safety of the good man—Jeseph Lathrop, D.D., 1805.

Verse 2.— he declamether for believers, a veryer song to sing in it, and a guard to keep the door.

Another was the suggest of the good man—Jeseph Lathrop, D.D., 1805.

Verse 2 to 8.—The means which a believer should use to win the ungodly to Carist. (1). Expostulation, verse 2. (2.) Instruction, verse 3. (3) Exhortation, verse 2. (6.) Exemplification of that testimony by the peace of falth, verse 8.

PSALM V.

with this Pasim was to be played. The best scholars come the out of the form and the played the present and the played the present played the present played the present interpretation of the titles; now is this much to be the present played to the played the playe

GIVE ear to my words, O Lord, consider my meditation.

thee will. I pray, "The volce of my erg." In another Pashm we find the expression, "The volce of my erg." In another Pashm we find the expression, "The volce of my weeping," Weeping has a volce—a melting, pisintive tone, an ear-piercing artificing, which reaches the very beard of doc! and erging hath a volce—a soul-moving desquence; coming from our heart it reaches God's heart. All my mothing but a cry. but the Lord on comprehend the manning, for he hears a voice in our cry. To a loving father his children's cries are must, and they have a magic in our cry. To a loving father his children's cries are must, and they have a magic and they have a magic and the comprehend of the manning, for he heart a volce in our cry. To a loving father his children's cries are must, and they have a magic and the comprehending the complex of the comprehending the complex of the comprehending the comprehending the complex of the complex of the comprehending the complex of the comprehending the complex of the complex of the complex of the comprehending the complex of the comp

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

66 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

country. Kings are expected to hear the appeals of their own people. We are not strangers to him; we are his werehippers, and he is our God; curs by covenant, by promise, by oath, by blood.

by promise, by oath, by blood.

will neek to God, and to God alone. God is to be the only object of worship: the will neek to God, and to God alone. God is to be the only object of worship: the only resource of our soul in times of need. Leave broken eisterns to the golden. He makes a resolution, that as long as he lived he would pray. He would never case to supplicate, even though the naware should not come.

3 My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O Lone; in the morning will old the control of the control of

PSALM THE FIFTH.

For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall dwell with thee.

The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of u shalt destroy them that speak leasing: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deciroty them that speak leasing; the Lonn will abhor the bloody and deciriful man.

And now the Psalmist having thus expressed his resolution to pray, you hear important posting up his prayer. He is pleading against his cruel and wicked sensies. He uses a most mighty argument. He haps of God to get them newy from him had pleaser in wickedness' relative that the state of the pleaser in wickedness' relative that is all deal with thee." When I pray the pleaser in wickedness' relative shall ceil deal with thee. When I pray the pleaser in wickedness' relative that is all deal which a rightwest God must be pleaser the pleaser that the pleaser in which the pleaser in the pleaser in the pleaser in the pleaser that the pleaser is the pleaser is the pleaser that the pleaser is the please the workers of iniquity?

But as for me, I will come fact thy house in the multitude of thy mercy; and in thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple.

With this verse the first part of the Paine each. The Paulintia has bent his knee in prayer: he has described before God, as an argament for his deliverance, he character and the fate of the wided; and now he contrasts this with the new the state of the me, O Lord, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make raight before my face.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

8 Lead me, O Lorn, in thy righteousness because of mine enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

New we come the second part, in which the Psalmist repeats his arguments, and the second part of the second part, in which the Psalmist repeats his arguments, and the second part of the second p

To Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against these. "In the spins me, if they were my seemies by would regive them, but I cannot torgive thine. We are to forgive one esemies, but Got's neemles it is not in our power to forgive. These expressions have often been noticed by ment of the seeming of the

PSALM THE FIFTH.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

when the may kneet own to prayer.—crops contract.

"My roles shall thou hear in the morning, O Lord."

When first thy eyes unveil, give thy soal leave

The spirit's duty; time hearts spread and heave

Unto their God, as flowers do to the sun:

Give him thy first thoughts, then, so shalt thou keep Him company all day, and in him sleep.

PSALM THE FIFTH.

tivet, by having good thought of him. Oh, how richly laden might the vessel which thou sender out come home, wouldst thou but long and look for its return!

Vers 2.—Falth hath a supporting art after prayer: it supports the soul to expect a gradient sawer: "Just did not may be good to the control of the co

Verse 4.—" Thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness." As a man that cutteth with a dull knife is the cause of cutting, but not of the ill-cutting ndergoand shop; there they did closely contrive, forge, and hammer out wicked purposes, and it them into actions.—Joseph Gurgl.

ergs 5.—What an astonishing thing is sin, which maketh the God of love and or of mercies an ensury to his creature, and which could only be purged by the exceeding sinfulness of sin is but weakly apprehended by those who expected the single sin

DEATM THE PIPTH

Job xvi. 8. What more due to such impenitest sinners than hartred! What more better the best in the boson of love when his soul hate! No. destruction is their pertian. From the single perians of love when his soul hate! No. destruction is their pertian. From the single perians of the perians of the perians of the single perians

Verse h.—" Thou shall destray them that speak leasing," whether in jets or earnest house that lies in jets will (without repentance) go to hell in earnest.—"Inter John Trapp Verse 6.—" Thou shall destray them that speak leasing," etc. In the same field wherein Abasion raised battle against his father, cotted the out that was his glibbet destroyed by the same shall be a supported by the same shall be a same to trap them when Got one verything which now they have, shall be a same to trap them when Got

Verse 7.—" In the fore will I worship." As natural fear makes the spirits retirent the outward parts of the body to the heart, so a holy fear of miscarrying in so solemn a duty, would be a means to call they thoughts from all exterior earn objects, and fix them upon the duty in hand. As the sculpture is on the seal, will the print on the wax be; if the fear of God be deeply engraven on thy hear there is no doubt but it will make a suitable impression on the duty thou performes

Verse 7.—David saith, "In thy fear will I worship toward thy holy temple." Th temple did shadow forth the body of our Lord Christ, the Mediator, in whom onlour prayers and services are accepted with the Father which Solomon respecte-

Year, ".—" But as for me," etc. A bleased verse this I a bleased saying! The words and the sense itself, carry with them a powerful contrast. For there are two things with which this life is exercised, Hore and Frank, which are, at it were comes from belonding the threats and fearful judgments of God; as he led to go in whose sight no one is clean, every one is a thaner, every one is dammable. But he comes from belonding the threats and fearful judgment of God; as his large comes from belonding the promise, and the all-weet mercies of God; as hi mercies which have been ever of oid." Between these two, as between the update of the sight of the sight of the sight of the sight hand or to the left. For this turning is the state pocality of the contrast hange, everify and presumption. When the contrast hange, evently and presumption.

Verse 9.—If the whole soul be infected with such a desperate disease, what agreat and difficult work is 1th or separents, to restore men again to spiritual ill and vigour, when every part of them is selend by such a mortal distinger! Ho may be a such as the selection of the sel

Verse 9.—" Their throat is an open sepulchre." This figure graphically portray the filthy conversation of the wicked. Nothing can be more abominable to the senses then an open sepulchre, when a deed heady beginning to putrety steams for its tainted exhalations. What proceeds out of their mouth is infected and putrid, and as the exhalation from a sepulcher proves the corruption within, so it is with the corrupt conversation of sinners.—Robert Haddane's "Expositions of the Epistee be the Roman,* 1835. Vera 9... "Their throat is an open sepalcire." This doth admonths us, (1) the speeches of natural unregenerate men are unavoury, rotten, and hardrall their control of the speeches of natural unregenerate men are unavoury, rotten, and hardrall very different rotten and filling words. (2) As a sepulcher doth consume an devour hodies cast into it, to wlicked men do with their cruel words destroy other war like and their cruel words destroy other war like a guilt to destroy others. (3) As a sepulcine, having devoured man corpute, is still ready to consume more, being never satisfied, so wicked men, having verthrown many with that words, do proceed in their outrage, sessing who overthrown many with that words, do proceed in their outrage, sessing who can be a sessing who are their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing who can be a session where the control of their outrage, sessing who can be a session of the control of their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing when their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing who can be a session of their outrage, sessing who can be a session outrage and their outrage, sessing when their outrage is session outrage.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

they may devour.—Thomas Wilson, 1653.

Verse 9.—"Their inward part," etc. Their hearts are storehouses for the regions a work to be the positions where we find apparently server that breather we goes a work to be the position of an explicit and an explicit and the head of extent of the relations as the work of Carlos Himself, they are no other than an each of the Intercessor's are the worked for Carlos Himself, they are no other than an each of the Intercessor's acquises expensive and the same the barren factors. This standard are explicitly acquise to the position of the contract of the position o expressed in the "Amen hallelight," of Rev. xit. 3.—Andrea A. Bondt, 1850; read David Fachan, give me to alter the accord of my cold according to their severa subjects. In such Pasins wherein he confessed this sins, or requirested thy pardon or praisative for benner, or prayeth for future fravours, in all these give me to raise the current his entenies, or the praisable that the property of the content has entenies, of there let me bring my soul down to a lower note. For the current his entenies, of there let me bring my soul down to a lower note to the current his entenies, or there is the property of the content of the conten

Verse 12—When the strong man armed comes against us, when he darts his fiest, what can into us, if God compass us about with his foundpictures as with detailed, which is considerations as with the contract of the contract. If God he not with us, if he do not give us sufficient grace, so subtle, so proverful, so politic an enemy, will be too hard for us. How surely are we folled and get the worse, when we pretend to grapple with him in our own strength! How on our own skill? How forth have we had the help of God when we have humbly asked it! And how sure are we to get the victory, if Christ prouj for us that us of m [will I lake XXII.S.]. Where can we go for helter but unto God our Maker in the contract of the

PSALM THE FIFTH.

55

**Trans-12—*** As with a side.*** Luther, when making his way into the presence of Cardinal Caletan, who hade.**

Luther, when making his way into the presence of Cardinal Caletan, who had a stage of Cardinal Caletan, who had a stage of Cardinal Caletan Cal

Versa 1, 2.—Prayer in its threefold form. "Words, meditation, erg." Showing ow utterance is of no avail without heart, but that fervent longings and silent silens are compled, even when unexpressed.

Vers 3 (inst fan clauses).—I. Prayer directed. 2. Answers expected. Vers 4.—God's batted of in an example to his people. Vers 4.—God's batted of in an example to his people. Vers 7.—The district of the property control of the verse of verse of the verse of the

PSALM VI.

O LORD, rebuke me not in thine anger, neither chasten me in thy hot Dollary, retruct for not a time anger, secure cases are an any not at the property of I am week! O Long, heal me; my bones are vexed.

3 My soul is also sore vexed: but thou, O Long, how long?

4 Return, O Long, deliver my soul: oh save me for thy mercies' sake.

5 For in death Mere is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who shall

6 I am weary with my greaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I ter my couch with my tears.

7 Mine eye is consumed because of grief; it waxeth old because of all ne enemies.

h be the cry of the saints waiting for the millennial glories, "Why are his to so long in coming: Lord, how long?" Those of us who have passed to see long in coming: Lord, how long?" Those of us who have passed years, while mercy delayed its coming. We watched for the dawn of grace, you hat waits for the morning. Earnestly did our another spirits as," or "Return. O Lord; deline my soul." As God's abenne was the main cause miner;, so his return would be enough to odiver his from his trouble. "On the maker, so his return would be enough the odiver his from his trouble. "On the company of the company o

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

rolly, in some diviner tense, this is true of God, who, when he gives mercy, himself, sharing gives a facerd description of this long approx. "I am serger himself, and the property of the long approx." I am serger growing." He had ground till his throat was hoorse; he had cried for till grayer became a labour. God's people may groun, but they may not be. Yes, they must groun, being burdened, or they will sever shout in the date of the serger growing the serger grow

- ans scanness and sorted, not perfectly natural to one in so sad a plight.

  8 Depart from ne, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard a voice of my weeping.

  9 The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer. To Let all mine enemies be ashamed and sore vexed: let them return and ashamed suddenly.

  8. Hitherto, all has been mountain and disconsolate, but now—
  - "Your harps, ye trembling saints, Down from the willows take."

Ye must have your times of weeping, but let them be short. Get ye up, get ye up, from your dunghills! Cast satisfy your sacckoloth and sahes! Weeping may endure David has found on the same of the weiping may endure the same of the weiked. "Dayoff has found peace, and raining from his knee he begins to weep his house of the weiked." Dayoff has found peace, and raining from his knee he begins to weep his house of the weiked. "Dayoff has found peace, and raining from his knee he fight satisfies the same of the sample of the heart, we must sourge out the buyers followship why how." Repeatable in his part we must sourge out the buyers will have the same which cout the Saviour his blood. Grace and his are quarreleons neighbours, and one or the other must go to the wall.

When the same of the same of the weight have the same of the same of the weight have the same of the same of the same of the wall. When the same of the same of the same of the same of the wall. When the same of the ter, but understood of all. Is it not sweet to believe that our te even when words fall I. Let us learn to think of tears as liquid p long as a constant dropping of importunate intercession which wi-point of the constant of the constant of the constant of the e way. My God, I will "weep" when I cannot plead, for thou I my weeping.

PSALM THE SIXTH.

of weeping as a constant dropping of unportunase macrossome, was a ye right surely his the very heart of mercy, despite he story difficulties which ye right surely his the very heart of mercy, despite he story difficulties which were despited in the control of the control

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

atten stames with rule and perfellion. To eager and indignation sees fatherly and gentle chastlement, and this last he was willing stem, 1500—1504 in this caper;

cost, related as the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem of the stem
of the stem of th

PSALM THE SIXTH.

eal me," etc. David comes not to take physic up the disease is violent, because the accidents are vel ent, as that it hath pierced ad ossa, and ad animam, soul is soor troubled," therefore "heal me;" which is unds this second petition, "Heal me, because my bones which faith in God gives to the riganous. It is non a non-scale of the second verse of "shan wh," Of Lot, In all my form plane or seasoft—and the second verse of "shan wh," Of Lot, In all my form planes or seasoft—and the Paulma," 1859.

Verse 3—" My soult," Vokethiow in sia are yokelellow in plan; is punished for informing, the body for performing, and as both he inform performer, the cause and he instrument, is shall the stirrer up of an and the verse of the season of the strength of the season of the information, the season of the information of the season of the season of the season of the strength of the season of the s

62 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

them; he corrects us therefore that we might be sensible of his corrections; that when we, being humbled under his hand, have said with his prophet, "I will beat the wath of the Lord because I have sinned against him" (Mic. vii. 9), he may be pleased to say to his correcting angel, as he did to his destroying angel, This is

Verse. 4.—" Return, O. Lord, deliver my nosit," etc. In this his besieging, of God, he brings up his works from after off, closer; je begjins in this Praim, at a deprecatory prayer; he asks nothing, but that God would do nothing, that he would formed mine—relate new for, correction gives repetly that no topic verse and the second of the contraction of t

Verse 5.—"For in death there is no remarkence of thee, in the growe the out if the the third 2". Lody, be then pastled and reconciled to me... rice shoulds thou now proceed to take away my life, as it were a most directle condition for me the contract of the contract of Verse b = -l' Initiated in my mourining." It may seem a marvellous change in David, being a man of such magnitude of mind, to be thus dedected and east fortitude and many control of the such properties of the such parts of the such properties with whom he halth to do occasionate but when he halth to do with Cod against whom he sinned, then he is less than nothing Verse b = -l' Gound rap belo a such l'. ... Shower be better than dews, yet sign of a pentitent heart. If we have not rivers of waters to pour forth with David, when the such properties of the such pro

PSALM THE SIXT

63

It should be; yes, when we behold the place where we have offended, we should the graden, and Citati week bloodly dees in the garden. The carries week bloodly dees in the graden. Examine your help, and convert unto the Lord; "and whereas ye have stretcher again to the lord;" and whereas ye have stretcher assuming the same time of the lord; and the same time to the lord; and the same time to the lord; and the lord with the same in the Cantilets by sim. And let us seek Christ Jesus on our own bod, with the spouse in the Cantilets by sim. And let us seek Christ Jesus on our own bod, with the spouse in the Cantilets Symmon. The same time to the lord the lord of the lord of Verse f.— I moder my couch suith tear." Not only I mash, but also I wond before the contract of the contract o

Verse 6.—" I nuder my couch with my teirs." Let us water our bed every night with our tears. Do not only blow upon it with intermisave blasts, for then lifter, it will resurge and flame the more. Sin is like a stinking candie newly prout, it is soon lighted again. If may receive a wound, but like a dog it will east like itself whole; a little forbearance multiplies it like Hydra's basds. Therefor whatseever aspersion the sin of the day has brought upon up, let the tears of it whatseever aspersion the sin of the day has brought upon up, let the tears of it.

Verses, 7,—sodis-frontise is arteneded untainly with gavel pain of 50-00° cos. my fields, because of thine anger, say David. "The aerows of the Almighty are within me, the polson whereof driketch up my spirit." Job vi. 4. Sorrow of harm yields, because of thine anger, say David. "The server of the Almighty are within me, the polson whereof driketch up my spirit." Job vi. 4. Sorrow of harm yields and water away: and, therefore, saill Heman, "My seed is full of troubles, and my life draweth nigh unto the grave." It was not to see that the proper of the server of the serve happens, that when our pain is long and sharp, and helpless and unavoidable, we begin to question the sincerity of our estate towards God, though at its first assault succeedable of trouble, and measy thoughts.—Timothe Rosers on Trouble of Mind.

64 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verse 7.—" Mine up is consumed." Many make those eyes which God hat given them, as it were two lighted candles to let them see to go to hell; and for this God in justice requitefu them, that seeing their minds are blinded by the lust of the eyes, the lust of the flesh, and the pride of life, God I say, sendeth sickess to debilitate their eyes which were so sharp-sighted in the devil's service, and their lust now causeth them to want the necessary sight of their body.

nas into account of the control of t

Verse 7.—That eye of his that had looked and lusted after his neighbour's wif is now dimmed and darkened with grief and indignation. He had wept himse almost bilind.—John Trapp.

Verse 8.—" Depart from me," etc., i.e., you may now go your way; for th which you look for, namely, my death, you shall not have at this present; f the Lord hath heard the voice of my weeping, i.e., has graciously granted me the

Vers 8--" Depat from me, all ps merkers of iniquity." May not too much amiliarity with profuse wereforches be justly charged upon church members 1 cases of the choice of their company. The very fowls of the alt, and beat the field, love not heterogeneous company. "Bits of a feather flock together." In grace and godlines, yet see not the vant difference there is between nature an ingeneration, sin and grace, the old and the new man, neeing all company is alike time term.—Lord before the property of the transfer of the tra

Spencer's Things New and Old.

Verse 8.—The wicked are called "workers of intquity," because they are free and ready to sin, they have a strong tide and bent of spirit to do evil, and they do it not to halves but throughly; they do not only begin or nibble at the bair all title (as a good man often doth), but greedily wallow it down, book and all. they are fully in it, and do it thilly; they make a work of it, and so are "workers of Verse b.—Some may say, "My constitution is such that I cannot weep; I may say as well go to squeece a rock, as think to get a tear." But If then cannot not we where there are no tears, the vessel may be full though it wants vent; it is not under the weeping cyc God respects as the broken beart; yet! would be lost much the weeping cyc God respects as the broken beart; yet! would be lost the property of the second of the property of the second of t ear's as plears diviping iron's a pentientic eye.—2, reason.

Yere 8.— The Lord hath heard the solece of my weeping." God hears the voice of our looks, God hears the voice of our words; for it is the Spirit itself that makes interession for us. Rom viii. 26. Genitibus internarialities, in those grouns and to in those learn, and the viii. 26. The control of the contro

PSALM THE SIXTE

cannot utter; not only not utter the force of the tears, but not utter the vertears themselves. As God sees the water in the spring in the veits of the eart before it bubble upon the face of the earth, so God sees tears in the heart of a madefore they bubble his face; God hearts the tears of this sorrowid soul, while for sorrow cannot shed tears. From this catting up of the eyes, and pouring on the may see a web heart through a dry eye; from these evertures of reputawhich are as those imperfect sounds of words, which parents delight in, in the children, before they speak plain, a pentent sumer comes to a verbal and a more God had gives: an other groups, these wood and verbal purper from David God had gives: an other groups and the control of the control o

Verze 8—What a strange change is here all on a sudden! Well might Lather ag, "Prayer is the lesch of the soul, that sucks out the venom and swelling thereot." "Prayer," said another, "Is an exercite with food, and an exceed against in an other meter," Bernard saith, "How of that prayer found me despairing almost, meter," Bernard saith, "How of that prayer found me despairing almost, but the said of the said of Verse 9.—" The Lord hath heard my supplication," etc. The Psalmist three times expresses his confidence of his prayers being heard and received, which may be either in reference to his having prayed so many times for help, as the apost! Paul did (2 Cor xii. 8); and as Christ his antitype did (Matt. xxvi. 39, 42, 44) or to express the certainty of it, the strength of his faith in it, and the exuberance of his low on account of it.—[John Gill. Dp. 1897—177].

Vers 10.—"Let all nine enemies be ashound," etc. If this were an improve the control of the interior and nature in it; is without the men no harm a men. But it is rathe predictorium, a prophetical vehemence, that if they will take no knowledge offer declaring himself in the protection of his revents, if they would not control but would continue their opposition against him, heavy judgments would certainly all upon them; in their pannihment should be certain, but the effect should be taken and the control of the control of the control of the control of the their mollifying, or to their obduration... in the second word, "Let films he conceed," he wishes his enemies no words than himself had been, for he had used to assue word of himself before, Cosa turbule. By loous ore serie; and, Antina furshing that he had taken, who was more side of the same disease than he was. For the their control of the control of the control of the control of the congreat still; the danger was in the callen, in the security or in the tempet, by min interpreting God's corrections to our obduration, and to a remorstess stupleation God is blown over. The soul is in a fair and near way of being restored to clammes, and to reprosed security of connectice that is come to take holy excellenclammes, and to reprosed security of connectice that is come to take holy excellen-

John Jouin. Let all mine sensing local limits entering health of the columner, one see reach! etc. Many of the mountail Palms end in this manner, to lastruct the believer that he is continually to look forward, and solnes himself with be holding that day, when his warfar shall be accomplished; when alm and sorrou shall be no more; when sudden and everlasting confusion shall over the escenies of rightcoanners; when the sackcloth of the penture shall be accomplished; when the make the same and the same and the same and proma shall succeed the songs of heaves, set to angelic harps, and falth shall be resolved into the vision of the Amighty—George Hont.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

Verse 1.—A Sermo jo equited souls. I. God's twofold dealings. (1) Rebule by a telling sermon, a judgment on another, a slight trial in our own person, or the other when the first is diregarded. Pain, losses, bereavements, melancholy, and other trials. II. The evids in them to be most deraded, anger and bott disclaimed to the control of the con

PSALM VII.

primed capitat the shall prosper, and every bingue that I stath against the shall prosper, and every bingue that I stath against the shall condense."

EXPOSITION.

J.ORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me: 2 Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none deliver. But the tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none deliver. But the shall reserve the tear of the shall reserve the tears to the shall reserve the tear of the shall reserve the shall reserve the tear of the shall reserve the place of the shall reserve the place of the shall reserve the shall reser ry.

set he tear my soul." Here is the plea of fear co-working with the plea of
There was one among David's foes mightier than the rest, who had both upon us. If God was slandered in Eden, we shall surely be maligned in this land of sinners. Goff up your loin, ye children of the renurretion, for this fiery trial availst you all.

O Loron ye Gol, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;  $\frac{1}{3}$  O Loron ye would cell wind on the law of the control of t safe. Ill-will never spoke well. Sinners have an ill-will to saints, and therefore, be sure they will not speak well of them.

safe. Ill-will never spoke well. Sinners have an ill-will to saints, and therefore, be sure they will not speak well of them.

6 Arise, O Lonn, in thine anger, lift up thyself because of the rage of mine enemies: and awake for me to the judgment that then hast commanded.

7 So shall the congregation of the people compass thee about; for their sakes therefore return thou on high.

We now listen to a fresh prayer, based upon the avoval which he has just made. We cannot pray too often, and when our heart is true, we shall turn to God in prayer and the saint of the saint which well and the saint of the saint.

"Arise, O Lord, in thine anger." His sorrow makes him view the Lord as a place who had let the judgment-eat and retrief in the inter. Fath would move the saint, and let the judgment-eat and retrief in the hir set. Fath would move them all, and let thy justice tower above their villainies. "Latele for me to the saint, they are all the saint of the saint. The saint of the saint was the saint will be saintly and mount the throne. Stand up, O God, rise then above them all, and let thy justice tower above their villainies. "Latele for me to the saint, they should heart it cheerally in the hope that sainters and it was in an activity, and can only be applied to God in a very limited sense. He never alumbers, yet doth he often seem to do to; for the wicked prevail, and all was strone to the saint, they should heart it cheerally in the hope that stances may thereby be led to reportance. people compass the about." Thy saints shall crowd to thy tribunal with their complaints, or shall auround it with their solemn homage: "for their sakes therefore return thou on high." As when a judge travels and the assists, and an an all the saints and an interest the control to the saint, they complaint, or shall auround it with their control to the control of the saint would be at the chart but by may be heart, as will be histened as well as himself. If I he too has to be remembered, yet "for their parallies and a himself. If I he facilities the desires of all the righteons it shall savely speed, for "shall not God swenge his own elect"?

8 The Lorn shall judge the people: judge me, O Lorn, according for righteousness, and according to mine integrity Had is in me.

9 Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end; but establish the just: for the righteous God trieft the hearts and risk mine the Lord arcending that it may be suffered to the least two verses the small the Lord arcending that it is not made to the least two verses he hengely a cloward to arise, and now that he is arises, he prepares to mingle with "the congregation of the court with the solution works," The Lord shall puglie the people." Our perfolioner rises at once, and cries with corresponding to the sound to the court with the solution works, The Lord shall puglie the people." Our perfolioner rises at once, and cries with corresponding to the sound that the comment of the court with the solution works, The Lord shall puglie the people." Our perfolioner rises at once, and cries with corresponding to the whole company of the solet of the sound of the court with the solet movement of the sound of the court with the universal longing of the whole company of the solet? When shall be solet weren't from the fifty conversation of the last two constants of the sound of the court with the sound resident this contained in the last sounder of the shall were the sound affected the sound the sounder of the sound the sounder of the soun

10 My defence is of God, which saveth the upright in heart.
11 God judgeth the righteous, and God is angry with the wicked every day.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

12 If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made ra II he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

Its II he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

It has a rows against the persecutors.

The judge has heard the cause, has cleared the guilties, and uttered his voice against the persecutors.

The judge has heard the cause, has cleared the guilties, and uttered his voice against the persecutors.

Let us draw near, and learn the results of the great for the providence of the great and the providence of the great for the control of the learn of the great for the control of the learn of the ve sown.

y I will praise the LOID according to his rightocurses: and will sing aise to the name of the LOID according to his rightocurses: and will sing aise to the name of the LOID most ligh.

We conclude with the plyral contrast. In this all these Paalms are agreed; ey all exhibit the blessedness of the rightocus, and make its colours the more wing by contrast with the miseries of the wicked. The bright jewel sparkles seem by the same of the property of t

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

-"Shiggalon," though some have attempted to fix on it a reference to aspect of the world as depicted in this Palm, is in all probability to a serpressing the nature of the compaction. It conveys the idea of some control of GoT, to wander) in the style; something not so calm as other Palms; and GoT, to wander in the style; something not so calm as other Palms; and GoT, and a style of the control of the style of the sty

erse 2.—"Lest he tear my soul like a lion," etc. It is reported of tiger enter into a rage upon the scent of fragrant spices; so do ungody re lessed savour of godilines. I have read of some harbarous nations, the sun shines hot upon them, they shoot up their arrows against It; dement the light and heat of godilines. There is a natural suitpathy be pirits of godly men and the wicked. Genesis Ii. 15. "I will put een they seed and the seed."—Jeronial Burroughs, 1600.

The content areas are not account, stay some up their strows against $1, 100 do the upitts of gody men and the wicked. Genesis is ill. 5. "I will put entity between thy seed and her seed."—Jerminal Burroughs, 1800.

Verse 3.—"O Lord, my God, if Jhane shon this, I there he intiguity in my hands." The properties of the seed of the your good names as possintly the case, and a reverse a gainst you. — Thomas Googs, the control of the reprachial speeches of others against you. — Thomas Googs, Vers 3.— It is a sign that there is some good in these if a wicked world abuse commends me? — The appliance of the wicked unsully endoes the wich had made censure imports some good.—Thomas Watson.

Vers 2.— If there is eniquip in my londs. In Justice is a scribed to the hand, Vers 2.— If there is eniquip in my londs. In Justice is a scribed to the hand. With the hand men take away, and with that men detain the right of others. David speaks that (C thorn, xii, 17), "Seeing there is no wrong in miss hands;" that is, I have Verse 3, 4.—A good conscience is a flowing spring of assurance. "For our Verses 3, 4.—A good conscience is a flowing spring of assurance. "For our versions in the world, and some banded with that in simplicity and goddy described the spring of the world, and some banded with the your ward." 26ch; 12. — Brown-version in the world, and more banded with the your ward. 26ch; 12. — Brown-version in the world, and more banded with the your ward." 26ch; 12. — Brown-version in the world, and more banded with the your ward. 26ch; 12. — Brown-version in the world, and more banded with the your ward.

upon in 1 security depena.—Join Canton.

Verse 7.—The Congregation of the popile; "i either, 1. A great number of all my thing-times are supported by the control of the popular of the control of the co which now is worfully dissipated and oppressed, and has in a great mea inintration of justice, and exercise of religion. "Idurar flow on he initration of justice, and exercise of religion." Idurar flow on he searchly tribunals, which generally are set up on high above the per 19.—Matthew Pool, 1624—1679. —Bellevers I let not the terror of that day dispirit you when you med those who have slighted the Judge, and continue nemnets but those who have slighted the Judge, and continue nemnets of the up your beads with loy, for the last day will be your bet day. Ur Head and Husband, your Redeemer and your Advocate. Yet and the property of the property o longs is your Head and Husband, your time natt any will be your best day. The head is your Head Husband, your Relectment and your Advocate. We must specify the head of the he expressed it as his opinion that the text was arm corrupted by use cancellare divide proposes to restore the text than, "b, d, with the visit and the control of the contro

'God is angry." The original expression here is very forcible. The ppears to be, to froth or foam at the mouth with indignation.—Richard

PSALM THE SEVENTH.

75

**Teres 11.—*** Got is angrey.** The original expression here is very forcible. The idea of it appears to be, to prish or found at the anouth with indignation.—**Richard 1.1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.1.1.124.

1.

wrong and reproach, as a matter or consonation, this was been seen viscosition discharges above all other characters. B. W. Hangleberg, in Res., 1848.

Verse 12.—" I he turn net," etc. How few do believe what a quarred God hath critical also? I we do we would remain a set of the control of the critical also? I we dold we would remain a to be sine a bound that is falling; we would endeavour to "save," ourselves "from this unstance that is falling; we would endeavour to "save," ourselves "from this unstance that is the same than the same of the same that the same and the s sword is but to give a keener edge that it may cut the deeper. God is silent as long as the sinner will ite him; but when the sword is whet, it is to cut; and when the bow is bent, it is to kill; and woe be to that man who is the but!.—William Secker.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

bow is best, it is to kill; and wee be to that man who is the butt—William Secker.

Vers 15.—"I hand he prepared of rim the intermunants of death; be evidented his arrows against the perscatiors." It is said that God hath ordained his arrows against the perscatiors; "It is said that God hath ordained his arrows against the perscatiors; the word signifies such as burn in anger and mallec against the godly; and the word tramlated ordained, signifies God hath wrought his arrows; has a story which may well be a commentary upon this text in both the parts of it. One Felix, Earl of Wartenberg, one of the captains of the Empero Charles V., swore in the holoed of the Lutherans. Here was one that burned in malles, but beloid how God works his arrows against him; that very night the hand of God to struck himself, not up to the purp, but up to the threat, as in in the blood of the Lutherans. How the himself, not up to the spurp, but up to the threat, as in the blood of the Lutherans, but in his own blood before he died.—Jeromin Burroughi.

Vers 15.—"We ordainth his arrows." This night more exactly be rendered, we of they arrows.—John Killo, 1804—1834, would seem to be deduced from the west of the parts of the control of the con

"He maketh his arrows borning." This image would seem to be deduced from the use of flary arrows.—John Killo, 1964—1854.

Verse 14.—"Behold, he translitch with iniquity," etc. The words express the monepline, belin, arrigine, and interestings, or a joint gainst David. In which you should do: his elemies intention, God's presention, and our duty; his enemies instead on the control of the properties. He was not been maked our description of the conceived. He was not to im, makes our sits the greater. He do this in our enter therety we have not to im, makes our sits the greater. He do not this in the conceived. He was not put upon it, or forced into it; if was voluntary. The remainder of the conceived of the conce

"Earth's entertainments are like those of Jack,
Her left hand brings me milk, her right, a nail."

Thomas Fuller.

Thomas F.

Verses 14, 15.—" They have digged a pit for us "—and that low, unto hellfallen into it themselves."

"No juster law can be devised or made, Than that sin's agents fall by their own trade."

The order of hell proceeds with the same degrees, though it give a greater portion, yet still a just proportion, of torners. These wetched guests were too bury with the waters of ain; behold, now they are in the depth of a pit, "where no water is." Dives, that wasted to many tuns of wine, cannot now procure water, wat a pol of the proportion of the pro no less fraction than a drop. As he denied the least comfort to Lazarus living, so Lazarus shall not bring him the least comfort dead. Thus the pain for sin answers the pleasure of ain . . . . Thus admanable sins shall have semblable punishments; and as Augustine of the tongue, so we may say of any member . . . . It is will not serve both in action, it shall serve him in passion—Thomas Adams.

* Aug. Hom. 7.

and as Augustine of the longue, so we may say of any member .... If it will not serve doed in action, it shall serve the him passion.—Thomas Adams.

Verse 15.—"He made a pil and digged it." The practice of making pitfalls was madently not only employed for ensanting with least, but was also a stratagem and the properties of the proper

Verse 17.—To bless God for mercies is the way to increase them; to bless him for miseries is the way to remove them: no good lives so long as that which is thankfully improved; no evil dies so soon as that which is patiently endured.—William Dyer.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

Verse 1.—The necessity of faith when we address ourselves to God. Show the worthisanness of prayer without trust in the Lord.

The trust of the second of th

Verse 6.—How and in what seems curves suger may relighteen.

Verse 7.—'The congregation of the people.' 1. Who they are. 2. Why they congregate together with one another. 3. Where they congregate. 4. Why they choose such a person to be the centre of their congregation.

Verse 7.—The gathering of the suits second the local dens.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Verse 7 (lest classe)—The coming of clinit to judgment for the good of his saints. Verse 8.—The character of the Judge before whom we all must read to the property of the righteous —Matthew 1975.

was used grant town.

Were 9.—The period of sin, and the perpetuity of the righteous:—Matthew

Were 9.—The period of sin, and the perpetuity of the righteous:—Matthew

Were 9.—"Etablish the just". By what means and in what sense the just are tablished, or, the true established carriers. In the period of the p

PSALM VIII.

EXPOSITION.

EXPOSITION.

LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heave-when Paulintis utters a note of excianation. O Johovsh our Lord! We need not wonder at this, for no heart can measure, no Longue can utter, the half of the greatness of Johovsh. The whole creation is full wisdom are manifested on every hand. The countless myrinds of ferrestrial beings wisdom are manifested on every hand. The countless myrinds of ferrestrial beings from man the bead, to the creeping owns at the foot, are all supported and nourished the countries of the sea, but God is there. Mount to the highest beaven, or dive into the deeper of the countries of the sea, but God is there.

Size I box, and kennly! Ladors.

Out of the mouth of labors and sucklings has the succession of tempth because of thine enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the average. Nor only in the heaves above its the Lord seas, but the earth beneath is telling forth his mighty. In the heaves above its the Lord seas, but the earth beneath is telling forth his mighty. In the heaves the lower hings, while here below, the liping in uterances of the power in great things, while here below, the liping in uterances of the latest lates

Instances of the testinosopy of schildren for the truth of Code but perhaps more modern instances will be most interest. In the contract of th

____

EXPOSITIONS OF THE FAALMS.

and vast desires of men are confined? 3 is it for this there is so much disof nations, so much carnage, and so many ruinous wars? 0, the foily of men, to imagine great kingdown in the compass of an atom, to raise arrise
men, to imagine great kingdown in the compass of an atom, to raise arrise
s, very truthfully says, "We gave you but a feeble image of our comparative more, when we asid that the glories of an extended forst would suffer from the fall of a single leaf, than the glories of this extended universe fire through the globe we treat upon, and at that it in shortich, should fire through the globe we treat upon, and at that it in shortich, should

- dissolve."

  5 For thou hast made him a little lower than the angels, and hast crowned him with glory and honour.

  6 Thou madest him to have dominion over the works of thy hands; thou hast put all things under his feet:

  7 All sheep and oxen, yea, and the beasts of the field;

  8 The lowl of the air, and the fish of the sea, and whattoever passeth through the paths of the sea.

9 O Lord out Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth of the Revenue of t

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Title—"Gilfm", was probably a musical instrument used at their rejoicings after the vintage. The vintage closed the dvil year of the Jews, and this Paim directs us to the after day to the vintage closed the dvil year of the Jews, and this Paim directs us to the after day for the vintage of the vintage of

And thus here: "Thy name excellent in all the world; "" "Thy glory above the hevenen."—Insec Williams.

Verse 2.—" Out of the month of bobs and sucklings hast thou ordained strength," etc. In a prophetic manner, speaking of that which was to be done by children the control of the second of the control of the second of the dispensation of this awing graves (Matt. 2d, 2b), he salth, "I thank thee, O Fether principles and the products, and has trevealed them unto babes," so called from the meanness of their condition... And you shall see it was spoken when the disciples were sent abroad, spirit, and said, it thank theo, O Fether, Lord or between and earth, that thee hast hid these things from the spite and grangiant, and hast reyarded them unto habel, the state of the spirit of the said, and the spirit of the sense, for Christ defendance to Christ, and the part of the sense, for Christ defendance to the spirit of the sense, for Christ defendance which is the spirit of the sense, the spirit of the sense, but all those that flight spirit of the sense to the condition; secondly, their disposition sucklings, if not, because of their condition; secondly, their disposition.

85

seed of the woman should break the serpent's head, it being in God's alm as much conflound him as to keep our man.—Thems Goodsen.

It is as with a stone, which in the air and on the dry ground we strain at but cannot with. Plotted the field where it lies, bury the block beneath the rising water; and now, when its head is submerged, bend to the work. Put your strength to it. All influences of grace the tide of love rises, and goes swelling over our duties and be present in the heart, and "out of Went 2—"Out of the month of basic and sucklings," etc. That poor marry Alice Driver, in the presence of many hundreds, did so so elines Popish hishops that the and all biesed God that the prosests of them could not resist the spirit will be incounted. Even thou, silly sworn, shall known him, when it shall appea with God hath done for thee, what lusts he hath mortified, and what greece he shall spire and the late of the late of the spirit of the late of the late of the late of the spirit of the late of the

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

when I consider." Meditation fits for bumillation. When David before 22 s.--" When I consider." Meditation fits for bumillation. When I consider the planes of pride fall, and begins to have self-abasing thoughts "When I consider lip heavens, the work of the planes, the work of the planes, the work of the planes of pride fall, and begins to have self-abasing thoughts when I consider lip heavens, the work of the planes is the planes when I consider the planes when I consider the planes when I consider the planes, the work of the planes when I consider the planes, the work of the planes when I consider the planes, the work of the planes when I consider the planes, the work of the planes when I consider the planes, the work of the planes when I consider the I consider th

Verse 3.—" The start." I cannot say that it is chefry the contemplation of the start. These conditions rather tend to confuse the mind; and in this sever of countless numbers and unlimited space there lies, moreover, much that belong rather to a temporary and buman than to an eternally adding condensation. Still thought they are so far bycond and above everything terretrial—the feiling that thought they are so far bycond and above everything terretrial—the feiling that before them everything earthy so interly vanishes to nothing—that the single all space—that his destinies, this enjoyments, and sacrifices, to which he attaches such a minute importance—how all these side like nothing before was immensued an immensued and the side of the conting before was immensued as a similar produces. The side of the side like nothing before was immensued as a similar side of the earth, that they have beheld all that has passed since the legisland of time, and will see all that passes until it set of; in the opposite like these I can alway truth, a spectacle of the highest solemnity, when, in the stillness of night, in the waven quite dear, the star, like a choirt of words, strice and descend, while existence when the stillness of night, in all the even of the chart. The star, like a chart of words, strice and descend, while existence down in the utter silence or night, and thereupon the other mounts upward I all its elevation psychology, and majerty. And, when contemplated from this Verse 3.—" When I consider thy homens," etc. Could we transport ourselves above the moon, could we reach the highest star above our heads, we should in above the moon, could we reach the highest star above our heads, we should he magnificently adorned. But even there, the vast dominions of our great Create would not terminate; we should them find, to are atomishment, that we had only arrived at the horders of the works of God. It is hell little that we can know of power and spoofmens. How great must that Being be when produced these immensglobes out of nothing, who regulates their course, and whose mighty hand direct an apport them all. What is the clod of earth which we inhabily, with all the works of the country of Scripture authentic! mooring by man.

Rémord Young,
Verez 3.—"The dear". When I gazde into these stars, have they nan loved we no me as if with pity from their series spaces, like eyes glistening with heavenly re over the little of man in-Thomas Cariple.
Verez 3, 4.—"When I consider the heaven's effect the little stars of th

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Yet those thy greatest energy heat.

The diest typied habes,
And put of all thy robes of majesty.
And put of all thy robes of majesty.
Riding his nature to give him thy grace,
Riding his nature to give him thy grace,
Riding his nature to give him thy grace,
Riding his nature to give him the grace,
Riding his nature to give him to grace the grace
Mith the blest angels, yes, superior fare,
Mith the blest angels, yes, superior fare,
And God and man one are.
And God and man one are.
And God and man one are.
Though not the base of them I Thomas Washbourne.
What is most ?"—

What is most ?"—

Bow poor, how the district, how sugarst,
Bow poor, how the wide the limit washbourne.
How passing wunder ms who made him such!
How passing wunder ms who made him such!
From different actures marvelously mit'd,
Conseccion susquiste of distant words!

Conseccion susquiste of distant words!

PSALM THE EIGHTH. 91

Midway from solidang to the Duity! A beam otherate, sulfied and absorbed, Though sulfied and the Arman of the A

Verse 5.—" Thou heat made him a little lower than the angels." Perhaps it was not so much in nature as in position that man, as first formed, was interior to the angels. At all events, we can be sure that nothing higher could be effirmed of the angels, than that they were made in the image of God. If, then, they had originally apperiority over man, it must have been in the degree of resemblance. The angel appropriate that they were made in the image of God. If, then, they had originally apprinting that the second of the second o

2 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

had lineaments of the attributes which entire in Deity. Whether or not these lineaments were more strongly marked in the single than in the man, it were presented in the single than in the man, it were presented in the single than the man, it were presented in the single than the same drives immage; and whatever originally the relative positions of the angel the same drives immage; and whatever originally the relative positions of the angel to the same drives immage; and whatever originally the relative positions of the angel to the same drives immage; and whatever originally the relative positions of the angel to the same drives immage; and whatever originally the relative positions of the angels. The effect of transgression has been to debase all his powers, and so to the angels. The effect of transgression has been to debase all his powers, and so the position of the same present of the same rate of the same rate is a same part of the same rate. It is must be clear that they may be a purple and enlarged as to produce, if we may not say to restore, the equality .... Oh! It may be we again say, that an erroseness and bring down the human race to los by satisfain in the easier of creation. It is search through the records of stateney, I may indeed fined that, for the furthernace of magnitudes and bring down the human race to los with said to the same pointed endowments which adoing to some a weakening and a riding of those splendir endowment which adoing to our race. It is any sterious thing, and one to make the same rate of the same race is an experiment of the same race to a splendir of those splendir endowments which adoing to our race. It is any sterious thing, and one to not of fallen angels. We would build no theory on a ward and miscratishe a truth; but it is too much to say, that the interference on the behalf of man and the non-interesting the same race of the same rac

We could never see how it could be humility in any creature, whatever the dignity of his condition, to assume the office of a Mediater and to work out our renormilation. We do not forget to how extreme degradation a Mediator must consent to be reduced. We do not forget to how extreme degradation a Mediator must consent to be reduced, but neither do we forget the unmeasured exhalitation which was to be the Mediator's reward, and which, if Scripture be true, was to make him far higher than the highest of principaltities and powers; and we know not where would have been the amazing humility, where the unparalleled condecendion, land any mere creature consented should be himmeasurably elevated fit he did a certain thing, can hardly be commended

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Verse 8.—Every dish of fish and fowl that comes to our table, is an instance of this dominion man has over the works of God's hands, and it is a reason of our subjection to God our chief Lord, and to his dominion over us.

- HINTS TO PREACHERS.

  Verse 1.—"O Lord, our Lord."—Personal appropriation of the Lord as ours. "How secularly etc. The excellence of the name and nature of God in all persons or lecture upon the glory of God in creation and providence. "In all the early." The subrevail reventation of God in nature and it say of God." Above the house." The glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the pinedow of the beautier. "The glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and he pinedow of the beautier." The glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the pinedow of the beautier. "The glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the pinedow of the beautier." The glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the pinedow of the beautier. "The glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the pinedow of the God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the pinedow of the God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the glory of God outsoaring the intellect of angels, and the glory of God outsoaring the latest the glory of God outsoaring the glory

PSALM IX.

ediligh to the order. From a considerable company of tearned sulfusess we to the control of the Champion who sent out between the compa, "referring to Goldath control of the Champion who sent out between the compa," referring to Goldath control of the Champion who sent out to the control of the control of

WILL praise thee, O LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all thy marvelless and LORD, with my whole heart; I will shew forth all a 1 will be glad and rejoice in thee: I will sing praise to thy name, O thou most High.

3 When mine enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.

throne knows our hearts, and will not leave us to the ignorant and s judgment of erring man.

Trebukes before he destroys, but when he once comes to hlows with the creates not multiple heart will be heart and the comes of the

But the LORD shall endure for ever: he hath prepared his throne for gment.

8 And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment the people in uprightness.

9 The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of the Loron anso win oe a renge for the oppressed, a retuge in times of e...

And they that know thy name will put their trust in thee: for thou hast not foresteen them that seek thee.

Sing graines to the Loron, which dwelleth in Zion: declare among the When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he teth not the cry of the humble.

24 When he maketh inquisition for blood, he remembereth them: he forgetteth not the cry of the humble.

In the light of the past the future is not doubtful. Since the same Almighty God fills the throns of power, we can with undestating confidence, exalt in our control of the control of the

"O boye of every contribe bast,
To those who fall how kind thee art,
How good to those who seek,
"But what to those who find, at, this
"But what to those who find, at, this
"The love all few what it is,
"But what to those who find, at, this
The love all few what it is,
"But what to those who find, and the love to the

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EVALUATIONS OF THE PSALMS.

It is God's glory: "bat I may show forth all thy proise." Salats are not god's glory: "bat I may show forth all thy proise." Salats are not believed. The contrast between the gates of death and the gates of the New show for the contrast between the gates of death and the gates of the New more spitch by the double consideration of wheneve we are taken, and to what we been advanced, and let our prayers for mercy he made more energetic and the salats of the New to the Ne

Here ends the first part of this instructive pashm, and in pausing awhile we feel bound to confess that our exposition has only flitted over its surface, and has not digged into the depths. The verses are singularly full of teaching, and if the Holy Spirit shall bless the reader, he may go over this Pashm, as the writer has done scores of times, and see on each occasion fresh beauties.

15 The heathen are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which ep hid is their own foot taken.

16 The Lord is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah.

16 The Lono is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgsion. Selah.

In considering this terrible picture of the Lord's overwhelming judgments of his sensenies, we are called upon to ponder and mediate upon it with theep refounses and time your instrument. Bethink yourselves and solemnly adjust your hearts to the solemnly which is so well becoming the subject. Let us in a humble spirit to the solemnly which is so well becoming the subject. Let us in a humble spirit punishment of sin. Johowsh is known by the independent which he executift; it is boliness and abborrance of ain are that silpayed. A rather who whited at evil would soon advantage of the subject of t 17 The wicked shall be turned into hell, and all the nations that forget God.

God.

18 For the needy shall not alway be forgotten: the expectation of the poor shall not periah for ever.

17. The justice which has punished the wicked, and preserved the righteous, remains the same, and therefore in days to come, retribution will surely be meted of God. The moral who are not devent, the honewist who are not prayerful, the benevolent who are not believing, the amiable who are not converted, these must all have their portion with the openly wicked in the hell which is prepared for the

PSALM THE NINTH,

and his angels. There are whole nations of such; the forgetters of God are as more on them the profine or profiligate, and a city did not be the such as the such

Arise, O LORD; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in

rs) Arise, O Lonn; let not man prevail: let the heathen be judged in thy sight.

20 Put them in fear, O Lonn, that the nations may know themselves to be but men. Schalt.

21 Section of the schedule of the school of the school

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

EAPLANATURY NOTES AND QUAIN' SAYINGS.

Whole Paular—We are to consider this song of praise, as I conceive, to be the language of our great Advocate and Mediator. 'In the midst of the church gives of the control of the property of the prop could proceed from the lips of sone but our Mincantzance—John Frij. B.A., 1842. West 1.—'I a list flyging the form of Lord, with my subbe heart.' As a vessel by the secut thereof tolk what lipsor is in it, so should our mouths smell continually on mercy—Milliam Cooper, 1612.

Verse 1.—'I self prize the Lord with my should have 1, swill show forth of the lord of th

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

while they secretly acribe the deliverance more to themselves than to him. "All day consider," the marvedious token of thy grace. The Familiant shows by that day consider, the marvedious token of the years. The Familiant shows by that the Lord is also prized with the whole heart. Hell-heartedness, and the depreciation of the lord is also prized with the whole heart. Hell-heartedness, and the depreciation of the lord of the ther.

Vers 3.—" When mine enemies are turned back," etc. Were turned back, re put to flight. To render this in the present time, as our translators talked languages. It destroys the coherence, and introduces absently all put to flight the presence of the coherence of the coherence. That is, by this anger. For as God's presence of face the face of cheven's a signature than the coherence of the

Verse 5.—"Thou hast rebuked the heathen," etc.—Augustine applieth all this mystically, as is intimated (verse 1) that it should be applied for, "I will speak,"

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

at day." 2 Thm. 1.2. "He is faithful that promised," and "able also.
"Eds. 2.2. and 21. 11; Com. by 21. The free promises of the Lord to be valued above thousands of gold and silver; trutt therefore in the youl, and follow hard after thim. Thou hast his free promise, who never the promise who have the promised, who is good and something to the valued by; thou does it his work, who is able and assuredly will bear the end.
by; thou does it his work, who is able and assuredly will bear the out.
when the promised, who is good and bountful to the wicked
by; thou does it his work, who is able and assuredly will bear the out.
when the promised, who is good and bountful to the wicked seem to full they; cleave unto his relative to bough the finel hist, the world and themps by histories are linearing to the history. The world and the proper histories are linearing to the history. The world ure, the dwil tempt by flatteries or threatenings to the contrary—John Baut, Verse 10.—"They that know thy man will put their trust in thee." They can do otherwise who savingly know God's sweet attributes, and noble cats for his pole. We never trust a man till we know than, and both mar are latter known than the same than Verse 12—"When he make linquisition for blood he remembered them." There is a time when God will make linquisition for lincoen blood. The Hebrew work is a time when God will make linquisition for lincoen blood. The Hebrew work was a state of the heart of the heart is a perpetual stream of rich benefits.—William S. Plumer.

r a perpetual stream of rich benefits.—William S. Plumer.

r a perpetual stream of rich benefits.—William S. Plumer.

15.—"The heather are sund down in the pilt the top mote," etc., Whilst digging pits for others, there is a pit a-digging and a grave a-making for tex. They have a measure to make up, and a treasure to fill, which at the pilt of the pilt of the pilt. The pilt of the pilt of the pilt of the pilt. The pilt of the pilt of the processing of I, may have effect and a Fruit upon those who did not feet it. no the sight of the nations. Each, ed. § 5, 8, 14, 15. ... Code would execute judgmen in Jerusaten, a city piace in the midst of the nations that is at he nations had take in Jerusaten, and the piace in the midst of the nations that it are not sufficiently applied to the process of the piace of the p

106 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verse 16.—" The Lord is known by the judgments which he executelt;" whe lays his hand upon sinners, saints tremble, consider his power, majesty, greatnes the nature of his judgments, and so judge themselves, and remove out of the wa whatever may provoke.

A fire begets a sphendour round about where his, so do the judgments of God set out to the world his glory, justice, holiness.—

I so the program of the province of the sphendour round better the province of the province o

Verse 16.—" Snared in the work of his own hands." The wages that sin bargains with the sinner are life, pleasure and profit; but the wages it pays him with are death, torment, and destruction. He that would understand the falsehood and deceit of sin, must compare its promises and its payments together.—Robert South D. 1682, 1526.

Verse 16.—"Higgaion, Selah," that is, as Ainsworth renders it, "Meditation Selah: "showing this ought to be seriously considered of. The word "Higgaion is again had (Psaim xcii. 3); being mentioned among other musical instrument whereby we may gather it to be one of them; for there is psaltery, nable, higgaio and harn—John Manuer.

and dapped and supply and the socks of his one hands. Not only one was the time work of 600, but all listory, all experience, records the same righteon justice of 600, in snaring the wicked in the work of their own hands or considerable with the horres of the French Revolution, in which we are tole that, "within sine months of the death of the queen Marie Antionette by the hands of the french Revolution, in which we are tole that," within sine months of the death of the queen Marie Antionette by the higher of the source of the s

Verse 17.—The ungodly at death must undergo God's fury and indignation. "The wicked shall be turned into held." I have read of a loadstone in Ethiopia which hath two corners, with one it draws the iron to it, with the other it puts the ron mit; so God hath two hands, of mercy and justice; with the one he will draws the the godly to heaven, with the other he will thrust the sinner to hell; and oh, how dreadful is that place! It is called a flery lake (Rev. xx. 15); a lake, to deand.

ALM THE NINTH.

the most torturing element. Strabe in his geography mentions a lake in Gailli of such a partificrous nature that it acideth of the skin of whatever is cast int R; but, shall that lake is cool compared with this flery lake into which the dama as thrown. To demonstrate this fire truthly, there are two most permicious qualities are through the constraint of the constraint of the constraint of the checking the state of the constraint of the constraint of the checked in the flame, yet not consumed (five. xx. 10); "And the devil was east int the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and what the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and what the lake of fire and the constraint of t

Verse 17.—" The wicked shall be farmed into half," etc. By "the wicked "more was understand unregenerate person, whoever they are that, are in a state of the property of the long into hell, down into hell. The original is very emphatic—Adam Careke.

Verse 17.—Adv whicehess came originally with the whiced one from bell: White return to that place of torment, there to be shut up for ever. The true stat both of "nations," and the individuals of which they are composed, it to be estimate from one single circumstance; namely, whether in their doings they remember of him, the foundation of vice—Groep Horne, D.D. (registrates).

Hell, their fit habitation, fraught with fire Unquenchable, the house of woe and pain.

John Millon, 1608—1676

Verse 17.-

Will without power, the element of Asii, Absortive all its acts returning will be about the abou

J. A. Heraud.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

isse for a knowledge decessions, and when pleaded effects that Others are the second and excessions, and when pleaded effects that Others are set in the second sec use ces, time, and in the best manner: It is more read targy are at the best, yet God hath an infinite memory, he nor can, nor will forget; the expectation of the earlier shall not fall per eer, that is, neer.—Richard Capit.

Vers 19.—"Arie, O Lord", etc. What does this mean? Are we to consider the Pashinit as praying for the destruction of his enemies, as pronouncing a malerable that mischelf may happen to his enemies; they are the words of a prophet, of one who is foretelling, in Scripture language, the evil that must befull them on account of their size.—Augustine.

ot tater sian—Augustine.

Verse 20.—" Put them in fear, O Lord," etc. We should otherwise think ourselves gods. We are so inclined to sin that we need strong restraints, and so swelled corrupt matter. The constant hanging the rod over us makes us lick the dust, and acknowledge ourselves to be allogsther at the Lord's mercy. Though God hath pardoned us, be will make us wear the halter about our necks to humble us.—Stephen Charmock.

Ottamock.

Verse 20.—"That the nations may know themselves to be but men." The original word is wu, enoth; and therefore it is a prayer that they may know themselves to be but miserable, frail, and dying men. The word is in the singular number, but it is used collectively.—John Cabin.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

PSALM X.

the Church of Gold during time of persecution, and is individual units who are smarting under the hand of the present since, this Paulin purishes suitable language both for prouger and praiss.

EXPOSITION.

WHY standest thou afar off, O Lone? why hidest thou thyself in times of the control of the control

PSALM THE TENTH.

5 His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.
6 He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in advanting.

activating.

7. His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.

8. He sitted in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

9. He left his wait secretly as a loin in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.

10. He crouchedt, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his ong ones.

If He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; will never see it.

If the hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.

2. The second verse contains the formal indictment against the wicked: "The second verse contains the formal indictment against the wicked: The second verse contains the formal indictment against the wicked: "The second verse contains the proof and cause of the other distinct charges,—prile and tyremry in some the root and cause of the other distinct charges,—prile and tyremry in some the root and cause of the other distinct charges,—prile and tyremry in some the root and cause of the other charges,—prile and tyremry in the second prile and natural. Even our ensemble themselves being ludges, it is but right that men should be done measure your corn with your own huste. Terrible shall be the day, of persecuting Balyion; when then that he made to drink of the winceup which then thyself Balyion; when the hand has been deep to persecuting Balyion; when the hand has every Haman on his own gallows, and cast all the ensemts of his Daniels into that own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into that own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into that own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into that own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into that own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into their own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into their own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into their own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into their own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into their own dan of losses.

all the ensemts of his Daniels into the losses of his band has been deep to the losses of the own daniels of his losses of the losses of the content has been deep to the losses of the content has been deep to the losses of the content has been deep to the losses of the content has been deep the losses of the content has been deep the losses of the content has been deep to the losses of the content has been deep to the

"Snatch from his hand the balance and the rod, Rejudge his justice, be the god of God."

How often have we heard the wicked man speaking in terms of honour of the covetous, the grinder of the poor, and the sharp dealer! Our old proverb hath it—

"I wot well how the world wags; He is most loved that hath most bags."

Pride meets covetousness, and compliments it as whee, thrifty, and prudent. We say it with serrow, there are many professors of religion who esteem a rich man, and faster him, even though though show that he has fattened himself upon the and faster him, even though though show that he has fattened himself upon the covetous men. If a man is a fornicator, or a drunkard, we put him out of the chartch; but who ever read of church discipline against that idolatous wretch, the covolent man? Let us treadsh, but we be found to be partaker of this structions and optide, "Bassing the covolent, when Ashovath shorrests."

4. The proof boarding and eller debt bessing of the whiched have been received in evidence against hein, and now his own here confirms the accusation, and his considerable of the confirmation of the c dealing, he role his neighbours. Bewere of such a man: have no near how the most foolish will put themselves into the noted of the force seemen, but the most foolish will put themselves into the noted yet favore. But proceed. Let us look under this man's tongue as well as in his mouth; all though the most process of the seemen that the seemen that the process of the seemen that the seemen tha well pictures our danger in those memorable lines,—

Deadly THE TENTH.

"The done pursers' husy hands do plant
Saxers in thy solutance; names attend thy want;
Saxers in thy solutance; names attend thy want;
Saxers in thy high estate; names in thy disgrace;
Saxers tuck thy pide outse; names in thy base outself solutions of the solution o

Starse with thy thought; and name struck thy word;
Starses in thy quiet; sames in thy commission;
Starses in thy diet; sames in thy donotic;
Starses in the interpretation;
Starses in the interpretation;
Starses in the interpretation of the donot;
Starses are above thy head, and names beneath;
Starses are above thy head, and names beneath;
In the starses in the statems; sense are in thy donotic;
In the starses in the statems; sense are in the poor many full by h
In the starses of the starses are in the poor many full by h
In the starses of the starses are in the poor many full by h
In the starses are also are longing to make us full. Be very careful of favners; for friendship and are longing to make us full. Be very careful of favners; for friendship and are donoty enemis.

estardely be a greater preservation around an unature to consequence.

The last the trial proceeded. The case has been fully stated; and now it is but little wonder that the opperssed petitioner litts up the cry for judgment, which wind in the following verse:—

12 Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thine hand; forget not the humble. With what bold language will faith address its God! and yet what unbelief is mingled with our strongest confidence. Fearlessly the Lord is stirred up to arties and lift up his and, yet timidity is he begged not to forget the humble; as of the Church, and the will never refrain therefrom until he had been come in the Church, and the will never refrain therefrom until he Lord hall come in his glory to average her of all her adversaries.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

13 Wherefore doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou will not require it.

14 Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to require it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself unto thee; thou art the helper of the fatheries. the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou find none.

of the fatherless.

13 Sreak thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness fill thou find none.

13 Sreak thou the arm of the wicked is condensed, and the evil of his contensed and the set of the contensed and the set of the contensed and the evil of his contensed and the set of the contensed and the set of the set of the set of the world. We may at once perceive that this is intended to be government of the world. We may at once perceive that this is intended to be another the set of the world. We may at once perceive that this is intended to be another the set of the world. We may at once perceive that this is intended to be another the set of the world. We may at once perceive that this is intended to be another the set of the set of the world. We may at once perceive that this is intended to he another the set of the se

16 The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of 1/LORD, the King for ever and ever: the heathen are perished out of 1/LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thine are to hear:

18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS

of mind, whether they ever will be converted or not.—Mortin Lubin—"Wey hidden the highest in times of promble?" The answer to this seek, for if the Lord did not hide himself if would not be a time of
l. As well as why the mu does not this at high, when for certain the seek, for if the Lord did not hide himself if would not be a time of her should withdraw his mile: there is a needs be not only for manifold but that we be in beaviness through them. The design of the rod is dely making us mare. If there he no pain, there will be no profit, her should be the seek of the seek of the profit of the rod is defined. The seek of the seek of the seek of the seek of her should be seek of the seek of the seek of the seek of his challements—of the seek of the seek of his department of the first of the seek of his department of

FSALM THE TENTH.

; and especially against this, as being in my opinion, one of the most evident the most common of them all. For who half not been marded in the snare of the most common of them all. For who half not been marded in the snare of the sna

PSALM THE TENTH

119

sole object of them. We have durable thoughts of transitory things, and fitting in the second of the Verset 4, 5.—The world hath a spiritual fascination and witchcraft, by which were it had now prevailed, man exchanted to an utter forgetfulness of them where it had now prevailed, man exchanted to an utter forgetfulness of them and height of folly. Some, like foolish children, are made to keep a great in the world for very trilles, for a valu show; they think themselves great affect on the control of the con

Verse 5.—" Grieous," or troublesome: that is, all his endeavours and action and an at nothing but at hurting others. "Are  $\mu$  adoner," for he is alloghter carnal he hath not any disposition nor correspondence with the justice of thy law, which is altogether sarpitual; and therefore cannot lively represent unto himself thy judgments, and the issue of the wicked according to the said law. Row, will, 14 1 Cor. ii. 14. " It  $\mu$  purplet," iv he obth most arrogamytly despise them, and is confident

Verse b.—" The judgments are for elever out of his sight." Because God does tunnelisted by visit every in with pushimment, ungody men do not see that it and publicity, commend themselves to the common judgment, but the Lord's mode dealing with an are sublimer and apparently more ranky, hence the bar's eyes of them. If God ant in the gate of every village and hold his court there, even fool might chieren his rightenumes, but they are not capable of preceiving that for matter. Let believers take heed lest they fall in a degree into the same error, an

Verse 5.—" The judgments of God are far above out of his sight." Out of his sigh as an eagle at her highest towering so lessons herself to view, that he sees not 't talons, nor fears the grip. Thus man presumes till he hath sinned, and then despaid as fast afterwards. At first. "Tush, doth God see it?" At last. "Alast is will G

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

forgive it?" But if a man will not know his sins, his sins will know him; the eyes which presumption shuts, commonly despite opens.—Thomas Adams.

Yers b.—'As for all his enemies, he profith at them.' David describeth a proof as the history of the common of the common series and the hast some great matter in him, and he putils at others as if he had some great matter in him, and he putils at others as if he could do some great matter against them, forgetting that himself is but, as to his being in this word, a putil of wind which passes have,—Joseph Caryli.

Verse 6.—" He halt said in his heart, I shall not be mosed: for I shall near in anderstip." Carnal security opens the door for all implety to enter into the son Pompey, when he had in vain assaulted a city, and could not take it by force, devise this stratagem in way of agreement; he told them he would leave the size and make would not be supported to the strategies of the strategies of let in a whole army of lusts into the soil.—Thomas Brooks. Were the.—"If the hand sail in his heart, I shall not be reported by the Verse the.—"If hand sail of his heart, I shall not be soiled. It comparable one's self for having obtained the end before we have made use of the means; it steek the hands to receive the crown of rightconsumes before they have been employed to fight the battle; to be content with a false peace, and to use no effort like the winds one of the content with a false peace, and to use no effort like that while some voyagers describe, and which is a very singular forerunner of very terrible event. All on a sudden, in the wide ocean, the sea becomes calm, but write of the waver clear as a crystal, amonth an glass—che air serene; the unstract of the waver clear as a crystal, amonth and the second of the content of Vere 7.—" Under his longue is mischilf and sonity." The triking allusion this expression is to certain venous reptiles, which are said to carry hog of poles under their teeth, and with great subtlety to inflict the most deadly injuries upe those who come within their reach. How affectingly does this represent the as have which minds tainted with inflodility inflict on the community! By the preventions of truth, and by their immorals entiments and practices, they are

Verse 7—8. In Anne Askew's account of her examination by Bilhop Bonne we have an instance of the cruel card of spersection. "On the morrow after, my have have an instance of the cruel card of persections." On the morrow after, my have been repeated by the control of the contr

DEATM THE TENTH

- 1

'More swift,' salth Jeremy, 'are our cruel persecutors than the eagles of the air. They follow upon as over the mountains, and lay privy wait for us in the wilderness.' He that will know the crafty hawking of bishops to bring in their prey, let him learn It here. Judan, I thin, han lover the tenth part of their cunning workmanship." John Bale, D.D., Bishop of 05sorg, 1495—1983, in "Ezamination of Anne Asken."

Verse 8.—' He sittled in the luxima places of the sillages," etc. The Arab robbe which like a woll damong these saint-sheeps, and often suprings out suddenly upon the solitary traveller, rols him in a trice, and then planges again into the wilderness and the solitary traveller, rols him in a trice, and then planges again into the wilderness and to follow under the solitary traveller and the solitary traveller and the supress of the supress to stage about, or lap behind, and vet it seems about to fear supress here—Katla before, Acre in the rare, and travellers in sight on both sides and it has always been so. There are a hundred allusions to just such things in the history, the Paslans, and the prophets of Israel. A whole class of imagery is hosted in the secret places of the murder the inneanct: he lited in wait secretly as lion in his den: he litch in wait to catch the poor; he doth catch the poor, when the secret places are the secret places are the secret places and the secret places are the secret places are the secret places are the secret places are the secret places and the secret places are the secret places are the secret places are secret places are the secret

Verse 8—My companious asked me if I knew the danger I had escaped. "No. I replied; "What danger I "I make the the total me that, just after they started they save a wild Arab skulking after me, crucching to the ground, with a musket in this hand; and that, as soon as he had resched within what appeared to them musket which is about to perpetrate some desperate ask, the caught sight of them and disparent. Jerseniah knew something of the ways of these Arabs when he wrote (chap, iii. 2)." In the ways hast thou as if or them, as the Arabsian in the widternes; "and the similes to used in Fasin as. 3, 10, for the Arabs wat and watch for their grey and the similes to used in Fasin as. 3, 10, for the Arabs wat and watch for their grey and the similes to used in Fasin as. 3, 10, for the Arabs wat and watch for their grey many the similar to th

Jack press A.—' He sitted to the larking places of the villages; in the scere places duch the number the tunneant; he saye are priviley at equation the poor.' All this strength of metapher and insagery is intended to mark the assidiarty the canning the poor.' All this strength of the present present present the present prese as nog as the sun."—John Morison,

Verse b.—"It deds cists the poor." The poor man is the beast they hunt, who must rise early, rest late, eat the breast of survey, sit with many a hungry meal, so the survey of t

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

"The stone will cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer Hab. ii. I. You see the beast they hunt. Not forees, nor wolves, nor boars hulls, nor tigers. It is a certain observable, no beast hust its own kind to devou own kind; for they are beast themselves, no rather worse than these, because here home hominal lupias. But though they are men they hunt, and by nature of the same home hominal lupias. But though they are men they hant, and by nature of the same blood, and they, and fleeves to be had; and therefore not have been selves. In them there is weak armour of defence against their cruellies; therefore in the instance of the same selves. In them there is weak armour of defence against their cruellies; the very thank the same selves in the same selves. In the work armour of defence against their cruellies; the very thank the same selves in the same s Administracy—"He draweth him into his net." They must with, a net." Misst

12. They have their pulling into each men; gaudy wares and ark shepp clan would you have them love the light that live by dericess, as many shopkeeper; the would you have them love the light that live by dericess, as many shopkeeper; the performance of the light that the love of the light that live by the light performance performance of the light that the light performance of the light performance performance devices, but pullic becomes mission to your seasons are not properly with them, I should intend to discover these handers plots, and to deal punctually with them, I should never the light performance of earth, not before the large such as the light performance of earth, not before the large such as the light performance of earth, not before the large such as the light performance of earth, not before the large such as the light performance of earth, not before the large such as the light performance of earth, not before the large such as the light performance of the light perf

Verse 9.—Oppression turns princes into roaring ilons, and judges into event wolves. It is a numatural sin, against the light of nature. No creature do oppor them of their own kind. Look upon the birds of prey, as upon cagles, vulimthe beasts of their own kind. Look upon the birds of prey, as upon cagles, vulimthe beasts of the forest, as upon the lion, the tiger, the wolf, the bear, and you sh ever find them tavourable to their own kind; and yet men unnaturally prey upever find them tavourable to their own kind; and yet men unnaturally prey upfreeks.

Verse 10.—" He consoleth, and hambleth himself," etc. There is nothing to mean or servile for them, in the attempt to achieve their sinister ends. You said see his holiness the Pope washing the pilgrims' feet, if such a stratagem be necessar to act on the minds of the deluded multitude; or you shall see him stitup on a throng of the earth—John Morison.

Verse 10.—If you take a woll in a lambbidin, hang him up; for he is the worst of the generation.—Thomas Adam.

Verse 11.—" He hash said in his heart, God hall propolers." Is it not a sensition thing to be careless of sine committed long ago? The old sine forgotten by men, stick fast in an infinite understanding. Time cannot raze out that which halb been cated, since they were Forenkown in an esternly before they were committed, or the criminal capable to practice them? A make must pay their arrears of their manners of the criminal capable to practice them? A make must pay their arrears of the mitted them were rotten in heir graves. I Saul, boody generation that committed them were rotten in heir graves. I Saul, boody it is written. He had not the state of the said of whom we have not careful to offend. But they shall not be covered and hid; but then shall they go the back way, to the snakes and sepenst, to be tormerized of New Year 1.1—" Them has tern it; so then sholdest ministic and spile, be required in the high of the property of the state of the wides, to think that what-seever they do, they do it in the sight of him that shall ludge them, and call them it should make them firstld to similar the considerable that the sight of him that thall ludge them, and call them it should make them firstld to similar one cannot go the simple that the sight of him that that has been did not should make them firstld to similar than the sight of him that the sight. And when the sight, and when any breach him was a first him that the sight of heart much him the sight. And when any breach him was a first him that the sight of heart much him the sight. And when any breach him and was a four fairly him the sight. And when any breach him the sight has the sight has the sight of him that the sight. And when any breach him the sight has the listent the sight. However, the sight is the sight of him that the sight has the sight had been an eccasion of conversing more with t the other attributes subservent.—Stephen Charmock.

Vers 14.—Thou hat sent if, "etc. II Good did not see our ways, we might she were the control of the cont

ne commel of Abilitophia, without more way prayer of actuer; the deepest policy, sheet of at bosomatic Rhizophian, min sway like covarial school and the prayer of Ana—Rhizophian, 1599—1670, min sway like covarial school the prayer of Ana—Rhizophian, 1599—1670, min sway like covarial school the prayer of Ana—Parent Rayolds, 1599—1670, ping the the interests and the oppressed; "etc. The terms of the coor fall down upon their checks, et accordant of ceitum, and go up to beaven and yet veragence before God, the plage of widows, the falter of widows and orphans, sugainst the poor, what shall be to them that hinder and mar good laws? What fill ye do in the day of great venganean when God shall with you? I we said has keep a shall be to them that hinder and mar good laws? What fill ye do in the day of great venganean when God shall with you? I we said has keep he had not been shall be to them that hinder and mar good laws? What the keep has been shall be to them that hinder and mar good laws? What when he had the hinder and mar good laws? What while yet of the head, pinck his judges kinks over their beach, equates, lord presidents, and leutenants under him. It is a great while age since patter, lord presidents, and leutenants under him. It is a great while age since you will be the proper than the shall be to the fall of the laws of the proper than the shall be to the third of the long of the l ing.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

The man of the earth." Man dwelling in the earth, and made of Wilcocks.

INITIES TO PREACHERS.

1811—The answer to these questions are always and the topic for an extral sermon. Let me suggest that the question is not to be answered in me namer in all cases. Past it and, trials of graces, trengthening of faith, Falter facey, instruction, etc., etc., are varied reasons for the helding sea.—Religious persecution in all its phases based on pride.

2—Religious persecution in this phases based on pride.

24.—Pride the barrier in the way of conversion.

24.—Pride the barrier in the way of conversion.

24.—Pride the barrier in the way of conversion.

25. (fast clause)—Thoughts in which God is not, wedged and condemned. The conversion of the conversion.

25.—The Proceed of the conversion of the significance of the conversion of the conve is, and recommended bits to fire to some militaris under, its ball a titing, its defendance of the fire of the fir

EXPOSITION.

EXPOSITION.

IN the Losp put I my trust i how say by they make ready their arrow upon the fore, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the rightous do?

3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the rightous do?

These wrese contain an account of a temptation to distrast God, with which boyld was, upon some unmentioned occasion, greatly exercised. It may be, this right would have been charged against him as a breach of duty to the king, or a roof of personal covariete. His case was like that of Nehemiah, when his enemies, his life. Had he done so, they could then have found a ground of accusation, because the contract of the second o he language of faith; that martial grace knows how to fight, and compare, the knows not how to fiee.

The Loso is in his holy temple, the Loso's throne is in heaven; his behold, his eviglist try, the chiddren of men.

The Loso trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth now have the contract of the contr

PSALM THE ELEVENTH.

Did I meet no trials here— No chastisement by the way— Might I not, with reason, fear I should prove a cast-away!

Bastards may escape the rod, Sunk in earthly vain delight; But the true-born child of God Must not would not if he mish

William Cowper.

In not this a very cogent reason why we should not distrustfully endeavour to hum a trial—for it is odouge were needing to rovid a blessing. "why, then, thal I file from these wicked men? If God hateful them, I will not fore them. Hams as very great in the palace until he tool favor, in the when the ling abborred hum. I file from these wicked men? If God hateful hum, I will not fore them. Hams and we shall not run away from them. If God is in the quarrel as well as correleves and we shall not run away from them. If God is the quarrel as well as correleves and we shall not run away from them. If God is the quarrel as well as correleves a shall all the ungoing. They may gaster together like Gog and Magag to be title shall all the ungoing. They may gaster together like Gog and Magag to be title and before the control of th

The delightful contrast of the last verse is well worthy of our observation, and it affords another overwhelming ranson why we should be steffast, unmovalle, it all the contrast of the steffast, unmovalle, it is a state of the steffast of the steffast, unmovalle, the contrast of the steffast of the st

EXPO

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS

While Pashin.—The most probable account of the scenation of this Pashin is that given by Amyraidus. He thinks it was composed by David while he was in the ourt of Sun, it at time when the bettility of the king was beginning to show itself, and the state of the stat

Whole Pash.—It one may offer to make a modest conjecture, it is not im probable this Pash might be composed on the sad number of the priests by San (I Sam. xxii. 19), when after the slaughter of Abimelech, the high priest, Does in Exionate, by command from Sanii, "she we not easy fourcors and five persons of the Exionate, by command from Sanii, "she we not expressed to the priests" of the Jews on the material walls of the priests' city at Nob (which then by Does as mittles with the edge of the word, but this is most true, that "knowledge must preserve the people," and (Mail. 1t. 7), "The priests' lips shall preserve middle make in the configuration of priests" lips shall preserve the people," and (Mail. 1t. 7), "The priests' lips shall preserve middle makes in the configuration of priests" lips shall preserve the people, "and (Mail. 1t. 7), "The priests' lips shall preserve the people," and (Mail. 1t. 7), "The priests' lips shall preserve the people of the priests" of the priests o

Whele Paim.—Solice how remarkably the whole Fualm corresponds with the deliverance of their from Sodian. This werea, with the nagel's chiefutation that the deliverance of the transformation. This werea, with the nagel's chiefut considerable to the mountains, sat some evel take me and I die." Genetis sat. It reads again, "It explores sat in its mease, and upon the negocial be shell rule to the same of the same o

Whole Psalm.—The combatants at the Lake Thrasymene are said to have bee so engrossed with the conflict, that neither party perceived the convulsions of

"An earthquake reeled unbeedingly away, None felt stern nature rocking at his feet."

From a nobier cause, it is thus with the soldiers of the Lamb. They believe, an therefore, make no haste; nay, they can scarcely be said to feel earth's convulsion as other men, because their eager hope presses forward to the issue at the advert of the Lord.—Andrew A. Bonar.

Verse 1.—" I Furst in the Lord: how do pt say to my soul, Source on to pountain like a bod?" (others, "O thin live!") Saul and his adherents mock and the land of the live of the live of the live! The live of th cometh: a sneer. Repair to that boasted hill, which may indeed give you thelp which it gives the sparrow: a sablera against the inclemencies of a storn sky, no defence against our power.—Samuel Horstey, in loc.

Vere 1.—17 in the Lood pull 1 mp trust: how say up to my soil, Fire on a bound of the look of

PSALM THE ELEVENTH.

ed knight, On thee my care

Appointed to the field,
With this world will I fight,
And Christ shall be my shield

Faith is that weapon strong, Which will not fail at need: My foes, therefore, among Therewith will I proceed.

And force of Christe's way, It will prevail at length, Though all the devils say no Faith in the fathers old

Faith in the fathers old Obtained righteousness; Which make me very bold To fear no world's distress.

And hope bids me do so; For Christ will take my part, And ease me of my woe. Thou say'st Lord, whose knock,

To them wilt thou attend: Undo therefore the lock, And thy strong power send More enemies now I have Than hairs upon my head: For all their cruel spite: I set not by their haste; For thou art my delight.

I am not she that list My anchor to let fall For every drizzling mist, My ship substantial.

Not oft use I to write, In prose, nor yet in rhyme; Yet will I shew one sight That I saw in my time.

I saw a royal throne, Where justice should have sit But in her stead was one Of moody, cruel wit.

Absorbed was righteousness.
As of the raging flood:
Satan, in his excess,

Then thought I, Jesus Lord, When thou shall judge us al Hard it is to record On these men what will fall.

Yet, Lord, I thee desire, For that they do to me, Let them not taste the hire Of their iniquity.

Verse 1.—" Here may be one pout. Fine as a bird to pour mountain?" We may observe, that Dovid is much pleased with the metaphor in frequently commy observed. The Dovid is much pleased with the metaphor in frequently compared to the pour observed by the pour obs in whom thou hopest for succour and security.

Seeling this counted was both pool in itself, and good at this time, why doll bawlet seem so angry and displeased thereat. "Those his words, "Way sog particular to the seem of the seeling the seem of the seem of advice where the good matter receives no infection from the ill manner of the delivery thereof. Thus, when the chief priests mocked our Saviour (Matt. xxvii. 43)." He trusted in Yod, let him deliver him now if he will have him." Carist trusted in the priest of the to bestew upon him. Otherwise, if men's mocks should make us to undervalue good counsel, we might in this age he mocked out of our God, and Carist, and Scripture, and heaven; it we apostic Jude, verse 'is, having foredth that in the last times there

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verst.—It is as great an offence to make a new, as to deay the true God. "In Lead put II my mart;" how then "any gu main my act" 'yes sedencer of sozis), the Lead put II my mart; "how then "any gu main my act" 'yes sedencer of sozis), which is a sedence of the lead of t

The state of the s

Verse 1.—The shadow will not cool except in it. What good to have the shadow though of a mighty rock, when we sit in the open sun? To have sminghty powe engaged for us, and we to throw ourselves out of it, by bold sallies in the mouth of temphation! The saint's fails have been when they have run out of their trend the saint's sit have been when they have run out of their trend the saint's sit is the property of the saint's sit is saint's sit is saint's sit is saint's sit is saint's saint's sit is saint's sit is saint's sai

Yers 1.—The saints of old would not accept deliverances on base terms. The sormed to fix away for the enjoyment of rest except it were with the wings of dove, overed with silver innocence. As willing were many of the marrys ashamed, O Emperor! The Christians laught at your cruelty, and grow the more resolute," said one of Julian's nobles. This the heathern counted obstinacy is were about their hearts.—John Trapp.

Vers 2.—" For, Io, the wicked band their bow," etc. This verse presents an unequal combat betwirk armed power, admentaged with policy, on the one side and naked innocence on the other. First, armed power. "They bend their bows and make ready their arouse," being all the artillery of that age, secondly admentaged with policy." that they may prive a stringer of the policy of the stringer of the policy of the stringer of the stri

Verse 2.—"For, lo, the unpolly bend their bow, and make ready their arms until that new interest that they may printly about of them which are two of heart." The plottings of the chief priests and Pharises that they might take Jesus by subtlet and lill him. They heat their low, when they hired about shearlof to the belergys and lill him. They heat their low, when they hired about shearlof to the belergys with the season of the seaso

They bring their 1. Hoc velle, 2. Hoc agere, 3. Totum post

They bring their [2. He agere, 3. Totum post.

It they destroy not the foundations, it is no thanks to them, seeing all the world will bear them writess they have done finder best (that is, finder norsh, what their they may not only valmly boast, but also verily believe that they have destroyed for foundations. Applicable to this purpose, is that high rand of the Roman decree from Casar Augustas, that all the world should be taxed.* All the world whereas he had, though much, not all in Europe, little in Asia, less in Africa, none to the Romans. But Apprehole is not a figure, but the ordinary language of pride; because indeed Augustas had very much, he pre-facilists himself to have all the apparition. The church in persecution is like unto a ship in a tempest; down go all their mans, yea, sometimes for the more speed they are forced to cat them then, though when the storm is over, they can holt up their sails as a high, and spread their canvas as broad as ever before. So the church in the line of persecution is the claim of the call of the control of the control of the control of the presecution is the unit or ship the sails as a high, and spread their canvas as broad as ever before. So the church in the line of persecution found, but specially felt, loseth all gayness and gallantry which may attra after the role of behavior that the special property of the special date in the property of the special property of the special property of the date up in her wardobe, in one and careful hope that God will give her a happy day, when with joy she shall wear her best garments. Lastly they me in their melancholy site. I will instance he happy day to the state of the first take and greatest eminency, even Ellish himself complaining (I Kinga xiz "And I, even in Joy, am left ; and they seek any life, to take it anayy."—If

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

of Fuller.

or Fuller.

or Fuller.

or Sulfare and the foundations be destroyed," etc. The civil foundation of a no people, is their laws and constitutions. The order and power that's not proved that the sulfare and the su of the fallen foundations, as not being man waves, we way, the formerly fixed, pieced, not settled. It is not said, if the roof be rulinous, or if the side walls be shattered, but if the poindation-flower of the roof be rulinous, or if the side walls be shattered, but if the poindation-flower of the roof be rulinous, or if the side walls be shattered, which is the roof the rulinous of the roof th

PSALM THE ELEVENTH.

God at any time can tell thee what plots are hatching there against illimin Gurnal. South, his spidted by, the children of mere." When an increase a case of the control of thing.—C. H. S.

Verse 6.—"Upon the wicked he shall rain snares." Snares to hold them; then if they be not delivered, follow fire and brimstone, and they cannot escape. This is the case of a sinner if he repeat not; if God parison not, he is in the snare of a sinner in the repeat not; if God parison not, he is in the snare of a sloud for his deliverance, that he may have his feet in a large room. The wicked up snares for the rightenes, but God either prevented them that their souls ever delivered." No snares hold us so fast as those of our own sins; they keep down our heads, and toop us that we cannot look up: a very little ease they are to him that hath not a seared considence.—Samuel Paps, 1646.

Verse 6.—"He shall rain neares." As in hunting with the lasso, the huntaman casts a snare from above upon his prey to entangle its head or feet, so shall the Lord from above with many twistings of the line of terror, surround, bind, and take capitive the hatter of his law—"I. H. S.

He shall rain own the vengenow has the state of the result of the property of the hatter of his law—"I. H. S.

He shall rain own the vengenow has no see good for it rains not lawer. Though the hall rain own the vengenow has no see good for it rains not lawer. Though the hall rain own the vengenow has no see good for it rains not lawer. Though the hall rain own the vengenow has the state of the rains of the rains of the state of the hall rain own the rains of the hall rain own the hall rains own the desired of the rains of the desired of the rains of the desired for ear of which they are now exavied; and the more they have abused, the most wealth, and so much power to do makeids: is it not that they night be desired for ear of which they are now exavied; and the more they have abused, the more desirable will their condemnation be. Then it will be seen that God gave them not as mercles, which have the same of the desired of the rains of th

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

Verse 1.—Faith's hold avoval, and brave refusal.

Verse 1.—Faith's hold avoval, and brave refusal, and the property of the pro sing all controls was been all the present enterty, believe confidently, and triumph finally.

Verse 4.—The elevation, mystery, supremacy, purity, evertainingness, invisibility, etc., of the throne of God. such the fact that the children of men, as well as the righteens, are tried; work out the contrast between the two trials in their design and result, etc., of which the righteens are tried; work out the contrast between the two trials in their design and result, etc., of which the righteens. It who car tried; I. What in them is tried 1—Fatth, love, etc. III. In what manner 1—Trials of every sort, 150 mer. The right one. I. Who are tried; I. What in them is tried 1—Fatth, love, etc. III. In what manner 1—Trials of every sort, 150 mer. The right of the god, and the weeping out of the return. It was the contrast the surface of the first of the god, and the weeping out of the return. Verse 6. "He shalf rain." Gracious rain and destroying rain. Verse 6. "He shalf rain." Gracious rain and destroying rain. Verse 6. "He shalf rain." Gracious rain and destroying rain.

PSALM XII.

and sojourn in the time of Kedar, may read and sing these sacred stances with hearts in pill accord with their mighted included of body morning and byty confidence.

EXPOSITION.

HELP, Lond; for the gody man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among a They speak vanity every one with his neighbour: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.

'Help, Lord.'' A short, but week, suggestive, easonable, and serviceable processions. Almworth says the word rendered, the procession of the standard of the standard procession. Almworth says the word rendered, but it is seen that the prayer is clavily, helphalp, eddivering, preserving, etc. Thus It seems that the prayer is for a man had better be smoog floors than among liar; he feels his own hability to deal with such cases of blelah, for "he who shall touch them must be funced with in aver denied to his servants, and whose add is enough for all their needs." Help, and the standard stand

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

3 The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh out things:
4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own:
to is lord over us?

5 For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the Lore; I will set him in safety from him hast patient at him. In due season the Lord will hear his sleet one, who cry day and night unto him, and though he bear long with their oppressors, yet will he avenge them speedly, bobserve that the mere oppression of saints, however aliently they bear it, is in tag, to may a poor soul derive the comfort of the whole covenant to himself through teachy preservation on sorth, and eternal salvation in heaven.

6 The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.

7 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for earth or the seven times.

8 Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for earth or the seven the salvation of man and the pure words are the seven the salvation of man and the pure words are the contract the seven the value word of the Lord are pure as well-refined sliver. In the original three is an almoston to the most severely, the greater possible purity was addered it he dross was all consumed, and only the bright and precious metal remained; so clear and free from all alloy of error or the furnace of presention, illerary criticium, philosophic doubt, and calentific discovery, and thus let a horizon the severely consume the severely consumers. In the salvation of the severely consumers are severely consumers and the severely consumers are severely consumers. In the salvation of the severely consumers are severely consumers and the severely consumers are severely consumers. The severely consumers are severely consumers and the severely consumers are severely consumers. The severely consumers are severely consumers and severely consumers are severely consumers and the severely consumers are severely consumers. The severely consumers are severely consumers and provided for in the text. In this many a severely consumers and provided for in the text. In this many a such as lived a future, and excaped the maint of the beclouded present: he has gone to his grave word residuary or burned him as a newflet. But he may a such as lived a future, and excaped the maint of the beclouded present: he has gone to his grave word residuary or burned him as a newflet. It is built to make a severely consumer and provided for the text. In this many a such as the salvat at the cuerce those two assuring words, and cree, 'nou smal,' most smal.'

8 The wicked walk on every side, when the videst men are exaktled. It is there we return to the fount of hitteness, which first made the Psalmist run to the contract of the province, and the province of the contract of the province of the contract of the contract of the province of the contract of the cont to the craft. Would to God that the glory and triumph of our Lord noturnge us to walk and work on every side; as like acts upon like, ted sinner encourages sinners, our exalted Redeemer must surely and stimulate his saints. Nerved by a sight of his reigning power the evils of the times in the spirit of holy resolution, and shall the y pray, "Help, Lord."

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

for there is not a godly man left: for the faithful are failed t men: they speak deceiffully every one with his neighbou , and speak with a double heart, which have said, With ou our lips are our own: who is Lord over us?"—R. Wolcom where Law with the the hashould best of the truth, he shaus saying it to others. He deen not with that he should best-old the truth, he shaus saying it to others, and all these models, so inconsistent with justice and reason, have their roots in his beart.—

Were 2—"With flattering lips and with a death beart of this papeal." There is no undi stuth to make a clock of as religion; nothing to fashionable, rothing the religion of the control of the control of the roots of the roots of the world, and make a gainful service by either. I carry both, and he both myself, by provalenting with both. Before man mose serves his God with more several provalenting with both. Before man mose serves his God with more several provalents of the server the world; not with no strict develous, hat with more delight; in private, I serve the world; not with no strict develous, hat with more delight; of prayer who more frequents than 1? I had Claritain daties who more forward than 1? I fast with those that fast. I mourn data in the server of the s and wearth, and the favour of the longes, but they have the strengest weapons are weapons dig down houses, throw up foundations, overthrow whole nations.—

Chrystein.—For the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, with the Lard." God is pleased to late notice of energy grace, even the least and lowest, and every gracious inclination in any of his servants. To have his name is no great matter, yet these is pleased to take notice of energy grace, even the least and lowest, and every gracious inclination in any of his servants. To have his name is no great matter, yet these close started on his many of his servants. To have his name is no great matter, yet these close started on his many of his servants. To have his notice that had. As evil thoughts in wicked men are taken notice of—they are the first Truits of the evil heart (Matt.) have heart of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness. "The desire of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness." "The desire of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness." "The desire of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness." "The desire of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness." "The desire of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness." "The desire of the poor, and call a good desire the greatest kindness." "The desire of the poor has a poor thing, yet is the best part of a prayer sometimes (Rom. viii. 26); the charch could speak of no more; paning is less than breathing, when one is the surface of the poor. The surface of the poor is the poor than a strength of the poor is the poor than a strength of the poor is the poor than an extended to the poor than a strength of the poor is a poor than a contract of the poor is the poor than and they who hanger and dhird. The poor than a strength of the poor is the poor than an extended to the surface. The opperation of the poor." Insolent and cruel oppressing of the reader. The other of the poor is the poor than an extended the poor have he has not be no

PSALM THE TWELFTH:

Good thus translates this verse:—

Should the wicked advance on every side;
Should the dregs of the earth be uppermost?

The original is given literally, 37 means "forces, forculences, dregs." on is here an adverb, and imports uppermost, rather than exalted.—J. Mason Good, in loc.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

ISO EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Vers 1.—"Holp, Lond". I. The Prayer Itself, chort, suggestive, reasonable, rightly directed, vehement. II. Occasions for its use. III. Modes of its answer. When the respective previous reply.

When the respective previous reply.

When evers.—I. The fact becalfue!—describe godly and faitful, and show how they fail. II. The felling scient. Mourning the loop, least for church, personal of the cause, ludgments impending, etc. IV. The faith remaining: "Help, Lord." Forst 1.—Intellinate connection between yielding honour to God and honesty to "Fers 1.—Intellinate connection between picture phonour to God and honesty to "Fers 2. (Irist clause).—A discourse upon the prevalence and permiciousness. The subde verse.—Connection between finitery and treachery.

"A double heart." Right and wrong kinds of hearts, and the disease of douplicity, and the substantial of the contract o N.—The Praim cannot be referred to any especial event or period i attempts to find it a birthplace are but guesses. It was, dood to lengage of that numb tried man of God, and is intended to see lengage of the numb tried man of God, and is intended to sever pit found occusion to use the language of this belof od, he he a man after the Lord's on the Act. We have been usent to app Praim." We had almost said the Hooting Praim, from the there; i' hou togy grave readily to be disided into three parts :—th. 2; the cry of prayer, 3, 4; the song of faith, 5, 8.

of anciety, 1, 2; the cry of prayer, 3, 4; the sensy of path, 6, 6.

HOW long wilt thou forget me, O Lord? for ever? how long wilt thou like thy face from me:

All the thy face from me:

all y? how long shall mine enemy be existed over a specific or a sp

but his own Spirit's work in them in exciting desire and inflaming!

"How long?" Ah I have long do our days appear when our within us?

"Bow warry the moments seen to glide in the state of the state o ring. We set up monumental stones over the greve of our loys, not wen times mentations and only one of Canticles, and are far more at home in suiting out a terere than in chanting a Te Deam.

3 Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep step of death;

3 Consider and hear me, O Lord my God: lighten mine eyes, lest I sleep step of death;

2 May be the step of the 5 But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

4.50

PSALM THE THIRTEENTH

What a change is here! Lo, the rain is over and gone, and the time of it singing of birds is come. The mercy-seat has so retribude the poor weeper, the singing of birds is come. The mercy-seat has so retribude the poor weeper, the with him. David's heart was more often out of time than his harp. He can many of his Pasins sighing, and ends them singing; and others he begins in it and ends in sorrow; "so that one would think," says Peter Moulin, "that the Pasins had been composed by two men of a contrary humanu." It is worthy!

"Sorrows remembered sweeten present low

Here is his avowal of his confidence: "But I have trusted in My mergy." You many a year it has been his wort to make the Lord his castle and cover of defence, and he makes from blanch the same blanch will. If it have not his fath, and his have blocked up one of the windows through which the sum of heaven delight to shine. Pall hi now in exercise, and consequently is readily discovered; there is shine. Pall hi now in exercise, and consequently is readily discovered; there is the har of his consequently in the consequence of the shine of the consequence of the shine of the shine of the consequence of the consequence of the shine of particles is quiet to we set into, but let the same be in motion and we soon perceive it. All the powers of his enumbe had not driven the Palankis from his contraction of the same of the same of the consequence of his considerable and the same of the same

Now hearles to the music which faith makes in the soul. The bells of the mind are all right, "My heart shall rejoic and in the salurding." There is joy an feasiting within doors, for a glorious guest has come, and the fatted call is killed Sweet is the music which sounds from the strings of the heart. But this is not all the noice joins listelf in the blessed work, and the tongue keeps tune with the sou while the writer declares. "It will sing until the Lord."

"I will praise thee every day. Now thine anger's turned away Comfortable thoughts arise

The Psaim closes with a sentence which is a refutation of the charge of torget fulness which David had uttered in the first verse, "He hath dealt bountifully with me." So shall it be with us if we wait awhile. The complaint which in our hasts we utter shall be joyfully retracted, and we shall witness that the Lord hath deal bountifully with us.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Verse 1.—"How long will thus looped ms. O Lord?" eds. The departures of load from true believes are avered min. They may be tellules, but they are found from the believes are avered min. They may be tellules, but they are least to the long to make the second of the long to make the long to long the long to make the long to long the long to long the long

Verse 1.—" How long will thou lorger me, O Lord?" Whatever be the pressin need of Christ's followers in troubles, and their constant cleaving to duty for all that; and whatever be Christ's purpose of love towards them, yet he seek lit fi ofttimes not to come to them at first, but will let the trial go on till it come to: height, and be a trial indeed, and put them seriously to it; for before he came

____

he lets them row "about five and twenty or thirty furlongs" (the last of whic make near four miles, eight furlongs going to a mile); and (Mark vt. 48) he cam not till the bourth watch of the night, which is the morning watch. We are indee very sparing of ourselves in trouble, and do soon begin to think that we are low an tried enough, and therefore would be delivered; just our wise Lord seeth that w

Verse 1.— How long, "etc. Enquire into the cause of God's anglet. Itsel, it is that accurred thing in our breast, on in our lives, for which God hidse his face and frown upon us? What particular disobedience to his commands is it for which he has takes up the rod? Job. 2.2; "I will say ant God. Do not condom which he has takes up the rod? Job. 2.2; "I will say ant God. Do not condom troubles and my sorrows are very well known. ... We must not cause to be solicitous know what are the particular since this that have made him to tear us up by the roots to hrow us down as with a whirlwind; what is it that has made him so long angree wan ya innear it with a seasonable grief, and get a parelon for it. It is not the common course of God's providence to cover his servants with so thick a darker at his, is, which our troubled outs indoor rander in the day, or rather in the high proceeds with us in a way that is so singular; for it is some way delightful to the understanding to price fate the reasons and causes of things.—Timoling Ropers.

Verse 1.—" How long still those looged me," etc. For God to longed Davids, not the content of th

Verse 1.—1. For describons. I think them like lying fallow of lean and week of the property of the possible to gather and the property of the possible to gather double, where it is which is a property of the property of th

PSALM THE THIRTEENTH.

Verse 1, 2.—That which the French proverb hath of sickness is true of all suddent that they come on borscheck and go away on foot; we have often seen that a suddent that they come on borscheck and go away in foot; we have often seen that a come like exen, slow and heavily, and go away like post-horses, upon the spin sorrow, because they are linguising quests, i, will entertain but moderably, knowing the state of the latter of the la

Vertex 1, 2.—" How Look will thou forget me? How Look will thou held up for more ? How Look will the lack cannot in my sault?" The Intenseess of the silicitor renders it tyring to our fortitude; but it is by the continuous of the silicitor renders it tyring to our fortitude; but it is by the continuous relationship to the first case, the soci collects all its steepth, and feels in carriest to call in help from above; but, in the last, that we are most in danger of sinting. In the first case, the soci collects all its steepth, and feels in carriest to call in help from above; but, in the last, the steep the social transfer of the steep the see no end to hit troubles, he sunk under them.—Andrew Fuller.

Yerse 1.—Everything is stampely changed; all its commisses, and beauty

Yerse 1.—Everything is stampely changed; all its commisses, and beauty and confortable; but death with its pale attendants, raises a horror and aversion to it everywhere. The saints of God dread the removal of his favor, and the hiding of his face; and when it is hid, a faintness and a cold amazement and fee which makes their joints to tremple, and is to them as the very page of death.—

Verset 1, 5, 6.—Prayer helps towards the increase and growth of grace, by drawing the shall of grace into occuries. New, as exercise brings benefit to the drawing the shall of grace into occuries. New, as exercise brings benefit to the towards of the shall of the shall be shall be

Versa: 1, 6.—Whatever discouragements thou meetest with in this attendance, on Ged in ordinance, be like the English left, first by water, and still its our ordinary fires, quenched by it; let them and to, not diminish, thy resolution and courage fires, quenched by it; let them and to, not diminish, thy resolution and courage heaven. Parents sometimes like themselves to make their children consultanesseking. He that would not at first open his mouth, nor vouchast the woman of the second of the second

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

they get a golden bason and ever, it will make them abundant staffaction. Suppose thou shouldst continue knocking twenty, any, fort y any, red if at last, and but on shouldst continue knocking twenty, any, fort y spens, yet if at last, and be a received by the staff of the staf

Verse 2.—"How long?" There are many situations of the believer in this limits the words of the Paulm may be a consolidion, and help to revive situation, and help to revive situation and eight years. John v. 5. A woman had a spirit of infimity eighteen years before he was "loosed." Luke zili. 11. Lazarus all his life long laboured undelease and poverty; till he was released by death and transferred to Arbnhum' deleases and poverty; till he was released by death and transferred to Arbnhum' complaints of this Paulm, assure his heart that Ged does not forget his people, hell come at last, and, in the meantime, all things hall work together for goo to them that love name—w. within, Dollard in my soul, having sources in my horedully? "There is such a thing as to pore on our guilt and wretchendones, to the overlooking of our highest mercles. Though it he proper to know our own hearts we shall find carefully and the proper our control of the control him in the latter—Andrew Puller.

In a great titled to the misrable and affilled, to be pitted by others. It is some relief when others though they cannot help us, yet seem to be truly concerned for the sachess of on though they cannot help us, yet seem to be truly concerned for the sachess of on smooth they cannot help us, yet is easily but it is an unpeakable addition to the cross, when a man is brought low under the sense of Goet's displaceaux, to have made to the sachess of the

Verse 3.—" Lighten mine epus, iest I steep the sleep of death." In time of sickness and grieft, the "eyes" are dual not heavy; and they grow more and more so a death approaches, which closes them in darkness. On the other hand, health and "light" to them from within. The words, therefore, may be fitly applied to recovery of the body natural, and thence, of the body politic, from their respective state of spirtual shealth and hop [20], which will manifest themselves in like manner

PSALM THE THIRTEENTH.

y" the eyes of the understanding being enlightened;" and in this case, the sou saved from the sleep of sin, as the body is in the other, from the sleep of death. leaves Hornes.

George Horn.

The description of the description will say, None can see that I may die; I would not live, but die; that I may see the; it me see the that I may die; I would not live, but die; that I may see Christ, I desire destite that I may see Christ, I desire destite Verse 3—"I have been great the shall be the see that I may see Christ, I desire destite Verse 3—"I have long grid then thick flag face from me?" Oh, excellent hiding which is become my perfection! My God, thou hiddest thy treasure to kindle my desire! Thus hiddent by pearly to midnum the seeker, I how delayest to give, that desire! Thus hiddent by pearly to midnum the seeker how delayes to give, that desire! Thus hiddent by pearly to midnum the seeker hid we delayed to give, that the seeker him to be seen to be see

Verse 4.

Ah I can you bear contempt: the venom'd to Of those whom min pleases, the keen sneer, The level reproaches of the rascal bear. Who for the selfsame actions, if successful, Would be as grossly lavish in your praise? To sum up all in one—can you support The scornful glances, the malignant joy, Or more detested pity of a rival—

James Thomson, 1700-1748.

Verse 4.—" And those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved "-compose comed out of my tragedies.—Iohn Trann.

Veres 5.—" I have brusted in My mercy; my hourt shall rejoice in thy salonation. Path rejoiceth in tribulations, and triumphesh before the victory. The pather is glad when he feels his physic to work, though it make him sick for the time because he hopes it will procure health. We rejoice in affiliations, not that the are joyous for the present, but because they shall work for our good. As fait rejoicith, so it triumpheth in searmance of good access; for it seeth not according beholded him present for our succour.—John Bull.

In the profession him profession and the profession in the pasherinal rough pashes processes our books, tell "patience possess our books," The law of our profession hinds us to a warfare; politicals estimation, world, 33—40," I have of our profession hinds us to a warfare; politicals estimation, world, 35—40," I have been been considered the profession hinds us to a warfare; politicals estimate, world, 35—40," I have the heart of miles estemies, "for They have wounds for their wounds; and the three the next of raine seemies," for They have wounds for their wounds; and though the safety of the profession of the profession

Heavy, — 5.—Whereiers I ay again. "Low by faith, ""again I ay, "levey) live by it, replice through faith in the Lord." I dare boddly say it it by dust made neglect of its exercised if thou suffer either thy own melancholy humour or Stata to interrupt and the same of the exercised in the same of the same o

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

of all III thoughts and passions, to exhibiterate the whole man? But what quoties did it to any to have a cordial by him if he use it not? To weer a sweet, solder like, by his ide, and not to draw it forth in an assault? When a dump overtake the contract of the contract

Verse 6.—" I will sing unto the Lord, because he hath dealt bountifully with me. Falth keeps the soul from sinking under heavy trials, by bringing in former co perience of the power, mercy, and faithfulness of God to the afflicted soul. Hereby the contraction of the power, mercy, and faithfulness of God to the afflicted soul. Hereby the contraction of t Verse 6.—" I will stay unto the Lord." Mr. John Philpot having lain for some time in the bishop of London's coch-bouse, the bishop send for lim, and amongst time in the bishop of London's coch-bouse, the bishop send for lim, and amongst prophet speaks) Existinates in rebus pessions, replicing in your naughtiness, whereas you should rather lament and be sorry. Mr. Philpot nawwered, "My lord, the Paral to rejidee in the Lord, sinding together typins and Pasimo, converted the state of the state of the lamb of the state of the lamb of the state of the lamb of the state of the lamb, if my be of an upright of the lamb of the lamb of the state of the lamb of the state of the lamb of the state of the lamb of the

PSALM THE THIRTEENTH.

Box by the shown is efficient in the state of the state o

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

Verse 1.—The apparent length of sorrow, only apparent. Contrast with days of Joy, with eleman interp and eternal lyv. Impalsiance, and other evil passions, state of the property of the

PSALM XIV

TYLE.—This admirable self is imply headed, "To the Chief Musician by David." The dedication to the Chief Musician sixed at the head of flight-free of the Penims and elevity indicates that such Penims were intrinded, not movely for the relative and the control of the Penims of the Chief Musician of the Penims were the otherwise, or superintendine, client in our series, "the Chief Musician," on by Atsuvoth, "the master of the Music." Several of these Penims have little or my perise in them, and were not admires directly to the Mod High, and pet were to be reviewed by certain hymn-book makers, that nothing but protes should be sume, for more plausible than Scriptura. Not only delt has antical Church chant hallowed from the control of the Chief Musician state of the Musician state of the Chief Musician stat

As no distinguishing tills is given to this Paulu, we would support as an austination of the distinguishing tills is given to this Paulu, we would support as an austinata to the occasion porn subset it was written are so completely without foundation, the it would be a waste of time to mention them at length. The openite Pauli, in Reman and Gauttles one at under this, there was, therebyen, or resum for fixing upon an particular historical occasion, when all thirty webs with terrible relations of himparticular historical occasion, when all thirty webs with terrible relation of the sould be a support of the support of the thought of the support of the continued of the himself of the support of the Roy Good that the doubly to define

Division.—The world's foolish creed (verse 1); its practical influence in corrupting morals, 1, 2, 3. The persecuting tendencies of sinners, 4; their alarms, 5; their ridicule of the godly, 6; and a prayer for the manifestation of the Lord to his people's tou.

DVDOCIMION

THE fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they

"The feel." The Athesis is the fool pre-emissantly, and a fool universally. He would not deny Good It he were not a fool by nature, and having denied God Li beinght of a fool by nature, and having denied God Li beinght of a fool by nature, and having denied God Li beinght of an to a take the very existence of the Most High, so is it also the greater managematic Floy. "To say these is not God is to being the plainest evidence, which stiffs consciousness, which is madness. If the sinner could by his athetim destroy to God with the fool whom he hatte there were come senas, althogod much welchedons, in his who is in it, so doubling the existence of God will not stop the Judge of all the servin ordertoying the received who freaks his lawar, any, that stabins in a crime which industries It is the feel who breaks his lawar in any that stabins in a crime which industries It is his both tool and not both or every would to God the mitchell stopped that the stability of t and wasted, dried up and decayed." Some translate it the apostate, and other the wretch. With what earnestness should we shun the appearance of doubt as t the presence, activity, power and love of God, for all such mistrust is of the nature of folly, and who among us would wish to be ranked with the fool in the text?

161

PSALM THE FOURTEENTS

let us never forget that all unrequerate mea are more or less such fools. The fool "Indus die In kie heart". May a man with his mouth profess to believe, "The fool "Indus die In kie heart". May a man with his mouth profess to believe, and the profession of the pro

"Trap lace does channiable coviet." When near begin with resouncing that stills does who shall sell where they will end? The lack the red of th which are done of men in secret. Things loathsome to God and some palates.

PSALM THE FOURTEENTH.

Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who cat up my people hey eat bread, and call not upon the Lonn. It altered fo God and corruptines of life as the motive forces which produce per-latered forces and corruptines of life as the motive forces which produce per-latered forces are considered for the construction of the lond for deliverance, excens workers of iniquity, have no heart to cry to the Lond for deliverance, seek to amuse themselves with deverging the poer and despited people of God, and the lond of the lond for deliverance is of sibleria, is not more truly degraded and wretched; the toll is hard and the defended in the lond when the lond however the lond in the lond of credity in the lond of credity in the lond of lond in the lond of lond in the lond of lond in the lond of l cover coveres used and an is people, it amounts to a mysterious indwelling, for God is in the generation of the righteen the poor, because the Lords is his refuge.

6 Ye have sharmed the counsel of the poor, because the Lords is his refuge.

Notwithstanding their real covardice, the wicked put on the libra's sidn and lord it over the Lord's poor ones. Though fools themselves, they mock at the truly should brutth minds appreciate excellence, and how can those who have own's eyes admire the sun? The special point and butt of their jest seems to be the conference of the gody in their Lord. What can your God do fer you now? Who is an absesseding? Taunting questions of this sort they thrust late the faces of weak but graceloss soils, and tempt them to feel sabanted their reduce. Let us their jeers; we shall need to wait but a little, and then the Lord our refuge will twenge his row need can dear himself of his advarsaries, who note made so light of him and of his people.

7 Oth that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the Lond bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejote, and Israel shall be glidd.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

ole Point—There is a peculiar mark upon this Pailm, in that it is veter Book of Pailm. The fourteenth Pailm and the fifty-third Pailm are the stith the alteration of one or two expressions at most. And there is another out upon it, that the aposite transcribes a great part of it—Nom. iii. 10—12. I rand; a most deplorable state, by reason of the general corruption that allow all of the ories, in their principles, and in their practices, and in their oplions.

First, it was a time when there was a mighty prevalent principle of athelium got into the world, got among the great men of the world. Saith he, "That is their principle, they say in their leasts," There is no God." It is true, they did not and which they conformed unto. "The foot" saith he, "hast said in his heart. There is no God. "No this or that particular man, but the foot—that is, those foollish men, for in the next word he talls you." They are corresp; "and were 8, and coicity of foothis men, to further that what foother they were divided about else, they were all agreed in this. "They are all a company of atheists," saith he, "practical athests."

sees, two was all agreed in this. "They are all a company of athetics," as "particular athetists," as all meris affe and actions are suitable to their principles. What are you to expect from whose principles is, that there is no God? Why, saith he, for their affections, "as corrupt," "which he expressed again (vers 50, "They are all grown sour; "a selfraink, that hath been formerly of some aside, when grown valle—lost all its spirits and life—it is mingly thing, good for not margin hath it. They have corrupt affections, that have left them to life, no satt sithicing, corrupt hatts prevail in them universally. They say, "There they are the self-grown at the self-grown attained to the self

PSALM THE FOURTEENTH.

PSALM THE FOURTEENTH.

145

that do thery do for veil 1 Way suith he "They have door obscripted cookers," saith he, "They have door obscripted cookers," saith he, "They have door obscripted cookers, which all good men abhor." "Abominable works," saith he, "such as the special of the said of th

And there is the way whereby these poor make God their refuge. They do it by "counsel," saith he. It is not a thing they do by chance, but they look upon at windom.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Well, what thoughts have the other concerning this using of their? The Well, what thoughts have the other concerning the saint of their of their their content of their content of the content of their content of thei as men's connect, to despite their counsed as fooding, is an great contempt; as a law yupon them, and the properties of the properties of the properties of the properties of the Lord ; which being hild down, the Pashnist showeth what our dity is to a state of things—what is the duty of the people of Cod, things being than the state of things—what is the duty of the people of Cod, things being that were come and of Zion : when the Lord thringst have the copilating of his people, and triples, and stread shall be glot! It things are thus state, then cry, then O that the salvetton of invole were come out of Zion; 'etc. Three shall a of pashes come to Cod set of Zion, to the replacing of his people.—Join

David Clarkon.

Verse 1.—" The jool hath said in his heart, There is no God." If you will turn over some few leaves as far as the fifty-third Pasim, you shall not only find my text, not at all in the seem settler. With that hall we say? Took the Fidey Spirit of God such especial particular notice of the sayings and deeds of a jool, that one expression of them would not serve the turn? To, does the habbling and madeses of a fool of them would not serve the turn? To, does the ababbling and madeses of a fool

PSALM THE FOURTEENTH,

the semples whereof not both the universities in this land, nor the whole clergy are able to reachy, that it should be possible for us ever to come to that prefection and also to reachy, that it should be possible for us ever to come to that prefection and such that the property of the

168 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

there is a God, aim with a very high hand against the light of nature; for every creature, yea, the least grait and fiy, and the measure worm that crease upon the creature. The creature is the sum of the creature of the creature of the creature of or no. The name of God is written in such full, fair and shining characters upon the whole creature, that all men may run and read that there is a God. The notion of a dety is so strongly and deeply impressed upon the tables of all men's heart. The formula deciditum, altilings God, as much as in the creature is. There are none of these subsists in hell, for the devils believe and tremble. James ii. 19. The Greek out deserves, that is here used, signifies properly the recording of the sea; it implies out. Mark vi. 49; Acts xvi. 29. The devils believe and acknowledge four articles of our faith. Mark viii. 29; (1) They acknowledge God; (2) Clarit; (3) The day of lugiment; (4) That they shall be tormented then; so that he that doth not vive the contraction of the co

'On earth are atheists many In hell there is not any."

Angustine, speaking of atheists saith, "That albeit there be some who think, or would persuade themselves, that there is no God, yet hem out vile and desperate wretch that ever lived would not say, there was no God." Sences that a remarkable speech, Meritainiar god iction at even seafer Borne ser. name dei fird affirmant is a God, if the seafer ser. I want to the seafer ser. I want to the seafer ser. I want to the seafer seaf

Verset _______ The foot hash said in his heart, There is no God." Popery has no won to itself or great with as atheim; it is the superfluid yof wit that makes atheists These will not be beaten down with impertinent arguments; disordered hall-shot Scriptures will not be beaten down with impertinent arguments; disordered hall-shot Scriptures will never scare them; they must be ownied and beaten by their they appealed to resoon. I are used to the contract the many bring them to they appealed to resoon. I are used to the special that armoury, but our ow ignorance and want of skill to use them. There is enough even in philosophy to convince atheim, and make them orders, We are followed with our own weapons:

Verse 1.—As there is no wound more mortal than that which plucketh for!! man's heart or soul; so, likewise, is there no person or pestilence of greater force suddenly in men to kill all faith, hope, and charity, with the fear of God, and consequently to cast them headlong into the pit of hell, than to deny the principle and foundation [of all religion—namely, that there is a God.—Robert Cawdray's "Treasure or Starbause of Similes." [160]

Verse 1.—" The fool bank node in his heart, There is no God."—Who in the word in a writer look, a move ignoriat, we writed person, then he that is an atheist in a writer look, a move ignoriat, we writed person, then he that is an atheist than that there is no God; for himself can cease to be, and once was not, and his he changed from what he is, and in very many periods of hill like howe so it the horizontal to the contract of the like howe so it happen to God; and if he knows it not, he is a fool. Can anything in this word more foolish than to think that all this rare fasher of heaver and earth can conserve the contract of the second of the contract of the cont

169

PSALM THE FOURTEENT

fool hath said in his heart There is no God." That is his character; the thing framed, says that nothing framed it; the tongue never made itself to speak, and yet talks against him that did; saying, that which is made, is, and that which made it, is not. But this folly ice schools are highly and the mode without Mathe to house at the chase of the primitive nothing.—Jerem Tragher, 1613—1667. Where man, where man, where we have a stating in the system of the universe, observing the mutual dependence and have a taking in the system of the universe, observing the mutual dependence and have a stating in the system of the universe, observing the mutual dependence and have one of the control of the c

There is no God that rules or earth or sky.'

The state of the state o

Verse 1.-

"The owlet, Atheism, Sailing on obsene wings across the noon,
Drops his blue-fringed lids, and shuts them close
And, hooting at the glorious sun in heaven, Cries out. 'Where is it?'"

Samuel Taylor Coleridge, 1772—1834.

in all his word, as hypocrites do. Lastly, they seek thim not sessonably and by, as profans, impendient sinners of i, have no care to depend upon God's, but follow their own harts and fashinas of this world—"Thomas Wilson, 1653, but follow their own harts and fashinas of this world—"Thomas Wilson, 1653, but follow their own harts and fashinas of this world—"Thomas Wilson, 1653, but for a carde," that is, from him and his ways; "They are long-three known filled," practices are such as make them stunk; "There is none that death pood, no, the control of the stunks of them of excellent parts then in the world, men of soul, no, three were more of excellent parts then in the world, men of soul, no, thou no of them did know God, or suck after God; Paul therefore hath hald it down hings of the Spirit of God for they are foolishness unto him, and so are rejected im.—William Greenhill.
Forest 3—"The suggley are" ("left") persons (Nab. I. 14). "I will make thy it for thou sat vike." Sin makes men base, it blots their same, it tisiest their sizes, "Language of the spirit of the size of the siz

172 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verse 3.—" There is more that doubt pood, no mot one." Origin maketh a question wit could be said that there was none, nathers among the Jeen nor Gentlies lead the blungery, and the could be supported by the property of th

Verse 4.—" Have the morkers of iniquity no knowledge?" Men's ignorance is the reason why they fear not what they should fear. Why is it that the ungold fear not sin? Oh, it's because they know it not. "Have the morkers of iniquity in knowledge?" Sure enough they have none, for "they end up my people as they are bread;" such morsels would scald their mouths, they would not dare to be such persecutors and destroyers of the people of God; they would be afraid to touch

These man-eaters, these \(\text{\text{Assign}}\), crued cannibals, make no more conscience to tunto a poor man, than to est a good must when they are bungy. Like pickers! and to a poor man, that the est a good must when they are bungy. It less pickers and that many times with a plausible, invisible consumption; as the usurer, who is the theoretical constant of the properties of the prope

PSALM THE FOURTEENTH

not of the world, therefore the world hatch you." John xv. 19. Haman's hatre was against the whole need of the Jews. When you can find a serpent without out hatted to the sinits. Plet's in the target which is simined at. "They are min average in the property of the world with the sinits of the sinits." Die type the target which is aimed at. "They are min average to the property of the world with the property of the world with the property of the world hat the world is implacable; anger may be reconciled, butter cannet. You may as soon records haven and had as the two seeds. If the world haded Christ xv. 18. Why should any hats Christ? This blessed Dove had no gall, this rose of the sound that the seeds of the sound that the seeds of the sound that the seeds of the sound that the sound that the seeds of the seeds of the sound that the seeds of the seeds o

Versi.5.— "There were large in preed from." That we may not mistake the meaning of the point, we must understand that this sinducent crosses and cowardliness dot not always come upon presumptions sinners when they behold imminent dangers for though most of them have the corange and fortuicity, yet many of them have for though most of them have the present of them have before them are the same that the sam generation or sort of men; God is in all generations, but such as delights in most: he wicked have sense enough to fare those in whom God delights.—Insepta Congiliate to the wicked have sense enough to fare those in whom God delights.—Insepta Congiliate the wicked have sense enough to fare those in the most of the wind and the sense of the sense in its first people as such; Pailm xxiv. 9, 10), but some gory of himself appear; and as God delta economy the word with melgisty because it is in the control as a primore at the har for his lift; then God manufacted his presence to him, for it is said, "his face shows as the face of an angel of God." (Ash's, 15); in a God and the sense of the said, "his face shows as the face of an angel of God." (Ash's, 15); in a "A man's windom makes his face to him." Eccles. "till..." Than Peter also speaks (I Peter by 14): "If you be represched for the same of Christ, happy are von in the markyrs: their intenserva and carriage, and gody behavior, which takes the said of the same of Christ, happy are von in the markyrs: their intenserva and carriage, and gody behavior, which takes the said of the sold of the sol

Verse 6.—" Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the Lord is his refuge."

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PRALMS.

In the fifty-third Pashin R is, "Then hast put them to shame, because God halt despised them." Of course, the allusion is festing different in each; in this Pashin II is the indignant remonstrance of the Pashinat with "the workers of indignty it is the indignant remonstrance of the Pashinat with "the workers of indignty at the contempt in which the Lord holds them. In other case it sweetly illustrated God's care of his poor, not merely the poor in the contempt in which the Lord holds them. In other case it sweetly illustrated God's care of his poor, not merely the poor in the contempt in the contempt in which the Lord holds them. In other case it sweetly illustrated God's care of his poor, not merely the poor in the character of God's which is no complexously deliceated in his word. We may look through all the Shasters and Vedas of the Hindoo, the Koran of the Mahometan, he deve, the bitterest of all; and not no estage line or page shall we find a vestige or trace of that tenderness, compassion, or sympathy for the wrongs, and oppressions, the contempt of the contempt in the contempt in the contempt of the contempt in the contempt of th one; if y to Christ; run into the holes of this Rock.—Rolph Robinson, 1656.

Verse 7.—" On that is submidue, "set. Like as when we be in quiet, we do pray either nothing at all, or very coldly unto God; so in adversity and trouble, our spirit a strired up and exhinded to prayer, whereof we do find examples everywhere as the property of the stripe of the stripe of the stripe is usually unasvoury who are without afflictions, and many of them do not pray truly, but do exther counterful a prayer, or pray and many of them do not pray truly, but do exther counterful a prayer, or pray the stripe of the s

PSALM THE FOURTEENTH.

they may hear his voice. For it is Israel, not Judah; Sion, not Jerusalem. Lord turneth the capitality of his people." "Then," as it is in the parallel learning to the people." "Then," as it is in the parallel learning to the learning the people of the people. The people of the peo

No sorrow now hangs clouding on their brow; No bloodless malady impales their face; No bloodless on their hairs has alver snow; No proverty themselves and theirs disgrace; No poverty themselves and theirs disgrace; No lear of death the joy of life devour; No unchaste sleep their precious time deflowers; No unchaste sleep their precious time deflowers; No unchaste sleep their precious time deflowers; No unchaste sleep their precious time deflowers;

John Mason Neale, in loc.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

1 (Irris clause)—The folly of athere is serrous on the Hort.
1—Atherism of the heart.—Jamiesser's Serrous on the Hort.
1—Atherism of the heart.—Jamiesser's Serrous on the Hort.
1 (In the contract of the heart.—Jamiesser's Serrous on the Hort.
1 (In the contract of the contract of the heart of the contract of the heart of the contract of the cont

Verse I (last clause)—The lantern or inogenee. Down as we give a demonate their signature of the lantern or inogenee and the lantern or included and included and e quick to see things congrouss to their own character.

The survey of the property of the process of the proce

PSALM XV.

nage.

How.—The first verse asks the question; the rest of the the Psalm The Question and Answer.

EXPOSITION.  $L_{\ \ hill\ ?}^{ORD,\ who\ shall\ abide\ in\ thy\ tabernacle\ ?\ \ who\ shall\ dwell\ in\ thy\ holy\ \ hill\ ?}$

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

as the tale-beare's instinuating story, "Call for a policeman!" we say if we see a third at his beatines; ought we to feel no indignation when we hear a goady at the state of the continuation of the continu

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Verse 1.—" Lord, who shall abide in the tobernote?"—In that the church of Carist upon earth is a "labernote!", we may note, that neither the church itself nor the members of it, have any fixed or firm seat of habitation in this world: "Arise, depart, for this is not your rest." Micah ii. 10. "Here have we no continuing city, but we seek one to come." Heb. zill. 14. God's tabernace, being a movable

John Barcing, quoted by A. A. Bones, in toc.

Vers.1—"Hog Jilli"—Harve is apply compared to a bill, held to shole. Now who shall second ents this bely mount? None has those whom this mount cause who shall second the star was considered to the star of the sta

180 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

many frontly in the current are not or the charty, according to that of the elected Wherefore David, here perceiving the steep, and tares among the corn, being less would be well as sundry people were shallfed into God' tabermache like goets among the skeep, and tares among the corn, being less wo with a harp profession of religion, and flase opinion of true piety, constell unto God to the constraint of t

Verse 2—"He that sudicts uprightly," etc.—II neither the golden reason secondary on moves, nor the sitve reason of profit allure in, them must the low excellence of the control of the secondary of the secondary

Were 2.— He had solicith sprightly.—Here two questions are moved: First Way David describes a sound member of the church, and inheritor of between, by Way David describes a sound member of the church, and inheritor of between the world the profession thereof solicits and the profession thereof solicits and the profession thereof solicits and the spring solicits and the profession thereof solicits and the solici

M THE FIFTEENTH.

be never so fair, though haply we do that shick is right, and speak that shick is truy via in these will be leaf, except it is brought both in a true helicit. "Aristic way via in the swill be leaf, except it is brought both in a true helicit." Aristic or despite of for. Pomponius is said to have been so true, that he never made it has a substantial to the said of the said of

First. — There is no secretaining the quality of a tree but by its fruits. Whe the wheels of a clock move within, the hands on the dial will move without. When the heart of a man is sound in conversion, then the life will be fair in profession which much the conduit is waited in, how mail we judge of the spring but by the water which run through the pipes "—william Seeker.

Vere 2.—" And morfact righteouness." A man must first be righteous bein be can work righteouses of life. "He that doeth righteouses to right on the can work righteouses of the can work righteouses to right on the can work of the control of the co

Verse 2.—"Workelt righteourners." Jacob's ladder had stairs, upon which has we most standing still, but all either seconding, or bed exceeding by It. Ascending was the state of the state verse 2.—But here observe David saith, "that worken righteousness;" no that talks about, thinks about, or hears of, righteousness; because, "not the heare of the law, but the doers of the law, shall be justified." What then do we ow unto others? That which Christ saith (Matt. vii.), "Whatsoever ye would tha men should do unto you, do ye also unto them," even unto your enemies: In this to injuries one, no successed these that offer injury, and to good unto all men. But the property of the proper are tuning a congract-order in the beart." Anatomists have observed that the tongue in man is tide with a double string to the heart. An advantage that the three is necessary a double agreement of our words, I. With our heart. That is, to the speaking of truth, it is necessary our words agree with our mind and the speaking of truth, it is necessary our words agree with our mind and the speaking of truth, it is necessary our words agree with our mind a faithful interpreters of our mind; otherwise we lie, not speaking as we think. So what is truth in itself may be spoken by a man, and yet be be a list; anamely, if he does not think as he speaks. 2. With the thing as it is in itself. Though we think at thing to be so, which is not so, we lie, when we willmn it, because it is not as we

82 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

PSALM THE FIFTEENTH

judgment, when every secret shall be made mendiest, and the hypocrite and lize operated before negles and men. Lastly, I would frequently long divine sensite merels. Paulm citx. 29; Prov. xxx. 8. O my God, help me in my future conduct remove from me the way of lying; may the law of kindness and truth be in my my future of the sensite sensit

Verses 2, 5.—As the eagle casteth off her beak, and so renewith her youth, and the snake strippeth off her old skin, and so maketh herself smooth: even so he that will enter into the joys of God, and rest upon his holy mountain, must, as the Scripture speaks, put off the old man and put on the new, which, after God, is create the white the strength of the control of the control

Years 3.—" Het thel backblish not with his tongue, nor doeth cell to his neighbour. Lamestation for the goes neglect of this duty, or the Frequent commission of this sin fly in all places, at all tables, in all conventions! And this were the more tolerable if it were only the fault of ungoiny men, of strangers and ennisis to religion; for the fault of ungoiny men, of strangers and ennisis to religion; for one of the form of the fault of ungoiny men, of strangers men of the fault of ungoin the fault of the fault is as wonder to hear such persons reproach good men, yet even for their goodness. But also it be disease doth not rest here, this plages it how professors sharpen their tongens like swords against professors; and one goo man crassres and repreaches another, and one minister traductal naother; and the fault of the fault that of the fault though one of the fault of the fault that of the fault though of the fault that of the fault though of the fault of the fault that of the fault though of the fault of the fault that of Verse 3.—" He the backbidth not," etc. Detreetion or stander is not lightly to be passed over, because we do so easily hall in this point. For the good name to be passed over, because we do so easily hall in this point. For the good name before much treasure, insometh that it is no less grievous to hart a man with the though than with a sword: any, oftimes the stroke of a longue is grievouser than the bridded, that we hart not in any whee the good name of our neighbour; but preserve it tun bin mad and sound as much as in a shall like. That which he added the other well we will be supported to be done to our neighbour; but preserve the stroke of the str relieve him: yes, though he be a stranger, or a sojourner, that he may these: take thou no numry of him; etc. This law forticis the taking and these that the strategy of the nowhere learn from the institutes delivered by Mose that the simple taking of interest, especially from the neighboring nations (Det. 2...11), 20,0, was not relicide to the interest, in the different control of the c

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Verse: 5.—' He the justice not out the moves to usury.' With respect to the variety of the property of the pro

HE FIFTEENTH.

18 Ith th

in question has, accordingly, its import also for New Testament times. With the interest-iending of capitalists, who borrow for speculation, it has nothing to do. This belongs to a quite different matter, as is implied even by the name wit, a mordendo, according to which only such usury can be meant as plagues and impovertishes a neighbour. By unseasonable comparison with our modes of speech, many would expound, "His more he puts not to interest."—E. W. Hangstendery.

Verse 5 (fort clause).—The worm called in Latin zeroto, whereof Plluy just reported something in his story, receining in wood, to the touch is soft, yet if lating the provider of the property of the property of the property of the provider of the property of the propert

Verse 5.—The rich make the poor to fill them; for nurser feed upon the poor even as great finds edworr the small. Therefore, he which said, Let there not be a begger in Irened (Deut, xv. 4), said too, Let there not be an unurer in Israe Deut, and the said of the said to the said of the poor to be poor to be maketh restitution, he dieft his his sin.—Henry Snith.

Vers S.—Billing naurer were so abborred in the primitive church, that were the single surrective to the substance of the primitive church, that were the sound and also the witnesses, incapable of any benefit; and that no testament or late did, written by such should be value. The house of the surrec was called done with such though the value. The house called done with such the surrect was called done with such taueres, nor field rife reform them; and after they were dead that the should not be burdled in Chettila burdled. The conclusion of this is (Eack, viii), it's desired in the surrection of the such that the surrection of the s all alike.—John Wermen, 1988.

He right way to bell, to be covered the immonst. — I am sure this is east interest the right way to bell, to be covered, to take bribes, and pervert justice. III. Judge should ask me the way to bell, I should show him this way: First, let let judge should show and the state of the stat of the King's Bench, my Lord Judge of England, yes, an it were my Lord Chanceller himself, to Tyburn with him.—High Latinary.

I come to corrupt lavyers and advected, who so often does not control lavyers and advected, who so often does received optimized incomed, as they to take upon them the defence of such causes as they in their own conscience are persuaded to every consideration of the control optimized incomed, and advected, who so often does not common a facility through the control optimized the mong lavyers, as the very any conscience thereof, to whom all is fish that comets to their net; therefore all anywers are to be calabrated to play this note out to themselves—Horey-Demonsor, that believes thus and thus, or he that it of such or such as optimized to the control of the control

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

1.—Qualifications for church membership on earth and in heaven. A or self-exmination.

A, accrifice offered, and the church to the tabernoite. God's presence A, accrifice offered, and vessels of grace preserved in it; mean externally, within. II. Comparison of its dealer position to that of the tabernoide. International content of the content res Jan- "species the trust in an interior." Superior Tessension and res / (first clause). The citizen of Zion, a worker of fighteenment. For 2 (first clause). The citizen of Zion, a worker of fighteenments. The citizen of Zion, a worker of fighteenments. The citizens of Zion, a worker of fighteenments. Sommon and bottom? Work citizens of Zion, a worker of the December of Zion, and a hurt.

Verse 5.—The evidences and privileges of godly men.

Verse 5 (last clause).—The fixedness and safety of the godly.

PSALM XVI.

PRESERVE me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

O my soul, thou hast said unto the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my good-extended not to thee:
But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom bashli; to profess it before men is "THEM MRILET, but to declare it before abeliamized is of the more consequence. This sentence may also be viewed as and enjoyment; in this sense may it be our duly song in the house of our plaging. "My poodness estated has to the Net." The work of our Lord Jeans was not ful on account of any necessity in the Divine Belm, Jelovah would have ful on account of any necessity in the Divine Belm, Jelovah would have ful or the sense of the s more increasely a limit the set that poor innoversy servinat, not in the do a reason poor child of God may be served by u, for the Great Father can our aid. Well may we sing the verse of Dr. Watts:

"Well may we sing the verse of Dr. Watts:

"Well may we sing the verse of Dr. Watts:

"Well may be set the served of the serv

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

It falted to may recome any the first of the man, the affections and feelings. The communion of the soul with ten inner spirtual wisdom which in still season is revealed to it mere year many hights above upon the mountain, and we may revealed to it mere year many hights above upon the mountain, and we may revealed to it will be sufficient to the still be sufficient to the suffic

8 I have set the Lord always before me: because he is at my right hand, hall not be moved.

9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall tin horse.

hope.

For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thine one to see corruption.

Thou wilt shew me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of joy; right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

17 Thou will show me the path of life: in thy presence is fulness of loy; at thy right hand there are pleasures for evermore. The set of test at one time cast its dark shadow over the set of the Rodomer. The set of test at one time cast its dark shadow over the set of the Rodomer. The appeared unto him and the set of the result of the set of the set of all his right hand, for he shall tear no iii, for it shall look forward to an et al. I — Those mild he me the paid of life. "To Jesses fint this say was he is the first-begotten from the dead, the first-bern of every creature and opened up the way through his own flesh, and then tred it as the fore his own redessed. The thought of being made the path of life to his is desired to the same of the s

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Title.—There is a diversity of pointion as to the meaning of the title of this Psalm. is called "Michiam of David," but Michiam is the Hebrew word untranslated—Hebrew word in English letters—and its signification is involved in obscurity. cording to some, it is derived from a verb which means to hide, and denotes a stery or secret. Those who adopt this view, regard the title as indicating a

Title.—Such are the riches of this Painn, that some have been led to think the obscure title, "Middenn," has been prefixed to it on account of its golden stores. For eye is used of the "gold in Gypin," (s.g. Painn xiv, 8), and spin might provide the result of the state of the s

Whole Paslm.—Allow that in verse ten it is clear that our Lord is in this Paslm, with the application of every verse to passa in Gelebrane appears to be the telected to conceive, and equally so is it with regard to verse its. The "cup" of verse is ordered a contract to that cup concerning which Jesus prayed in again for the contract to that cup concerning which Jesus prayed in again for the contract to that cup concerning which Jesus prayed in again for Gelebrane." An advantage of the contract to the contract to that cup concerning which Jesus prayed in again for Gelbrane. It is any, "At the distinguished interpreters of ancient day, under an extension of the contract to the right hand of Cod." and in a foot note to give the following the contract to the c

Whole Psalm.—The present Psalm is connected in thought and language with the foregoing, and linked on to the following Psalm by catchwords. It is entitle in the Syriac and Arabic versions, a Psalm on the Election of the Church, and the control of the Church of the Church

Verse 1.— "Pessers mo, O God." Isrc David daireth not deliverance from any special trubble, but generally prayeth to be frenced and defended continually by the providence of God, withing that the Lord would continue his mercy toward hum turbs the end, and in the end, whereby he foreward van as needin liter his also how he made no less account of It in his prosperity than in adventity. So the he man of God will freard his infirmity, and therefore acknowledgeth himself eve to stand in need of God his holp. And here is a sure and undoubted mark of the diding, as to begin; and this paying for the gift of land preseverance is a special note of the child of God. This holy jealousy of the man of God made him so tenders to be preserved at all times, an il exists, both in soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, an il exists, both in soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, an il exists, both in soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, and exists to be preserved at all times, and it exists, both in soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, and it exists, both in soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, and it exists to be preserved at all times, and the states to the soul and below the success to the preserved at all times, and the states to the soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, and it exists both in soul and body—Méthern desires to be preserved at all times, and the states to the soul preserved the states.

PSALM THE SIXTEENTH

Verse 1.—" For in the do I put my tract." Here the prophet setted, down cause why he przych to God: whereby he declared, that some can tridy cal upon God unless they believe. Rom. z. 14. "How shall they call on him is who upon God unless they believe. Rom. z. 14. "How shall they call on him is who start they can be the start of the start of Verse 2.—" O my soul, those hast said unto the Lord, Thou ort mu Lord." I walk

I believe I could guess the language of some of you. When you heard me repse these words, "O my soul, thus hast said unto the Lord, Thou ort my Lord," you thought for I dealer not the knowledge of the Ways." He so to incombling like this passes in your minds? I will try again. When I first mentioned the Lord, "Lord my I walk in the land of the land of the land of the Lord, "Lord my I walk in the land of the land of experienced."—Samuel Lainingfor's Sermons, 1810.

Verse 2.—" Thou art my Lord." He acknowledgeth the Lord Jehovah; bu he seeth him not as it were then afar off, but drawing near unto him, he sweetly embraceth him; which thing is proper unto faith, and to that particular applying which was as up to he in 64th—Pabell Rolled, 1800.

Verse 2.—" My poolines extended not to thee." I think the words should be understood of what the Messich was doing for men. My goodness we obtain the search of the property of the property of the search of the search—of all the spirite of just this bounty extends to the search—of all the spirite of just of the search of the search—of all the spirite of just of the search of the search—of all the spirite of just of the search of the Mercies are never so savoury as when they savour of a Saviour.—Ralph Venning, 1820—1873.

Verse 6.—" The lines are fellow unto me in pleasant places; per, I have a goodly periage." Blitte berls will go down very well, when a man has settle delicious "meta's which the world known not of." The sense of our Pather's love is like and the valley of trouble into a down tory well, when a man has settle delicious "meta's which the world known not of." The sense of our Pather's love is like and the valley of trouble into a down of long-it makes the bigget evils serms af they were nose, or better than none; for it makes our deserts like the garden of the chiral through the sense of the saving through the sense of the large terms of the desert like the garden of the chiral through the sense of the saving through the saving through the sense of the saving through through the saving through the saving through the saving thro andsight, to arise and pray. While, therefore, we acknowledge the pillow to good consuming, it as with David here acknowledge site that it is the Lord Google Consuming, it as with David here acknowledge as to that it is the Lord Google Consuming, it is as the Lord acknowledge with the consuming the consumination of the consuminat at of the spottle, 1 Thess. v. 23; spirit, soul, and body) were all John Trapp.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

"My flesh shall rest in hope." It I Jow pawned his bed-clothes, God critically that it should be restored before spikl; "For," shall he, "that restored the property of the state of the spirit, and the spirit, and rest in large his body down to grave: "My flesh," such David, and rest in hope." O Christian, or clee thou art sure to lie down in sorrow. A and going to the bed of hat who hath no hope of a resurrection to life. "William Carnoll, that who hath no hope of a resurrection to the "William Carnoll, sit to the soul; 'it is an anchor to keep it steady. Help wanted on the movableness of last whole hat he who had not have movableness of last whole had been supposed to the movableness of last whole had been supposed to the movableness of last whole now.

rie ventures himself, and all that belongs to him, entirely upon this ha offect to say, it they will not be are may 1 am content to sink; it is a finefic to say, it they will not be are may 1 am content to sink; it did therefore I will Incessantly look for II.—Timely Cruze.

"For them will not been my soul in high "et. The title to this golden—The embeddings of the dood satistis: the force whereof is to free the reliction in the state of death, and to secure the bodies of God's saints on in the grow. It is the rive which I desire to learn, and at this time, on the grow. It is the rive which I desire to learn, and at this time, on the grow. It is the rive which I desire to learn, and at this time, on the grow of the saint of the same of the saint to learn, and at this time, in the same of the saint to learn, and at this time, the same of the saint to learn, and at this time, the same of the saint to learn the saint time the same of the saint time the same of the sa cularisation of church appurtenances at Banbury, by

PSALM THE SIXTEENTH.

Design it seems been of all to interpret this word of the grave as it is ready of the grave as it is ready from a seed of the grave as it is ready from a seed of the grave as it is ready from a seed of the grave as it is ready from a seed of the grave as it is ready from a seed of the grave as it is ready from a seed of the grave as it is ready from the grave as it is the most part of the grave as it is ready from the grave as it is the grave as grave as a seed of the grave as it is that and nothing but this, the keeps the man, dead and burder, from desertion in death, and corruption grave flowers and grave as the grave. It is this and nothing but this, may be a should a fine of the grave as it is that and nothing but this, may be a should a fine of the grave as it is that and nothing but this, may be a should a fine of the grave as it is that an according from grave flowers as it is the grave as it is that the grave of the grave flowers as it is that the grave of corruption for the grave flowers as it is the grave flowers as it is that the grave of corruption for the grave flowers as it is that the grave flowers as it is the grave flowers. It is the grave flowers as it is the grave flowers. It is the grave flowers as it is the grave flowers as it is the grave flowers as it is in the grave flowers. It is the grave flowers as it is in the grave flowers as it is in the

208 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

in to. But right, like pligfarm, or rather, wandevers. For we scarce know if we go "Me." David still keep the singular number. As there is but one guide, as he speaks in the person but of one Translier. There is somewhat, peradventure of the property of the contract of the singular. We may pray the God would guide all; but we can be con ident for none but cursaviers. "Thou self show," or thou dott, or bask, as some often, as most can be considered by the singular than the self show that an unit of the way; that am myrelf alone; that must walk in "the point" electric that an out of the way; that am myrelf alone; that must walk in the particular that an out of the way; that am myrelf alone; that must walk is hot one may, it is but a "pall" where but one can go; this is no highway, but a cay or againly by tropes! it is hot seminal, as made plotted in the seminal to the seminal that the seminal than the

The path.— But let us now see sends as will stole us. The path.— We have the sends and lend in destruction; as God half many paths out of this highway, the word, but they all end in salvation. Let us oppose our to his kindway, the word, but they all end in salvation. Let us oppose our to his kindway, the word, but they all considerable they are oppositely to be partially a surpleaded to help and the path of the

We must begin to enter at via mandatorum; for till then we are in the dark and indistinghin to one, whether they be good or bod. But there we shall one with a landers and a light int. Thy commandment is a lanters, and the law it light with a lander and a light int. Thy commandment is a lanters and the law it light and it will bring the len into the eng. And see how careful our Guide is; for lest the third should blow out this light, he hash put it into a lantern to preserve it. For lear, or smothers, on the "outmandments," preserve the memory of the law it he lear, or smothers, on the "outmandments," by the start the memory of the law it he commandment the lantern. So that neither flattering Zeplayrus, nor blustering breast shall be able to blow it out, to long as the fear of the sanction keeps it in This is increma pediture (Pasim cxt. 105); and will not only show the where thou that tread, the with peace to hand the leep. When then hast this light, take Law Jerseny's

209

PSALM THE SIXTEENT

he in the ways and heboid and sak for the old way; which is the good way, mak likeries, and ye shall find ret for your souls. "This will bring you some whilter where you may rest availe. And whilther is that? Trace this pols, and will be the proper of the polse of the work of the begapty orderines." When we come there, we shall find the way pleasant and very [66], so that we shall plainly see before us that erp polse of the way pleasant and very [66], so that we shall plainly see before us that erp polse of the way pleasant and very [66], so that we shall plainly see before us that erp polse of the way pleasant and very [66]. So that we shall plainly see before us that erp polse of the way pleasant and very [66] and the polse of the polse of the way pleasant and very [66] and the polse of the way pleasant and very [66]. So that the polse of the way pleasant and very [66] have a polse of the way pleasant and very [66] and the way pleasant and very [66]. The way of God are rain, and the way pleasant and the way pleasant and very [66] have a polse of the way of the way odd attain owe opened the way to paramas, where was toppes up by a liming word. This is part of the joy of the soul of charit; he halt now a falmess of joy, a salislying delight instead of an overwhelming sorrow; a "hiness of joy," not only some and the presence of his Pather. His soul is fed and nourthest with a perpetual vision of God, in whose face he behold no more frowns, no more designs of treating him of God, in whose face he he behold no more frowns, no more designs of treating him of God, in whose face he he behold no more frowns, no more designs of treating him of the presence of the face of the presence of the presenc are diversely framported according to the divers kinds of harmony, then how shall we be ravished in God's presence when we shall have heavenly airs with heavenly we be ravished in God's presence when we shall have heavenly all the heavenly are not nothing in holy Sortjuters, and therefore seeing God's Spirit will not have a pen to onthing in holy Sortjuters, and therefore seeing God's Spirit will not have a pen to and tatte, and teeling, shall have loy proportionable to their blessed estate, for the corruptible manual part on hororythm, and this mortal immortality, the body of the corruptible manual part on hororythm, and the mortal immortality, the body of god, and, as heigh impassible, no way subject to usaffer with its raised a spiritual body, buried in dishonour, raised in glory; that is, capable to god, and, as heigh impassible, no way subject to usaffer with its cannot be subject to the collection of the control of the collection of the collectio

PSALM THE SIXTEENTH.

presently, constantity, and incessantly? Now all these destrables are enderied within the compass of the first remarkable, to make up the consummation of treating," with the compass of the first remarkable, to make up the consummation of treating," within 1648.

Wret 11—The human nature of Christ in heaven with a double capacity of his Father and the other persons, through his personal union with the Gothead his Father and the other persons, through his personal union with the Gothead his Father and the other persons, through his personal union with the Gothead his Father and the other persons, through his personal union with the Gothead his Father and the other persons, through his personal union with the Gothead his Father and the other persons, and the contract of the greet loy." Matthew xxviii. 8. In our regenerate estate, though we have joy from Christ that is "formed in us," yet the limpression of the terrors of God before the Christ that is "formed in us," yet the limpression of the terrors of God before the contract of the contr

Verse 11.—" Priceurse for exermer." The soul that is once landed at the horsesty throe is past all storms. In Egoluties out alland he for ever bashing that horsesty through the past all storms. In Egoluties with such he for ever bashing that he was the past of the past and the

PSALM THE SIXTEENTH.

Verse 11.—This heavenly feast will not have an end, as Ahasuerus's feast had, though it lasted many days; but "At thy right hand are pleasures for evermore." William Cohill.

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

MicMem of Deside.—Under the title of "The Golden Pashin," Mr. Canon Dale has published a small volume, which is valuable as series of good simple discourses, ut ought hardly to have been styled "an expection." We have thought it right such such the contraction of the property of the pr

The perienting of the gold. The believer realising at God's right hand the falmes of Joy and the pleasures for exemore.

Upon this suggestive Pailm we offer the following few hints out of many—forest—The prayers and the place. The preserver and the truster. The dangers of the preserver of the preserver of the preserver of the preserver of the gold of the preserver of the gold of the gold

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

For 6.—We may put this acknowledgement into the mouth of—I. An indulged of providence. II. An industriant of this featured country. III. A Christian regard to his spiritual condition—Wulliam Jag.

To the state of the spiritual condition—Wulliam Jag.

To the state of the spiritual condition—We should be instruction.

To What then?

The spiritual condition—We should be instruction.

III. Your campie. IV. Your observer—William Jag.

The spiritual condition—William Jag.

The spiritual condition—William Jag.

The spiritual condition of the spiritual condition of the living toron.

III. Your campie. IV. Your observer—William Jag.

The spiritual condition of the spiritual condition of the living toron.

III. His salvation (for which he hopes).

The salvation (for which he hopes).

wifing topic an one, in pine or in so so mu in so.9. A summon set wifing topic verse in it. —Because he lives we shall live also. The believer, herefore, Verze in it. —Because he lives we shall live also. The believer, herefore, even in heaven for the people of God after the resurrection. It has three characters are the proposed in source—it flows from "Ma pression." The steened pression is sufficient flows from "Ma pression." The second pleasures are "for corrows."—William Jap.

pleasures are "for corrows."—William Jap.

verse 11.—A week pletture of heaven. (See Exposition.)

PSALM XVII.

A Prayer of David. David would not have to had not been a man of prayer. He was a m He flies to prayer in all times of need, so a jot tempest. So frequent were David's prayer with the flies to present were David's prayer the flutnace is upon the present Paulm, but there would be to the present Paulm, but there would be the flies. An APPEAL TO HEAVEN from the persecution us here.

HEAR the right, O Lone, attend unto my cry, give ear unto my prayer, that goals not out of segmed lips.

the things that are equal.

Thou hast proved mine heart; thou hast visited we in the night; thou hast tricd me, and shall fit an othing I am purposed flast my mouth shall.

ress.
rning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me
aths of the destroyer

Congressing the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me the paths of the districyst.

"Hear he right, O Lord." He that has the worst cause makes the most homes the oppressed soul is apprehensive that its voice may be drowned, excelore pleads in this one were for a hearing no less than three times. The to reduce the region of the control of the control of the control of the sear was the control of the sear to be able indeed; and yet some professors set such small store by the mercy-seat, aware no house if we pensit like gipine in living in the lanes and common; I have no mercy-seat as he always defending our own cause and save going it have no mercy-seat as he always defending our own cause and seave going at hear is. "Hear the right," It is useful frozing only in the first of the right, "I is the will four case is good in itself and can do as a right one, for right hall never be wronged by our rightness Judge; our will be marred by our intermittee, it is a great privide and we may have a sea of the control of the

PSALM THE SEVENTEENT

217

opin her ainlees wide. Assayers very soon detect the presence of alloy, and when the property of the property

4. "Concerning the nowles of men." While we are in the midst of men we shall one of the property of the control of the cont

5 Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.
6 I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline this

5. Under trial it is not easy to behave curvelves aright; a candle is not easily alight when many envious mornts are puffing at it. In evil times prayer justification, and wise men resort to it at once. Plate said to one of his post of the property in the property of the property of

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

he prayed to be upheld in God's paths. We cannot keep from evil without keeping for good. If the bushle be not full of wheat, it may soon be one more full of chaff in all the appointed ordinance and duties of our most holy faith, may the Lorenble us for an horself his uphelding proof, but our of the control of the contr truth. "I have called upon thee, for those will theer me, O God." Then heat slave, beset me, O my, lord, and therefore I have the utmost conditioner in again approaching thise altar. Experience is a bleased teacher. He who has tried to inthinhers of God in hours of need, has prest bothers in injurying his case before the contract of the contract of

- 7 Snew thy marvenous formgamoness, o thou that savest by thy fight hand them which put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

  8 Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shadow of thy wings.

  9 From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who compass
- 10 They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.
  11 They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;

12 Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.

7. "Does my merellous looksplaindness." Marvellous in its antiquity, in the wooders which it works. That marvellous gazee which has redeemed us with the precious blood of Good only begieton, he has relocated us to the rescue of divine love are matches cordinated to the rescue of divine love are matchess cordinate to support fainting hearts. Believer, what argues is this Toomdier it will. O Lord, shee thy marvellous lovingkindness my gratitude; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence; shew it to my faith, and renew my confidence of the my faith of the shew it is to my faith, and renew my confidence of the my faith o them.

8. "Keep me as the apple of the eye." No part of the body more precious, more tender, and more carefully guarded than the eye; and of the eye, no portion more peculiarly to be protected than the central apple, the pupil, or, as the Hebrew calls it, "the daughter of the eye." The all-wise Creator has placed the eye in a well-protected position; it stands surrounded by projecting bone like Jerunshen.

ALM THE SEVENTEENTH.

encircled by mountains. Moreover, its great Author has surrounded it with many united or inward overrige, besides the hedge of the represerves, the curtain of the united of the property of the curtain of the contract of th amplication. It is wicked that appress me, from my dendity entents, who compast me dout." The four from whom havid to sought to be record were neithed men. It is bopeful for as when our enumies are God's ententes. They were dendity ententes to be a support of the support of t

10. "They are inclosed in finite own fut." Luxury and glationy begre vain priorisa trians on beart, which shat so it is gate aquint all companionate senctions of province transcent of the property of the province of the state of the sta to possess that are out.

The form of the ungedly in a more dept. The fury of the ungedly inside not set one believer shows, but at all the hand; they have compased us. All the race of the Jewn were but a mored for Haman's bangary reveage, and at Master's sake. The Lord Jewn is not on the us, and herein is our bope. He is the Breaker, and will clear a way for us through the hosts which everyon us. The Breaker, and will clear a way for us through the host which everyon us. The breaker, and will clear a way for us through the host which everyon us. The breaker, and will clear a way for us through the host which everyon us. The breaker is the second of th

12. Lions are not more greedy, nor their ways more cunning than are Sata and his helpers when engaged against the children of God. The blood of soul the adversary thirsts after, and all his strength and craft are exercised to the atmot satisfy his detestable appetite. We are weak and foolish like sheep; but we have a shepherd wise and strong, who knows the old lion's wiles, and is more than us beware, however, of our lurking foe; and in those parts of the road were we feel most secure, let us look about us lest, peradventure, our foe should leap upon us.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

the wicked, which is thy sword:

14 From men which are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, which Asser their portion in this life, and whole only then linket with thy ind Pressure.

13. "Arise, O Lord." The more furious the attack, the more feverat the life of the life, and the life of life, and the life of life, and the life, and life, scholars, for it is very obscure. We will, therefore, rest content with the common version, rather than distract the reades with diven translations. "Proon more required to the property of the proof o

15 As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, then I awake. with the likeness

As for me, I will behold thy face in rightcounsess: I shall be satisfied, awake, with thy likeness.

"As for me," "I neither enry nor covet these men's happiness, but partly do partly hope for a far better." To behold God's face and to be changed as the same of the control of the same of the control of the same of th

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Title.—"A pruper of David." Since many of the Plains consist of prupers, the question may be asked why such an inscription more especially belongs to this. But though the others contain divers prayers mixed with other matters, this is a supplication through its whole coarse.—"The Yenrade Back, 672—758.

the question may be asked why such an inscription more sepecially belongs to the is a supplication through its whole course.—The Verarable Beds, 672—735.

Verse 1.—" Hear ... citized ... give out." This pettion repeated thrice, indicate a great power of feeling and many viacars; because the earl of the unpoly, in texth, grieves and outletch the spiritual man move than their power and violence, for we may be a supplicate the properties of the spiritual repeated through the spiritual repeated

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

ou hait proved mine heart: "—

Waxt take it it adventure, and not try Waxt rotal it it made of? No, not Ir.

Take subtless the made of? No, not Ir.

Take subtless the first three providing branch
Take subtless the first three providing branch
Take subtless the first three providing branch
Take subtless three providing three Takes of the first three providing three Takes of the first three three Takes three Take

An heart of stone, "tis not an heart for me. The heart, that, can it no, my fameace, spits And spatches in my face, falls into fit and the state of the state of

PSALM THE SEVENTEENTH.

I'll bring it to my furnace, and there see What it will prove, what it is like to be. If it be gold, it will be sure The hottest fire that can be to endure. The hottest fire that can be to endure. Affliction may refine, but cannot waste That heart wherein my love is fixed fast.

Francis Quarles

Vers. 3—"Two hast sixted me in the night" etc. In the sight the case for from husbase with the world, and therefore free for husbase with the world, and therefore free for husbase with Good, and then did Good prove and visit David, that is, examine and sift him, by calling to his mind all his ways and works in former passages; and the lessue of this tria was he found nothing; not that his soul was empty of good things, or that three was was found nothing with min; but God, upon examination, found nothing of that evil in him which some ment suspected him of; namely, either any fill will or evil design off "Overse 13." Where the right O. Lond, "—Jouend Comptones cases, or "the "Overse 13." Where the right O. Lond, "—Jouend Comptones cases, or "the "Overse 13." Where the right O. Lond, "—Jouend Comptones cases, or "the "Overse 13." The comptones can be considered to the contract of the comptones o

Verse 3 (third clause, New Translation).—"Thou hast smelted me, and four in me no dross." A metaphor taken from the smelting of metals to purify the from extraneous matter.—Geddes.

to disturb with fear, but fire in that it actually burns.—Augustin.

Veres 3.—"I am purposed that my mouth shall not tonugests."—Wherefore if thou he upon a mountain, look not backward again unto Sodom as Let's wird did; if thus he will swithin the art, by not out again into the words an Nosite of did; if thou he well switch, return not again to the mire as the long didh; if the plant of the mire and the property of the property if thou he marching again the host of Midlan, drink not of the waters of Hared; if thou he upon the housedome not down; if thou he water that the property of the property of

Verse 3, 4, 5.—Where there is true grace, there is harted of all sin, for harted verse is view. Can a man be resolved to commit what he lastes? No, for his view is view. Can a man be resolved to commit what he lastes? No, for his view is view in the view of view of the view of the view of view of

Verse 4.—"Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips 1 have kept men the paths of the destroper." in a lib he had said, Would you know how it come to pass that 1 escape those ungodly works and practices which men ordinarily with and by it 1, an kept from those foul ways whereinto others, that make ne use of the word for their defence, are carried by Satan the destroyer. Can work and the said of the sa like the sworf-fish, by whom this great devource of all other this is so often killed for, receiving one prick from his word, he hastensthe to the shore, and beats himsel against it till he dies. Thus the devil, the great devource of souls, who sport processes the state of the state greatest part of manifed without any power to make resistance against him, it himself vanquished by the word. When he has to do with a saint armed with the word, and instructed how to use this weapon, be then, and not till then, meet

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

Verse 4.— By the word of hy lips," etc. It is a great relief against tempstate vi. 17. In piritual conflicts there is mose like to lath. Those that ride shrow in time of danger, will not be without a sword. We are in danger, and had were a stronger with the stronger of the stronger of

Verse 5.—" Hold up my goings in the paths, that my footistep slip not." Lord, whatsoever the wrath of Saul be against me, yet let neither that, nor any other thing put me out of thy way, but keep my heart close unto thee, and keep my paths in the way, lie not my footisteps so much as slide from thee, for, Lord, they watch in the wear of the contract of the contrac tone can be supposed to the plants, and may possess supposed to the can be supposed to the

Verse 5.—"Hold up my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not." Lord hold me up, that I may hold out. Thou hast set the crown at the end of the race let me run the race, that I may wear the crown. It was Bear's prayer, and let I be ours, "Lord, perfect what thou hast begun in me, that I may not suffer ship wreck when I am almost at the haven."—Thomas Wotson.

Verse 5.—In flerce assaults and strong temptations, when Satan layeth sing to the soul, showing his first durit, and using strategens of policy, joining his endeavours with our corruptions, as wind with tide, then we have cause to preappeal to the strategy of the strategy of the strategy of the strategy of the appeals also found he had need of help from heaver when he was assaulted, and therefore he prayed "their," that the thing that he feared might depart from him. 2 Cor. 21. Christ halt haught us to prey daily. "Leed us not into tempta tion," for it is dangerous; and then temptations are most dangerous, when the strategy of the final strategy. The strategy of the strategy of the strategy of the strategy of the final strategy of the str timus! 3. When opportunity and power is greatest—Joseph Symonias.

Verse 6—"I have coiled upon these, for those utils hear me." I have cried, says the Pasimist, because those heat heard me. One would think he should have said because them has the head me; to show that crying doth not always go before hearing with God, as it doth with u; but that God will not only hear our cry, but also yet the state of th

PSALM THE SEVENTEENTH.

on assured evidence and constant experience hath its probatum e was, or can be, hath prescribed, even he that teacheth us how to bear what is to be borne, or how to heal and help what hath been borne.—William Gouge, 1575— 1553. Verse 6.—I have called upon thee formerly, therefore, Lord, hear me now. It will be a great comfort to us if trouble, when it comes, finds the wheels of praver Verse 8.—" Keep me as the apple of the ege." He prays for deliverance (verse 7 "Show thy marvellous Interfactabless" to me; Lord, my struits they are marvellous and the structure of the struc selves, but the Lord is so much the more tender over them.—Ierumiah Burrought.

Verse 8.—Does it not appear to thee to be a work of providence, that considering the weakness of the eye, he has protected it with eyelids, as with doors, which when ever there is occasion to use it are opened, and are again closed in sleep? And the it may not receive injury from the winds, he has planted on it eyelashes like strainer; and over the syes has disposed the eyebrows like a penthoses, so the Verse 9.—" From the wicked:" as though he had said, They are equally enemie to thee and me; not more opposite to me by their cruelty, than by their wickedness they are to thee. Yildigete then at once, thyself, and deliver me"—Lohn Ham.

Verse 10.—" They are inclosed in their own [at," or their jet has inclosed time their eyes, that they can hardy see out of them, or their hearts, so that the their less and breold of the four if God; the large is expressed with pride and vasually, and neither reased God nor regarded man; so the Targut paraphrases it, "their riches are multiplied, their fact overs them."—John Gill. "Vers 10.—" They are Inclosed in their one in Their workly proppert just fear; and the Scripture doth use this term of a fattened heart in this sease because that the lat of man halt no feeling in it, and these that are very fat are iess subject to the passion of fear—John Diodati.

Vers 10.—"They are inclosed in their own fat." To say a man is fat, ofter means he is very proud. Of one who speaks pompously it is sald, "What is we do? last kullap indi," that is, "from the fat of his fiesh he declares himself." Oh, the fat of his mouth! how largely he talks!" "Take care, tellow! or I will restrain the fat of thy mouth!" —I. Roberts, in "Grienal Illustrations." 1844.

Verse 11.—"Thuy how now composed us in our steps: they have set their opebouring down to the sorth. A man who has people watching him to find out a caus for accusation against him to the king, or to great men, says, "Yes, they are around my legs and my feet; their eyes are always open; they are ever watching my "suredux" "steps;" that is, they are looking for the impress or footsteps in the earth. For this purpose the eyes of the earnies of David were "boung down to game by battue, and so make a ring around their prey from which their victims cannot escape.—C. H. S.

he earth." The allus

EXPOSITIONS OF THE

probably is to the huntsman tracing the footmarks of the animal he pursues.— Religious Tract Society's Commentary.

Verse 11.—"They have set their eyes bowing to the earth." It is an allusion, at I conceive, to hunters, who go poring upon the ground to prick the hare, or to find the print of the hare's claw, when the hounds are at a loss, and can make nothing of Verse 12.—"Like a lion," etc. In "Paradise Lost," we have a fine poetics conception of the arch enemy prowling around our first parents when he first behelved.

A lion now, he stalks with fiery glare;
Then, as a tiger, who by chance hath spied
In some purises, two gentle fawns at play, Straight crouches close, then rising, changes oft
His couchant watch, as one who chose his ground Whence rushing he might surest seize them both

John Milton.

Verse 12.—We were consulting as to the best means of getting of a rimorecow which we are standing at some distance under a tree, when a troop of impains came charging down, with a fine old linease after them. We were not now he are proposed to the standing of the standing of the standing of the area of the standing of the standing of the standing of the standing of any certainty; and the never for a moment took her eyes from us. When we get up to her, she was lying down into as plats to the ground; but her head might on move her body, as we decreased the eights, but the lopes the would stand up and to move her body, as we decreased the eights, but the lopes the would stand up and up, hear enough to make tolerably sure of my shot, and was just getting up on when the linease made off—william Charles Baleston, P.R.G.S., in 'Aprica

Verse 13.—" The wielder, shields in the smooth"—The devil and his instrument, therefore "the wielde" are called his "mooth" his "mooth "his "mooth" his "mooth "his "mooth" his "mooth "his "mooth "his "mooth "his "mooth "his "mooth haddle his lows legs with no wan mae; "which food should do if his cindifferes should he the worse for Stating his own mae; "which food should do if his cindifferes should he the worse for Stating his own mae; "which food should do if his cindifferes should he the worse for Stating his own mae; "which food should he will be prescrution, as the "Lore of hosts" he will oppose him. If by policy and subtiety, he is ready there also feed send and whole council are but foot 16 God; may, their wisdom fooliliness.—The devil and his whole council are but foot 16 God; may, their wisdom fooliliness.—

and manage them, as a man may wield his sword, or move his hand. Wilt thou suffer thine own sword, thine own hand, to destroy thine own servant?—J. Howe.

Verse 14 (first clause).—How wonderful are the dispensations of the provident of God, who can use even the wicked to promote the present happiness and the final salvation of his saints !—J. Edmorth, M.A., 1850.

Verse 14.—J. And of the world, shitch have their portion in this life." Time an extra believe the property of the property

Verse 14.—" Men suich our fluj hand," etc. What shall we say then? Because God maketh use of thy sins, at thos excused? I not thin seed view, because he picketh good out of it? Deceive not they after the hand to see some picketh good out of it? Deceive not they after the seed to be picketh good out of it? Deceive not they after the seed to be a seed to b

PSALM THE SEVENTEENTH.

ds, ares, saws, other instruments, when they have done their offices, which the vere meant, thall be thrown themselves into the fire, and hurnit to absens. Said service to God, it cannot be denled, in the sufficting of Job, winnowing of Pretidenting of Paul, excepting of Joads, and God did a work in all these, either two patterns, or to confirm faith, or to try strength, or to commend justice with the confirmation of the pretident of the pretid redemption or mannand, whish the worre endured, yet was an wages in and to hang himself upon, and which is worse, he hangeth in hell for eternal gener. He had his wages, and lost his wages. That which the priest gave him, he and lost his apostleablp, but gained the recompense of everlasting unhapp and lies in the lowest lake, for the worm and death to gnaw upon without cass

Vern it.—"The hand." The hand of God, his correcting or chrishing hand smeathers in a mismediate, and conscitures a models hand. Sometimes it is interested to the constitute of the constitute and the state of t

as no part of their fencity, but as com bad, enemies or friends.—Daniel Wilcox

Vers. 14.—" Men which have their pertion in this life." God give welched may a portion here to show unto them what little good there is in all the things, and to show the world what liftle good there is in all the things that are here below if the show that the show the sh sulfi he. "The Turkhis empire, as great as it it, is but a crumb, that the Master and head Lutter of it; and indeed it is no more. All the things of the world, God in giving of them to Turks and wicked ones, his enemies, shows there is not up and down in the world, became he had the sum of the world. The world is not a world with the world is not a world with the sum of the world. The world is not a world were the property of the property of Versa 1s.—" Which have their portion in this lift." The earth and the commodities thereof Good distributed without respect of persons, even to them that are highleten by creation only, and not by adoption. But yet there is a difference between contracting the contraction of the contraction only and not by adoption. But yet there is a difference between contracting the contraction of the con

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

"Verse 14.—" Their portion in this life." The good man's set, and the human's word, lie had held ke (haish, in 10.1), in reversion. Here Dives head nothin man, word, lie had held ke (haish, in 10.1), in reversion. Here Dives head nothin which had held here had been a support of the lever of the departs from, all evil; and the evil man when he dies, takes he lever of, and departs from, all evil; and the evil man when he dies, takes he is conflorted, but thou art tormented." Lake xvi. 25. Oh! "Us a sad this he is conflorted, but thou art tormented." Lake xvi. 25. Oh! "Us a sad this line—Radje termings" Heigh so Play, the level was the line "Lake xvi. 25. Oh!" and the line "Lake xvi. 25. Oh!" are said to the line "Lake xvi. 25. Oh!" and the line "Lake xvi. 25. Oh!" are said the line "

1620—1673.

Vere 14.—" This life." There is yet another thing to be seen far more monstrous in this creature: that whereas he is endeed with reason and counsel, and knowell in the light, to amobe, to chair which the wind scatterth, to a water-bubble, and such-like fading things; and that life to come shall never have end; he yet nevertheless settled his whole mind most carefully upon this present life, which is to-day, and the life of the control of the present life, which is to-day, and the life of the l

PSALM THE SEVENTEENTH

within this life; the future, evenlesting, to be subject when he should swine. There partial, defective, such as would be justify their bestile part, ill their beliefs he selectate, complete (the shouses of source, a lappines of proportion), such as well to be supported to the selection of the Vers 15.—" I will behold the face." I look upon the face of a stranger as it meets me not; but upon a friend, and his face presently transforms mise int a lively, cheerlai aspect. "As from sharpened tron, so doth the face of a measure of the liver of

Vers 15.—"I will shold," etc. In the words we have, I. The time of humplets and consummate happiness—When I anakee." 2. The matter of his complete and consummate happiness—When I anakee." 2. The matter of his consumer happiness—When I anakee. "I the matter of viliness," the manner of enlysing—"I will shold by face." 3. His perfect disposition and condition in the state of happines—"I shall sheld in ripheous nas," having my heart perfectly conformed to the will of God, the perfect nas, having my heart perfectly conformed to the will of God, the perfect nas, having my heart perfectly conformed to the will of God, the perfect nas, having my heart perfectly conformed to the will of God, the perfect nas, having my heart perfectly conformed to the will of God, the perfect nash, and the state of the state o

Collision 15.—15 doth protes his resolution, yet netwithstanding all the danger he was in, to go on in the ways of God, and expects a gradious size: i.e. if it is a summary of the state o

Burrough: 1.—" I shall be satisfied," etc. The fibrous of the fisicity of heaven any appear if we compare it suffi in fear jour and complete of the Hugh Spirit. Such they are, as that the Scripture styles them strong consolidates (HeAv. V. 17), and they are a that the Scripture styles them strong consolidates (Park. V. 17), and they are present that believers are partakers of in this like is but as a drop to the ocean, as a single cluster to the vibol' writing, or in the price of the white the state of the water, when and peop' of the colerate I channel. But yet these tastes of the water, wine, and honey of this celestial channel, with which the Hugh Spirit in or as the brake and peop' of day to the bright nonline. But yet these tastes of the water, wine, and honey of this celestial channel, with which the Hugh Spirit han the overdrowing streams of all earthly ficielities. And there are none who have once tasted of them, but say as the Samartian woman did, "Lord, dry me that the state of the difference by his taste, oil from wine; still he was calling for his vision and asying Redde mild compos fordors, ochannom auream, continum Hieronguman, assistantangelors: give me my fresh and fragrant fields again, my gloden pilars of light continued to the continued of the what trances and complacencies must the fruition of it work in those who have the whole rational appetite filled, and their body beautified with its endies glory?—

EVENCITIONS OF THE BEALL

mishing the interior of huidings they kept the scaffolding up? The old Prowhen he had Michael Angole employed in decorating the interior of that magni fenet structure, the Statine Chapel, demanded that the scaffolding should be taken the control of the state of the Verse 15.— When I smoke, I shall be suitfield with this liberais. The spaces were supported by the property of the state of the property of the state of the stat

PSALM THE SEVENTEENTE

233

at latter day, and shall see this image of thine, shall see thy Son, I shall be attitude:
When I wakes, I shall be sattlifted with thine image."—Thomas Gooden?

"When I wakes, I shall be sattlifted with thine image."—Thomas Gooden?

"I shall be sattlifted to the state of the shall be shall Verse 15.—"I shall be satisfied, when I caucke, with the littleness." The saint in heaven have not yet awaked in God's likeness. The bodies of the rightout still sleep, but they are to be satisfied on the resurretion mora, when they awake will be supported to the satisfied on the resurretion mora, when they awake returns to Rome with his soldiers, eather privately into his bouse, and enjoy himsel till the next day, when he would go out of the eity to re-enter it publicly in trumple with the soldiers, and the saint should be supported by the same without that beddie; but how, the saints, as it were, enter purished into the chariots. Methinks I see that grand procession, when Jesus Ciritt first of all chariots. Methinks I see that grand procession, when Jesus Ciritt first of all the many content on his bead, with his bright, glorious, immortal body, shall less write many common his bead, with his bright, glorious, immortal body, shall see west makely from their golden harps; all entering in triumph. And when the sweet in said of the said of glorious hards and the said of the less of glorious hards and the said of the little grant of the said of glorious hards and the houseloops, like the in heavier forces and little upon them, erging, "Halfelight haldelight labelight he Lord God Omajpotent reigneth." "I shall be satisfied" in that glorious days and all the saignest of God shall come to see the triumphs of Jesus, and when his which all the saignest of God shall come to see the triumphs of Jesus, and when his people shall be victorious with him.—Spargeous's Sermons.

The same who is thirty be brought to an occan of pure water, and he has enough to satisfy as enough to be brought to an occan of pure water, and he has enough to satisfy as. The woll is but here to be recorded to the control of the same of the sam

234 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALE

gold ! God excels all other things more infinitely than the sun the light of a layer of the property of the pr

Verse: 15.—"When I mooks," etc. The sincere Carletina is progressive, new at his journey's end this logs the heaven; this keeps than aways in motion at his journey's end this post to between the keeps than aways in motion but not content with great measures of grace. "Whan I mask," saids Dawly 'I shall be satisfact softly full less." He had many a sweet entertainment a the house of God in his ordinances. The joint part and the content of the world know not of. Yet David has not enough, it is heaven shown that can give him his full draught. They say the Goals, when they first tasted of the winds be content to trade thiller to the whom the world know not of. Yet David has not enough, it is heaven shown that can give him his full draught. They say the Goals, when they first tasted of the winds be content to trade thiller for this most compact than when they grew. Thus the sincere sould thinks it not enough to receive hand where they grew. Thus the sincere sould thinks it not enough to receive him the state of the winds of the same than the

Verse 12.—"When I anabel." How apt and obvious is the analogy between creating out of the darks of a natural sleep, and the sloty soul rising up out of the darks. It is truly said to the darks of the slot of the darks. It is truly said to to anabe at its first quitting these darksome regions, when it is para saids its cambersom saight-vell. It do this none perhelic ji the leyful anoming abadows of it see vanished and field away. And how known and usual an application that so of the subspiced terms of despings and awaiging in Holy Writ, I need so that the said of the subspice and the said of the said

Verse 15.—There is a sleep of deadness of spirit, out of which the shining of Gord's loving countenance doth swike a believer and revive the spirit of the contribution of the contributio

Vers 15.—There is a threefold meaning in this verse, insamuch as it is in Christons, the flushron from the dead, the express image of schoolar's glory, that the soles, the flushron from the dead, the express image of schoolar's glory, that the will greatly delight in the glorous state in which they will rise. 2. They will greatly delight in few shown, and by whom, resurrection and immortality are brought to light; and 3. They will delight greatly in beholding the blessed and reconcile continuous of 3 shown, the States, whom no eye of flesh can use. This is the state in which the saints will behold him in the resurrection. Glorous as the scene on Sizal was, yet the Lord said to Tared, "You have seen no "eye (Tennand)

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

PSALM XVIII.

do the Low's anominois.

EXPOSITION.

WILL love thee, O Lond, my strength, a 1 The Lone is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; my God, at my fortress, and the horn of my salvation, and my the lower of the

- sorrows of hell compassed me about : the snares of death prevented
- 6 In my distress I called upon the LORD, and cried unto my God: he ard my voice out of his temple, and my cry came before him, even into his
- Then the earth shook and trembled; the foundations also of the hills ed and were shaken, because he was wroth. There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth ured: coals were kindled by it.

  He bowed the beavens also, and came down: and darkness was under

- his feet.

  10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly: yea, he did fly upon the wings of the wind.

  11 He made delense his secret place; his pavilion round about him 12 He made and thick clouds of the takes.

  12 At the brightness that sus before him his thick clouds passed, hall stores and coals of fire.

The Lorn also thundered in the heavens, and the Highest gave his, hall shows and coals of fire.

In the shows and coals of fire.

In the shows a show the shows a show the shows a show the show the shows a show the show the shows a show the show t trils.

16 He sent from above, he took me, he drew me out of many waters.

17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them which hated:

18 They prevented me in the day of my calamity: but the Lord was my y.

19 He brought me forth also into a large place; he delivered me, because delighted in me.

"About me cords of hell were wound, And snares of death my footsteps bound."

Thus hopeless was the case of this good man, as hopeless as a case could be, so utterly desperate that none but an almighty arm could be of any service. According

"He on the wings of cherubim Uplifted, in paternal glory rode Far into chaos."

subjy, "from actors," the deliverance is marvelous, "It's draw in out of namy." Here David was like another Moses, drawn from the water; and thus we hood has redeemed us from the wrath to the water and thus we hold has redeemed us from the wrath to come. Torrents of evil shall we have been delivered to the come of th

- from me.
  23 I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from mine iniquity.
  24 Therefore hath the Lozo recompensed me according to my rightousness, according to the cleames of my hands in his eyesight.
  25 With the merdful thou wit shew thyself merciful; with an upright man thou with shew thyself upright;

the pure thou wilt shew thyself pure; and with the froward thew thyself froward. thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high

For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my asiles of envisors Seal, who no doubt prosecution his persecutions under cover of surgest David Gederics to have been uttierly false, and surest that he possessed gence-given righteousness which the Lord and graciously rewarded in definace of the property of the propert

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH.

men throw stawly their fight weighes, and sortes were the control of the control

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSAIMS.

"For flow will tight my cander." Even the children of the day sometimes undeleight. In the darkest hour light will arise; a candie shall be lit, it comments are not fittings, one will be the controlled to the search of the controlled to the controlled to

- r' a wall.

  3 As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the Lozn is tried: he is sucklet to all those that trust in him.

  3 For who is God save the Lozn? or who is a rock save our God?

  3a He is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect and the most office of the most of the most office of the most of the most office of the most of
- ces. 34 He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by
- per arms. Any manuses to war, so mact a now or steel is broken by 35 Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right of hath holden me up, and thy gentheness hath made me great.

  37 I have pursued mine enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I m again till they were consumed.

  38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen der my feet.

- 38 I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they are fallen under my feet.

  More than the state of the dealer with strength unto the battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

  40 Thou hast able given me the necks of mine enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.

  More than the strength of the strength of the strength of the control of the control of the control of the mine that hate me.

  More than the strength of the strength of the possible than any control of the strength of the possible than the strength of the strength of the possible than the strength of the strength
- hast made me the head of the heathen; a people whom $\tilde{t}$ have not known aball serve me.

  44 As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall see the strangers and the

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH.

e mell." Whether we meet the foe in the open field or kep upon them while they bark behind the battlements of a city, we shall by God's gares defeat them in either with the control of th his own inexhausithle strength, that we might be unconquered in battle and un-35. The conquered rise that does not be at only within hand, and the next note must, therefore, refer to them. "He makeff my feet like binds' feet, and settled me young roo, but, lensed of taking pleasure in the legs of a man, he acrobe the bood of swiftness to the Lord alson. When our thoughts are nimble, and our spirits regist, given us the choices from ... Climbing into impregnable fortnesses, David had been preserved from shipping, and made to stand where the contract of the con-gret of the contract of the contract of the contract of the con-plexes of thomas, service, tempelation, and danger, but hitherto we have been kept please of thomas, service, tempelation, and danger, but hitherto we have been kept giving; had we failed, our wellings must have been terrible; since we have stood, let our gratuitude be fervent.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

"44." He teacheth my hands to now." Martial provess and skill in the use of weapons are gratefully acknowledged to be the result of divine teaching; no accrifice to effort at the sharine of self in prise of natural destrictly, or expired diffulines; persented to the Giver. The Holy Spirit is the great Drill-master of heavenly presented to the Giver. The Holy Spirit is the great Drill-master of heavenly presented to the Giver. The Holy Spirit is the great Drill-master of heavenly printer of the prin

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

forth by the sanctifying energy of the Holy Spirit, and we shall serve the in singleness of heart. as with remembrances of conquests in the past, and with glad anticipations ories yet to come the sweet singer closes the description, and returns to exercise edirect adoration of his graceious God.

more direct adoration of his gracious tun description, and returns to exercise 46 The Loron liveth; and blessed de my rock; and let the God of my viatron be exalted at verageth me, and subduct the people under me.
47 H at God that everageth me, and subduct the people under me.
48 H at God that recommisses the people under me.
49 Therefore will 1 give thanks unto thee, O Loron, among the heathen,
40 Therefore will 1 give thanks unto thee, O Loron, among the heathen, 40 Street deliverance giveth he to his king; and sheweth mercy to his tonited, to David, and to his seed for evermore.
46. "The Lord liveth." Possessing underlyed, sensitial, independent and eternal oriality. Like logis subjects its us cry. Live on, O God. Long live the King, kings. By thise immortality do we dedicate ourselves streak to thee. As the e ground of our hope, and let him be the subject of our praise. Our heart bless a Lord, with hely love activities.

Jehovah lives, my rock be blest! Praised be the God who gives me rest

Jebroch lives, my rock be bine!

"Let the God of my satisfaction be exalted." As our Saviour, the Lord should more than ever be gottenifed. We should publish abroat the story of the covenant and the cross, the Father's election, the Son's redeemption, and the Spirit's regeneration, the Father's election, the Son's redeemption, and the Spirit's regeneration, and the Spirit's regeneration and the common in the assembles of the saints below.

Because the same of the saints below.

Because the same should be common in the assembles of the saints below.

Because the same should be common to the saints below.

Because the same should be common to the saints below.

Because the same should be saints below.

Because the saints s

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH.

covenant with the spiritual David, for that would far more involve the honour of his crown and character.

The Psain concludes in the same loving spirit which shone upon its commencement; happy are they who can sing on from love to love, even as the pilgrims marched from strength to strength.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Whole Penins—The general argument of the Paulm may be thus stated; it is a most of the Divinity, whose assistance the speaker had so often experienced. He describes, or rather, he definates, his perit, the power of his neeming, his unden delivering the penins of his neeming, his unden delivering to the penins of the series of the series of the series of the series of the penins of

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Green, but the Lemma to botch. The object of his suttinute and worship—George (Gillian, in: "In Bards of the Billian," 1852.

What Poulm.—He that would be wise, very line in the look heathespecially and the property of Davids as the preface sources us, and he fat as the spitome of the general history of Davids as the preface sources us, and he fat as the spitome of the general history of Davids as the preface sources us, and he fat as the spitome of the general history of Davids of the content of the property of Davids of the property of the property of Davids of the property of the Whole Paint—Sometimes the Lord cheers and comforts the hearts of his people with milling and reviving providence, host bupiles and personal. There are time the angle of the providence are very cheerful and encouraging; their whiter seems the aspects of providence are very cheerful and encouraging; their whiter seems the over; they put off their garments of mourning; and then, ah, what were very marked to heavenly gracious souls! Doth God lift them up by prosperity? the marked to heavenly gracious souls! Doth God lift them up by prosperity of the company of the proper with him in Soular say, where God had delivered them from Pharnoh, how do they exalt him is a song of thanksgiving, which for the eigenne and spirituality of it, it made a nember of the document of the consideration of the considerat une suites. "The server of the large state of the large given to Moses (Josh, I. J. 13, 18 and In.men ther research of the body), and to Joshua (Josh, xxxx, 29, Judg, 18) but to none other except David (here, and in the title to Ps. xxxvi), Cp. Act (Ill. 36, *exervious. This is significant; reminding us of the place occupied by David (Joseph 20, 18).

EIGHTEENTH.

o extended the power of Israel over the whole region allotted to them by Divine miss.—W. Kay, 1871.

I'lléc.—This Psalm, which is entitled a shirsh (or song), is David's hyunon of process of the shirth of the shi

Verse 1.—"I will love thee, O Lord,"—The word whereby the Palmint expressed he entire affection, in the near significant womb, and imported such as affection as cometh from the innerment part of man (or matrix), from his bowels, from the passion as mewhich the lowels. Some his terminal to the present as the passion as mewhich beloweds. Some histories, "From my lanermost bowels will if love thee, O Lord," To give evidence of his entire any manners of the passion as meaning the passion as meaning the passion as meaning the passion as the passion of the passion of the passion and the passion of the pas

Verse 1, 2—O Leill too thee?. Intimately as a mother loves the child that come Verse 1, 2—O-Col bath, as it were, made himself over to believes. David the house of the verse of the verse

Verse 2.—" The Lord is my reck." As the rocks that are hard to be clambers unto are good retuges to by unto from the face of pursuers, so God it has safety all such as in distress do by to him for succour.—Robert Candrag.

It is also that the safety of t

Verse 2.—" The born of my sintellion." The allusion here is doubtful. Some have supposed the reference to be to the horns of animals, by which they defined themselves and attack their cennics. "God is to me, does for me, what their horns were the contraction of contraction of contraction of the contraction of contraction of the contra

expositions of the Psalms.

this in the Hebrew language, horn is used for mountain as in Isalah v. i. A very these views we take; though, from the connection with "sheld" or "buckler," these views we take; though, from the connection with "sheld" or "buckler," minded to consider the second of these views as the most probable. It is minded to consider the second of these views as the most probable. It is minded to the probable of the probable

"I mil sell upon the Lod, nho it newfup to be spraised." Prayer and the the the control of the characteristic be given the control of the con

Verse 4.—" Sorrows of death." It is heaven's peculiar to be the land of the living; all this life is at most but the shadow of death, the gate of death, the sorrows

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH.

254 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

people are now a kingdom of priests, and are said to worship in the temple, and a theather. Bey. xi. 1. "Let us therefore draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith; " "let us come boildy to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy and find grace to help in time of need," Heb. x. 22; 1v. 16.—Charles Bradburg'

Consider the control of the control

Vorse 6, 7,—The prayer of a single sain its sometimes followed with wonderfects; "In uniferse I coiled upon the Lord, and cried union up Got." In hearing societo ori of his temple, and my cry come before him, each rich his sear. Elen in up to the count of his temple, and my cry come before him, each rich his sear. She has been as the contract when the sear when the himself is the count he uses used with: "what them can a thundering legion of such praying soul do?" It was said of Luther, list vir point can thought copying the country of the himself is the world; his entered by the prayers; and the more shride of the prayers of Mr. Kisox, than of an army of ten thousand men. These were mightly were sould be sufficient with God, however continued and villided among the essentials. There will a time come when God will hear the prayers of his people to continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John you continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John you continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John who continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John who continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John who continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John who continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John who continually crying in his ears, "How bogs, Lords, low long?"—John who continued to the continual transfer and transfer and

Verse 7.—" Then the earth shook and trembled." The word was signifies, to move or shake violently: it is employed, also, to denote the reeling and staggering of a

Verse 7.—Let no appearing impossibilities sake you question Got's accomplish ment of any of his gradous words. Though you cannot see how the thing, can heart of any of his gradous words. Though you cannot see how the thing, can he provided the property of the property o be fall; and proyers are not flung back, though they be not instantly answered—Verget 7, 6.—The volcatic phenomens of Palestine open a question of which the data are, in a teientific point of view, too imperfect to be discussed; but there

the data are, in a teientific point of view, too imperfect to be discussed; but there to this kind at vow. The valley of the Joefan, both in its desolution and very discuswas one continued portent; and from its cervices ramified even into the interior was one continued portent; and from its cervices ramified even into the interior was one continued portent; and from its eventue reported to the the properties of the

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH.

escape the eye of a superficial reader. Like the soil of their country, they actually heave and labour with the flery convulsions which glow beneath their surface.—

Arthur Penphun States.

Verses 7—9.—While Jesus hung on the cross a preternatural "darkness covered all the land;" and no sooner had be yielded up his spirit, than "the wail of the temple was rent in twain from the top even to the bottom, and the earth did quake, and the rocks rent, and the graves were opened; and many bodies of the saint that slept arose, and came out of the graves, after his resurrection, and went into the boly city, and anopeared unto many."—John Brown.

Verset 7—3.—In the night in which the Iduments lay before Jerusalem, there were the property of the property o

Verse 8.—" There went up a smoke out of his nostrils." map yiz viz. Or their and this nose, as the words, literally rendered, signify. The ancients place the seat of anger in the nose, or nostrils; because when it grows warm and violen it discovers itself, as it were, by a heated vehement breath, that proceeds from them—Samuel Chandler, D.D., F.R. and A.S.S., 1766.

Versus 8—18.—David calls: the full force of position imagery to all, to describe in a becoming manner the marvie of its deliverance. It means to say that they phenomen in the lingdom of nature surprise terrified mortials. Deliverance being the terrified mortials of Deliverance being the them, he might have taken the figure from the processle phenomena of the lingdom of nature surprise terrified mortials. Deliverance being the terrified mortials of the described the best of the described the best of the described the best of the described in Pasies. In order to describe the best of the described in Pasies and the described in Pasies. So described in Pasies and the described in Pasies and the described in Pasies. So distribution of the described in Pasies and the described in Pasies. So distribution of the described in Pasies and the described in Pasies. So distribution of the described in Pasies and the described in Pasies. So distribution of the described in Pasies and fashes of lighting are bits surveys. At his rebody, and at the blast of his breaft his earth recents—the san frame up, and its betts are seen—the land burst in the carth receive—the san frame up, and its betts are seen—the land burst in large of the described in the described pasies and the best of his breaft his cart freedom the described pasies and the best of his breaft his cart freedom the described pasies and the best of his breaft his cart freedom the described pasies and the best of his breaft his cart freedom the described pasies and the described p

Verse 9.—"He boused the heavens also, and came down." As in a tempest the clouds come neares to the earth, and from the mountains to the valleys, so the to judgment (Palm cdul), and the property of the prop accompaniment of God's descent on Mount Sinal (Exod. xx. 21; Deut. iv. 11); and it invests his throne, to veil from us the overwhelming majesty of delty Psalm xevil. 2. But this darkness, while it hides his coming judgment, bespeaks sorrow and anguish to the objects of his wrath. Luke xxi. 25, 26.—W. Wilson, in low.

256 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

"He also bowed the heavens,
And thence he did descend;
And thickest clouds of darkness
Under his feet attend.

And he upon a cherub rode, And thereon he did fly; Yea, on the swift wings of the wind, His flight was from on high. He darkness made his secret place; About him for his tent

Scotch Version, 1

35 9—12:—
"In his descent, bow'd heaven with earth did meet, And gloomy darkness roll'd beneath his feet; A golden winged cherub he bestrid,

He darkness made his secret cabinet; Thick fogs and dropping clouds about him set; The beams of his bright presence these expel, Whence showers of burning coals and hailstones fell.

Verse 10.—" (Cheruls." The Hebrew name bath affinity with Recluit, a chariot, used in Pallan Civ. 3, almost in like seems as "cherul" is here; and the densulum are called a chariot, 1 Chron. xxvili. 15; and God's angels are his chariotts, Palm Dan. E. 21; so the cherulium size with wings, Exod. xxv. 20, and are by the spottle called "cherulium of glory," Heb. Iz. 5. In Palm 1xxx. 2, God is said "to six on the cherulium," as here, to fice; and "c a cherul" may be put for manay, or all on the cherulium," as here, to first in all "c a cherul" may be put for manay, or all the contraction of the cherulium in the contraction of man, the lon, buil, and the cagle (combining in itself, as it were, the intelligence, majesty, strength, and life of nature), was a symbol of the powers of nature. When powerful the cherulium is a strength, and life of nature), was a symbol of the powers of nature. When powerful the cherulium is a strength of the cherulium in the cherulium in

He on the wings of cherub rode sublime

Vers 10.—When God comes to punish his fees and recent his profile, nothing hes were anythred his firmfue, or few more than the adminusture with regular his more and the same than the adminusture with the his more than the adminusture with the his more warring than the same and the highest of above his more warring than the heaven should be seen rought that the heavens should be seen rought has the heavens should be seen rought, not rother should be seen rought, and the rother should be seen rought, and the rother should be seen rought, and the rother should be received by the rot

Verse 12.—" Coals of fire." The word signifies, living, burning coals. When the lightning fell, it devoured all before it, and burned whatever it touched into burning ambers.—Surged Chardles

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH.

Vers. 14.—"Yea, he sord out his arrows, and scattered them," etc. O that you woulk ear now streamen to God would be to conside these things ! O that you woulk ear now streamen to God would be to conside these things ! O that you would be the state of t

Verse 14.—"He shalt sut his tightings," 22 crys. LNX arrasse revises Paligure multiplicate; Yulig, and so all the versions. He multiplied his transfer holts; or, shot them out takk one after another; as the word properly signification of the contract of the state of the contract of the Verse 15...." The foundations of the world were discovered; i.e., such large and deep chasmis, or apertures, were made by the violence of the earthquake, as our might almost see the very foundations, or sails as found in the might almost see the very foundations, or as found in the might almost see the very foundations, in the bottom of the sea. Jonah ii. 6... Samue Chamilies

Were 15.—The Lord interposed with the same notoriety of his presence, as when the waters of the see were driven back by a strong east wind, and the depturned into dry ground (Ex. xiv. 21, 22), to give the israelites a safe passage out of their thraidom, and to drown the Expythans—Henry Hammond.

wise... Matthew Pools.

Veris 184... He took." God's grasp cannot be broken. None-can pluck hi chosen out of his hand... William S. Plumer.

Vers 19.... There ms do if y many noters." This hath reference to Moses' cas who was "drawn sat at the water," and thereupon called Mostel (Ex. II. 10); that sainly to make an according to the water, and thereupon called Mostel (Ex. II. 10); that sainly founds, and sometimes multitudes of people... H. Almoorth.

**Manufacture**

**The Administration of the Water School of the Water signify troubles, and sometimes mutitudes of people.—11. Autoward.

Verse 18.—"They presented me in the day of my calamity;" i.e., came on me addedity aniawarss, when I was unprovided and hopless, and mut have destroyed

258 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

me had not God upheld and supported me when I was in danger of perishing. Got was to the Pasimist paye, for a stoff to support him. What the staff is to one that is ready to fail, the means of recovering and preserving him; that was God to David in the time of his extremity. For he several times preserved him from Saul, when by David, thought his destruction by him almost unavoidable. See I Sam

XXII. 20, 21,—Somital Chamilton.

In the day of my colomity, but the Lord man my action. The there were the said the large when the large with the large with a said Luther, Tell the Henries, the bishops, the Turks, and the devil himself, do what they can, we are the children of the hingdom, worshipping of the true Gold, we are the children of the hingdom, worshipping of the true Gold, we were many martyrs. Beall affirms of the primitive saints, that they had so much courage and confidence in their sufferings, that many of the heatthess seeing their many contracts.

Verse 20.—" The Lord rewarded me according to my ripheountess; according to the elements of my hands had he recomposed me." We must stand our ground and be stiff for ourselves against all misjudgings. It is good to be real-outly differed alone, or whether it respects the credit of our brethren or our own. To desire to be famous in the world, and as those glants in the old world (Gen. vt. 4), men or nerven, or, as the original text hat it, it men of name, is a very great vaulty; I be

Verse 21.—" I have not suicidily deposted from my God;" that is, with a purpost and resolution of heart to continue in a way of sinning; and that is the property of sincerity. A man indeed may be overtaken and surprised by a temptation, but is not with a resolution to forsake God and to deaves unto the sin, or read to it is not with a resolution to forsake God and to deave unto the sin, or read to the contract of the contract

Verse 21 (find clause).—Although a godly man may break a particular command go so for as to versive knowingly to break the covenant of grace with God, and to depart from him; when he half gone on so far is a to water knowingly to break the covenant of grace with God, and to depart from him; when he half gone on so far is a sin particular to the categories and brings him back again; he may presumptionally ventur (though seldom; and shways to his cost) to commit an act of the against knowledge with the command of the command of the command of the committee of the command of the committee of the command of the comman

Verses 22, 23.—An unsound soul will not take notice of such a precept as opposeth his special sin; such a precept must go for a blank, which the soul throws by, and will not think of, but as conscience now and then puts him in mind of it, whether

259

PSALM THE EIGHTEENT

be will or no. But R is not no with a man in whom sincertly is: that precept which doth most oppose that is in to which he is most inclined, he labours to aboy as well doth most oppose that it is to which he is most inclined. He labours to aboy as well to walk by as substitution of the labour oppose his special corruptions, or displease the times, and so expose his to suffering, so pose his pickle and plut savey, as Drovic here sails, and calls them as the rotten there he bathles and plut savey as Drovic here sails, and calls them as the rotten to be regarded; which rottenness Carist took up roundly in those ironical works to be regarded; which rottenness Carist took up roundly in those ironical works "Whosoever shall break one of these least commandement, shall be called the least "The labour of the soul labour on the labour of the soul labour of the soul labour on the labour of the soul labour on the labour of the soul labour of the soul labour on the labour of the labour of the soul labour of the labour of

Vers 22.—" I was also apright before him, and I kept nyuelf from nine insulinging the who says, "I.o. tome: in the volume of the book it is written of me, I selight to do thy will, O my God; yest, thy law is within my heart; "and who by the apostic to the property of th

Vers 22.—"I must spright before him." Hence observes—dist, that a good becomes a special property of the prope

Vere 22.—"I was spright." etc. An uppfult Christian will not allow himself any known in; be dare not touch the forbidden fruit. Gen xxxix, e. "How then can 1 to this great wickedness, and sin spaint God?" Though it he score to see that the state of the

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

but there was one sin so dear to him, that he would sooner behead the prophe than behead that sin. Herod would have a gap for his incest. An upright hear is not only angry with sin (which may admit of reconciliation), but hates sin; an if he sees this serpent creeping into his bosom, the nearer it is the more he hate

The third of the state of the s

Verse 25.—"I kept suppil from mine iniquity." It is possible to keep cursels from such that as David dit, who protease here of himself great sincerity, that it from such that as David dit, who protease here of himself great sincerity, that it has been proved to the provide the provide that the product of the provide that the hard heat direction; and that it, by constant and retreat prayer to imple that and heat direction; and that it, by constant and retreat prayer to imple only keep us from failing him to them, but even turn our heart from inclining to that help us to see our folly and our danger. For slat 1 we are not allowed for our better to help ourselves, not so much as to think a good thought, much less to resist to help ourselves, not so much as to think a good thought, much less to resist to help ourselves, not so much as to think a good thought, much less to resist to help ourselves, not so much as to think a good thought, much less to resist to help our less than the provide and the provide the provided that the provided in the provided that the p 1000.

The three 23.—" Mine Inspirity." A man's derling sin may change with the change of a man's coulditon, and some occasion that may present itself. What was Soul's and Jebu's sin before they came unto the crown we know not; but surely it was that wherein their just did afterwards run out—the establishing a kingdom upon their posterity. Wantonness may be the darling of a man's youth, and worldliness the during of a hard as ge, and a man's being raised unto honour, and having the opportunity.

Wene 22.—" Mints Injustig." There is some particular sin to which one is more process than to mother, of which he may as by way of gentlements. It is "mint injustig, at which he may point with his finger, and say," That's 1t.". There are most processed in the processed of the p

Verse 28.—"Mine iniquity." The actual reign of sin is commonly of some particular master-lust, which is as the vicercy over all the rest of the sin in the soul, and commands them all as lord paramount, and makes them all subservient as subordinate unto it; and this its according to custom, calling, constitution, abbilities, relations, and according to the different administrations of the Spirit. On the other paramounts, we have the orderes of sin. So that

GHTERNTHZ:

20

sireed topon all the contentments of the seefed, his own corrupt indication is obscown unby inside to follow with present venetrees and contentment and delight as that wherein the happiness of his life censist; that as in the Jody Beers is in the natural man, though there is all the fractilety, so come fractilets see in seed more lively and vigorous than in other, some are more witty, some are more witten more lively and vigorous than in others, some are more witty, some are more witten and the content of the c and vectory over, your data.—I names to domein.

Verse 23.—We must always reintender that though the grace of God prevent us, that we may have a good will, and works in as when we have it, that so we may find success ye believain do we expect the continuance of his help without diligen endeavours. While he assists our washness, he does not intend to enourage out faithers, and therefore we are also "to halour, and etries seconding to his working thinkes, and therefore we are also "to halour, and etries according to his working the source of th

We see 24—26.—As you may set a proportion between this and pustionment within a vite in events of them, which you care any joined at sub-rought forth the allikelies, it is so like the fabbet; so you might see the like proportion between you will you see any joined as the brought forth the allikelies, it is so like the fabbet; so you might see the like proportion between you will you. So did not like the proportion between you will you so that the propagation of the stress you might be about you will not go you might be the proportion of the property of the stress you might be about you will not contain between you had in propagation, and the stress you might be your property. It is more you shall, it may be, find of hitteness mingled with he roughly shared. We granted, and so much imperfection, and wast of common it is not properly man. It is properly man. It is made to the properly described the substitute shadows ward; so, "When Mater hands were down, Amalake prevailed; but what they were ward; so, "When Mater hands were down, Amalake prevailed; but what they were not so good at face the part of the properly man. It is not the properly the sult is described up, have all the the parts. It is not the containty, when he was attract up to pray, then all the found things to go well. By the properly man, and the properly man and the properly man and the man are hall that the properly man and the sult is the properly that the properly man and the observe a proportion, and it may help you to discern how and when they are answered and obtained by prayer, because God deals thus with you therein in such a proportion

262 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALE

Verset 24—27.—Even as the sun, which, unto eyes being sound and without decess, is very pleasant and wholenon, but unto the same eyes, when they are and the self-same that was before; so God, who hath ever shown hinself being and bountful to those who are kind and tender-beared towards his saints, and are without the contract of the

Verse 25.—" With the merciful thou sult show thysell merciful; with an upright and then will then theyled upright." "An upright "the same word is oft trans lated "perfect," he is good throughout, though not theroughly; not one that be a second that the same that the same word is oft trans lated "perfect," he is good throughout, though not theroughly; not one that be so. So Noth its termed (Gen. v.) "I would was a just man and prefect it. upright) in his generation. "he was a good man in a bad age. He was like a glowing park of the in a set of waster, which is perfect goodness; and therefore the 10th grace in the creates a set of waster, which is perfect goodness; and therefore the 10th grace in the creates a set of the set of the same of the set of cordial, unfelgied, and exact inan: this is the main we are looking for, but the filey Obnot challs at sword, and a choice one too, signifying a drow, notion man; the same word (Fashan Av. 3), "O mightly man!" that's meant of our look man; the same word (Fashan Av. 3), "O mightly man!" that's meant of our look man; the file which was a state of the same word that the same word for the malte of the dwd, and the sin of man, in the face, and come off with trimph. And so the Ditch translates this clause in 2 Sam. xxii. "With the right valual man; the same word is come to the same which was a word with the same word in the same word in the same word with the same word in the same word with the same word with the same word in the same word with the same word with the same word in the Hebrer wasks all these in the same word in the Hebrer wasks all these in the same word with the Hebrer wasks all these in the same word with the Hebrer wasks all these in the same word with the Hebrer wasks all these in the same word with the Hebrer wasks all these the same word with the word word with the same word with the word word with the same word with the word word with the word word with the number is few, of needless vanilies the number is endiess. The apright man half made choice of Ceed and hath enough—Richard Sizel.

PSALM THE EIGHTEENTH

20

For a Sizel with the merciful; "etc. In lupiter's hall-door there are set two Years 22...." With the merciful; "etc. In lupiter's hall-door there are set two Years 22...." With the merciful; "etc. In lupiter's hall-door the true Cool, Jahoval; 'that he halth his hand two cups, the one of conficts, the other of crosses, and the set of the confict of the Verse 26.—" With the pare flow will show theyoff pare," etc. But doth the Low Alex colour from every one he ment, or change its temper as the company change. That't the weakness of sidth man: he cannot do so with whom there is no ward. That't the weakness of sidth man: he cannot do so with whom there is no ward propertited, as we seed as with the prevan disprift, and fine actions show him to be 5. God shown himself froward with the froward when he deals with him as he halt be seen to be a side of the seed of the seed

Joseph Conf...

The fround one." Here, as in the first prunies, the two combanies and contrasted—the seed of the woman and the seepar—the benignantly bountful perfect, pure One, and the froward one, whose works he came to destroy, and when del it his great busines to circumvent him whom he forced. The literal meaning of the word is "tortonos," or "crocked," and both the ideas of perversity and canning which the fagure naturally suggest, are very applicable to "that old ser canning which the fagure naturally suggest, are very applicable to "that old ser doubt that it is the latter idea that is intended to be conveyed. God cannot dee perversely with any one; but he outwist the wise, and takes the cunning in their

Vers 26.—'With the fromand thou suit above three from the Verse 26.—'With the fromand thou suit above they are as a wrettlen to their bodies. Hence by strope, it is translated often to wereful, because a cunning man in westling, turneth and windeth his body, and works himself to contain the same of the verse and the verse and the verse which we will be wrettlen who turn and wind themselves in and out, and its for all advantages like wrestlen who turn and wind themselves in and out, and its for all advantages when the verse were the verse who will be verse with the verse when the verse was the verse with the verse when the verse when the verse was the verse when we will be verse when the verse when the verse was the verse when the verse when the verse was the verse when the verse when the verse was the verse when the verse verse when the verse was the verse when the verse was the verse when the verse was the verse was the verse when the verse was to be verse was the verse was the verse was the verse was the ve

Verse 28.—" Will shee biggelf [rowerd." It is a similitude taken from wrestler action and action and action and action ac

Verse 27.—"The afflicted people." The word rendered "afflicted," properly signifies "poor "or "needy," The persons spoken of are obviously afflicted ones, for they need to be saved or delivered; but it is not their affliction, so much as their poverty, that, is indicated by the cylithet here given them; and, from the pose being contrasted, not with the wealthy, but with the proud—for that is the meaning of the figurative expression, "the man of high looks"—at seems plain that, though the great hody of the class referred to have always been found among the comparatively "poor in this world," the reference is to those poor ones whom our Lord represents as "poor in spirit."—John Brome.

264. EXPOSITIONS FOR STHE TPSALME

Verse 27.—"High looks:" namely, the proud; the raising up of the eyebrows being a natural sign of that vice. Psalm ci. 5: Prov. vi. 17.—John Diodati.

Vers 28.—"For them still light my conflict," etc. The Pashinst speaks in this limited by the extent preventing in Egypt of were underfund their bounds to the both the extent preventing in Egypt of were underfund their house to be without lights, but burning image even through the sight, so that the popurat people be without lights, but burning image even through the sight, so that the popurat people be the excellent extent, not excell in Egypt, but in the neighbouring countries of Arabha and Judea, "the highling of the lamp," in this passage may have held of stiglet the "lenge" of the Pashinst, as a show,—Bifurd Mant.

"Verse 28 (first clause). "Thou aire shallt".—when none else can. And notic too, how here, and often elsewhere, the Psalmist begins with speaking of God, an ends with speaking to him. So the bride in the Cartilese, "Let him kiss me with the klesses of his mouth, for the love is better than wine."—Diomysius the Carthusia (A23), world in J. M. Nees.

Verz 29.—" By the I have run through a troop," etc. David ascribes his victories to God, declaring that, under his conduct, he had broken through the wedges or phalanzes of his enemies, and had taken by storm their fortified cities. Thus we see that, although he was a valiant warrior, and skilled in arms, he arrogates nothing to himself.—John Caluin.

verse 29.— By my Goa nave 1 teapes over a wat; "or, "taken a lore."—Henr Hammond.

Verse 29.—" Leaped over a wall." This probably refers to his having take come remarkable flown by scaling the remarks.—Roby Killo. in "The Pictoria

Verse 31.—" For who is God same the Lard?" Here first in the Psalms, occurs the name Bloch, rendered God. It occurs more than fifty times in the Scriptures, but only four times in the Psalms. It is the singular of Elohm. Many have supposed that this name specially refers to God as an object of religious worship. That Vere 32.—" It is God that girdsh me with strength." One of the few articles of Eastern dress which I wore in the East, was the girdle, which was of great use us a support to the body in the long and weary camel-ides through the Desert. The support and strengthening I received in this way, gave me a clearer idea than I had before the meaning of the Palminst.—John Anderson, in "Bible from Bible Lands,"

Verm 33.—" He maketh my feet like hinde feet, and satisfa her supon my disformer. " the his be death give switchess and speed to his chared; a sa Angastin former." the his bed displayed by the history of the history of the lightly through the therry and sharly incumbeance of this world. "He will task we wilk upon my high places." Bord saith, "the softent me upon high places. The history of the history of the history of the history of the high places. The history of the history of the high places. The history of the history of the time when God had delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Smil. For the God set his bed on high places, settling his kingdom, and had of Smil. For the God set his bed on high places, settling his kingdom, and Verse 33.—"He maketh my feet like hinds' feet:" "hype 'hy myb. Celerity of motion was considered as one of the qualities of an ancient hero. Achilles is celebrated for being whe wise. Virgil's Nisus is hyperbolically described, "Rt entite t fulmints octor alis;" and the men of God, who came to David, "Men of might, and men of war fit for the hattle, that could handle sheld and hacking." "re said.

M THE RIGHTERMOND VI

to have hold "faces like the faces of lices," and to have been "at switt as the rouge of the most of the face of lices," and the have been "at switt a face, as will be "(2 Sun. it. 18); and Sun! decement called the rec (in the Danjah transition, with the "(2 Sun. it. 18); and Sun! decement called the rec (in the Danjah transition are actually the time those of the beat, and that she is written than he is just them is no sufficient proof of thin. Gathler gives the tree account of it when he say it is to sufficient proof of the latest the latest section of the latest section and the latest section in the latest done transformed by making the like blands (e.g., etc., etc.

Veres 48—"He teached my hands to mon," etc. To him I owe all that millines of the control of the

And drew with ease. One hand aloft display d.

The bending horns, and one the string essay d."

Alexander Pane, 1688—1744, [Translation of Homes.]

Ohy I have seen the day,
When with a single word,
God belging me to say,
We trust in the Lord.

God belping me to say,
"My trust is in the Lord;"
My soul has quelled a thousand foes,
Foarless of all that could oppose.

Verse 38.—"I have wounded them," etc. Greater is he that is in us than he that is against us, and God shall bruise Satan under our feet shortly. Rom. xv. 20.

"Writing and "A—Though passion possess our bodies, bet "patterne poisses" or seeks. "The better poisses of minds us to a wartier, poissed brindings, og trubles shall end, our velvory is eternal. Hear David's trimph, "I have soomely men that they are all east to like our large of pattern than the passes and east to large relation under piet. Then last subduct etc. They have wounds for their wounds; and the treaders down of the poor at redden down by the poor. The Lord will subduct hose to as that would have abbided us to themselves; and though for a abort time they role over our head of hamilton patterns and confident between the control of hamilton patterns and confident below. Lord. East, the reverse of hamilton patterns and confident below in-Linears Adam. Lo, then, the reverse of hamilton patterns and confident below in-Linears Adam.

_____ Verse 39.—To be well girt was to be well armed in the Greek and Latin idioms, as well as in the Hebrew.—Alexander Geddes, LL.D., 1737—1802.

marked, by a Mediator: and so, crying to him in their own name, and by users merits, they cry in vain—John Lorius (1960—1863), and Remiglar (1900).

Verse 41,—"Been unto the Lord." As nature prompteth men in an extremity to look up for help: just because it is but the prayer of the flesh for ease, and not of the Spirit for grace, and a good use of calamities, and not but in extreme despair but there was none to save them," 4.4. It they could have made any other shift, God should never have heard of them.—John Traip.

Verse 42,—"I did cost time unit as the dist in the streets," or rather "of the streets." In the East, all household refuse and filth is cast forth into the streets, where all of it repedily dried up by the sun. To cast forth any one, therefore, as the dirt of the streets, is a strong image of contempt and rejection.—John Killo.

Verse 43,—"I A-"I these words can be explained literally of David, they apply much more naturally to Jesus Christ, who has been delivered from the strivings of the Jewish people, when, after the terrible opposition he met with on their part, strange people, and whom he had not formerly acknowledged as his, but who never these solvered this mind that the streets obeyed thin with actionishin readiness as soon as they heard his voice. Louis Insan te Maiter de Siany, 1013—1684.

Verse 43,—"The first clause is comparatively easy. "The strangers shell lader."

The Dwitz discontinuous and the state of Dwitz. 1672.

When the state of Dwitz discontinuous and the state of Dwitz. 1672.

For et 7.—" It is God." Sit, this is none other than the hand of God; and makes being the glory, wherein none are to have with him. The General him is that I daws say he stirbutes all to God, and would rather perish than not himself."—"Written to the Species of the House of Common, after the battle stelly, June 14, 1655, by OLYER GONWELL.

On the State of Dwitz discontinuous disc

Verse 4.—6.—Graphic picture of a distressed soul, and its resorts in the hour externity.

Verse 5 (second clause)—The condition of a soul convictored of sin.

Verse 5 (second clause)—The way in which marse and temptations are, by Statist in American Comparison of the State of State

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS. "Verse 18.—The enemy's "craft," "They privented me in the day of my colamity," "They privented me in the day of my colamity," "They privented me in the day of my colamity," "They privented me in the day of my colamity," "They for the colomo of grace, and the position in which it pleases its chosen one." Verse 22.—The need of condesing secred things, and the wickedness of careleary neglecting them. Verse 23.—Peccels in delicit; a discourse of boom sins.—* Newcome. Verse 23.—Peccels in delicit; a discourse of boom sins.—* Newcome. Verse 23.—Peccels in delicit; a discourse of boom sins.—* Newcome. Verse 23.—Dequity of the divise procedure.—C. Simson. Verse 23.—Dequity of the divise procedure.—C. Simson. Verse 24.—Conduction for the humbin; and decolated for the prode. Verse 25.—Conduction for the humbin; and decolated for the prode. Verse 26.—Conduction for the humbin; and decolated for the prode. Verse 26.—Conduction for the humbin; and decolated for the prode. Verse 27.—Conduction for the humbin; and dependence upon divine working. Verse 28.—Anong saints and sinners, etc. A wide thems. Verse 28.—Anong saints and sinners, who dependence upon divine working. The delicity of the divine proceedings of the decolated for the production of the decolated for the production of the decolated for the production of the decolated for the decolated

PSALM XIX.

arty of so delicery of Exposition.

EXPOSITION.

THE heavest declare the giery of God; and the firmament 'sheweth his handywork.

2 Day unto day uttereth speech, and night unto night sheweth knowledge. I have to speech not language, waker their voice is not heart.

4 Their line is gone out through all the earth, and their words to the end of the world. In them Inth less it a tabersaide for the sun.

5 His going forth is from the end of the heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of the arms of the sun of t

make a sticrate of mirror, bleaning the wmotest covers of the earth; and there we no seeking south, however designed and deprived, who shall be desided the contrictable watership and benediction of his low—even dash shall feel the power water to seeking south to be a still a still be seeked to be a still be seeked to be seeked t

THE NINETRENTH

273

"Making use the simple." Humble, candid, tachable minds receive the word, and are made wise unto abaviton. Things hidden from the wise and profined are made wise unto abaviton. Things hidden from the wise and profined at As a law or plan the Word of God converts, and then as a testimony II instructs, it is not enough for us to be converts, we must continue to be disciple; and if The perfection of the gaped converts, but its auraness edities; if we would be edited becomes us not to tagger at the promise through unbasid, for a doubtled gaped its becomes us not to tagger at the promise through unbasid, for a doubtled gaped in the converted of the profit of the state of the Lord are right." His precepts and decrees are founded in rightconness, and we such as are right or titled to the right team of min. As the Book of God. "Righting the hour!" Mark the progress; be who was converted the book of God. "Righting the hour!" Mark the progress; be who was converted the state of the state

"The commondant of the Lord is pure." No mixture of error deflies it, no "The commondant of the Lord is pure." No mixture of error deflies it, no little of the Lord is the Lord is the Lord in the Lord is the Lord in the Lo severally the words of the Lord are true; that which is good in detail is excilent in the mass; no exception may be taken in a single classe separately, or to the several control of the several control of the several control of the are manifestly just, and need no laborious excuses to justify them. The judicial decisions of Jabovan, as revealed in the law, or illustrated in the hatory of his not only is their power law of the several control of the several law of the several control of the several control of the several 10. More is defaured our law of the several control of the several 10. More is defaured our law of the several control of the several law of the several control of the several control of the several control of the several several control of the several co not only in their power invincible, but their justice is unimpokabable.

In the power invincible is the special to the post-ment fine gold.—much fine gold, it is good to the special to the special to the special to the post-ment fine gold.—it is good if, it is good with more than that. As spiritual researce is more noble than more material wealth, with more than that. As spiritual researce is more noble than more material wealth, so that the special post-ment is specially to the special post-ment in the special post

18

74 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

of truth " "Sweeter also than honey and the honegoomb." Trapp says, "Old people are all for profit, the young for pleasure; here's gold for the one, yea, the finest gold in great quantity; here's honey for the other, yea, live honey dropping from the comb." The pleasures arising from a right understanding of the divine test monies are of the most deslightful order; earthly enloyments are utterly contemptible, if compared with them. The sweetest joys, was, the sweetest of the sweetest joys, and

11. "Merceve by them is the several source." We are warned by the Wood both of our duty, our danger, and our remedy. On the sea of life there would be the our duty, our danger, and our remedy. On the sea of life there would be the several to the sea of life there would be the several to the acceptable in thy sight, O. Lono, my strength, and my redeemer.

12 Who can understand his errors? cleanse thou me from secret faults.

13 Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me: then shall I be upright, and I shall be innocent from the great transgression.

12. "Who can understand his error," "A question which is its own answer. It rather requires a note of exclamation than of interogation. By the law is the knowledge of that, and in the presence of divine truth, her Paulanis marrols at the knowledge of that, and in the presence of divine truth, her Paulanis marrols at the Word, but even such an one will be in a mase of wonder as to what he does know, rather than on the mount of compartituition as to what he does know. We Many books have a few lines of errata at the end, but our errata night well be a suggestant to the control of th hole Paint—The magnifest scenery to which the pown allades is derived by from a contemplation of nature, in a state of pastoral sedusion; and a supitation indugied, at a houstide or in the norming, when the sun was travelling and the pastoral part of the pastoral sedusion; and a secount it forms a perfect contrast with the eighth Pasin, evidently composed evening, and should be read in connection with it, as it was probably written at the same time; and as both are songs of pasie derived from natural sense, and therefore postilarly appropriate to trart or pastoral like—John and the pastoral like—John

PSALM THE NINETEENT

277

manifest itself in the motions and courses of the heavenly boldes, concerning which the Palmint speakel much, from verse 1 to verse 7. Saint Austin upon which the Palmint speakel much, from verse 1 to verse 7. Saint Austin upon about 5 to 10 to 1

1. A double kind of the knowledge of God, of which one is by the book of the creature and this divines call a natural knowledge: there is not any one creature, but it is a leaf written all over with the description of God, his eternal power and Godhae And, as every creature, so especially "the honours" do lead us to the knowledge of a God; so verse I of this Paalm: "The honours declare the glops of God, and for forments therein this handpower." They are the heaters, as it were, of his forments therein this handpower." They are the heaters, as it were, with open face framework that the contraction of the contrac

2. A singular and experimental knowledge of himself,—So it seemeth; that that word which David did so much commend, he did commend it from an experimental efficacy; he had found it to be a righteous, and holy, and pure, and discovering word, laying open, not only visible and gross transgressions, but also, like the light of the sam, those otherwise unobserved and secret atoms of senses flying within

Verse 1.—" The honoran declare the plory of God!" etc.—The embent sain of ancient times were watchful observer of the objects and operations of nature in every event they as we have again you fold; and, therefore, they took delight! In every contract the property of the

78 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

But how different, as already remarked, were the feilings of undent similar Be Bainist could not look up to heaven without exclaiming. The homeon declar the plant of God; and the firmment theoseth his handgewit. Day unto day uttered speech, and right un night heaveth knewledge. There is no speech not language water their soice is not heavet." When he cast his eyes abroad upon the earth, his made them all; the earth is fall of thy riches." In his eye everything was ful of God. It was God who "sent springs into the valleys, which run among the hills." When the thunder-storm passed before him, it was "God's vote made in the state of the volcane, it was "God's when the state of the volcane, it was "God who looketh on the earth, and and saw the smoke of the volcane, it was "God who looketh on the earth, and in LLLL, 180... The bosons declary." etc. Man has been endeed by his Craste with mental power scapable of cultivation. He has employed them in the study of the wonderful works of God which the universe displays. His own habitation was also should be supported to the study of the wonderful works of God which the universe displays. He out habitation has one state with the magnitude of the earth on which he dwells; it the earth with the system in which it Is placed; the extent of the system, with the datases and the study of the system which observation points dut. Still no approach is made to any limit. How extended these wonderful works of the Almighity may be no made and all sides; "to have its centre verywhere, its decremence nowhere." Then are considerations which from their extent sinest bewinder our maints. But how the severe were described to the state of the st

Verse 1.—I have often been charmed and awed at the sight of the noctume of majority and beauty. Something like magin has truck my mind, on transies and untilating survey of the atherest vanit, tinged throughout with the pure what, powerful and aggrandings impulse, which seemed to anothe me from the west approach of the property of t

Vers 1.—Should a man live underground, and there converse with the word of art and mechanism, and should afterwards be brought up into the open day, as see the several golden of the heaven and earth, he would immediately pronounce the several golden of the several golden of the converse of the several golden of the several golde

PSALM THE NINETEENTH

nd directs all by his power? Anybody who doubts this may as well deny there a sun that lights us. Time destroys all false opinions, but it confirms those which reformed by nature. For this reason, with us as well as with other nations, the orship of the gods and the holy exercises of religion, increase in purity and extent very day.—Cierco.

Yers 1.—"The hencens declare the glory of God," etc. They discover his utsdan, his power, his goodness; and so there is not any one creature, though never so little, but we are to admire the Creator in it. As a chamber hung round about with looking-glasses represents the face upon every turn, thus all the world doth the mercy and the hounty of God; though that be visible, yet it discovers an invisible mercy and the four the fourth of God.

Verse 1.—None of the elect are in that respect to unwise as to refuse to hear and consider the works and words of God as not appertaining unto him. Grobid. No man in the world doth with more fervency consider the works of God none more readily lift up their ears to hear God speak than even they who have he inward revelation of the Holy Spirit.—Wolfpang Musculus.

Vers I.—During the French revolution Jean Bon St. André, the Vendear revolutionist, sald to a peasant, "I will have all your steeples pulled down, that you may no longer have any object by which you may be reminded of your old superstitions." "But," replied the peasant, "you cannot help leasing us the stars."—John Batis "(Epiopadai of Moral and Religious Truths," 1880.

How beautiful this dome of sky, And the wast bills in fluctuation fixed At thy command, how sarful! Shall the soul, Human and rational, report of the west with which was the soul than these? Be mute who will, who can, but the soul than the soul than the work of the west was the soul than the sou

William Wordsworth, 1770-185

rse 1.—" The firmament sheweth his handywork"—
The glittering stars

by the deep ear of insultation seature. Still in their midnight watches sing of him. He nods a calm. The tempest blows his wrath: The thunder is his voice; and the red flash His speedy sword of justice. At his touch The mountains flame. He shakes the solid earth, And rocks the nations. Nor in these alone—In ex'ry common instance God is seen.

se 1.—

These are thy glorious works, Parent of good, Almighty! Thine this universal frame, Thus wondrous fair. Thyself how wondrous, then! Unspeakable, who sitted above these heavens To us invisible, or dimly seen In these thy lowest works; yet these declare Verses 1, 2.—In order more fully to illustrate the expressive richness of the Hebrew, I would direct the attention of my reader to the beautiful phraseology of the XIX. Psalm. The literal reading of the first and second verses may be thus

"The heavens are telling the glory of God,
The firmament displaying the work of his hands
Day unto day usellah forth speech, Night unto night breatheth out knowledge."

Thus the four distinct terms in the original are preserved in the translation; an the overflowing fulness with which day unto day pours forth divine instruction and the gentle whisperings of the silent night, are contrasted as in the Hebrew.—
Harry Gradt. 1860.

80 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verset 1—4.—Though all preachers on earth should grow silest, and every buman mutth easter from publishing the glory of God, the heavens above will never case to detire and proclaim his majesty and glory. They are for ever preaching a majest to might. At the silence of one herial another takes up his speech, and the silence of non-herial another takes up his speech of day, like the other, discloses the same spectacies of his glory, and one night, like the sum in his glory has reached the smile nits glory has reached the grant of the smile nits glory has reached the grant of the smile nits glory has reached the grant of the smile nits glory has reached the peach grant of the reaches the smile nits glory smile that glory since tight is a speech, provided there be the ear to hear it.—

Versa: 1—t.—" The bosens declare the glory of God, and the firmanual bounds in hundgood." If the beavant declare the glory of God, and the firmanual bounds hundgood. "If the beavant declare the glory of God, we should observe what hundgood." If the the same of the condition of the state of the condition of the

Verses 1-4.—Like as the sun with his light beneficially comforteth all the world, so Christ, the Son of God, reacheth his benefits unto all men, so that they

Verse 2.—"Day unto day," etc. But what is the meaning of the next word, One day third norther, and one night certified nonther? Literally, dies dien died, is nothing she but dies dien doed. One day their mother, is one day takerell and the submitted of the day of Verse 2.—"Day unto day," or day after day; the vicissitude or continual succession of day and night speaketh much divine knowledge. The assiduity an constancy without any intermission by the heavens preaching is hereby expressed.

Verse 2.—" Ultereth," poureth forth abundantly; "sheutch," demonstrate clearly and effectively, without ambiguity, Job xxxvi. 2. Many in the full ligh of gospel day, hear not that speech, who yet in the night of affliction and trouble or in the conviction of their natural darkness, have that knowledge communicate to them which enables them to realise the joy that cometh in the morning.—W. Wilson.

Verse 2.—" Sheweth knowledge." We may illustrate the differing measures in which natural objects convey knowledge to men of differing mental and spiritus capacity by the story of our great English artist. He is said to have been engage upon one of his immortal works, and a lady of rank looking on remarked, "But Mr. Turner, I do not see in nature all that you describe there." "Ah, Madam, Vers 2.— There is no specia, "etc. The sunset was one of the most globed in Leven bedded, and the whole earth seemed to still that the volor e partitle on man usen heard. There was not a ripple upon the waters, not the leaf of a tree over of a holde of grass moving, and the rocks upon the opposite hower effects of the contract of th

PSALM THE NINETEENT

281

Verse 4.—" Their line is pare out," etc. "Their sound went," etc. Rom. 2.18 for relation which the goard of their Lesus that to the Palms of David I find for relation which the goard of their Lesus that to the Palms of David I find New Testament, but we are sent to fetch our proofs from these. The margin kern stands are the palms of the Palms and the Palms sends in both of this gain; showing find the palms of the Palm

He passed the ocean's curled wave As far as islands harbours have; As far as Brittain yields a bay.

John Cragge, 1557.

Verse 4.—" Their line is gene out through all the certh," etc. The moltes as did stand upon twelve oces, that is, a Pail doth interpret it, upon twelve apoutle (I Cor. ts. [0]); which in that they looked four ways, east, west, north, and south they did teach all nations. And in that they looked three and three together they did represent the blessed Trinity. Not only teaching all nations, but also in that they looked four words, and the seed of weter, populating them in the mane of the Pather, and the contract the seed of weter the state of the law, went straight and kept one path, turning neither to the right and nor to the left; yet these twelves own which carried the moltes use, signifying about the contract of the contra

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

the way of the Gentlie; yea, they looked all manner of ways, east, west, north and south. And those two kins stood still and lowed no more when they cam to the field of Joshua, dewiling in Bethabemenh, that is, the house of the sun. Thou, that all the kins, and caives, and searffices, and exerminates of the sun of the of the earth might, see the shavelion of our God."—Thomas Plauffer.

In these crast might see the shavelion of our God."—Thomas Plauffer.

In the presents, which is most immediately uses about the rising of the sun, has an eye to the rising of the Sain of Righteomosas from the grave, and that the expression of the God of the Sain of Righteomosas from the grave, and that the expression of the God of the Sain of Righteomosas from the grave, and that the expression of the grave and that the expression of the gooped day, and are so represented in Scripture, and therefore the approach of the day of the New Testament expression of the gooped day, and are so represented in Scripture, and therefore the approach of the day of the New Testament expression of the gooped dispensation of the sain of the sain of the gooped dispensation of the sain of the sain of the gooped dispensation of the sain of the sain of the gooped dispensation of the sain of the gooped dispensation of the sain of the sain of the gooped dispensation of the sain of the sain

Verse 5.—" Which is as a bridegroom," etc. The sun is described like a brid

PSALM THE NINETEENTH

283

govern behing over the meaning and the problem of t

can work, if he forbids them. The point is full of comfort—Joseph Corgi, can work, if he forbids them. The point is full of comfort—Joseph Corgi, in three signs e-pecially; J.co., Vipon. Lierc. 1. In Loc, receiving as a lon, in the law; so that the people could not endure his voice. 2. In Vipo, born of a pure in the people could not endure his voice. 2. In Vipo, born of a pure judgment. Or as Bernard distinguishment in the second coming anyly—seculi of homines, sent in homines in the sent sent to the homines of the homines homines of the homines homines of the homines homines of the homines homines of the homines

Vers. 6,—"There is nothing hid from the heat threely."—This is literally the case. The earth receives line heat from the sun, and by conduction, a part of it enters the crust of our globs. By convection, another portion is carried to the law yet imperfectly understood, but which are evidently connected with the colour, chemical composition, and mechanical structure of parts of the earth yeaper, modifies the heat rays and prevents recording. Thus, the solar heat is spainted by the sir. Nothing on earth or in all a hid from the heat of the sun, a state which is not essentially earlier the experiment of the earth of the earth of the experiment of the earth of the tran instance is the bolling point. Pollosophers are agreed that the affinity or No ponderable matters can combine without chiesepapernent of heat. . . . And the same occurs from every mechanical pressure and condensation of a body. In all the same occurs from every mechanical pressure and condensation of a body. In all of the condensation of a body. In all of the condensation of a body. In all of the condensation of a body in the condensation of the condensation of a body in the condensation of the surface of the condensation of the surface of the condensation of the surface of

* The Nineteenth Psalm is one "appointed to be read" on Christmas Da

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSA

Though while he was on earth, he had fullest power of bestowing every earth lift, yet, in order that he should he able to bestow heavely gifts with the sum fair, yet, in order that he should he able to bestow heavely gifts with the sum had done so, when he had sensed in the heaven, then, he promise had sincipies, he would send down the Holy Spirit of God, who should brigg there are the triple of the sense of the sense

Verw 7.—" The law of the Lord is perfect, concerting the soul!". To man falle the law only convincent of all, and bineth over to death, it is nothing but a killin letter; but the gospel, accompanied by the power of the Spirit, bringeth life. Again is said, "The soul of the Lord is privince, converting the soil," "therefore it seems the said. The soil of the Lord is privince, converting the soil," "therefore it seems the soil of the whole work, for the whole work, but there it is put for the whole work, for the whole work, not consider of the coverant of 10 keeps in the law of the law of

Verse 7.—The law, or doctrine, an orderly manner of instruction, an institution of disposition, called in Helever series, which implies both doctrine and an orderly asid he law of man (2 Sam, vii. 10), another saith, the noted passing of the law of man (2 Sam, vii. 10), another saith, the noted passing, or, course of the law of man (2 Sam, vii. 10), another saith, the noted passing, or, course of the law of the law

PSALM THE NINETEENTH

is called a low (Falm harvill, 1); and the many branches of Moses' doctrine a the anot the sin-defining, etc., Lev. V.25. An aggenrally it is used for any decrine the low of the sin-defining, etc., Lev. V.25. An aggenrally it is used for any decrine Vers 7.—"Converting the soul." This version conveys a sense good and true in testl, but in only in accordance with the design of the Posimist which is, to express the sin-definite of the sin-definite of the sin-definite of the sin-definite of the property mean, "Intriguing back the spirit," when it is depressed by adversibly ye refreshing and consoling it: like food, it restores the faint, and communicates

Verse 7.—" Converting the soul." The heart of man is the most free and hard anything to work upon, and to make an impression and stramp upon this hard as the Scripture teacheth. To compel this free-will, this Domina and continue the upon in the soul, the empress, it cannot be without a divine power, without a new soul and wound, and break this heart, they incline, and how, and draw this receivable that the soul and wound, and break this heart, they incline, and how, and draw this free-will states, while the tappit listenth. And Clemens Alexandrium is not afraid to say, that if stones, with their ravishing moledy—yet the harmony of the Word is greater, while stones, with their ravishing moledy—yet the harmony of the Word is greater, while stansiates must form Helsion to Zion, which softens then the heart of man obdurate the state of the standard of the state of the standard of the word of the standard of the stand 1840.

"The Action of the Acti

Verse 7.—This verse, and the two next following, which treat of God's law are in Hebrew, written each of them with ten words, according to the number of the ten commandments, which are called the ten words. Exodus xxxiv. 28.—

Verset "1, 5..." The testimons of the Lord is pure, enlightening the eyes." revealing Verset "1, 1..." And of us see by nature the children of wrath; our souls are like the porches of Bethesia (John vs.), in which are lodged a great many, will write be children to the state of the state of standing; for the great philosphers who were the wizards of the world, because they were not acquainted with God's law became fools while they professed them they were not acquainted with God's law became fools while they professed them than all my teachers, because thy testimosies are my meditation," and my study Fallm exit. 90. To conclude, whatesever we are by corruption of nature, God's law conserted us, and maketh us to speak with new tongues, and to sing new song law conserted the professed of the study of the st

6 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Vers. 8.—" The statutes." Many divines and critics, and Castalia in particular have endeavoured to attach a distinct thated of mensing to the words, our feetinges, the statutes, commandants, feer, judgments, cocurring in this context. **rp, the statutes, commandants, feer, judgments, cocurring in this context. **rp, the statutes, the statutes in the context and the statutes of the Mosaic law, registrates of the statutes of the Mosaic law,

Verse 8.—" The sludius of the Lord one right, rejoicing the hoot." How colous it the profuseness of those Christians who neglect the fiely Scriptures, and give and that not only on work days, but holy days, in foolish romances, fashious histories, lacticious poems! And why this, but that they may be cheered and hotter, lacticious poems! And with this histories are considered to the property of t

Verse 10.—" Sweeter than honey and the honeycemb." Love the word written plan, exit. Nr. "Oh, how love a II plan " "Loved," and Angustine," let the plan of the pl Verse 10.—" Sweeter than honey and the honeycomb." There is no difference made amongst us between the delicacy of honey in the comb and that which is separated from it. From the information of Dr. Halle, concerning the diet of the Monor's Birabary, we learn that they estem honey a very wholesome breaklart, they come out of their cases, whilst they still hole milk-white." (Miscoluma Curiosa, vol. ili., p. 382). The distinction made by the Paninst is then perfectly just and conformable to custom and practice, at least of more modern, and probably, equally so of ancient times.—Samuel Burder, A.M., in "Ortential Customs," 1812.

SALM THE NINETEENTH.

287

Verse 11.—" Moreover by them is thy servent sorned." A certain Jew had formed a design to poison Luther, but was disappointed by a fieldful Iriedn, who sent Luther a pertrait of the man, with a warning against him. By this, Luther sent and the sent has had. Thus the word of God, O Christians have then the first of the sent of the sent per law o

Vers. 11.—"In heeping of them there is great record." This "heeping of them (in. "the end"), J.c., the recompress, is far beyond activity-activity (in. "the end"), J.c., the recompress, is far beyond activity-activity (in. "the end"), J.c., the recompress, is far beyond activity-activity (in. "the end"). The heeping of them there is pred record." Not only for keeping the ways of God, are so predom and glorious in their cyse, that they would not exchange the conferts, the contents, the smalls, the incomes that a sinst now enloys the ways of God, are so predom and glorious in their cyse, that they would not exchange the best party of the content, the sins of the conferts are the content of the confert with crown his sain with for claving to his service in the face of all difficulties, when he shall as we have the confert activity of the confert activity (in. 15, if there he so much to be that in the wideleness, what then shall be he in particula — Informata Profession ... Most make yet a great remord." Not only for keeping but in keeping of them. As every flower hat his weets mells, so every good actio bath its weet reflection upon the soul: and as Cardan saith, that every precious the work of the profession o

Verse 11.—" Resion!". Though we should not serve God for a reward, ye shall have a reward for our service. The time is coming when ungodines we shall not a reward for our service. The time is coming when ungodines by in justice. Though our reward be not for our good works, yets we had have on good works rewarded, and have a good reward for our works. Though the best onen (they being at the best but unspottable servants) deserve nothing at the hand the recompensate by deserve, and the service of the recompensate by deserve, and the recompensate by deserve, and the a kind of recompensate to have deserved. A he said, and nobly, "I had rather it should be said, Why doth it said not 2.—Radjo Verning and her?"—Radjo Verning and her? "Andro Werning were the said when the said of the said were the said of t

Vere 12.— Who can understand his zeros ?" After this survey of the works and word of God, he connect as that the permet the third book, his conscience; a hook which though whiched men may keep that up, and naturally do not love to book which would be the permet the permet the permet the permet the whole world, to the pulltying of God when he judges, and to impenditude stances consistent. And what finds he her? A found, howeved out he are pulled for God had with his own limit in portioned upon conscience in legible characters, are God had with his own limit in portioned upon conscience in legible characters, are consistent of the survey of the permet the survey of th

• Gratuities, present

000

88 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

preventions, and assistances, it may be "kept back from presumptuous sins," and if unhappilly engaged, that it may be freed at least from the "dominion" of them—
"Keep back thy servant also from presumptuous sins; let them not have dominion over me," etc.—Adam Littleton.

Verse 12.—The prophet saith, "Who can understand his own faults?" N. Man can, but God can; therefore reason after this manner, as Saint Bernard saith I know and am known; I know but in part, but God knows me and knows me wholly; but what I know, I know but in part. So the apostle reasons; "I know nothing of myself, yet and in to hereby justilled."

Admit that then keepest threef so free, and renewest thy repentance so daily that then knowest nothing by thyself, yet mark what the apoute adds farther. Notwithstanding, I do not judge myself I am not hereby justified, but he that judgeth me is the Lord." This is the condition of all men; he that is infinite known them; therefore they should not dare to judge themselves, but with the prophe David, in Palan tax, entreat the Lord that he would cleans them from their secret.

Verse 12.—"We can understand his own errors?" None can to the depth and hottom. In this question there are two considerable:—I. A concession and hottom, I that question there are two considerable:—I. A concession asy the same, while they aftern that "All we like sheep have gone satery like a lost theep" (Pas. claz. 76); that the "loss of Israel" hath "lost theep," Matt. z. 6. I need not reckon up the particular of Israel" hath "lost theep," Matt. z. 6. I need not reckon up the particular of Israel" hath "lost theep," Matt. z. 6. I need not reckon up the particular of Israel" hath "lost theep," Matt. z. 6. I need not reckon up the particular of Israel are upon the particular "lost the particula

Verse 12.—"Who can understand his ervors?" If a man repent not until have made confession of all his sins in the ear of his globally father, if a man cannot have absolution of his sins sutil his sins he told by take and number in the priest man cannot have absolution of his sins sutil his sins he told by take and number in the priest sins: Delicite quite intelligits? "Who can understand his sins?" In that David o himself complaints thelewhere how that his "sins are overflowed his head, and a levery burden of depress him." (Can axxxxvii 4); jud at is laid not a man by the high part of the priest himself of the at they paint it.—John Englerd (Margin) 130—1555.

In "irrer" he mean himstiffing and inconderate minktes. There are sins, some of which are committed when the sun shine—Le., with light and knowledge; and then, as it with colours when the sun shine—Le. with light and knowledge; and then, as it is miscally a sins with colours when the sun shine—Le. with light and knowledge, and then, as it is knowledge, by evit in unbervance. Either of these may be so heaped up in the particular number of them, that as a man did when he did commit them, tak candle to search all the records of his soul, yet many of them would escape his notice And, indeed, this is a great part of our misery, that we cannot understand all on the conditions and the second of the soul yet many yet many more lie, as it were deed and out to debt. We can easily see too many, yet many more lie, as it were deed and out to debt. We can easily see too many, yet many more lie, as it were deed and out to debt. We can easily see too many, yet many more lie, as it were deed and out to • Hesitating.

PSALM THE NINETERNT

289

particular times of acting and re-acting, do, how would our hearts be more broken merey which must have a multitude in it to parofin the multitude of our infinite error and size. But this is the comfort; though we cannot understand every more and size. But this is the comfort; though we cannot understand every books, and if we be heartilg gireved for these size within whe have found out, and can by true repentance turn from them unto God, and by fulfit unto the blood and the size of the size o

Verse 12.—" Who can understand his errors?" Who can tell how oft be dendeth? No man. The hairs of a man's head may be told, the stars appeal in multitudes, yet some have undertaken to reckon them; but no arithmetic can number our sins. Before we can recount a thousand we shall commit the thousand more; and so rather multiply by addition than divide by additaction; there; is repeated to the start of the st

Verset 22.—"Cleanes then are from secret paties." It is the desire of a boly period, 3.4. "O wetched man (staff) boul, who shall delive me?" Why, O bless aposite! what is it that holds thee? What is it that moiest there is the special of the property of Verse 12.—" Clearse thou me from secret faults." Learn to see thy spots. Man have unknown sins, as a man may have a mole on his back and himself never known. L. Lord, cleanse me from my secret faults. But have we not spots whereof ware not ignorant? In diseases sometimes nature is strong enough to put fort spots, and there she cries to us by these outward declarations that we are sick Somethmes she cannot do it but by the force of cordishs. Somethmes conscious of the reliable was considered above. Some can see that the considered area of the considered a

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALL

Verse 12.—" Cleanse thou me from secret faults."—The law of the Lord is so holy that forgiveness must be prayed for, even for hidden sins. (Note—This was a holy that lead of the Boloman state of the

Verse: 12.—"Sceet junits." Sins may be termed "secet" wither, 1: When ye colored and displaced—hough they do by shooted, yet not under the grace colored and displaced—hough they do by shooted, yet not under the such tricks in his second epitile, which is to Donatus. 2. When they are kept of your his stage of the next is the like first the chimney; though you do no not not not tricks in his second epitile, which is to Donatus. 2. When they are kept on the second is to the chimney in the second in the contract of the second is to the public set in the second epit in the second e

Verse 12.—" Secret foults." Secret sins" are more dangerous to the person thinsel of the holp of his situltimes. Like him who will carry his woond covered, himself of the holp of his situltimes. Like him who will carry his woond covered, or who bleeds inwardly, help comes not in because the danger is not descried nor who help of the situation o

DEALM THE MINETERNIE

291

truth, that if the heart gives way for one sin, it will be ready for the next; if it will yield to bring forth once at the devil's pleasure, it will bring it forth twice by its own motion. A man by "secret sins" doth but polish and square the hypocrisy of his heart: he doth strive to be an exact hypocrite; and the more cunning he in the pallisting of his sinnings, the more perfect he is in his hypocrisy.—Obadiah

Sequence. Yerse 12.—"Secret faults." Beware of committing acts which it will be necessary to conceal. There is a singular poen by Hood, called "The Dream of Eugens Aram"—a most remarkable piece it is indeed, illustrating the point on which we are now dwelling. Aram had murdered a man, and cast his body thou the river—is a bugget where the back as lack, the depth was so extreme." The next morning "And sought the black accursed pool

With a wild misgiving eye;
And he saw the dead in the river bec

Next he covered the corpse with heaps of leaves, but a mighty wind swept through the wood and left the secret bare before the sun—

Then down I cast me on my face, And first began to weep, For I knew my secret then was one That earth refused to keep; On land or sea though it should be

In plaintive notes he prophesies his own discovery. He buried his victim in a common property of the property of the common property of t

Years 12.—The sin through ignorance (csy) is the same that David prays against in Palma Xz. 12. "Who can understand his error (ewr)? Genese thom so from secret things!" These are not sins of omission, but exis committed by a second of the committee of the commi

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

Verse 12 (tast clause).—This is a singular difference between pharisaical and resanctity; that is curious to look abroad, but seeth nothing at home: so that Pharise condemned the Publican, and saw nothing in himself worthy of biams; but this careful to look at home, and searchest hint to the secret corners, the very spirit of the mind. So did good David when he prayed, "Cleanse thou me from secret faults."—Nathanael Hardy.

The state of the s

versations—Existed Hopkins.

Verse 12—Six are many times hid from the goll'y may', eye, though be commit

Verse 12—Six are many times the form the goll'y may' eye, though to commit an impactful studying of his own ways. If any sin be hid, as Saul was belind the stuff, or as Rhalba hed hid the piese, incluse a min he very careful to search, he shall think no alm is there where it is. Hence it is that the Scripture doth so often command town of the study of the study. In the study of the study is study of the study of the study is study of the study of the study of the study is study of the study of the study is study of the study of the study is study of the study is study of the study of the study is study of the study is study of the study is study of the stud

Vow 12.—Sin is of a gowing and advancing nature. From weakness to within east, from glorance to presumption, is its ordinary course and progress. The means, from glorance to presumption, is its ordinary course and progress. The theatened no such thing as a general temporal; but yet, at last, it overspread the face of the whole heavens is or truly, as in that at first arisels in the soul in of panyer, it will at length overspread the whole life, and become most temperature of the progress, it will at length overspread the whole life, and become most temperature of region and region. And therefore, David, so one experienced in the describinoses of an and then against the more gross and notivious; as knowing the one proceeds and other against the more gross and notivious; as knowing the one proceeds and other against the more gross and notivious; as knowing the one proceeds and other against the more gross and notivious; as knowing the one proceeds and other against the more gross and notivious; as knowing the one proceeds and the more gross and notivious; as knowing the other processes.

Verses 12, 13.—That there is a difference betwit infirmities and presumptions as not to be cleanled; it is expressly in the 1695 Scripture. Papies say the many committee of the control o

PSALM THE NINETEENTS

295

The ground of the distinction is laid in the soul of man, where there are three distinction prime faculties, from which all our actions flow—the understanding, the will, and where the fault lay most; and thence it must have the right denomination. 1. If the understanding the most in that, not apprehending that good it should, or not the understanding be most in that, not apprehending that good it should, or not all the understanding be most in that, not apprehending that good it should, or not an apprehending the property of the sould be understanding that good it should, or not all the interest of the property as and infamily. If the main fault is in the difficulties, through some underspaces or perturbation or hand, blinding, any of the rest—the sin there existing, though perhaps joined with some ignorance or recomption within it is the since existing. Unday perhaps joined with some ignorance or recomption within its interest in the single property as and infamily. But if the understanding any of the rest—the single property is an infamily. But if the understanding with the incursion of any student, or violence of any volcence perturbation, so as the greatest based made and the property as still desired the property as still desired the property of the pro

96 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALI

fully used before his face (which made him apprehensive of what have tagge insured that time the heartst and use of his reason, and to drew all his thoughts to this one point—how to decline the present danger—has be had never a thought at to me point—how to decline the present danger—has be had never a thought at to me point—how to decline the present danger—has be had never a thought at to proceeding from each a sauden distance of passion. Peter's cental was as in properly of infarmily. But David's sin, in contriving the death of Uriah, was d a yet higher plant, and of a deeper days had not these. The proceeding from each of the proceeding from each of the proceeding from each of the proceeding the proceeding from each of the proceeding the proceeding that the proceeding the proceeding that the proceeding that the proceeding the proceeding that the proc

13.— I flow shall I be thoseout Pilm to great resistants. It is a better than the property of the property of the move an, take species, need of those that that come near to the its against the come of the state of the

Verse 13.—"Let them not have dominion over me." Any small sin may give the upper-hand of the sinters and bring him under in time, and after that is one of the upper-hand of the sinters and bring him under in time, and after that is one of the sinters and the several properties. The sinters are not several to the sinters of the sinters

Verst 33.—To sin presumptionally is the highest edge, So in break's account and an analysis of the presumptions are sufficiently which, as the exposition shows and then north te prays against 'presumptions size,' which, as the exposition shows are sins against knowledge; for says he, if they get dominion over me, I shall not be free from that great offence, 'that it, not unpersonable sin which is the sum of the size of the

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

welling upon Cinit at the central San of Seripture, where the harvest and the revealation of Seripture, where the control of t

PSALM THE NINETEENTH.

Verse 10.—The inexpressible delights of meditatin on Scripture.

Verse 11 (first clease).—I What of meditatin on Scripture.

Verse 11 (first clease).—Two parts of the scripture.

Verse 11 (second cleane).—Evangelical rewards—"In," not for keepings

Verse 12 (second cleane).—Evangelical rewards—"In," not for keepings

Verse 13 (second cleane).—Evangelical rewards—"In," not for keepings

Verse 12 (second cleane).—Evangelical rewards—"In," not for keepings

Verse 13 (second cleane).—Evangelical rewards—"In," not for keepings

Verse 14 (second cleane).—Two parts of the second cleanes are second cleanes.

Verse 14 (second cleanes).

Verse 15 (second cleanes).

Verse 16 (second cleanes).

Verse 16 (second cleanes).

Verse 17 (second cleanes).

Verse 18 (second cleanes).

Verse 18 (second cleanes).

Verse 19 (secon

PSALM XX.

Scusser,—We have before us a National Anthem, filted to be sung at the outbrood over, when the monorar was grieflen on his sword for the fight. If David had no been read with wars, we may be a support on the sword for the fight. If David had no been read with wars, we may be a support of our seint, find he may griefle consolation to other hands of the sunger of th

5, 6, and 7 express unwavering confidence in God and his Anointed; verse 8 declared the defeat of the foe, and verse 9 is a concluding appeal to Jehovah.

EXPOSITION.

THE LORD hear thee in the day of trouble; the name of the God of Jacob defend thee;

2 Send thee help from the sanctuary, and strengthen thee out of Zion;
3 Remember all thy offerings, and accept thy burnt sacrifice; Selah.

1. "The Lord hore thee in the day of brouble." All loyal subjects party for this flag, and most orcitally citizens of 260 have good cause to pury for the Prince of Fesce. In times of counter laving subjects redouble their pleas, and surely in the prince of Fesce. In times of counter laving subjects redouble their pleas, and surely in the counter of the prince o

"The name of the God of Jacob defend thee;" or, as some read it, "set thee in a high place." By "the name" is meant the revealed character and Word of God we are not to worship "the unknown God," but we should seek to know the covenant God of Jacob, who has been pleased to reveal his name and attributes to his people.

PSALM THE TWENTIETH.

will be a theme for heavenly scholarship to discover all that is contained in the divine name. The glorious power for die defended and poserver (the Lard. In the divine name of the glorious power for died defended and poserver (the Lard. In the lard In the l has problemed. It upon nor favoured healt! The property of the war kings offered sacrifice, upon the acceptance of which they depended for success, our bleased Lord presented himself as a victim, and was a sweet aware unto the himself of the second of the second of the second of the himself of the second of the himself of case; if it was necessary to him, how much more for us!

5 We will pejole in thy salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: the Lorn fulfil all thy petitions.

6 Now know! that the Lorn saveth his anointed; he will hear him from jhis holy heaven with the saving strength of his right hand.

302 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

 $\gamma$  Some trust in chariots, and some in horses : but we will remember the name of the LORD our God.

5. "We will rejoice in the scheduler." In Jeaus there is salvation; it is his own able mee it is called thy shoulding, but it is our to reveive and our to rejoice in We should fixedly resolve that come what may, we will rejoice in the saving arm of wise town and therefore began to rejoice beforehand, hew much more ought was to do this who have seen the victory completely won! Unbelled begins weight was to do this who have seen the victory completely won! Unbelled begins weight with the work of the victory begins of the before the chance of victory begins? Buds are beautiful, and promise not yet ful filled are worthy to be admired. He joy were more general among the Lord's people of the sovereign, "And in the name of our God see will still any promisers not will the standard of defiance in the face of the fee, and wave the flag of victory wor the falleg adversary. Some probland wur in the name of our God see will still appear and some of the falleg adversary. Some probland wur in the name of one king and some of the flags adversary. Some probland wur in the name of one king and some of manual, God with us. The times are will a present, but so long as Jeans lived relayed to the church we need not for our banness in face, but advance there.

"Jesu's tremendous name
Puts all our foes to flight;
Jesus, the meek, the angry Lam Jion is in fight."

The church cannot forget that Jesus is her advocate before the throne, and there fore she sums up the desires aiready expressed in the short sentence, "The Lor fulfil all thy pelitions." Be it never forgotten that among those petitions is the choice one, "Father, I will that they also whom thou hast styre me be with m

6. "Now know I that the Lord seath his amointed." We live and learn, and the work in this will make the loy of finding out the ver twit; he will never be able to ever, "now know I," for he is so when in its own conceil that haknows all that can be revealed in the latest that the lord learn in the work of the latest that the lord learn in the latest learned lear

7. Contrasts requestly bring out the truth vividly, and here the church as the third the creative-condinence of carnal men in contrast with the resistance upon the Prince Immunoud and the invisible Jahrenko. "Some front in charlest card frome." In the contrast of the prince of the contrast of the c

PSALM THE TWENTIETH.

Egypt in comparison with the Lord of botts. Alas, how many in our day with an arm of Beh in some shape or other, as if they had never known the name o Johnvah at all. Jesus, be those abone our rock and refuge, and never may we man Johnvah at all. Jesus, be those abone our rock and refuge, and never may we man of the property of the property of the property of the property of the God. The name of our God is Janovan, and this should never be foregotten; in God in the property of the property of the property of the property of the God. The convenience of the property of the property of the property of the God in the property of the God in the property of the proper

8 They are brought down and fallen: but we are risen, and stand uprigh

8. How different the end of those whose trusts are different. The enemies food are uppermost at first, but they ere long are brought down by force, or else is of their own accord. Their foundation is rotten, and therefore when the time come it gives way under them; their charcits are burned in the fire, and their horse die of petitions, and where is their boasted strength? A fact those who rest cheen, and they levilly stand uppiral. The victory of Jesus is the inheritance his people. The world, death, Satian and sin, shall all be trampled beneath the effect of the champles on faith; while those who rely upon an arm of feas shall be set of the champles.

9. The Psalm is here recapitulated. That Jesus might himself be delivered and might then, as our King, hear us, is the two-fold desire of the Psalm. The first request is granted, and the second is sure to all the seed; and therefore we may close the Psalm with the hearty shout "God save the King." "God save King Jesus, and may he soon come to reign."

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

offering up, had all the redeemed stood by the cross, or in Getheramean, in hill one that he had eitherwise the sympathy to be longed for, when it said to the three disciple." Tarry a here, and watch with ne." Matt. xxvi. 38. It is thus a pleasant some whether in his suffering or in the glosy that was to follow—Andrea A. Boner. Whole Pealm—There are traces of Hungfeld arrangement in many of the Pealm when the arrent during which the closely that was to follow—Andrea A. Boner. Whole Pealm—There are traces of Hungfeld arrangement in many of the Pealm when the arrent during which the closely that the trace of fessions the High Price making a secrific for the people on the day of atomenent, as represented in the anademy and unsprancedly, but first a suitable occasion was sought, proper character were introduced, and a scene in some degree appropriate to the great event was fitted were introduced, and a scene in some degree appropriate to the great event was fitted were introduced, and a scene in some degree appropriate to the great event was fitted were introduced, and a scene in some degree appropriate to the great event was fitted when the scene of the scene words and deeds. The whole Psalm thus teaches. Christian sympathy is a great

"This is a purely gratuitous stanement, but is less unlikely than many other assertions of amontators who have a cause to plend——C. H. S.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

of Christian duty. There may be a great deal of obliging kindn costs us little.—William S. Plumer.

906 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

a great Roull in us, and that which the Lord would require at our hands, though they allouid never have of it. Therefore, as we onglit daily to pary one for another etc., so more specially and by name should we do it for them that have entered it of us. And to parents especially should not forget their children in their prayers, which dilty sak their blessing, and hope to be blessed of God by their prayers, which dilty sak their blessing, and hope to be blessed of God by their prayers, which dilty sak their blessing, and hope to be blessed of God by their prayers, which dilty sak their blessing, and hope to be blessed of God by their prayers, which dilty sak their blessing, and hope to be blessed of God by their prayers, which make their blessing and their blessing their blessing that their blessing their blessing that their blessing their blessing that their blessing their bles

Verses 1, 8.—In the first verse the Painnist says, "The Lord boar thes in the day of founds," and in the fifth he says, "The Lord perform all the petitions. Does he in both these cases refer to one and the same time." In suppress mentions to be a suppression of the petitions to which he refers in the found verse she offered in the days of his finsh Many think not. Before our blessed Saviour departed out of this word, he prays the evil of the word, he prays the evil of the word, that they might be one, even as he was one with the Father her gript hand of the Father, when he "match interesions for us." If an engith and of the Father, when he "match interesions for us." If it is to this, as many think, that the prophet refers when he says, "The Lord perfor day application," to the interesions which he is continuating making for us.—F. E.

Verse 2.—" Send thee help from the sanctuary." Here we see the nature of tru thilth, that it causes has to see help in heaven, and so to pray for it when there in one to be seen in the earth. And this is the difference between faith and unbiedle means to help them. And this is the difference between faith and unbiedle means to help them; but if they fail they can see one at all; so they are like unt those that are purblind, who can see nothing but near at hand. But faith seet off, even into heaven, to that it is "the evidence of things that are not seen; without them, who made all of nothing, and "callett the things that be not, though they were." So that as the obly marriys Suphen, when his enemies we ready to board for maper and grain at him with table teels, looked stedendary into the contraction of the world of the seek of the contraction of the contra Verse 2.—"Send thee help from the sanctuary." Why "from the sanctuary," but because the Lord presented himself there as upon the mercy-seat. The sanctuary was in Zion, the mercy-seat was in the sanctuary, the Lord was in the mercy seat; he would have himself set forth as residing there. Herein they pray, and pray in faith for help and strength.—Dou'd Clarkson.

Verse 2.—"Sendingther the out of Zion." That is, out of the assemblies of the Vers 5.—" Remember all the effections, and accept the burst scorifice." All to deficing, "the building that he pulse where to early, it he pulse to accept the pulse of the pu

307

PSALM THE TWENTIET

theory cown on his bead; the sails in his hands and feet; the represents that littled his ear; the glottang multitude on whom his dying gase rested; the winegar and the sail; the evil edonors of the hill of death and corruption. The phosphers with the pain of the hand, his head with the read. What could have been done more for the vineyard than he did not do in it? I has, v. 4. So, what more could have work to be a simple of the could have been done more for the vineyard than he did not do in it? I has, v. 4. So, what more could have work. O Father, all on mind for us sinters, for un internals is inners, and for our salve then, "all" these "offerings," "a coopy," instead of our elevant punishenest, when the could be a support of the country of th of his acceptance as was usual—Matther Fools.

Vers E.—That the hund offering may be fast." That is, abundant, Iruitive Vers E.—That the hund of the property of the fast in t peasing, remembered, and tuny acceptance—sourch Litter. Vers 2.— Seidsh.*—This word, in the judgment of the learned, is sometimed a position of the season of the season of the voice of one damiring, showing some special matter; or one admiring, showing some special matter; or one admiring, showing some special matter, or one admiring, stating, required consideration of what is said. On the wild, it is a rest in music. Jerome saith in consideration of what is said. But withink, it is a rest in music. Jerome saith

Verse 4.—" Grant the exceeding to thine sum heart, and juill oil thu examinate that where can be made after a the control to compile his work, "I have a baption to be baptised with; and how am I strateged with the control to the co

Verse 4.—" Fulfit all thy counset;" whatever was agreed upon in the counse and covenant of peace between him and his Father, relating to his own glory, an the salvation of his people.—John Gill.

Verse 4.—" Fulfit all thy counsel." Answer thee, ad cardinem desiderit, as a there Augustia, expresses, it is let it be unto thee even as thou will. Sometime father, Augustine, expresseth it; let it be unto thee even as thou wilt. Sometime God doth not only grant a man's prayer, but fulfilleth his counsel; that is, in tha very way, by that very means, which his judgment pitched upon in his thoughts.—

John Trapp.

Verse 5 (first clause).—Whosoever do partake with Christ's subjects in trouble shall share with them also in the joy of their deliverance; therefore it is said, "W. will rejoice in thy salvation."—David Dickson.

and reject in tog measure.—Desire Arterior and the second of the Lord and of Gloden j. and as we have it in Joshus v1, 30, "And the people shouted, and the valls of Jericho fell down;" and king Abish, crying on with his men in the same, killed five hundred thousand of the children of bratel with the second of the children of bratel and the second of the Verse 5.—" In the name of our God we will set up our banners." The banner formerly so much used were a part of military equipage, borne in times of war to assemble, direct, distinguish, and encourage the troops. They might possibly bused for other purposes also. Occasions of joy, splendid processions, and especially with of his nomes; "meaning, from heaven where his homess dwelleth, eb. —"He will have him." I would be gaid of the prayers of all the churches i; O that there were not a saint on earth but that I were by name in his and evening prayer (whosewer thou art that reades; I breech like pray proper only to Christ; I am sure then I should never miscarry: Christ's are heavenly, glorious, and very effectual—Janua: Ambero, 1992—1674, song the Jews another to the control of the control of the control to preach glad things to the meet, is as Priest, to blue up the broken to preach glad things to the meet, is as Priest, to blue up the broken and a King to deliver the captrees. As the unction means designation match, it is properly applied to the dwine person of the Medicary: as I

* See pages 23, 26, 27, 35, 318

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Saviour was so anoisted, as to "fill all in all". Eph. 1.23. 178 members, and all the faculties, with all those measures the Spirit, remembers, and all their faculties, with all those measures the Spirit, were 7.—"Some rout in charlots, does not in heres; be use will reach a surface of the spirit, which is a surface of the surface of

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Psalmit "remembers the name of the Lord his God;" not any one attribute to God; but the whole combination of drive perfections, and the same of the combination of this perfection, which is the control of the control of

This Paulin has been much used for ecoronation, thankgiving, and fast erroness, been did forescent the part of the world's church. If kings had been devils, some of their royal highlesses had been devils, some of their royal highlesses had been part of the p m the throne, great mercies in great troube—nearing at the throne, great part of present part of part for the part to present part of part of

PSALM THE TWENTIETH.

PSAIM THE TWENTIETH.

3.14.—The great privilege of this fourbid acceptance in the Beloved.

5.—loy in salvation, to be resolved on and practised.

5.—loy in salvation, to be resolved on and practised.

5.—loy in salvation, to be resolved on and practised.

5.—Setting up the fanner. Open avoud of allegiance, declaration of war, perseverance, claim of possession, signal of triumph.

6.—'He anonined.' Our Lord as the Anoluted. When? With what How? The work of the triumph.

6.—'God's "sairing strength," the strength of his most used and most claim.

6.—God's "sairing strength," the strength of his most used and most table.

The time when assurance is given. The period when a truth gleans soul, etc.

ing time when sentrative a given.

—Creative confidence. Apparently mighty, well adapted, showy, noisy, ul trust. Silent, splittual, divine, etc.

—I silent, splittual, divine, etc.

—Tobles turned.

—Tobles turned.

—Tobles turned.

—Tobles turned.

e 9 (last clause).—I. To whom we come, and what then. "To a king." we come, and what it means. "We call." III. What we want, and implies. "Hear us."

PSALM XXI.

EXPOSITION.

THE king shall joy in thy strength, O Lord; and in thy salvation how greatly shall he rejoice?

2 Thou hast given him his heart's desire, and hast not withholden the request of his lips. Selah.

3 For thou preventest him with the blessings of goodness: thou settest a crown of pure gold on his head.

4 He saked lie of thee, and thou gavest if him, sees length of days for ever. over in the of thee, and thou gavest if him, even length of days for ever. glory is great in thy salvation; honour and majesty hast thou him.

His glory is great in thy salvation; honour and majesty hast thou upon him. For thou hast made him most blessed for ever; thou hast made him how the salvation of the salvation

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIRST.

the early Methodate in the excitement of the joy were far more own likewements. Our joy should have some sort of incap. These has given Min his heart's destric." That dealers he seeked has been seen to be a support of the seek his his his heart of the seek his his his heart of the ordered his people, and now in heaven he him, he he sees his beloved coming to be with him where he him, he he sees his beloved coming to be with him where he him, he he sees his beloved coming to be with him where he had been to the seed of the seed of the him had been to such that his doctory of the him had been to district the seed of the him had been to district the seed of the him had been to district the heart's desire in first, and the high request to lowest and we heart's desire in first, and the high request to lowest a well as mentally appeared his a great satistance to thought. The requests for the Savieur were not withhold. He was and at Pleader. Our Advocate on high returns not empty from the Pleader. Our Advocate on high returns not empty from the heart had been to be the high the second of the high representate, and his requests had up to his Pather by him? I that as can be shock to use our willing latticesser.

The word personnel him with the Seating of geothers. "The word personnel him with the Seating of geothers." The word personnel him with the Seating of geothers." The word so came believer as we his day and were gird, and he himself and on some of ment. The Tather is to willing to give belosing the control of the himself and on some of ment. The Tather is to willing to give be less than a decease of the himself and speaking, no flears. Asterois may be awayed to the control of the

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

fs. We had never found this jewel, if he had not rolice away use sweezers it greated in greated in greated in greated in greated in greated in greated which server and the greated ham. See his person as it is described by John in which surrounded him. See his person as it is described by John in revealed in flaming fire. Lord, who is like unto thee? Solomon in all could not be compared with thee, thou once depipled Man of Nazarrah lader: astralian is ascribed to God; and thus the Son, as our Seviour, he later than the Son, as our Seviour, he later than the Son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the Earlier gloridar him the son is given in the greatly ten, but the son in the s

And be his honours wounded high by all thing that have breath.

6. "For then, then most detected for ever," He is most blessed in himself, it his 16 and very state that most detected for ever," He is not blessed in himself, it his 16 and very state that most detected for ever," He is not because it is the which capacity between the property of the property of the state of the which capacity which the state of the stat

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIRST.

Let us shout and sing with them, for Jesus is our King, and in his trive a part.

where a peer.

For the king trusteth in the Lond, and through the mercy of the most in he shall not be moved.

For the king trusteth in the Lond, and through the mercy of the most in he shall find the shall find the shall find the shall find these that he thee.

Thou shall make them as a fiery oven in the time of thine anger: the naball swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them. Or heir irruit shall thou destroy from the earth, and their seed from age the children of men.

The thing the shall the distribution of the shall devour them. The shall devour them to the shall the shall the shall be shall grace. A may continuous in curves of the state beam, but faith overlangs the boundaries of time, and chant her "Io triumph," while yet he sings her hattle bond.

Bet thou exatted, LORES, as tume very the proper of the pr

In the state of time, and chant her "Io triumph," while yet he sings her hattle bond.

In the state of the state of

316 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

9. "Thus thell make them as a flerg own in the time of bilten anger." The free themselves that he are vern to themselves, and so their own tormstorns. The who burned with sager against these stall be burned by thise sager. The first own themselves are the sager. The first own the sager of the first own the sager of the first own the sager of the first own read it, "thou shalf put them as it were into and terribly consumed. Some read it, "thou shalf put them as it were into the sager of the Lord j-sues between the sager of the Lord; "they shall be cast into a frames of first, there shall weeping and gasshing of teeth." These are terrible words, and those teachers a least the sager of the Lord; "they shall be cast into a frames of first, there shall weeping and gasshing of teeth." These are terrible words, and those teachers of the sager in the sager in the sager is said to the sager is said to the sager in the sager is said to said the said the said the same said to said the said t

"The Lord shall swellow them up in his worth, and the fire shall devour them phovah will himself visit with his anger the enemies of his Son. The Lord Jee will, as it were, judge by commission from God, whose solemn assent and co-operated shall be with him in his sentences upon imperient sinners. An utter destruction of soul and body, so that both shall be wallowed up with misery, and be devour with anguish, is here intended. Oh, the wrath to come! The wrath to come!

3.0. Their print shall flow desired from the senfor. Their their worst hall be adapted from the senformer. That in which they alture, and the result of their fold and be dasappointment. That in which they aboundable, "and their seef from smoog the children of men." Their posterily collowing in their footsteps shall meet with a similar evertwey. If at last the race following in their footsteps shall meet with a similar evertwey. If at last the race righteous to their sons, as simout a heirbonn in the family, while the dying simulation of their section of the senformer of the

11. "For they intended evil capitati thee." God takes notice of intentions. It who would, but could not, its a sullty as he who did. Christ's church and cause are not only attacked by those who do not understand it, but there are many who are the light and yet hate it. Intentional evil has a virus in it which is not found have the light and yet hate it. Intentional evil has a virus in it which is not found specified of Christ, their crime is great, and their punishment will be proportionate. The words "ognitut thee" those us that he who intends evil against the powerst when the property of the property of the contraction of the c

"True imagined a mitacheous desics, which they are not able to perform." Want of power is the cision on the foot of the nature of the Lord Jesus. They have the often of power is the cision on the foot of the nature of the Lord Jesus. They have the blessed be God, they fall in ability; yet they shall be judged as to their hearts, and the with shall be taken for the skeen in the great day of account. When we may close our reading by cheerfully repeating, "which they are not able to performing the performance of the state of the performance o

12. "Therefore shall float make them turn their bead, when how thall make read them there are up in our bit strings spinited he see of them." For a time the loss of Go may make bold natyances, and threaten to overthrow reverything, but a few this company to the seed of the seed

min manually vinon

the death-bed of Francis Spira. God takes sure aim; who would be his target?

arrows are sharp and transfix the heart; who would wish to be wounded by m? Ah, ye enemies of God, your boastings will soon be over when once the

13. "Be thou scalled, Lord, in thine own strength." A sweet concluding verse Our hearts shall join in it. It is always right to praise the Lord when we call it remembrance his goodness to his Son, and the overthrow of his foss. The exaltation of the name of God should be the business of every Christian; but since such poosing as we fail to honour him as he deserves, we may invoke his own power to aid us. Be high, O God, but do thou maintain this follows by thine own almightimes.

or of outer power and working the sooner." For a time the saints may mourn, but the gift of single state of their during the theper swakens their joy. Joy should always flow in the channel of praise. All the attributes of God are fitting subject to be enclebrated by the music of our hearts and voices, and when we observe a display of his power, we must extol it. He wrought our deliverance alone, and he alone shall have the praise.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYIN

Whole Fashm—The last Fashm was alitany before the king went forth to bettill rais is apparently at F Domon in the return—J. Steamed Forenam, B.D., in 10 Min is reparently at F Domon in the return—J. Steamed Forenam, B.D., in 10 Min is properly an interest of the steam of the st Whole Psalm.—" After this I looked . . . and behold a throne was set in heaver and one sat on the throne." Rev. iv. 1, 2. Such may be considered as the description of this Psalm, after the foregoing prayer. "He who in the precedin Psalm," says St. Jerome, "was prayed for as having taking the form of a servant in this is King of kings, and Lord of lords."—Jsace Williams.

Whole Pealm.—I am persuaded that there is not one who consents to the applied caltion of the preceding Palmin Castist in his trouble, who will fall to recognise in this, Circle in his triumph. There he was in the dark valley—the valley of the contract of the preceding plant of the preceding the property of the preceding the preceding the property of the preceding the Whole Psalm—As you have already observed in the heading of this Psalm it is said to have been composed by David. He wrote of himself in the third person and as "the king." He penned the Psalm, not so much for his own use, as for hi people's. It is, in fact, a national anthem, elebrating the majesty and glory David, but ascribing both to God—expressing confidence in David's future, bu building that confidence upon God alone—Sumuel Moutin, in "Westimater Chapter."

Intoney's worth, as they say—in that very cause, "" Stelsh." See pp. 23, 26, 27, 35, 307. "" Stelsh." See pp. 23, 26, 27, 35, 307. "For hose presentest him sith the bearings of goo sure gold on his head." The Son of God could not blessings of the durine goodness, than the Father coiltion is the same towards all his adopted sons. College of the stellar stel

320 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verst. — Headed life of thes." etc. Thus God la better to his people than their payers: and when they said but one heissing, he awaveeth them as Namum did Gehari, with Ney, take two. Hezekish askedout one life, and God gave him fifteen years, which we recked at two lives and more. He givest liberally and like himself; as great Alexander did when he gave the poor beggar a city; and when he sent his scholmatter a ship fall of translationess, and bode him scriftler freely—don Yrapp.

Verses 4—8.—If David had before been without the symbol of his royal dignit; namely, the diadem, he was the more justified in praising the goodness of Gowhich had now transferred it from the head of an enemy to his own.—Augustus 1

Verse 5.—" His slowy is great in the substitution."—I remember one dying and bearing some discourse of sense Castell, "Oh," sail she, "peak more of them-bearing some discourse of sense Castell, "Oh," sail she, "peak more of the should I but long to hear of him ?" Surely I cannot say too much of Jesus Christ On this blessed subject no muca may peakly hyperbolise. Had I the tongues of mee that the creature can see to the bottom of the Creator. Suppose all the sands or that the creature can see to the bottom of the Creator. Suppose all the sands or suppose of the sea-chere, all the flowers, briefs, laves, twige of tree in woods and forests, all suggests of angels to speak of the lovelines, heavity, glory, and excellency of Clark agone to beave, and estimate the right hand of his Pack, they would, in all their expressions, stay millions of miles on this side Jesus Christ. Oh, the lovelines and one of the side of the contract of the Verse 5...—"Honour and mojety hast thus tild upon him." If it be demanded whether Clark were cantided unto his glory and dignity, according to both his natures both his Goddeed and his manhoed, I answer, according to both his natures both his Goddeed and his manhoed, I answer, according to both LA coroling to the form his hirth unto his death did little both yeals, fast his resurrection was made manifest in his manhoed; for, as the spottle saith (Rom. 1. 4). "If was declared contractions of the contraction of the contrac

Verse 5.—Happy he who hath a bone, or an arm, to put the crown upon the head of our highest King, whose charlot is paved with love. Were there ten thousand millions of heavens created above these highest heavens, and again as many above

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIR

) above them

too low a seat to fix the princely throne of that Lord Jesus (whose ye are) above them all.—Samuel Rutherford.

hast set him to be blessings for ever." Most truly said of the King in whom all the nations of the earth were to be blessed.—Richard Mani.

Vers. 8.—" Think hand shall find out all thine nemies: the joint hand shall find out these that the ther." By a kind of climax in the form of expression, "hand, is followed by "right hand," a still more emphatic sign of active strength. "Indi," in this connection, includes the diese of detecting and reaching. Compan 1 Sam. xxill. 17; I sain it. 10; in the latter of which places the verb is construct a small property of the control of the Caryl.

Verse 9.—" Thus shalt make them as a fery oven in the time of thine enger: the Lord shall swallow them up in his serals, and the firs shall desour them." How then all it fare with alams, when, Atter is, had inome that general fire no often forefold, and in the control of the control

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

felt; they saw their houses and goods on fire, and no possibility of saving them; where the hands human beams and goods on fire, and no possibility of saving them; where the hands have been previewed himself so encompassed with flames, that he could neither relieve them, nor free himself. What shall it then profit the move of the saving them to be saving the saving them to the saving the saving upon what is in it from all iddes, showe, below, into never, what is in it from all iddes, showe, below, into all iddes and office clear from going out, or from suffering any cool refreshment to come in—Daul Lidson.

I as firey own." Shall make them like a vault of fire, literally, or neon," as in our translation, or "furnace of fire." Blishop Hernely remarks, the smoke of a furnace. "The smoke of their tornents shall second for ever and the windle of a furnace." The smoke of their tornents shall second for ever and ever." How averlaig grant is that description of the ruins of the cliffest of the darkrution of the shall be shall be smoke of their tornents shall second for ever and and their control of the shall be smoke of a furnace.

On the shall be shall be smoke of the country went up as the smoke of a furnace.

Overhead the diseast his

Of overhead the diseast his

Of overhead the diseast his

Of overhead the diseast his of the shall be s

And fying vaulted atthic bod with far."

**Richard Manl.**

**Verse 9.—The Chaldee reads:—"The fire of Gehema, on bell:"—John Moriton. The fire of thine outper." If God be willing to pour out this beavy depending the control of the

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIRST.

in all his royal glory to take vengeance on all that knew him not, and that obeyed not his glorious gospel.—Charles Bradbury.

Vers 12—"Therefore shall thou make them turn their back," or, thou shall set them as a but," "when thou shall make ready thine arrose upon the strings equint the use of them." The indepented to ded are called his "arrose," being sharp, welft, sure, and deady. What a dreadful situation, to be set as a mark and "but" at which those arrows are directed 11 "was derivative companied by the Homas within 1 No farther commentary is requisite upon this verse—George Horns.

Verst 1.—The jey of Jesus and of his people in the strength and salvation of Cool of the C

PSALM XXII.

PSALM XXII.

This off of singuiar excellence was essentially of the most excellent of the temple sungitors: the chief among the rate occurrence was committed to the most excellent of the temple sungitors: the chief among the rate beautiful to sorting its sentialed by the chief Musician; rate and the control of the strength of the chief among the rate of the chief among the ch

EXPOSITION.

EXPOSITION.

MY God, my God, why hast then forsaken me? why art thou so far from helping me, and from the words of, my roaring?
2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but thou hearest not; and in the night season, and am not silent.
3 But thou art holy, O thou that inhabitest the praises of Israel.
4 Our fathers trusted in thee: they trusted, and thou didst deliver them. 5 They cried unto thee, and were delivered: they trusted in thee, and were not confounded.
6 But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of 8 He trusted on the Lonp that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

9 But thou are the that took me out of the womb: thou didst make my bear of the that took me out of the womb: thou didst make my bear of the that took me out of the womb: thou didst make my bear of the third that the seed of the womb: thou art my God from my mother's belly.

1. "My God, my God, and heat thou foresten me?" This was the starting gry of Gogotha: Edo, Edo, lama shackhant. The Sew mocked, but the suggest of Gogotha: Edo, Edo, lama shackhant. The Sew mocked, but the suggest of Gogotha: Edo, Edo, lama shackhant. The sages with hely wonder, and hear, and hadred eyes to see let use? Let us gas with hely wonder, and hear, and hadred eyes to see let us see! Let us gas with hely wonder, and First, our Lovi's faith beams forth and deserves our reverent imitation; he keeps held upon his God with both banks and cries twice." "Alf God, ny God?" "That should his interest in his God. Oht that we could imitate this cleaving to an sillicities about his interest in his God. Oht that we could imitate this cleaving to an sillicities when the could be the sill-sufficient support and succour of his spirit, and therefore his know why he is left, he arrises that question and reposts it, but neither the power nor the faithfulness of God does he mistrust. What are enquiry is this below with known the faithfulness of God does he mistrust. What are enquiry is this below with known the faithfulness of God does he mistrust. What are enquiry is this below this saideet of all utterances. "Why?" what is the great cause of out a strange fact as for God to leave his come Son at such a time and in such a phigh? There have been succeeded to the strange fact as for God to leave his come Son at such a line and in such a phigh? There have been succeeded to the succeeded of the succeeded

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

no censures; let him do what he will, he is to be praised, and to reign enthroade mid the songs of his chosen poople. If prayer he unnawered it is not because God is unfaithful, but for some other good and weighty reason. If we cannot precive any ground for the delay, we must leave the riddle unabled, but we must be the riddle unabled to the riddle unabled unabl

4. "Our fallows trusted in thes: Due trusted, and their district deliber them." This is the rule of life with all the chosen family. Three times over is it mentioned to the trust of the strategy of the s

5. "They cried unto thee, and neve delicered: they treated in thee, and never an improvement of the control of the former lovinglitudeness to his people, and beseech him to be still the control of the former lovinglitudeness to his people, and beseech him to be still exist that cried and cried, and that the roubust we must do the same; and the invariable result was that they were not assumed of their hops, for deliverance came in do when nothing descend the control of the contro

6. "Bell I am a surm, and so man." This verse is a intrack in language. How could the Lord of glow pe brought to such absaments a to be not only lower than could the Lord of glow pe brought to such absaments at to be not only lower than the could be the country of the coun

7, 8. "All they that see me laugh me to scorn." Read the evangelistic narrati

DEALM THE TWENTY SECON

expression, how it grieved him. The iron entered into his soul. Mockey has for the distinctive description "cruel mockings;" (hose endured by our Lord wer of the most cruel kind. The scornful ridicate of our Lord was universal; all not the most cruel kind. The scornful ridicate of our Lord was universal; all not him. Priest and people, Jews and Gentiles, solders and civilina, all united his the general scoff, and that at the time when he was prostrate in weakness and reads to die. Which shall we wonder at the most, the cruelty of man or the love of th because, as would "not can be seen companied to require acceptance of the contemp. Parting, graning, shaking of the head, threating out of the tonges, and other mode of derision were endured by our patient Lord; men made faces at him before whos angels wait their faces and adore. The basest signs of disgrace which disclain could devise were maliciously cast at him. They punned upon his prayers, they mad matter for laughter of his sufferings, and set him tuterly at nought. Herrierst ing.

"Shame tears my soul, my body many a wound; "Shame nails pierce this, but sharper that confound Reproaches which are free, while I am bound.

"Surjue, He transic am for Lord me for model deliver him: te this deliver him folds, which is the tenderest point in a good man's soul, the very spile of the greating he delighted in him." Here the tenderest point in a good man's soul, the very spile of the greating he delighted in him." Here the tenderest point in a good man's soul, the very spile of the great profession in H. According to Matthew SVII. 30—44, there were five forms of turnt hardest at the Lord Jesus; this special piece of mackery is probably mentioned in the same manners, let us remarked the great in the profession of the great point of the great pleading with holy ingenuity of argument! Our birth was our weakest and perilous period of existence; if we were then secured by Omnipotent tendemess we have no cause to asspect that diving goodness will fail us now. He who our God when we left our mother will be with us till we return to mother earth, ill keep us from perishing in the belly of hell.

- will keep us from perishing in the belly of heil.

  If Be not far from me; for trouble is near; for there is none to help, 128 Many bulls have compassed me: strong bulls of Bashan have beset round.

  13 They gaped upon me with their mouths, as a ravening and a roaring lion.
  14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint, 15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; and my tongue cleaveth my jaws; and thou hast brought me into the dust of death.

  16 For dogs have compassed me: the assembly of the which have inclosed 17 I may tell all my bones: they look and stare upon me.
  18 They part my garments among them, and cast lots upon my vesture.
  19 But be not thou far from me, O LORD: O my strength, haste thee to 19 me.

- me. Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the

"ao Deliver my soul from the sword; my darling from the power of the 2 St Save me from the lion's mouth; for thou hast heard me from the are of the uniforms.

"It was not been considered to the compilate and prayer, en seed much grace that while reading we may have followally with his sufferings, by the blessed Spirit conducts in its on smot clear and affecting slight of our conductive to the consideration of the state of the form me." This is the petition for which he has been using the varied and powerful pleas. His great we was test the God had forsake his his conductive to the state of the st not made to be alone, and is like a dismembered limb when he has to endure heart-like. May him here compassed me: strong bild of Bashan has been the result. The mighty ones in the crowd are here marked by the tearful eye of their victim. The printia, ideals, eriches, Phartieser, rulers, and explain bellowed round the cross fury; they stamped and foamed around the innocent One, and longed to gore him death with their cruelties. Converte of the Lord Jesus as a helpies, unarmed, as hells, many, and strong, and the Rejected One was all alone, and bound naked to the tree. His position through strength of the carmet entretty, "Be not far from me. The converted of the converted the converted the converted the converted the converted to the street of the converted the converted the converted the converted the converted to the street of the converted th

PSALM THE TWENTY-SECOND.

orn of their lips wide open like these who gape. Like rearing lious they howied at their fury, and ionged to tear the Saviour in picces, as wide beast raves over the lips with the lips of the lips with the lips of the lips

- ersion of the two preceding verses is 10
  "Pour'd forth like water is my frame;
  My bones assunder start;
  As wax that feels the searching flame,
  Within me melts my heart.
  My wither'd sinews shrink unstrung
  Like potshered dried and dead!
  Cleaves to my jaws my burning longue
  The dust of death my bod."

16. We are to understand every them of this and description as being urged by the Lord Jesus as a plea for divine help; and this will give us a high felse of his grade and the state of th of the righteous is justly for its sins marked upon the forthe of the wided. This is not the only occasion when professed wave become yeapsogues of Satas, and have persecuted the Holy They piezed my hands and my Jet. This can by no means refer use the professed with the professed with the professed was also as the professed with the professed w

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

we care less for the body's supplyment and east and more for our "atter's binning of the form of the companion of the compani bardening, for men could practice it even at the crois-foot while besprinkled with the blood of the Cornelled. No Christian will endure the rattle of the dice when he thinks a large of the control of t

PSALM THE TWENTY-SECOND.

22 I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the 2a I will declare thy name unto my brethren: in the midst of the congestion will I praise thee.

23 Ye that fear the Lors, praise him; all ye the seed of Jacob, glority in and fear him, all ye the seed of Jacob.

24 For he hath not despised nor abborred the affliction of the afflicted; as the seed of Jacob.

24 My praise shall be of their the great congregation: I will pay my vows fore them that fear him.

25 The meck shall eat and be satisfied: they shall praise the Lors that the him: your heart shall live for ever.

27 All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lors : 28 For the kingdom it the Loro's: and he is it he governor among the tions.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a soul.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be accounted to the Lord for a generation.

31 A seed and shall come, and shall declare his righteousness unto a people that shall be born, that he halt done his.

The transition is very marked; from a horrible tempest all is changed into the soul of the Redeemer, and beholding the light of his triumph and its state him in the returnia light, and light passed wavy from the face of nature, and from the soul of the Redeemer, and beholding the light of his triumph and its stated him in the returnia light, 1. It will be well still to regard the words as a part of our Lord's salikeput spon the cross, uttered in his mind during the last few with an clurch, and hence his thoughts, after much distriction, return at the first helper of the salikeput spon the last few shall be a still be shall be

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Bern are nothing hat technos of his voice. Jossu, in this second sentence, reveals begin to declaring the divine name, it is that God may be praised; the church mostly magnifies Jeshovals for manifesting binned in the person of Jesus, and the Jesus of Jesus, and Jesus of Jesus

he ever invent to make interession for us! They who sat at Jesu' table the the full man of the promise. "Whosever eather of this bread shall live the hulliment of the promise," Whosever eather of this bread shall live the hulliment of the promise, "Whosever eather of the bread thall live victority high grand considation that delivant will be known thoughout all considered that the consideration of the care that he was the proper of the proper of the care that he hashed of the will prove the proper of the consideration of the care that he hashed of the proper of the care that he hashed of the care that he hashed of the proper of the care that he hashed that the care that he hashed of the hashed of the before God when our case is at its worst; even amid the dust of death prayer kindles the import hope.

While all who come to God by Jesus Cirist are thus bissed, whether they be read of people. The company of the com

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

set, another will arise in its stead, We need have no fear cocession; that it sade enough. "It shall be accounted to ... the will reckon the ages by the uncession of the saints, each of the saints, and the saints, and the saints, each of the saints, each each each of the saints, each of the saints

k out of present scene of misery, another thing to be consident of a newer-is in all outward appearances, like our; we conceive the shirst condition metable at times, as if God were for ever gone. And Christ (to teach us he does not be a surface of the control of the control of the con-plex of the control of the control of the control of the con-plex of the control of the control of the control of the con-plex of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-duction of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the con-trol of the control of the control of the con-trol of t

336 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

God, my God, sky hatt thou foresten me? soly off thou is of far from helping me, and as a lion, and rather signifies the noise made by a wild beast than the voltee of a man. And it is as much as if Christ had said, 0 my God, no words can express my angulat. And it is as much as if Christ had said, 0 my God, no words can express my angulat. It can be seen that the mean of the content of the con

Verse 1,—" My God, my God." The repetition is expressive of fervent desire—"My God," in an especial sense, as in his words after the resurrection to Mary Mag dalene, "I ascend unto my God, and your God;" " My God," not as the Son of God only, but in that nature which he hath assumed, as the belowed Son in whom the Father is well pleased; who is loved of the Father and who loved the Father more than the whole universe. It is observed that Million Expression, "My God," is

Verse 1.—" My God." It was possible for Christ by faith to know that he we helowed of God, and he did know that he was beloved of God, when yet as to sense and feeling he tasted of God's wrath. Faith and the want of sense are not incostient; there may be no present sense of God's love, any, there may be a present sense of his wrath, and yet there may be faith at the same time.—John Row "Emmanuel" 1850.

Verse 1.—This word, "My God," takes in more than all the philosophers in the world could draw out of the —discander Weddreburn, 1701. Where I.—That there is something of a singular force, meaning, and feeling in these words is manifest from this—the evangelists have satisfied by the manifest force that the state of the state of have this repetition, ELI, ELI.—Martin Luther.

Verse 1.—"Why?" Not the "mby" of impatience or despair, not the sinft questioning of one whose heart rebels against his chastening, but rather the cr of a lost child who cannot understand why his father has left him, and who longs t see his father's face again.—J. J. Stewart Perowne.

337

PSALM THE TWENTY-SECO

Verse 1.—"My routing." we seem primarily to denote the routing of a lion but, as applied to intelligent beings, it is generally expressive of profound mental activities of the control of

Verse 1.—Divises are wont commonly to say, that Carist, from the mome of his conception, had the sight of God, his buman sold being immediately unite to the Daity, Carist from the very moment of his conception had he sight of God February and the sight of God February and the Verse 1.—Desertion is in itself no sin; for Carist endured its bitterness, ay, he was so deep in it, that when he died, he said, "Why hast thou foraken me?" "I was so deep in it, that when he died, he said, "Why hast thou foraken me?" "I was so feel in it, that when he died, he said, "Why hast thou foraken me?" God turn ways his face, David himself is troubled: "The just shall like by faith," and no by feeling.—Richard Capel.

that as we have been distressed for our size against him; to be wen in greater against from 10 to be well again and wormwood, but he tasted a more bifter cup. The sager of God has deled up our spirits, but he was scorched with a more liminal to the same than the same that he shall be somewhat he skill being forestend on the relative cheerted by his disciple affounded and represented by his enemies, and under a curve for us. This Sun was unable before; and nay on the forestend of the state of the same that he shall be supported by the forestend of the same than the same that had alway unable before; and his soul felt that horror and that darkness which it had never the sun state of the same that the same tha

Verse 1.—Here is comfort to describe study. Christ himself was descried; thereone, if then be descride, ded calest him to otherwise with the than he did with Christ. Here, if then the described, ded calest him to otherwise with the than he did with Christ. the Father, and yet had no present sense and feeling of his love. This may be a great confort by they seal under the suppension of those comforts and smallest-loses which sensetimes they have full; Christ himself underwent such a suppension may be completed by the season of th was clothed with a scatiet role; and especially when he appared in his dyest germents, and was red in his appared; as one that treated in the wise fat; when indigately was covered with blood when he hung upon the cross, which was hard to Verse 6.—"I can a corn." An almushe soul is employed of all swelling thoughts of himself. Bernard calls humility a self-ambiliation. Job xxii, 29. "Then will of himself. Bernard calls humility a self-ambiliation. Job xxii, 29. "Then will are self-ambiliation of the control of the control of the control of himself, and the control of himself as a self-ambiliation. Job xxii, 29. "Then will king, yet looked upon himself as "a coom." " I am a worm, and no nam." Bradder and yet, yet whether himself " as animer." Job xx 15. "If I be righteous, yet head.—Thomas Watson. "Be the volve, a weet flower, but hang down the head.—Thomas Watson." So trodden under foot, trample on, maltreate, buffeled and yet upon, mocked and tormenteds, as to seem more like a worn than a man-belled white gene contempt him the Level of Whitely extensive, that his contains may be our glory; his punishment our heavenly bliss! Without ceasing impress this spectacle, O Christina, on thy soul—Diongsina, quoted by Isaac Williams. Verse 6.—"I am a worm." Among the Hindoos, when a man complains and abhors himself, he asks: "What am 1? A worm! a worm!" "Ah, the proud man! he regarded me as a worm, well should like to say to him, 'We are all worms."

840 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Vers 7.—"Alf they had see me lengh me to seron," the. Imagine this dressind seeme. Behold this modely multitude of rich and poor, of dwess and Gentlies Some stand in groups and gaze. Some recline at case and stare. Others move about in rections gentlication at the west. There is a look of attaination or every model of the contraction of the contraction

Verse 7—"All they that see me lough me to cosin," etc. There have been person nour own dray, whose crimes have section stand step-station that the populates would not own dray, whose crimes have section stand step-station that the populates would have had them in their power. Yet when these very obscavious persons have been executed according to their sentence, il, perhaps, there was not one spectator when the property of the section of Verse 7.—"They shoot out the lip." To protrude the lower lip is, in the East considered a very strong indication of contempt. Its employment is chiefly con-before the the second process of the control of the Verses 7-9.—All that see me made but a laughynge stocke on me, the mocked me with their lypnes, and wagged their heades at me. Savenge, thy vyllayne referred all thyages to the Lord, let him now delyver hym yf he wyll, for he loveth hym well. But yet thou arie he whyche leddest me oute of my mother's wombe myne one refuge, even from my mother's testes. As sone as I came into this worthe, I was layde in thy lappe, thou art my God even from my mother's wombe.—Prom "The Pealter of Double in English, truly translated out of Lagn,"

ALM THE TWENTY-SECOND.

Verse 8.—Here are recorded some of those very words, by which the persecutors of our Lord expressed their mockery and scorn. How remarkable to find them

Verse's 1,0.—Faith is much strengthened by constant evidence or God's tawour ferrewith did be support his faith that said to God, "Then at the table took are on the support his faith that said to God," Then at the table took are on the support his faith that the supported his faith that the supported his faith that the supported his faith the supported his su

the house will stand—William Gouge.

Dayle acknowledge the control mercies, those marcies which have been been provided as the control of the

Verse 9, 10.—Here the tribulation begins to grow lighter, and hope bushins towards victory; a support, though small, and sought cut with deep saxiety, now now found. For after he had felt that he had suffered without any parallel or example, so that the wonderful works of God a slapityed toward the fathers afforced him no help, he comes to the wonderful works of God toward himself, and in these he finds the goodwill of God turned towards him, and which was displayed toward

Years 9, 10.—The bitter awerity of the several tunnts with which his centile assalled our Levih and no other effect than to lead the Savieur's make a direct of an unusual and remarkable nature. The argument on which it is founded is medically a state of an unusual and remarkable nature. The argument on which it is founded is medically a state of the state of an unusual and remarkable nature. The argument on which it is founded is medically a state of the s

FRAIM THE TWENTY-SECOND.

Were 14.—"I am poured out like usefur," i.e., I am almost past all recovery, Veres 14.—"I am pour out like usefur," i.e., I am almost past all recovery, Veres 14.—"All my hone are out of joint." The rack is devised as a most exquisite in, even her terror. And the cross is a rack, whereon he was stretched till, suth pash, "of the shoen mere out of joint." But even to rained, as he tune, the word of the pash, "of the shoen mere out of joint." But even to rained, as he tune, the word ones that have felt it, to be a pain excrece erollise. But the hands and the feet go crucily inclined (part, of all other, most tensible, by reason of the texture was not for nothing, that delores accrimit elementer excetate (saith the heads my, that the most tharmy and hitter pashs of all other have their name from hence, we kim, that he had (for his afterwall) a papen of singer; to show by the one the hitterness, and the other this sharpness of tear paint of foliat." We know that the greatest and the other than the body can ender; it is that straing from a hone out is place, or dishected joint. Now when the Lord was raised up upon the cross, at the hones were parted the one from the other than the proper than the body can ender; it is that straing from a hone out is place, or dishected joint. Now when the Lord was raised up upon the cross, at the hones were parted the one from the other with the proper the cross, at the hones were parted the one from the other to withhy that, in very truth David had prophesiod) they might fell off hit leaves, and thus, throughout his cemelies, who had one exametry desired to see him crudinel, far from pilying m, were filled with delight, as though celebrating a victory.—Fra Thome & Jean-

is esemies, who had to exmestly detired to see him credited, far from pitying im, were filled with delight, as though celebrating a victory—Far Throne & Jest.

Vers 15.—" My strength is dried up," etc. Inflammation must have commenced wy and violently in the wounded ports.—The beam quickly imported to those way and violently in the wounded ports.—The beam quickly imported to those the about about 6.—It is an imported by the sorreling an III minday would be the about about 6.—It is an imported by the sorreling until III minday would not be about 4.—It is a mind julea would be the about 4.—It is a work of the decoration of the about 4.—It is a work of the about 4.—It is a work over the carrion, and devour it all with greediness—like "dogs," with their will copy in full pursuit, with unfailing sent tracking their victim, with vigilant we on all its movements, and with a determination which nothing can talter, they may be a support to the sent the Verse 15.—"Dogs have compassed me." At the hunting of the lion, a whole district is summored to appear, who, forming themselves first into a circle, endoes a space of four or five miles in compass, according to the number of the people and the quality of the ground which is pitched upon for the scene of section. The footmen advance first, enabling into the thickets with their dogs and spears, to footmen advance first, enabling into the thickets with their dogs and spears, to determine the contraction of the section of the contracting their circle, till they all at last close in togther, or mest with some other game to divert them.—Dr. Shaw's Truest, quoted in Pactor's "Huntaritions of Scripture, "6..." They pircost my heads and my fet;" namely, when they naise clerk to the cross. Matt. xxxii 1.65; John xx. 55. Where let me similarie, sait a learned man, the orator's gradation, Faciaus vincire ciseur Romanum, etc. I was much for the Son of God to be bound, more to be besten, most of all to be islan. That was much for the son of God to be bound, more to be besten, most of all to be islan. That was the most vite and ignominious; It was also a cruel and cursed kind of each, which y the reduxed not; and here we have a clear testimony for his cross of the contract of th

344 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verse 15.—"They pieced my honds and my feet." Of all samptimery multiments, that of correlation is one of the most desadin—so valid part is immediately and sensitive organs, are perforated with nails, which must necessarily be of some test to suit their intensels purpose. The tearing sameler of the tender efficies of the state of the sensitive organs, are perforated with nails, which must necessarily be of some vassels, must be productive of incines agony. The nerves of the band and foot are vassels, must be productive of incines agony. The nerves of the band and foot are vassels, must be productive of incines agony. The nerves of the rained and foot or tender of even a needle's ponclure in even one of the remodel nerve. A spans result of even a needle's ponclure in even one of the remodel nerve. A passen insparably. When, therefore the hands and feet of our bissed Lord were transfixed with nails, be must have felt the sharpest pangs about through every part of the state of the Wees 16.— They pieced my hands out my feet. That evengeding propher to the state of the Wees 16.— They pieced my hands out my feet. That evengeding propher than the state of the

Vers '8.—'They piercel my hands and my feet.'' That evangleical problem is the state of the stat

Verse $1.—" I mag tell all my bones: how look and stare upon me." The kill and flesh were distended by the posture of the holy on the cross, that the bones as through a thin veil, became visible, and might be counted.—George Horn. became the first that the bone as through and till my bones. For a the first Adam by the holy of the counter and the first that the first that the post of the counter and the counter and the post of the counter and the post of the counter and the Gerhohus, quoted by J. M. Neale.

Verse 17.—" They look and stare upon me." Sensitively conscious of his condition.

upon the cross, the delects feelings of the holy Saviour were sorely pained by the gaze of the multitude. With impudent face they looked upon him. To vice him better they halted as they walked. With deliberate insidence they collects in groups, and made their remarks to each other on his conduct and appearance Mecking his naked, emcaleted, and quivering body, they "looked and stared upon the conduct and the con which the awakened sinner directs to clavary, when faith lifts up her eye to hit who agonised, and bled, and died, for the guilty! And what gratitude shoul persishing men feel, that from him that hangs upon the accursed tree there is hear proceeding the inviting sound, "Look unto me, and be ye saved, all ye ends the earth, for I am God, and besides me there is none sies."—John Morison.

Verse 18.—" They part my perments," etc. Perfectly naked did the crudes may upon the cross, and the executions received their clothes. There is nothin and upon the cross, and the executions received their clothes. There is nothin of the soldlers, after Roman usage. The outer garment was divided probably into the property of the south of the soldlers and the soldlers was considered are a quart, by the Roman code. The under garment could not be divided, being sween; and the the soldlers to the die-therwise part. P. Lange, D. Jo., on Maffines revit. St. to crucify Christ, if if were but for his old clothes, and those but little worth; the soldlers crucity him, though they got but his garments for their reward. Card did submit to suffer naked, hereby to teach us.—1. That all fish are really naked or suffer and the sold of the sold of the sold of the sold of the course of the sold of th to crucity Christ, if it were but for his old colthes, and those but little worth; if these soldiers courty him, hough they got but his garments for whete reward. Christess soldiers courty him, hough they got but his garments for whete reward. Christess where the contract of the contra

Verse 18.—"And cast lofs upon my centure." Trifling as this act of castin the lot for our Lord's vecture may appear, it is most significant. H contains double lesson. It teaches us how greatly that seames shirt was valued; how little he had to whom it belonged. It seemed to say, this garment is more valuable than its owner. As it was said of the thirty pieces of silver, "A goodly price as "How chearly Christ was held!"—John Sterenor-drifting the casting of the lot "How chearly Christ was held!"—John Sterenor-drifting the casting of the lot

Verse 20.—"My durling" had better be rendered "my lonely, or sollary conwas no one who cought after him a a fermiod, or careful or lim, or comforted him as we have it, Psalm celli. 4," Redug failed me; no one cared for my out; I looke when the contract of the contract

946 PYPOSITIONS OF THE BEALM

owner, they display some of those habits of which the domesticated species among an are found unserptible, and are electric of all those social qualities which often use refound unserptible, and are electric of all those social qualities which often to degenerate in the warm regions of the East, and to approximate to the character of beasts of prey, as in digosistic they are forecolou, canning, bloodithirsty, and something regulates; and discontinuous control of the second control of Asia requestly supplies them, as the bodies of creinshal shint for fragments are carried only by the deposition of Scriptors, by the fall fragments are carried only by the deposition of Scriptors, by the fall fragments are carried only by the deposition of the second control of Asia requestly supplies them, as the bodies of creinshal shint for fragments are carried only by the deposition of Scriptors, by the fall of the second control of Asia requestly supplies them, as the bodies of creinshal shint for the second control of Asia requestly supplies them, as the bodies of creinshal shint for the second control of Asia requestly supplies them, as the bodies of creinshal shint for the second control of Asia request

Verse '1--'' Sear me from the Hon't mouth.'' Satan is called a lion, not the Holy; for he had all the properties of the lion; as bold as a lion, as strong as lion, as furious as a lion, as terrible as the rearing of a lion. Yea, worse: the low wasts subtlety and suspicion; herein the devil is beyond the lion. The lion was part the prostrate, the devil spaces none. The lion is full and devourse. He seeks all; a let not the simple say, lie will take no notice in that and devourse. He seeks all; a let not the simple say, lie will take no notice that the same that the same of the same to meddle with me; nor the rich, He dares not context with me; for he skets to devour all. He is nor common adversary, therefore let us case all quarrel

From the horiz of the unicora." Those whare in great trouble from the power or cruelty of others, often or, out to their good "Ah! save me from the task of the elephant from the mouth of the tiger and thasks of the host, deliver me, deliver me, deliver me from the horn the Kindann?" This animal is now extinct in these regions, and it is not eas to determine what it was: the word in the Sathur-Agarülne- rendered "jungle to determine what it was: the word in the Sathur-Agarülne- rendered "jungle".

Verse 21.—"The horse of the unicorns." On turning to the Jewish Bible version that the word evis translated as butfla, and there is no doubt that this renderic is nearly the correct one, and at the present day naturalists are nearly agreed the reben of the Oil Testament must have been now the extinct urus. ... If presence of those horns affords a remarkable confirmation to a well-known passes in the contract of the contract of

Verse 22.—" I will declare thy name unto my brethren." Having thus obtaine relief from the oppressive darkness, and regained conscious possession of the jo and light of his Father's countenance, the thoughts and desires of the Redeem flow into their accustomed channel. The glory of God in the salvation of his Verse 22.—"My brethren." This gives evidence of the low condescension of the Son of God, and also of the high exaltation of sons of men; for the Son of Go to be a brother to sons of men is a great degree of humiliation, and for sons of me brethren are in that respect sons of God, heirs of heaven, or kings, not earthly but heavenly; not temporary, but everlasting kings.... This respect of Christ to his brethren is a great encouragement and comfort to such as are despised and the christ profession of them. William Gause.

347

PSALM THE TWENTY-SECON

Verse 25.—" My praise shall be of thee in the great congregation," etc. The joy and gratitude of our adorable Lord rise to such a height at this great deliverance, the heart so overflows with fresh and blessed consciousness of his heavenly Father's nearness, that he again pours forth the expression of his praise. By its repetition, he teaches us that this is not a temporary burst of gratitude, but an abiding deter-

Venu 25.—" In the great congregation." Saints are fitted witnesses of sacredutes. That which, in Pac. excit. It, is implied under this particle of restraint of the presence and link people." In Pac. 25. The property of God's people has not the presence and the property of the pace of the presence of

Vers. 20.— The most small oid and be sufficied; they shall protes the Lord had church for the "mest" and lovely in host. The death of Crists was the searche for six, is he fined in most indeed, and his blood is drink indeed. The poor is spirit by the protess of the search of the protess o

3/18

348 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

as to think that the thoughts and hearts of men were within his jurisdiction.—William

Gurnal: Verse 26.—" Your heart," that is, not your outward man, but the hidden man of the heart (Ezek. xxxvl. 26); the new man which is created after the image of God in right-cousness and true holiness, "shall thee oreer." The life which animates

Verse 27.—" All the ends of the world shall remember and turn unto the Lord; and the kindred of the intention shall overship before him." This passage is a prediction of the conversion of the Gentilis. It furnishes us with two interesting ideas; the office of the conversion of the Gentilis. It furnishes us with two interesting ideas; the conversion of the Lord"—and to "workip before him." This is a plain and simple process. Perhaps the "and to "workip before him." This is a plain and simple process. Perhaps the conversion of the Lord"—and to "workip before him." This is a plain and simple process. Perhaps the conversion of the Lord"—and to "workip before him." This is a plain and simple process. Perhaps the conversion of the process of the process of the Lord"—and to "workip before him." It is a plain and simple process. Perhaps the collection of the conversion of the Lord"—and the process of the conversion of the Lord"—and the process of the Lord "working him to the lord "working him" to the lord with the results of his sould." This great the lord "working him to the lord "working him" to the lord with the results of his sould. "But great the lord "working him to the lord "working him" to the lord with the results of his sould. "His great will "working him to the lord "working him to the lord "working him" to working him to the lord "working him to the lord "working him to

Vere 27.—"All the ends of the world shall manuscure."—this is a remarkable expression. It implies that man has forgotten God. It represents all the successive generations of the world as but one, and then it exhibits that one generation, as if it had been once in paradies, suudenly remembering the Lord whom it had known there, but had long forgotten... The converted nations, we learn by this verse, will not only obtain remembrance of their past tolso, but will allo be filled with Verse 27—"All the notions of the nord" (ver interru, the same Hebrew to Even this: they plat thurn to the Lori, and worship him, this name, in the cost name; a is explained in the words following of the verse: "And if he fourth state is a separate of the verse is to be Fether in that day through him, so that God shall be all in all, will make him feth be underwent not a sorrow to much far such a precise on consumation...

PSALM THE TWENTY-SECO

Every note of thankagiving which ascends to the Fether, whether from the fowls on the control of the Very 250—"And they shall kee their present into the dart, their seal threin has to the thin it, sholes so that its, sholes so their and present into the dart in their seal threin has the seal threin their seal threin their seal threin their seal threin threin their seal threin thre blemsteves, and to provide for their multiplied necessities. If the grave he alluded the heat multiplied necessities. If the grave he alluded he, that multitude of dying timest shall be brought to worthip Jehovsch, and that these who cannot save or deliver themselves shall seek that shelter which ones and he but lose who approach the mercy-seat. "Rich and poor," all Bakop coming when all the race of Adam, as many as sleep in the 'dust' of the serth, multiplied to the state of the s and poor, high and low, the king and the beggs, have alike need of salvation less Carist, and must submit unto him, that they may be saved, for, as it there were a superior of the control of the contro

FRALM THE TWENTY-SECOND.

From the foundation, in his formaking of the impositions, and in his abidding leaver. And in a special manner, they will declare the righteousness of, churing his human life, in his sufferings, and death, is man't arrectly, offering his human life, in his sufferings, and death, is man't arrectly of which they are subset to address him by this name, "The Lord our "Let", ZEL", Car. ZEL", Car. And Carlon Security, in the 1 "What propose is there on a According to my apprehensions I think this said for this reason a people of other high gar of formed by law, by customs, and by namener invovery, you can never more a man to true right contents. It is not a subset of the security of the security of the leaves when the leaves the security of the leaves when the leaves the security of the leaves when the leaves the leaves thin-The volume stilled "Golst an the Cons," by Rev. 1, Stevenson, in upon every verse. We five the headings, they are suggestive, be Gy. 2. The Complaint 3. The Acknowledgment, e-8. The Lorgreach, 7. The Sockery, 8. The Taunt, 9, 10. The Lorgreach, 7. The Sockery, 8. The Taunt, 9, 10. The Engreach, 17. The Enaction 17. The Enaction of the Garnieria and Casting Lots, 19—21. The Importantly 25. The Vow. 26. The Satisfaction of the Meek; the Seckers of the Him; the Elemal Life. 27. The Conversion of the World. 28. The end Occupation. The Fished of the Falls. Seed. 31. The Everande Country of the Conversion of the World 28. The end Occupation. The Fished of the Falls. Seed. 31. The Everande Country of the Conversion of the World 28. The and Occupation. The Fished of the Falls. Seed. 31. The Everande Country of the Conversion of the World 28. The and Occupation. The Fished of the Falls. Seed. 31. The Everande Country of the Conversion of the World 28. The second of the World 28. The Wo

s de "Williamere tots may on, we mass seate in a our mines can a sea any of a de "God's falthilmess in past ages a plea for the presuite." Hi. Their et al. 5.—Andent saints. I. Their life. "They numbe." Hi. Their voke red conjounced." Hi. Their experience. "We even do conjounced." Wr. Their voke se 6—18.—Pull of striking sentences upon our Lord's sufferings. III—A saint's brouble, his arguments in proyer.

11.—A saint's twoluble, his arguments in proyer.

21. (fort dame).—" Llor's mouth." Men of crucity. The devil. Sin. Hell.

```
Verse 26 (second clause)—Seckers who shall be singers. Who they are? What they shall of? Wen? I and what is the reason for expecting that they shall? Wen? I all the clause—Life versioning. What I worker's Source of the Manner 1st Verse 25 (Law Companion). The content to be defined from 1st Verse 27—The universal triumph of Christiantly certain.

Verse 27—The universal triumph of Christiantly certain.

Verse 27—The universal triumph of Christiantly certain.

Verse 23—Grace for the rich, grace for the poor, but all lost without it. Verse 23—Grace for the church, the variety of electronidence.

Verse 30 (and clease)—Church history, the marrow of all bistory.

Verse 30 (and clease)—Church history, the marrow of all bistory.

Verse 30 (and clease)—Church history, the marrow of all bistory.

Verse 30 (and clease)—Church history, the marrow of all bistory.

Verse 30 (and clease)—Church history, the marrow of all bistory.

Verse 30 (and clease)—Church history and the content of the content
```

PSALM XXIII.

THE LORD is my shephered; I shall not want.

A He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

3 He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of rightcounsess he his name's said; walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will arm oe wil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou of the shadow of death, I will arm oe wil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they confort me.

5 Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou of Survey goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

and I will dwell in the house of the Loup for ever.

"In sacred silence of the mind My heaven, and there my God I find."

Still waters run deep. Nothing more noisy than an empty drum. That silence is golden indeed in which the Holy Spirit meets with the souls of his saints. Not even change the house; I shall only go to dwell in the upper storey of the house of the Lord for ever.

May God grant us grace to dwell in the serene atmosphere of this most blessed Psaim |

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

triumph, from beginning to end? God's people have their steer times of rejoicing.—William S. Plumer.

PSALM THE TWENTY THIRD

"I know them, and they follow me." John z. 27. Yea, doublikes, he this half unmhered the stars, and callett hem all by their ansars, we, he very hard red on band, taketh speeds notice of his own children, "the sheep of the pesture," Such that the property of the stars of the st

"Yere 1.—" The Lord is my shapherd." I notice that some of the flock keep mean the shapherd, and follow whittenesever he goes without the least hestaltien, mean the shapherd, and follow whittenesever he goes without the least hestaltien, round and scolid them in a sharp, stern cry, or sends a stone after them. I saw the mean control of the state of the s

....

360 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

only now and then lift their heads to see where the shephard is, or, rather, where the general flock is, but they get so for away as to occasion a remark in their little impring into everybody's field, climbing into bushes, and even into leasing trees, whence they often full and break their limbs. These cost the good disphered where the contract of the contract of filled with Hie and sound. The shepherds led their flocks forth from the gates of the city. They were in full view, and we weakcade them and listened to be them with the city. They were in full view, and we weakcade them and listened to the second contract masses. The shepherds though of the city of the contract masses. The shepherds though of the city of the city

Verse 1.—"I shall not south." You must distinguish 'whit obsero, and 'wat's verse on the property II as many were to walk, and had not at staff, here were something absent. If a man were to walk, and had not at staff, here were something absent. If a man were to walk, and had not at staff, here were something whereof he were indigent. If it is confused that there are many good things of the staff of the s that cannot does more about the transport of the control of the co

PSALM THE TWENTY-THIR

361

is there anything souring which might make him rich mongh, or by absence wires the hir riches should be add to be delicited. A body is not namined unless it have leat; principal part; only priorite defects discounted a thing, and not there that are principal part; only priorite defects discounted a thing, and not there is a basic part of the second o ourselves the care of the Good Supplement of the Supplement of the Supplement of the Good S

Verse 1,—"I shall not want." The sheep of Christ may change their pasture they shall never want a pasture. "Is not the life more than meat, and the body than raiment?" Matt vi. 25. If he grant unto us great things, shall we distrust him for small things? He who has given us heavenly beings will also give us earthly blessings. The great Husbandman never overstocked his own common william Scelere.

Verse 1.—" I shall not south." Ever since I based of your illness, and the Lord's more in sustaining and restoring, in two been intending to write, to bins the Lord of your cup having and restoring, in two been intending to write, to bins the Lord of your cup having run over in the hour of need, I is in not, indeed, the bleating of Resislat's sheep." I shall not south? "I shall not south." because the Lord is our mething single with him; wothing shall consider the control of the co

362

82 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALI

never mermared. "You must be badly off," and a kind-hearted neighbour to fill him one day as they must upon the result, 'we must be hadly off, and if one kinds him one day as they must upon the result, 'we must be hadly off, and for the kinds of the state of the st

Verse 1.— In the tenth chapter of John's gospel, you will find six marks of Christ sheep:—I. They know their Shepherd; 2. They know his voice; 3. They hea him calling them each by name; 4. They lose him; 5. They trust him; 6. They follow him.—In "The Shepherd King," by the Authoress of "The folded Lamb' 14Mrs. Rogers, 1856.

seeing. You shepherd is about to leat his floot across; and as out Lord says the good shepher—you observe that he goes before, and the sheep flows. Not a find he same manner, however. Some enter boldly, and come straight areas. The same manner, however. Some enter boldly, and come straight areas. The whether sauntering through green meadows by the still waters, feeding upon the mountains, or resting at noon beneath the shadow of great rocks. And now other control of the straight of the straight and the straight of the control of the straight over and make good their leading. Notice those little lambs.—They relute to exist a "particle" over the straight of the st

Verse 2.—" He maked me to lie down in green pastures," etc. Not only he halfs repen pastures," to lost me into, which show has halfs, but he lost are into them, repen pastures, "as well to lost me into them, and the pastures," as well to be lose my eye with the verdure as my stomach with the herisage, near the pastures," as well to be lose my eye with the verdure as my stomach with the herisage, must though never so good, yet! If I look not handsomely, it dulls the appetite, must though never so good, yet! If I look not handsomely, it dulls the spetite, must though never so good, yet! If I look not handsomely, it dulls the spetite, which we have the posteries in the long of the pasture in the pasture i

PSALM THE TWENTY-THIRD.

BY SALM THE TWENTY-THIRD.

In the control of the control drink Nylau; but, "he makes them to lie down in green pastures," that they may set them? Ill mit foul at leiture; and when they have done, "lie down "and the state of the lies." It is not that the lies of lies

PSALM THE TWENTY-THIRD.

and the way of our own obedience? Because such effects are here mentioned never have resulted, and never can result, from any duties of our own. These are not "green pastures," but a parched and blasted heath. These are not "still eathers but a troubled and disorderly stream. Neither can these speak pose or administration comfort when we pass through the valley and shadow of death. To yield the blasting, it the exhited office of Christ, and the sole prerogative of his obediene

Verse 3...." He restoreth my soul: "Hebrew, "He bringsth it heak; " stillar, I From its terror so wandering; or 2. Into the body, out of which it was departing and shirting away. He revivesh or confortesh mar defined Posts and a stillar s

Verse 3.—"Paths." In the wilderness and in the desert there are no raised paths, the paths being merely tracks; and sometimes there are six or eight paths running unevenly alongside each other. No doubt this is what is figuratively referred to in Psalm xxiii. 3, "He leadeth me in the paths of righteourness," all leading to one point.—John Godsby.

Verse 3.—"For his name's soke."

Seeling he hath taken upon him the name of a "Godd Shepherd," he will discharge his part, whatever his sheep be. It is not help being and sheep that can make him leave being a "Good Shepherd," but he will be "good," and maintain the credit of "his name" in spite of all their bodness; and though no benefit come to them of it, yet there shall glory accrue to him by it,

Verse 4.—" Yes, flough! a sulf through the soling of the shadow of doeds, I still be a based on the sulface of the shadow of doeds, I still as a based privilege open to every the believer! For death shall be to him no death at all, but a very deliverance from death, from all pains, cares, and sorrows of the still be supported by the sulface of the still be supported by the sulface of the sulfa

Veries 4.—"Yes, though I wait through the railing of the shadow of death, I will our no ceil." Though I were called to such a sight as Enchel's vision, a valley not not the company of the called the state of the company of the comp

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSAL

invulnerable. I can smile at the shaking of his spear; look unmoved on the ravage which the unrelenting destroyer is making on my tabernacle; and long for the happ period when he shall have made a breach wide enough for my heaven-aspiring spirits the statement which the transfer of the statement of the statemen for no ord." "I want to talk to you shout heaven," said a dying parent" to a member of his family. "We may not be spared to each other long. May we meet around the throne of glory, one family in heaven!" Overpowered at the thought, claimly and beautifully he replied, "Danger, my daring! Oh, do not use that word! There can be no danger to the Christian, whatever may happen! All is right! All be well! God is love! All is well! Eventshathy well: Eventshathy no cotif.* What not less then? Wity, what friends is it that keeps up your spikls that beary me command in the last water was a second to be a second to be

Verse 4.—"Though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death." Any darkness is evil, but darkness and the shadow of death is the utmost of evils. David put the worst of his case and the best of his faith when he said, "Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil;" that is, in the greatest evil I will fear no

The late Rev. Hugh Stowell, Rector of Ballaugh, Isle of Man.

PSALM THE TWENTY-THIRD

gain, to be under the shadow of a thing, is to be under the ing. . . . . Thus, to be under the shadow of death, is to be wer or reach of death, that death may take a man and seize upo aseth. "Though I walk in the valley of the shadow of death," that it was death that it seems to others death may catch me over manner.

Joseph Cargl. Valley of the shadow of death." A valley is a low place, with mountains on either side. Exemise may be posted on those mountains to shoot their arrows properly and the state of State, for the Lord was with him. The figure is not primarily, as is sometimes supposed, our dying moments, though it will be substitutely here in the optimistic place with the valley best with resemble, so the do not be stated to the state of the state of

Vers. 4.—" I will four no ceil." It hath been an ancient proverb, when a may when a lon is dead, even to little delident it hath been an ancient proverb. When a lon is dead, even to little delident it hath been an eary matter. As boys when they see a bear, a lon, or a wolf-deed in the street, they will push of the hath, maint over them, and deal with them as they please; they will pushed the hath, maint over them, and deal with them as they please; they will pushed upon the street, and the street and the street in the street, and the street in the street i strength of "Thou out will me."? When satisficating the solemn hour of death, when the soul is ready to halt and sat, How shall it then bet can you trun in soul-effection to your fold and say, "There is nothing in death to harm no, while thy other has been and the same and the does not suffer me to perish; thou takest notice of me; thou does the and make as excount of me; thy special care looks after me." 2. Processor one or when the sheep are negligent and termins in following or driving, the shepherd doth, with his red and the state of the state of

Verse 4.—"Red and stoff." The shephard invariably carries a staff or rod with him when he goes forth to feed his flock. It is often bent or hooked at one end which gave rise to the shepherd's crook in the hand of the Christian bishop. With this staff he rules and guidete the flock to their green pastures, and defends then from their enemies. With it also he corrects them when disobedient, and brings then beach when writeding. This threshold with the desphere to the contract of the contract prepare a table before me, squind them that rouble me. Then had candrated my beed will all tymbles a 50 mill out, a squind them that rouble me. Then had candrated my beed will all tymbles a 50 mill out, it doubles the batch above the yieldays and upper hand of them, how many and dangerous severe they are; let UV you chast needs to me when the contract the severe that the property of the contract the severe that the property of the property of prophet declares the old saying amongst wise men. "It is no less mestery to keep the thing that is won, than it was to win it." King David perceives right well the same: and therefore, as before in the Fainn he said, the Lord turned his sest, and therefore, as before in the Fainn he said, the Lord turned his sest, and asks, and not for any rightecourses of his own; so saith he now, that helse ploought into the pasterns of truth, and into the favour of the Aimighty, and accounted and taken for one on this sheep, it is only God that keeps and maintains him, in the said taken for one on this sheep, it is only God that keeps and maintains him, in the shadow of death, as he and all God's elect people must do, but only by the assistance of God, and, therefore, he saith, he passe through all peril because he was with him.

PSALM THE TWENTY-THIRI

Verse &—By the way, I, note that David amidst his green pattures, where he wasted nothing, and in his greatest ease and highest excellency, recorded the walkey needed to the walkey and the pattern of the walkey and the walkey and the walker of the walkey and the walker has been as the walker has been and to train them to come. For after so many pleages of God's industed the walker has been and to train them of the walker has been and to train them of the walker has been and to train them of the walker has been and to train them in contancy; for everyly God's required settled under, resolute men, and confirmed brethern. So upon occasions past, David found it true that he walker has been and to train them in contancy; for everyly God's required the settled under, resolute men, and confirmed brethern. So upon occasions past, David found it true that he made and to train them in contancy; for everyly God's required the stilled mich, resolute men, and confirmed brethern. So upon occasions past, David found it true that he made and the walker has been and walker has walked to man and so train them in contancy; for everyly God's required the stilled mich, and confirmed brethern. So upon occasions past, David found it true that he made and to train them in contancy; for everyly God's required the titled mich, and confirmed brethern. So upon occasions past, David found it true that th

Verse 4.—The death of those that are under sin, is like a malefactor's execution: when he is passible and justice convicted, one pulsetts he hat degaged from him, severe the se will the second of the second

370

370 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

thereon, lest it should break? or is he now such a changeling, that he will not be with us in our trouble according to his promise? Will he not give us his "staff" to stay us by, and reach us his hand to hold us up, as he hath been wont to do? No doubt but that he will be most ready in all extremity to help, according to his promise. The Lord that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel, saith thus; Exerce to the C will defend the "tet. Early Mill ar-Thomas Tumme."

Fear not, for I will defend thee," etc. Issian Sill.—Internal Tymme.

Verse 4.—Not long before he died, he blessed God for the assurance of his love, and said, He could now as easily die as shut his yes; and added, Here and I longing to be sillent in the dust, and enjoying Christ in glory. I long to be in the arms of Jesus. It is not worth while to weep for me. Then, remembering low boay the devil had been about him, he was exceedingly thankful to God for his goodness.

In relating him.—Memoir of Joints Jintson, was object to the control of the property of the shadow of the control of the contr

Verse 4, 5,—A readiness of spirit to suffer gives the Christian the true enjoyment of life. . . . The Christian, that has the preparation of heart, never testes more of life. . . . The Christian, that shat this preparation of heart in the critical transfer of the control of t esteen in the date of the "without court of the court of

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

It of refundance. These that have this hippiness must seary their cop upright, at of a refundance. These that have the life power brethers' employer weeks—John Trapp.

no over, but that other men's lips might tast the liquor? The affiverer than the lips of the lips. The lips of the lips of t stemily.

Vere 2 (first clause)—Belbeviag rest. 1. Comes from God—"He modeth."

Is deep and profound—"He down." III. Has solid sustenance—"in green three." VI. Is subject for constant praise.

Vere 2.—The contemplative and the active element provided for.

Vere 2.—The chainess and richness of Holy Seripture.

FSALM THE TWENTY-THIRD.

Verse 2 (second dames)—Onward. The Leader, the way, the comforts of the road, and the traveller in it.

Verse 3.—Craclous restoration, aby guidance, and divine motives.

Verse 4.—Code 3 presence the only use, support in-death.

Verse 4.—Itle in death-min light in darkners.

Verse 4.—Itle in death-min light in darkners.

Verse 4.—The warrior feated, the priest anointed, the guest satisfied.

Verse 5.—The warrior feated, the priest anointed, the guest satisfied.

Verse 5.—The warrior feated, the priest anointed, the guest satisfied.

Verse 5.—The warrior feated, the priest anointed, the guest satisfied.

Verse 5.—The warrior feated, the priest anointed, the guest satisfied.

Verse 5.—The warrior feated, the priest anointed, the guest satisfied.

Verse 6.—On the road and at home, or heavenly attendants and heavenly mansions.

PSALM XXIV.

EXPOSITION.

THE earth is the Lord's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.

2 For he hath founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.

3. How very different is this from the ignorant Jewish notion of God which the seas of Abraham are his only people; "but their great Monarch had long before the season of the season of Abraham are his only people; but their great Monarch had long before the season of Christ, and how angry they were with our Lord for asying that many widows are considered the light of the Jewish people at the time to be his subjects. When we consider the bigoty of the Jewish people at the time of Christ, and how angry they were with our Lord for asying that many widows are proposed to the season of the season of the season of Sarepta, and that there were many lepers in Israel, but once of them was healed except Naisman the Syrian,—when we recollect, how how anypy they were at the remained in such blindness, and yet have sung this Palan, which shows so clearly the state of the season of selve an answer of peace. With careful self-examination let us enquire, "Lord, a "Ille that their down hands." Outward, practical beliess is a very present sub for give. To wash in water with Pilate is subthing, but to wash in innocency and the property of the property unger and thirst more and more after a clear vision of the face of God; the will be prefetch. If the wind longs to see his friend when the passes takes care to clear the set from the window, lest by any means his friend should go by unobserved, set when the window, lest by any means his friend should go by unobserved, set will be set to be compared to be considered or man but beloved of God. The expression "O Jene" is a very difficult one, the set of manifest of the set of the se

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

In health." We know the might of Jesus by the healtles which he has fought, the victories which he has won over sin, and death, and hell, and we day our hands heart to sing his praises! Mighty hero, be thou crowned for ever King of Kings and Lord of Boets. Mighty hero, be thou crowned for ever King of Kings and Lord of Boets. Meads, to perfect the sing his praises! Mighty hero, be thou crowned for ever King of Kings and Lord of Boets. Heads, to perfect it was the single space of the King of Boets and the Mind of Boets and the King of Boets and the Mind of Boet

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Papier—It will be seen that this Pashm was written to be chanted in parts, with two chorases. To comprehend if faility, it should be under-Jerusalem, as the city of God, was by the Jews regarded as a type of it on occurs in the Appealysps, whence we have adopted it in our pectical conditions to the part of the part of the part of the control of the conditions of the

And established it upon the foods."

And established it upon the foods."

orous of vocal mustic appears to have then taken up the song, and sung words in a more tuneful and elaborate harmony; and the instruments bole chors of the people fell in with them, raining the mighty declaration of the contract of the contract

"For he hath founded it upon the seas, And established it upon the floods."

PSALM THE TWENTY-FOURTH.

This part of the music may be supposed to have lasted until the procession reached the foot of Zion, or came in view of it, which, from the nature of the enclosed site, cannot be till one comes quite near to it. Then the king must be supposed to have stepped forth, and begun again, in a solemn and carnest tone—

"Who shall ascend into the hill of the Lord? Or who shall stand in his holy place?"

"He that hath clean hands, and a pure heart; Who hath not lifted up his soul unto vanity, nor sworn deceitfully."

And then the second chorus—

"He shall receive the blessing from the Lord,
And righteousness from the God of his salvation."

This part of the sacred song may, in like manner, be supposed to have lasted till they reached the gate of the city, when the king began again in this grand and exakted strain:—

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates; And be ye lift up, ye everlasting doors, And the King of glory shall come in!"

repeated then, in the same way as before, by the general chorus.

The persons having charge of the gates on this high occasion ask—

"Who is the King of glory?"

To which the first chorus answers—

"It is Jehovah, strong and mighty—Jehovah mighty in battle."

which the second chorus then repeats in like manner as before, closing it with the grand universal chorus,

"He is the King of glory! He is the King of glory!"

We must now suppose the instruments to take up the same notes, and continue them to the entrance to the court of the tabernacle. There the king again begins—

"Lift up your heads, O ye gates; And be ye lift, up, ye everlasting doors; And the King of glory shall come in."

This is followed and answered as before—all closing, the instruments southe chorus singing, the people shouting—

"He is the King of Glory!"

John Kitto's" Daily Bible Illustrat

Whole Padim.—The coming of the Lord of glory, the high demand upon his people proceeding from this, the absolute necessity to prepare worthly for his arrival, form the subject-matter of this Palum.—E. W. Hengisteber, which were sung in the performance of Jewish worship on each day in the week:—The high many the sung in the performance of Jewish worship on each day in the week:—The high many the high many the sung in the performance of Jewish worship on each day in the week:—The high many the high many the sung the high many the

80 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

as as a priest upon God's throne, and from thence to come down bringing plessing and mercies to his people.—R. Rigiand.

Whole Paulm.—Anthem of praise, performed when the heads of the gates of Jerusalem were lifted up to receive the ark; and those of the Israelites who were ceremoniously clean, were alone permitted to accompany it into the court of the tabernack. A Pain of David. Verses 1, 2, chours. S. First voice. 4, 5. Second ceremonously clean, were alone permitted to accompany it into the court of the tuberneic. A Palan of David. Verses 1, 4, chorns. S. First voice. 4, 5. Second voice. 6. Chorus. 7, Semi-chorus accompanying the ark. 8. Voice from within the path of the people with the ark. 10. Voice within the gates. 10, Grand chorus—From "The Paolins, with Pri-favoy Tilles, etc., from the Port Royal Authors," by Mars, Ann. Schimmolphannics, 1825.

Whole Psalm. How others may think upon this point, I cannot say, nor preten to describe, but for my own part, I have no notion of hearing, or of any man's even having seen or heard, anything so great, so solemn, so celestial, on this side the gate of heaven—Patrick Delany, D.D., 1686—1768.

Verse 1.—" The earth is the Lord's," that is, Christ's, who is the "Lord of level", lever, XI. 50; for the whole world and all the things therein are he by a twoold in heaven and in earth." (Mart. Xxviii. 18), even whatever things he father had been as the highest policy of the control of t ness is accepted of him. Acts x. 35,—John Boyls.

Yers 1.— The earth is Johenoids."—The object of the beginning of the Psaln is to show that the Jews had nothing of themselves which could entitle them to approach nearer or more familiarly to God than the Gentlies. As God by hi providence preserves the world, the power of his government is allike extended to all, so that he ought to be worshipped by all, even as he also shows to all men

Verse 1.—" The earth is the Lord's." It is Christ's by creation (verse 2; Johi 1, 1, 2), and it is his by resurrection (Matt. xxviii. 18), and by his glorious ascension into heaven, where he is enthroned King of the world in his human nature. Thi Psalm takes up the language of the first Ascension Psalm (Psalm viii.)—Christophe Wordsworth, D. D. In Jos.

Verse 1.—St. Chrysostom, suffering under the Empress Eudoxía, tells his frienc Cyriacus how he armed himself beforehand: if an pissars a plane with the control of the pissars before the circle of the Lord's, and the fulness thereof. Take away my goods? Naked came I time he world, and naked must I return Take away my goods? Naked came I time he world, and naked must I return take my mind." etc. Thus it should be with every one that intends to live and decomfortable; they must, as we say, lay up something for a rainy day; they must stock themselves with groces, sieve up promises, and/turnishightemelves with experiences of God's olveightenders to others and themselves too, that so, when the will day comes, they may have much good coming theraby—John Spaners, the other stocks and the stocks of the stocks o

PSALM THE TWENTY-FOURT

"He flicht upon my wing," whispered the winds, and the gentle air added "I am the breath of God, the aspirations of his benign presence." We has a similar that the said and slient. "Then the falling dow replied," I will nourish thee, so that thoushab refracades and rejoice, and thy instants shall bloom like the young rose." "Joy fully we bloom," sang the refreshed meads; the full cars of corn waved as they are the said of the contract of the said of the said

"We bless the from above," said the gentle moon; "We, too, bless thee, responded the stars; and the lightsome grasshopper chirped, "Me, too, he bless in the pearly dew-drop." "He quenched my thirst," said the roe; "And refreshe me," continued the stag; "And grants us our food," said the beasts of the forest "And clothes my lambs," gratefully added the sheep.

"And clythes my immo," gratefully anded the sheep.

"And clythes my immo," gratefully anded the sheep.

"And the trained by the wild goat of the rocks, "when my time came, and I brough forth." And the turit-dove coood, and the swallow and other birds joined the stage of the coordinate of the stage of th recalled them from the strings of his harp.—From the "Legend of the Songs of the Night," in the Talmud, quoted in "Biblical Antiquities." By F. A. Cox, D.D., LLD., 1852.

Verse 1.—The pilous mind views all things in God, and God in all things.—

Vers. 2.—" He buth founded it upon the seas, and enablabed it upon the floods. This founding the found cope the seas, and preparing it upon the floods, is to weather fully wenderful, that Almighty God asked this servant Job, "Whereupon as the foundations thereof Intended" > Job xxviii. 6. Xerress commanded in soliders to letter the waters of Heilingoutus; and so God bladels, all were, the competitive is the season of Heilingoutus; and so God bladels, all were, the competitive is the season of Heilingoutus; and so God bladels, all were the competitive in the season of th xxxiii. 7); io that without his leave not so much as one drop on overflow the model—and many consistion. I were he had founded it upon the seas, and upon terms and he made if pair. The reference is no doubt to the account of the Cestion Genesis, the reji und having emerged from the water, and seeming to rest upon it. (Comp. cxxxvi. 6; Fev. viii. 26). It would, however, be quite out of pine in the company of the company of s that to all the rest? Yes, somewhat 'the. He was our Hood, and if the Header or riem and seconded, the members will all follow after in their time. Proceedings of the Header of Header of Header of the Header of Header

PSALM THE TWENTY-FOURTH,

"Lift up pour heads, O py pates; and be gull tim, per covinating doors; Kloy of pelop," with all the belies of the graces and righteenment, shall make the state of the graces and righteenment, shall make to $4, 4-11 is not be who inlegs to well or so many Psalms, nor he who divides in the sam samed part, so he who divides his own among the poor, see he who had to see to many days, nor he who of which his own since the poor, see he who had to see that the even symmetry and the poor, see he who had to see that the even symmetry had been a seen and the state of the seed of the clean inands; "" the clean of hands," Marg. :—those hands from which went forth trites and healing; hands ever lifted up in prayer to God, or in belsing to man; "white and healing; hands over lifted up in prayer to God, or in belsing to man; "Williams, in Ioc.," "Yerse 4." "Who had not lifted up his soul mis south," is read by Arina Mentanus, "Williams, in Ioc.," "And had not lifted up his soul mis south," is read by Arina Mentanus, in Ioc., "which were the soul server to the soul server, and in the soul server, and in the soul server, and and the capture in the soul server, and at the keep their bodies from short to vain a use !—Goog Sedimock.

**Vers 4." "Yer 8." "Yer

384 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verse 5.—" He shall rectice . . . . rightonianes." As for our own rightonianes which we have without him, Easy teletus u." it is a defined cells; " and St. Paul, which we have without him, Easy teletus u." it is a defined cells; " and St. Paul, Ghart's own; yet nothing so housely as in the original, where they be so ofdour, as what manner of deficie citols, ow what kind of dump we have not darred to translate. Our own then being no better, we are divent to seek for it elsewhere. "He shall apostic. Pill. iii, S. 9; Rome, v. 7). It is them substant, to be given us, and to be received by us, which we must seek for. And withlers shall we go for it? . does not shall be shall be shall be presented by the name of the shall be presented this name.

Verse 6.—" This is the generation of them that seek him, that seek they face: Christians must be seekers. This is the generation of seekers. All mankful, if eve they will come to heaven, they must be a generation of seekers. Harvan is a very large of the seekers. Harvan is a constant of rederin. We want consend that the variant seek. When we are a best, we want the accomplishment of our happiness. It is a state of seeking been because it is a state of want; we want something always. But to come more fine to the seeking the seeki

Verse 6.—"This is the generation." By the demonstrative pronoun "this," the Psalmist crases from the catalogue of the servants of God all counterfeit Israelites, who, trusting only to their circumciston and the sacrifice of beasts, have no concern about offering themselves to God; and yet, at the same time, they rashly thrust themselves into the church—John Calino.

themselves into the church—John Calain.

Vers 6—"That seek My Jace, O Jacob." In Prov. vil. 15, and xxix. 28, w have "seeking the face of" in the sense of seeking the favour of, or showing delight in Their delight is not in Esau, who got "the fatness of earth" (Gen xxvil 39) as hi portion. And those writers may be right who consider Jacob as a name for Messiah

"the Holy One of Israel;" "the face of thme Anoisted" is the face of him we be both Gold and man; for "we sail use bin as he is "I-nose Williams." How the Gold and the sail to the sail to the sail to the Gold and the Gold (Cor. xi. 12), so Gold is here called "Jacob" "such a near union there is between man of the gold of the Gold and the Gold face to face, as Jacob did at Penial (Jen. xxxi), 24—30); thirdly, because the Bolo, as lae, do best away a blessing (flox. xxx), 42—30); thirdly, because the Vere 7.—" Lift up your hoods, O ye gates." The gates of the temple were indees described, very lotty and magnificent, in proportion to the gigantic dimension of that extraordinary edifice. But the phrase, "Lift up your heads," refers no so much to their lottines, as to the upper part being formed so as to be littled up while the under portion opened in folding doors.—Robert Jamieson, in Paxton' "Illustrations of Scripting."

the remains of an ancient gate which was drawn up, like a blind, the gate fitting in grooves. This will fully explain the term.—John Gadzby.

Verse ?—'Lift up.' A phrase or term taken from triumphal arches or great porticose, set up, or beautified and adorned for the coming in of great, victorious and triumphant cantains.—John Diodati.

385

PSALM THE TWENTY-FOURTH

Verse 7—— Be pit lift up, p. exectualing doors; and the King of plora phall come intriment of the doors of our beast, according to that (Rev. III. 20), "Behold, come in to him," etc. In the goops history, we find that Christ had a Sucreit come in to him," etc. In the goops history, we find that Christ had a Sucreit come in to him," etc. In the goops history, we find that Christ had a Sucreit come in to him," etc. In the goops history, we find that Christ had a Sucreit workly that Christ should come under his root; some nichler into house nor an Lazarus, Mary, Martha. John Ill. 15; Luke x. 38. Now that Christ may dead now heavity belt, and that are bedse may be temples of the Holy Sydright, we must a Lazarus, Mary, Martha. John Ill. 15; Luke x. 38. Now that Christ may dead now heavity belt, and that are bedse may be temples of the Holy Sydright, we must
a Lazarus, Mary, Martha. John lill. 15; Luke x. 38. Now that Christ may dead now heavity be little, and that are bedse may be temples of the Holy Sydright, we must
a Lazarus, Mary, Martha. John lill. 15; Luke x. 38. Now that Christ may dead now heavity be little, and that are bedse may be temples of the Holy Sydright, we must did not be the section of the sucreit of of lasting—John Roger.

me may think of these things, David Bought It shigh time for him to bild such as messenger welcome, and to open in his heart for the receiving his God. Hear what he saith to his own heart and others: "Lift up pure heads in the contraction of the contract of the con

ome; all that I have is at thy service; O fit my soul to entertain has do love and serve him, against all the strength and power of men and every the serve of the serve of the property of the property of the serve of the property of the serve of the property of the serve of the light at the light at the serve of the light at the serve of the light at the l

the triumph of his entry into the heavenly Jerusaken! Would not all the city "moved" in this case, saying. "Who is thin?" See thousands of angels attending the art in the case, saying. "Who is thin?" See thousands of angels attending the art in the case, saying. "Who is thin?" See thousands of angels attending the art in the city of David was het a shadow of this, and the reponder strain that we are suggested to the case of the case o

PSALM THE TWENTY-FOURTH.

Verse 1.—The great Proprietor, his estates and his servants, his rights and wrongsVerse 1.—The great Proprietor, his estates and his servants, his rights and wrongsVerse 1.— The earth is the Lorde." I. Mention other claimants—dols: pope, a devil, etc. I. Try the suit. III. Carry and the servicel. Use our authation, the state of the service of th

00 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALE

I. There are obstacles, "gates," "doors." II. We must will to remove them: "lift up." III. Grace must enable us: "be ye lift up." IV. Our Lord will enter. V. He enters as "King," and "King of glory."

Verses /:—The absention and its featurable of the verses /:—The absention and its featurable of the verses /:—10—I. His utiliti—the Lord of hosts. II. His victories, implied in the Verses /:—10—II. His nediatorial title, the King of glory. IV. His authoritative entrance into the holy place.—John

Vewton's " Messiah."
Verse 8.—The mighty Hero. His pedigree, his power, his battles, his victories.
Verse 10.—The sovereignty and glory of God in Christ.

PSALM XXV.

Title—A Paslm of David. David is pictured in this Pealm as in a juliphi ministure. His holy trust, his many conflicts, his great transposition, his Minper of the property of the property of the property of the property per approximate the property of the property of the property of the he mentions the situs of his postd, and from its pointful references to the court and crushed of his many fore, it will not be to a presentative a theory to refer it to the period when Abadom must heading the great rebellion equital time. This has been stipled the scanfle the south Prolincally Pasilon. It is the made of a result that the his sorrows venture

Summer and Division—The incestigues were of this Poolin begin in the origin at the origin at the letters of the three to the travel in the literature of the travel in the letters of the

EXPOSITION

2 O my God, I trust in thee: let me not be ashamed, let not mine enemies triumph over me.

3 Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed: let them be ashamed

5 Lead me in thy truth, and teach me: for thou art the God of my salvation: on thee do I wait all the day.

6 Remember, O LORD, thy tender mercies and thy lovingkindnesses; for they have been ever of old.

7 Remember not the sine of my youth, nor my transgressions: according

1. "This bise, O Lead"—See how the body sout line to its took line a dove we for their well-remembered harbour or druge. What a mercy that the Lead will considered to hear our criss is time of trouble, sithough we may have also meeting the considered to hear our criss is time of trouble, sithough we may have also meeting the considered to the consid which is used in the first sentience. Already the sweet singer has drawn nearer to be proposed to the proposed of the proposed

392 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

3. "Yea, left none that used on the be ashared." Suffering calegage the heart of the property of the proper

A. "Show me lbg oway, O Lord." Unancetified natures classow for their own ye, but gracious spirits cry, "Not my will, but thin be done." We cannot at all times discern the path of duty, and at such times it is our wisdom to apply to all the contract of the contract o creatures we are 1. these constantly we cry to use strong tot strengtial use the first fir

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFTE

If instead of following their own devices, and cutting out new paths of thought it themselves, they would enquire for the good dis ways of God's own truth, and besee the Holy (thout to give them sanctified understandings and teachable spirits. "Perfector of astwortion to his people. Reader, is he the God of pour subvation Do you find in the Father's election, in the Son's atonement, and in the Spirit producing all the grounds of your dervand hopes." If it so, you may use this as a work of the growth of the great of the growth of one and non-representative or one was considered and this looking-industrians. We want to all unable the considered and the con

"When all thy mercies, O my God, My rising soul surveys, Transported with the view, I'm lost In wonder, love and praise."

If the Lord will only do unto us in the future as in the past, we shall be we content. We seek no change in the divine action, we only crave that the river of grace may never cease to flow.

if for ling hors been ever of old." A more correct translation would be "forestant," Dayle says a sound believer in the electrons of the state of th

The Remember and the size of my goath." Sin is the stumbling-block. This is the first the control of the first block which of the first block was in the first block block with a first block with a first block with a first block with the stumbling the first block with the stumbling the first block with the first block with the dying this breathe the same prayer, and doubtless they grounded it upon same pias, viz., the free grace and unmerfied goodness of schovab. We does not be dealt with by the hand of mercy from the balance of justice, but we pray he dealt with by the hand of mercy.

8 Good and upright is the Lond: therefore will be teach sinners in the

- The meek will he guide in judgment: and the meek will he teach his
- io All the paths of the LORD are mercy and truth unto such as keep his enant and his testimonies.

This sentence of prayer would seem out of place were it not that prayer is always in the place, whether in season or out of season. Meditation having refreshed the Paalmist, he falls to his weighty work again, and wrestles with God for the remission of

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFTH.

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Indertasadings, and above all, ther own part in I shall be sealed to their intrasact and above all, ther own part in I shall be sealed to their intrasact and above all the row may refer the shall be sealed to their single partial and the partial and the shall be sealed to the state of Inspiration, and by his Spirit he lead us into the mystery, even the his learn it from a commentary; let him look to the cross for the secret lies "." The ages are seer bound the Lord." The writer claims to be fixed in system to the secret lies of the secret lies. "Mine ages are seer bound the Lord." The writer claims to be fixed in system to the secret lies of the secret lies to the secret lies of the secret lies of

- tred.
  keep my soul, and deliver me: let me not be ashamed; for I put my he trod the winepress alone, and hence he is able to succour in the fullest sense those who tread the solitary path.

"Choice leads see through no darker come in the fullest sense those who tread the solitary path. He that into Golf's inspine comes.

He that into Golf's inspine comes.

It is trouble found to the solitary of the control of the solitary of infimate connection between an and sorraw, a gener-magns remain.

Consider nine sensimic." Which them, weigh them, check them, destate for they are nang." They need the eyes of Argus to watch them, and he devide of the after that are all vanquished when the Level he devide he had and the evide of earth are all vanquished when the Level had the sense of t

20. "*O keep my soul" out of evil, "and deliner me" when I fall into it. This is conciner version of the prayer, "Leads us not into temptation, but deliver us from "Let me not be enhanced." This is the one fear which like a ghost baunted this manner of the state of

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

Whole Psoim —This is the first of the seven alphabetical Psaims, the others being the 34th, 37th, 111th, 112th, 119th, and 145th. They are specimens of that acrostic mode of writing which seems to have been once so dashionable among the Jews, as is testified by numerous instances of such composition, which are to be met with in their works. Other poetic artifices were likewise adopted. We find many instances of poems being so constructed, that a prayer name, or some particular sentiment, would be not unfrequently expressed by the initial letters of the verses See Bartolocci's "Bibliotheca Rabbinaca," voil. In. 260, where examples of such artifless are cited—George Phillips, B.D., in "The Psalins in Hobrew with a critical results of the such as th

398 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSAEMS

Whole Fashin—This is the first fully ollabeletic Pashin . The only beaus which has use of the alphabelet for many teach is this — that the Holy Spirit was which the use of the alphabelet for many teach is the Lock the Holy Spirit was whateve ingensity man may exhibit in intellectual efforts, he should consecrate these that the state of the s vers 11.— Within Femels, it is "Intant. Matrix." The way were the property of the control of the Verse 1.—" Unto thee, O. Lord, do I. lift up my soul." The litting up of the hore presponents in former dejection of his soul. The soul of man is pressed down with sin and with the care of this word, which, as lead doth the net, drawful in the care of this word, which, as lead doth the net, drawful in the care of the word, which, as lead doth the net, drawful in the care in t

Verse 1.—" Unto thee, O Lord, do I lift up my soul." A godly man prays as builder builds. Now a builder first layeth a foundation, and because he cannot finish in one day, he comes the second day, and finds the frame standing that he made the first day, and then he adds a second day's work; and then he comes a third day and finds his two former days' work standing; then he proceeds to a third day's work, and makes walls to it, and so he goes on till his building be flashed. So prayer is the building of the soul till it reach up to heaven; therefore a god'll.

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFT

up to God.—William Pinner.

Verst 1.— "Die bis, O. Lord., do I Hill up my send." min the in thabase at thy Verst 1.— "Die bis, O. Lord., do I Hill up my send." min the inchesce of they here and conflorts of thy Spirit; such fise, that thy thems may be my crown, thy blood my shasin, thy comes my blessing, thy comes my triumph. Thus is my "life high with Christ in God," and if so, then where should be my soul, but where makes good thy masse of Lord unto me; as Lord, rebuske Satian and restrien all earthly and earnal affections, that they do not once dare to whisper a temptation my soul, a distriction to the soul my soul, and a satisfast the deaths of every living thing." Paulin calv., 16. O open now thin hand, the late "lift up min titles."—Bolett Messon, 1357.

primitive times the minister was went to prepare the people's minist to pray, be reflecting. Surroun excels, Ittle upon brants. The Jowes at this day write upon the that is, A prayer without the intention of the affection is like a body without a too And yet their devotion is a mere outlide, and no —a brainless head and a scolles body: "This people drawest night to me with their lips, but their beart is far from loading the contract of the state of the sta

The state of the s

Verse 2, 3.—When David had prayed, "O my God, I trust in the: |et me not b ashamed!" In the next verse, as if conscious to himself that his prayers were to restrictive, narrow, and niggardly, he enlargeth the bounds thereof, and builds then on a broader bottom, "Yea, let none that wait on thee be ashamed. Thus it is that charity in the midst of our religious devotions must have rehoboth froom enough it.

Annesing, D.D., (1820—1998), in "Memoria Exercise at Cryplegate."

Verse S.—" Load mic In the yound, and teach me." The soul that is unsatiable in prayer, he proceeds, he gets near to God, he gains something, he winds up his heart higher. As a child that seeth the mother have an apple in her hand, and it would finger, and yet she helds it, and then he puls again; and then she lets go smother finger, and yet she keeps it, and then the child puls again; and then she lets go smother finger, and yet she keeps it, and then the child puls again, and will never level pulling and crying till it hath got it from its mother. So a child of God, seeing all garses to be in God, he draws near to the throne of grace begging for it, and by his earnest benouwable esteem of it. Pieces of antiquity, though of base metal, and otherwise charters, how careful are men to preserve them; although they contain but temporary privileges, and sometimes but of trivial moment! How then should temporary privileges, and sometimes but of trivial moment! How then should remove a contain but temporary privileges, and sometimes but of trivial moment. How then should remove a contain the containing thas been contained to contain the containing the containing the co

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFTH.

outh, and the sensual pleasures of your youthful days, they will lay a serrow when you come to grey hairs to be near your graves. So Job. "Remember not the sins of resumers."

me weep now."—From K. Arincis." Cycloposition of Moral and Religious Anceloider, Verst.7—". According to raw merger, met mins: [so I have foresizen those mercies thou medest mine ourn (Jonah Ii. 8). Pailm Iii. 10, 17), in being cruel to myself by my sin, through althrist of thy promise, and unop nevensipidion in they mercy to when the mercy of the mercy. More was the first that brought up that happy expression, "According to the infinite mercy that is in thy heart and nature. The mercy of the mercy that is in the heart and nature of the mercy of the mercy that is in the heart and nature.

404 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALA

(Pablin II.)," that he would be inscribtle to him, according to the multitude of his mercies," And an he needed the restrict of the him, according to the multitude of his mercies, and he had been dearly as the second of the him of

Verse 8.—" Good and upright is the Lord: therefore will be teach sinners in it sug." As election is the effect of Good sovereignty, our pardon the triul of his mere our knowledge a stream from his wishom, our strength an impression of his power has the contract of the c

Verse 8.—" Good and upright is the Lond: therefore will be teach stoners in the squ." Will not the Lord, who is good, be a gracious to his enemies as he require us to be to curs? It is, this own law, "If thou meet this enemy's ox or his ass going astray, thou shall early being it leaks to him sgain. Ecodas arall. In New Good and the state of the state of Verse 9.—"The meek will he guide in judgment;" or, the poor (namely, in spirit; will he make to tread in judgment, to foot it aright, to walk judiciously, to behav themselves wisely, as David idd (1 Sam. xxiv.), so that Saul feared him. Nature conscience cannot but stoop to the image of God, shining in the hearts and lives of the reality called yes.—John Transport.

Yers 9.—"The mest will be guide in judgment." They have been made meek, i.e., desirous to being taught, and praying to be so; but, being now sentible of unworthines, they are straid that God will not teach them. This may be done to other nimes but not to them. Therefore they are told who may expect teaching, even they who desire and pray for teaching,—John Barridgs, 1718—1793.

Vers 9.—"I have fill will be one in indument." Never will this desility be found.

Verse b.—' He still guide the poor in judgmint.' Never will this doctity be foun humbled and unbiated. At the Helderew word denote be poor or efficied, and employed in a metaphorical sense, to denote the most and humble, it is probable to the most and humble, it is probable the proper of the pr

Christ. The Master himself is "meek and nlowly of heart;" much more, surely ought the scholars to be so. He who hath no sense of his ignorance, can have nd desire, or capability of knowledge, human or divine.—Gorge Horne.

Verse 9 ((ast clause).—The Lord will teach the humble his secrets, he will not teach proud scholars.—Thomas Goodwin.

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFT

Verse 9 (last clause).—Such as lie at his feet and say, "Speak, Lord, for th servant heareth," such whose hearts are supple and soluble, tractable, and teachable so that a filled child may lead them. (Isaiah xi. 6.) Austin was such an one. Satt he, "I am here an old man ready to learn of a young man, my coadjutor in the majastry, who hath scarce been one vear in the service."—John Trans.

Vers 10.—"All the paths of the Land" "way, crobbth lightfler the track's or wan make by the wheated of wagons by otten passing over the same ground. Merry and truth are the paths in which God constantly valks in reference to the children of mes; at also frequently does he show them mercy, and to requestly deeply indented, has fresh, that his paths are easily discrence. How frequent, how deeply indented, has read, that his paths are easily discrence. How frequent, how deeply indented, we go, we see that God's mercy and truth have been there by the deep tracks they have left behind them. But he is more abundantly mercilal to those who keep the overnant and his textimonies; i.e., those who are conformed, not only to the letter, but to the spirit of his pure religion—Adom Clarke.

"An University of the pure of verse 10.— Unto such as keep, etc.: he is never out of the road of mercunto them.—Thomas Goodwin.

Verse 11.—"For thy name's sake, O Lord, pardon mine iniquity; for its great." I cannot do better than quote one of those beautiful passage of the great Veyra Cannot in the test than quote one of those beautiful passage of the great Veyra that it is so; that we are all sinners in the highest degree." He is praching on a characteristic of the Portiquese dominion in Breat data on occasion of the threshold destruction of the Portiquese dominion in Breat cases of the passage of the pass usual notion by "name" to understand honour and glory. When God saith to David, "I have made thee a name like the name of men that are in the earth, "when the church saith to God, "Thou didst get thee a name as it is this day," it is manifest that by name glory is intended. Suitable to this it is that famous me are called by the Hebrers,  $w^2 \vee w^2$  (Gen. Vi. 4), and by the Latins,  $v^{it}$  nominum,

6 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

!! Mornum at memorabile nomen !!

or great and memorable. Thus, when God forgiveth sin, be deth if for his onner sade, that it, for his own become rad given. Indeed, God own glary is the ultimate and of all his actions. As he is the first, so he is the list, the efficient, and the final scale and the second of the

Verse: 11.—"Parton mine injusting; for it is great." He pleads the greatmen of his sin, and not the smallness of it; he enderone his progrey with this consideration, that his wine were pleasures. But have could be make this a pile for pardon in the fine of the progress of the side of the progress of the side of the progress of the side. The profit mat I cannot hear the president progress of the side of the profit of the progress of the side of the profit of the progress of the side of the profit of the

407

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFT

ove which is in Christ. Jenn." The Redomme is glarifled, in that he proves sufficient or determ those whose are exceeding statin, in that his body proves sufficient to was way the greatest guilt, in that his shale to save men to the uttermost, and in the sedemen even from the greatest makery. It is the bonne of Christ to save in Sedemen even from the greatest minery. It is the bonne of Christ to save in the sedement of the sedement of the save in the sedement of the sedemen show that he is able to redeem to the uttermost—donathen Education.

Verse 11.— Proton mine insignity, for it is great." In any man miserable

Verse 11.— Proton mine insignity, for it is great." In any man miserable be humbled in the sense of them, and see himself unworthy of any mercy, be may let a seasor of enercy. Though there he aptitude subty, we it is man see almost of mercy there is for him: the Lord's mercy is over all his works, therefore is is much of mercy there is for him: the Lord's mercy is over all his works, therefore is he much of mercy there is for him: the Lord's mercy is over all his works, therefore is he much did. *0 Lord, he mercipal is me, and parken my iniquity, for it is great." And the works mercy min man it was with ne philican, and so with the product, it for neare doubt, though thy iniquities he merce to great, there is a see of mercy requires that there should be desert, but mercy looks upon them that are miserable; and, saith the father, true mercy doth aftect misery; mercy doth not stand upon verse 11.— When iniquity, . . if a great." Such who come to Got to have their stan particular, the many, 'many great stan is "perion mine iniquity, for it is stan perions, therefore the many, 'many great's stan is upon them, of Lord, &c.

In the opening of this point, it would show subgrauch as come in a right way for parken find it, do box upon their sins, a great stan, to some signing a great food, of part in find it, do box upon their sins, a great stan, to some signing a great food, of part in minerable;

many, 'many great stan lee upon ne great sins.

and it, do look upon their sins as great sins, because against a great God. Best lines. I am a sorm, and yet sin, and that boldity power, great in justice, great in holisms. I am a sorm, and yet sin, and that boldity God is of the sort of the sor

408 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS

makes it great. As it may be said, there is more water in the fountian than the found that the making forth of it in the outward man. . . . . 10. A sinner drawing sigh to God for paridon sees has in the outward found to the control of th

Verse: 11.—Plead we the greatness of our sins not to keep us from mercy. In prevail for it: "Person mixer is printing," why so " for it is gent." "Heal in prevail for it: "Person mixer is printing," why so " for it is gent." "Heal in sake: for our backlidings are many; we have sinned against thee." Jer xiv. This is a strong plea, when sincerely urged by an humble and contribe spirit. I gentletch God as one that is abundant in positions, rich in mercy, Heal contribution in mercy. Hence she the Level humbed, when he would stir up himself to choic acts of mercy to this poor people, he first aggravatest their sin against aim to the care of the contribution of th

Vers: 11—"Oh." 439 Pharoh, "Take away these fifthy fogs, this dreadth thunder!" But what says holy David? "Lord, take away the intiguity of the servant!" The one would be freed from punishment, the effect of sin; the other from sin, the cause of punishment. And it is most true that a true Christian max is more troubled at sin than at frogs and thunder; he sees more filthiness in sir blan in frogs and toads, more horror than in thunder and lighting—Jeremülle.

Verse 11.—Pharson more lamented the hard strokes that were upon him, the hard heart which was within him. Exan mourmed not because he sold the birth right, which was his ain, but because he lot the blessing, which was his ain, but because he lot the blessing, which was his possible manner and the property of the strong that the strong has been always to the strong the strong that the strong th

Verse 12.—" What man is he that feareth the Lord?" Blessed shall he be1. In the sacred knowledge of Christ's will; "HIm shall he teach in the way that I shall chose." 2. Blessed shall he be in the quiet peace of a good conscience; "H soul shall dwell at ease." 3. Blessed he shall be in the present comfort of a hopely progeny; "His seed small inherit the earln."—Howert Mossom.

Verse 12.—"Whalt man is the that feareth the Lord?" "There is nothing so effectual to obtain grace, to retain grace, as always to be found before God not over wise, but to fear. happy art thou, if thy heart he replenished with three fears; a fear for received grace, a greater fear for lost grace, a greatest fear to recover grace.—

Remond

ALM THE TWENTY-FIFTH.

Verse 13.—" His soul shall desell of easy; and his seed shall inherit the earth. The holy fear of God shall destry all situal tears of mea, even as Moses' serpen devoured all those serpents of the magicians. The fear of God shall destroy the state of the soul of him with the state of the contract of the state of the West 13.—" He soul shall dead at case." Shall tarry in post hings, as it is the Valgate. Unlike the soul of Ankan, who ching put into possession of the deligh of paradist, turried there but a few days or hours.—Gerbolus, quoted by J. M. Not Vera 15.—" His soul shall dead or case." He expresses with great weeking the state of the soul shall dead of case." He expresses with great weeking whatever is carnally sweet yields without doubt a delectation for the time to an enjoy it, but cannot tarry long with them; because, while by its tast it provok appetite, by its transit it cleasts desire. But spiritual delight, which netther per can tarry for even with their possessors.—High Vefection (150), quoted by J. S. and tarry for even with their possessors.—High Vefection (150), quoted by J. S.

Verse 13 (first clause)—In the reception of the gifts of God, they do not devou them without Tecling a sense of their sweetness, but really reliab them, so that the smallest competency is of more avail to satisfy them that the greatest abundance to satisfy the ungody. Thus, according as every man is contented with his condition and cheerfully cherishes a spirit of patience and tranquility, his soul is said to due in good—John Colsin.

Verse 13.—"The earth," or the land, to wit, Canaan; which was promised an given, as an earnest of the whole covenant of grace, and all its promises, and therefor it is synecdochically put for all of them. The sense is, his seed shall be blessed.—Maithew Pool.

Verse 14.—" The secret of the Lord in with beam that frow him," etc. It is the rightoous that is Good Friend, it is to him that Go of layeded in a loving familiarity, it is to him that Go of revealeds his secret, telling him what misery and tormostic it is to him that God revealeds his lovered, telling him what misery and tormostic heart of the lord of the normostic him to have been good to be form the form the first own of the gody; if he keeps far from the freward, as being an aboutination unto him, his very secret shall be with a form that the window of the him to the committed by another, a greater homour to him to whom the king shall commit his own secret; but how it he housered to whom God committed his accret? To committed by another, a greater homour to him to whom the king shall commit his own secret with $15. Long, of whom $15. Bernard satth, by occasion of the beginning of his gappd,. "Doth he not seem unto thee to have dwed into the howest of the driven which are the secret with $15. Long, of whom $15. Bernard satth, by occasion of the beginning of his gappd,." Doth he not seem unto the to have dwed into the howest of the driven of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which more of the prince of the wide of the state of the secretal state of the secretal between the hidden wisdom, which more of the prince of the hidden had been a single prince of the state of the state

410 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

Verse 14—" The servet of the Lord is with them that forn him," etc. There is a vital sense in which "the natural man discerneth not the things of the Spirit of God;" and in which all the realities of Christian experience are utterly hid from his perceptions. To speak to him of communion with God, of the sense of pardon, of the lively expectation of heaven, of the witness of the Holy Ghost, of the struggles of the spiritual life, would be like reasoning with a blind man about colours, or with one year about, inspects instanting,—with a doubter had for him," etc. Albeit the Lord's covenant with the visible course he open, and plain in test to all men in all the articles thereof, yet it is a mystery to know the inward sweet fellowship which a soul may have with God by virtue of this covenant; and a man fearing God shall know this mystery, when such as are covenanters only in the letter de remain ignorant thereof; for to the fearers of God only is this promise made—that to from the Lord and show his occumular—Daniel Discostin.

In the Lord and the show his occumular—Daniel Discostin.

In though published on all the world, yet it is entitled a myster, and an mystery hid for none know it but the saint, who are taught of God, and are his scholars. John for none know it but the saint, who are taught of God, and are his scholars. John learning. "If they have heard, and been taught of God." New God teachest none but saints, for all that are so taught come unto him: "Every one who had many carnal men know the goopsi, and discourse of things in it, through strength of learning, etc. ? I snawer out of the text (Gol. 1. 20, 27), that though they may carned the show the goopsi, and discourse of things in it, through strength of learning, etc.? I snawer out of the text (Gol. 1. 20, 27), that though they may that same rich knowledge spoken of in the word, they want, and therefore know them not; as a child and a jeveller looking upon a pearl, both look upon it, and call referred to the control of the cont

Verse 14.—"The served of the Lord is with them that from him." The truth and intenctly of God to his people appears in the openness and pilalmess of his heart intenched to his polar and the people of the heart that the thought of his friend; but he who carries, as it were, a window of crystal in the heart, through which his friend any read what thoughts are with in his very his people which have the heart of the heart Constitute 14.—" The secret of the Lard." This "secret" is called a secret three ways.

1. Secret to the eye of sole nature, and thus it is not meant; for not the grace of Carist is a secret only to heathens and such as are blind as they, for common Christians where it—the index of it. 2. Secret to the eye of taught nature, nor thus it is meant; a carnal goopeliers that sit under a good ministry know it and the bark of it. 3. Secret to the eye of englishedned nature, and thus it for not the great of Caristian Carinal good in the control of the control of

SALM THE TWENTY-FIFTI

411

pith of it; for though great doctors and profound clerks, and deep studied divinunconverted, know the doctrine of grace, and the truth of grace; though they ca dispute of grace and talk of the glory of grace, yea, and tate is a little the good wor of grace, yea, and understand if generally, it may be as well as St. Paul and St. Pete as Judas did, yet the special and the spiritual knowledge thereof, for all the

Verse 14.—"The scott." Arminiss and his company reassets all God's served viviles and communicate them to the seed of the woman, and of the sergent at divides and communicate them to the seed of the woman, and of the sergent at make the mystery of Christ, and him crucified, no servel, but like an apothesery of the servel of the servel of the servel of the common servel part of the servel of the common servel part of the servel of the servel part of the servel part

Yes 14.—" If a will show them his content," or, and he will make them to know (for the infinitive is here thought to be put for the further tense of the indicative as it is Eccles, iii. 14, 15, 18; Hos. It. 13; xii. 3), his content, i.e., he will make them clearly to understand it, both it utilizes or conditions, and its bleadings opivileges; nother of which ungodly men rightly understand. Or, he will make contrary, God threates to make ungodly men to know his vends of promise. Numb xiv. 34. Or, as it is in the margins of our Bibles, and his content (fo, i.e., he had ungued himself by his promise or coverant) to make them inou it, to with his secret

Verse 14.—It is neither learning nor ishour that can give insight into God Mill. II. "The mind of Christ." I Gor. It is. These things come by revealite rather than by discourse of reason, and must therefore he obtained by prayer. The and he admittled into a gracious humilitarity and riferability. "Henceforth ic you not servants; for the servant knowed not what his ford doets; but I have cled you flexify in set illusty that I have heard on I yether I have made know.

unity year. John Nr. Mr. John Property way to know the mind of Ged; trians who walk together impart their secrets one to mother: "The secret of the Lord with them that for him." Noth walked with Ged, and the Lord revealed a great walked with Co., and the Lord revealed a great walked with Co., and Ged made him one of the prevy countil; is Shall I hide from walked with Co., and Ged made him one of the prevy countil; is Shall I hide from the control of the Co., and Ged made him one of the prevy countil; is shall I hide from the control of the Co., and the control of the control of the Co., and the Co.,

by reasons of our present distance and darkness, yet we must look towards him towards the place where his honour dwells, as those that desire the knowledge of him and his will, and direct all to his honour as the mark we aim at, labouring it bits, that "whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him."—Matthes Henry.

this, that "whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him."—duting the Verse 1.5.—"Mine gats." As he seem of slight is very quick, and exercises an entire linknesse over the whole frame, it is no uncommon thing to find all the Verse 1.5.—"It had lipute my gleet out of the net." An unfertunate down, whose feet are taken in the snake of the towler, is a find semblem of the soul, estimated the verse of the verse o

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

Vers. 1,7 — "The troutie of up hear for coinged." Let up good num be supprised that this diffiction is noted and more of a sun-economistal charecter. The arrest been so with Gord's people. The road to heaven is soaked with the tens and blood the satture. "Willem S, Planner." of up distresses. We may not complain to God, but we may complain to God. With submission to his holy will we may carried by only one of the control o i, but we may complain to God. With ashmission to his holy will nestly cry for help and deliverance. William S. Plumal forgine all may observe here, that sidents and seedings of the lodg own; from sink may observe here, that sidents are insectings of the lodg own; from sink may observe here, that sidents are insecting side of the long to the long in the proof of that, which you have whole chapters for, an Deut, xz, i and many Palains, evil, and others. It is for the islones of the soul the lodg. And therefore in this case, when God visits with sidents, we have lost of the long of the comes from him to biess of curse all sort of means—Richard Sibber.

Vers 19—"Consider mine centers, "ict. Or food upon them; but with another kind of look; is as he looked through the pilar of fire upon the Egyptians, and toubbed them (Edward, viz. 40), with a look of warth and weapenee. The arguments and their nature, "Foo they are many; "the hearts of the people of fixed, in general and their nature, "Foo they are many; "the hearts of the people of fixed, in general heap after Anband (Sam. xv. 12. 13); and not be spiritual enemies of the Lord's people are many; their thin and correptions, Seltan, and his principalities and powers and Livel (Gen. 110; "); their hatter does out in a cruel manner, in acts of force and cruelty; and it was the more cruel, insamuch as it was without cause; and such cursulty, thint after their blood, and make themselved ormule with it; even their tender mercies are cruel, and much more their hatterd—John Gill. out their tender mercies are cruel, and much more their hatterd—John Gill. out their tender that the special control of the control of the control control of the control of the control of the control
control of the control of the control of the control for, more event than he tiger, and more force than a ton, mo in a wurs, bore be left to himself man unto man is a devel—william Stuther.* (Chistian Observations,* 1629.

Observations,* 1629.

We may any of original consuppiesces, tenegithened on heightment by extonsary transgressions, its name is legion, for it is many. Hydra-like, it is a body with many head; and when we cut oft one head, one encoronis mightly, there presently sprouts up another of like monatrous nature, like ventomous guilt. From the other controls of the control of the c

Verse 20.—" Let me be not ashamed; for I put my trust in thee." When David reaches verse 20, we are reminded of Coriolanus betaking himself to the hall of Verse 22.— Redeem Israel, O God, out of all his broubles." If then will not and help me, yet spare thy people, who suffer for my sake, and in my verse 22.— Redeem Israel, "etc. In vite set post morter mount, "etc. their whiles we, or after my death. This is every good man's care and prayer. None is in to pray for the charch, that hath not first made his own paces with God.—

PSALM THE TWENTY-FIFTH.

413

HINTS TO PREACHERS.

Verse 1.—Heaven's machiner for upiliting an earthbound soul.
Verse 1.—Heaven's machiner for upiliting an earthbound soul.
Verse 2.—The soul at ancher, and the two rocks from which it would be Verse 3.—Shame out of place and in place.
Verse 3.—Shame out of place and in place.
Verse 4.—Precided divinity the best study; God the best teacher; Prayer Verse 4. 5. "Shem" "Teach." "Load." Three classes in the school of Verse 4. 5. "Shem" "Teach." "Load." Three classes in the school of Verse 4. 5. "Shem" "Teach." "Load." A three classes in the school of Verse 4. 5. "Shem" "Teach." "Load." A three classes in the school of Verse 5. Class Candidated in desired. It. Knowledge cought. III. Assured Verse 5. (Load candidated to the class of the control of the class of the class rse 8.—Opposing attributes co-working. God teaching sinners—a great 9.—" The meek." Who they are? What are their privileges? How be like them?

"West of (life) (datas).—Moral portly needful to a well-balanced judgment.

Verse 9 (life) (datas).—Moral portly needful to a well-balanced judgment.

Ag derive comfort therefrom.

Verse 11.—A model prayer. Conficiency, against, increasing, expension, against, increasing, the conficiency of the confic

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

If Were 15. I. What we are like. A silly bird. II. What is our danger? "Net." If What is our friend? "The Lord." IV. What is our wisdom? "Multiple for the first of the property o

JUDGE me, O LORD; for I have walked in mine integrity; I have trusted also in the LORD; therefore I shall not slide.

2 Examine me, O LORD, and prove me; try my reins and my heart.

3 For thy lovingkindness is before mine eyes: and I have walked in thy

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALMS.

PSALM THE TWENTY-SIXT

to worse, and from tolerating the vain, should come to admire the wicks "Nether will g be neith dissemblers". Since I know that typocritical piety double injurity, I will cease all acquaintance with pretenders. If I must need to be a subject of the contraction of the contraction both are to be shumed with scrupulous decision.

5. "I have hadde the congregation of sell doers."—A severe sentence, but no toe sever. A man who does not have sell terriby, does not love good heartily not be severed to be sell to the sell that the sell

6 I will wash mine hands in innocency: so will I compass thine alta

7 That I may publish with the voice of thanksgiving, and tell of all thy wondrous works.

ine honour dwelleth

6. "I will eash mine hands in innecess;"—The would publish yave Minnels to be allogather claser of the accountment and spans that, and it say fould to other too be allogather claser of the accountment and spans that the property of the state of the content of the state of the content of the whole hands is a significant action to set forth our lawful connection with a deck, as we still say, "I wash my hands of the whole business." of the crimes whereof he was slanderously accused; there is, however, a state in either worse, the washe in absolute innocease, for the staning blood makes us our complete cleaning by "seas" precious blood. "So still I compare this either was the state of the crimes whereof he was slanderously accused; there is, however, a tensi our complete cleaning by "seas" precious blood. "So still I compare this either the content of the compare the state of the content of the compare the state of the content of the cont

EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

7. "That I may publish with the roots of humberjung." David was so far instructed that he does not mention the typical offering, but discerns the spiritual instructed that he does not mention the typical offering, but discerns the spiritual gratifluide the spiritual worshipper presents. To sound shroad the worthy praise of the God of all grace should be the very-day business of a pardoned sinner. Let men slander us as they will, let us not defraud the lord of his praises; let deep consider the property of the contract of the contract the Lord hath done for them.

We would not enter, but the house of God he had long loved, and loved it still. We were and children if we did not love our Father's dwelling-place. Though we own search buildings, yet the church of the living God is the house of God, and true were said children if we did not love our Father's dwelling-place. Though we own search buildings, yet the church of the living God is the house of God, and true were Sabbatks 1 "And the place where think houser' and living the said of the love of the large way to be a simple of the love of the large way to be a simple of the love of the large way to be a simple of the large way to be a simple

9 Gather not my soul with sinners, nor my life with bloody men: To In whose hand is mischief, and their right hand is full of br

6. "Gather not my soul seth sinears."—Lead, when, like fruit, I must be againstered, not me not in the same banket with the best of sinears, much less wit the worst of them. The company of sinners is so distasted to us here, that we cannot endure the thought of being bound up in the same bandle with them it the wheat, and will find a separate place for distinct characters. In the form verse we see that the Fashmitt deep himself clear of profuse persons, and this to be understood as a reason why he should not be thrust into their company forchly rise to our lips; meanwhile, as we see the rule of judgment by which like is gathered to its like, we who have passed from death unto life have nothing it can dispatches, in which they treat the shouting of their follow-men as aree spor are horrlying to us; Lord, let us not be what up in the same prion with them my, the same parche with such me would be a belt, if they remained as the my, the same parche with such me would be a belt, if they remained as the now arm. "If when hand is minch(pf,"—They have both hands full of it, plotting it and earrying in cut. "And their right hand," with which they are most dexterous, "Is full of brites;" like theires who would steal with impusity, they are the same than and the same than any sold the same than any sold these them, and in the matter of our printimentary elections the rich villan who gives the bribe is by for the worse. Birbery, in any form or shape, the same than the same that the same than the same that the same than the same than

II But as for me, I will walk in mine integrity: redeem me, and be merciful unto me.

Here is the lover of godliness entering his personal protest against unrighteous gain. He is a Nonconformist, and is ready to stand alone in his Nonconformity.

EXPLANATORY NOTES AND QUAINT SAYINGS.

y be purpled away.—I. J. Shemoul Personne.

Verse 3.—The principal effect of divine goodness is seen in this text. As the of thing communicated from God is the divine nature, whereby we are made seemble him, no the promises of God set home upon the soul are the means of risk the old man, but support the new; they are not pillows for sidnel sloth, spars to holy diligence. The premises of grace enlants the soul to duty; and ne we thus see the goodness of the Lord, it encourages our subjection to his new than see the goodness of the Lord, it encourages our subjection to his exercises are not all the seed of the control of the control of the previous forms of these values of the previous for the companions. The careful as those cause, that the persons thou choosest for thy companions to as fact God. The main in the goodness was possessed with the derail, who dwell

PSALM THE TWENTY-SIXT

amongst the tembs, and conversed with graves and careases. Thou art for founding after the good splirt, if the choosest to converse with open specific within a contract of the contract of th

Verse 4.—"I have not set with only person." There is a necessary commore with men in brying and seiling, or at he spotted says, "We must need go out of the weld," but do not voluntarily choese the company of the wicked. I not? v. for the weld, "I not? v. for the weld," but of the weld of the well of the w

Verse 4.—"Netther will I go in with dissembler." Chaldee: "I will not go be with those that I diet themselves to do evil." Wickedenes is uncandid, and love concealment, while truth and rightcourses are open, and seek scrutlary, John III. 20, 21. None will deny that the candid man has the control of the co

William S. Planner.

Verse 4.—"Disemblers." The hypocrite has much angel without, more devil within. He fries in words, freezes in works; speaks by ells, doth good by inches.
He is a stinking daughill, covered over with snow; a loose-hung mill that keeps great clacking, but grinds no grist; a lying hen that cackles when she hath not laid.—Thomas Adams.

Verse 4.—"Distantifers." Perhaps when the bright sunbeams of an expspring have robed all nature in a smiling garh, you have taken your fittle baskets and gone in quest of a bank of sweet-smelling modest violets, and you may have the property of the control of the degree of great of the control of the control of the control of the degree of the control of the con

-Mrs. Rogers, in "The Shepherd King."

Verses 4. 5.—As rotten apples corrupt those sound ones that do touch the

22 EXPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

and he close to them, even so the evil manners and had considions of the tangicity of infect those that keep them company—Theolet Canding.

Verse 4, 5.—" It is difficult (eaith a late ingenious writer) even to a mirror of the control of the contr

Verses 4, 5, 9.—He that would not be found amongst stiment in the other would not take lead that be do not request their congasty in this. Those whom the correction. "Lord," said a good woman, on her death bed, when its some doub of her salvation, "seed me not to held immongst vided ence, for thos knowest upon the like ground, and argueth it as a sign of this sincerity." I have not some agree that the same doubt persons, relief well I go in old destanders. I shee hade the congregation to person, which well I go in all destanders. I have head the congregation shall I live with hem for ever? I have not into managet them cotting on the said. I live with hem for ever? I have not also managet them cotting on the field of held? Lord, I have been so far from liking, that thus knowed! have leaden the said in the said of held? Lord, I have been so far from liking, that thus knowed! have leaden them with perfect harved; and shall but y friends for a said yes? I suggest the well as the said of held in the said of held in the said of the said of Verse 5.—"I have hard the congregation of self deers," etc. The hards of God's enemies, out his enemies—"yes, he had them right sore "so entirely opposed to the indifferentism of the present day, has always been one distinguishing man of his ancient servants. Witness Phinchas (Feshion etc.) 51; "And that was counted use thin for efficiences unto all generations for externors; "Single-to-more sound all generations for externors," and that the way of the service of the Verte 5.—" I have held the congregation of sell dears." We consider them of God's enmiss, so we hast them; not their persons, but their views; is for that, a Augustine defineth, it is oftnut perfection, a perfect hatted. And indeed it is the absence against all ungoldiness and unrightnessess of mem' (Rom. I. 18); as against their persons—they are his workmanship, and carry his image in soor, though most disagrave; but against the unrightnessess and ungoldiness of the saints of God have triumphed over the wicked, as Izsael over Pharnob, and the Gilzentiles over heidliches of Anmon; not rejoicing in the destruction et al. this entered is the saints of God, and a celebration of his justice—Researd Markon; the saints of God, and a celebration of his justice—Researd Markon; and the progression of the progression of God, and a celebration of his justice—Researd Markon;

Verse 5.—"I have noted," etc. Consider that there can be no true briendship betwirt a gold and a wicked person; therefore it concerns the time to be the more betwirt and the choice. It has the third that the person of the choice is the person of the choice of the choi

PSALM THE TWENTY-SIXT

God for himself, and his neighbours for God's sake; so that he e man who doth not leve his Maker. God is the only foundation in build friendship; therefore such as live without him, cannot hat building which is loose, without this foundation can never ked man may call that profession he maketh to his brother by other but conjunctions in hyporthy.—George Seatimork.

**Dera D.—Wiresenever we perceive any people to working for the presence of the presence and present to working the seat of the sea mouth of his prophet Amos.—John Philips (Marlay). Burni at Smithstall, 1888.

then, whereas withdrawment from them night be a mean to make them sharined Whilst we are merry and jovial with them, we make them believe their condition in ot deplorable, their danger is not gest; whereas if we shumed them, as we would a bowed wall, whilst they remain enemies to the Lord, this might do securify and trong delations wherein they are held.—Lexis Statistical, whathing security and trong delations wherein they are held.—Lexis Statistical, whathing the same of the statistic statistics.

Verse 6.—' I mill seath mine hands in innoenery.' There are two emines were as the special; the first, Control baths, a hot bath, honorum amputist, the heaves in the special control of the law of repentance. These two mixed together will prove a severeign emploition, wrought first by Christ himself when he sever stort and blood. The heavest of the control of the blood of Christ in the true lawer of regeneration, a fountian set open for Judol and Jerussian to weak in. "The blood of Christ properties in from all stars of the law of head of the law of the la

* Augustin

BA BAPOSITIONS OF THE PSALM

replace, believer, these are the sim of the hands (this approper to the Jewn, this pany and conscient as they do that the devel like slighted in their hands, and they many and conscient as they do that the devel like slighted in their hands, and vipera he shaken off our hands, though we cover the situe of the Leaf with tear, which requires the slight of the slight would employ the preser rooms about the stuter—seamone root.

**re 8.—** Lond, I may leave flow the historiant of thy bount, "the variety state." I he congregation," said a vecerable minister of the gospal, "a worthy, who has for many years been so deed as not to distinguish the low, and yet the is always one of the first in the meeting. On asking the room, and the state of the state of the state of the room of ist makes the sinner concerned is the prospect of punishment. No doubt, just perfect the property of the prospect of punishment flightful to all, but abstracted per offer-generation must make juminum trightful to all, but abstracted upon account of their unbollenses and filluliness. "He who is filltly, sit diffused to the property of the property o res b—Had company. Cases of its evil results, escusse for it nawwerd, as youn, motive surged for reimposition for order to acceptable worship, see 7—1. The believer's calling—a publisher. If The suther selected, see 2—1. The surface selected, see 2—6. The selected selected see 2—6. The selected selected

HUNE, BARNARD & Co., LTD., Printers, London and Aylesbury.

Indexes

Index of Pages of the Print Edition

i ii iii iv v vi vii viii ix x xi xii 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29 30 31 32 33 34 35 36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52 53 54 55 56 57 58 59 60 61 62 63 64 65 66 67 68 69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76 77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84 85 86 87 88 89 90 91 92 93 94 95 96 97 98 99 100 101 102 103 104 105 106 107 108 109 110 111 112 113 114 115 116 117 118 119 120 121 122 123 124 125 126 127 128 129 130 131 132 133 134 135 136 137 138 139 140 141 142 143 144 145 146 147 148 149 150 151 152 153 154 155 156 157 158 159 160 161 162 163 164 165 166 167 168 169 170 171 172 173 174 175 176 177 178 179 180 181 182 183 184 185 186 187 188 189 190 191 192 193 194 195 196 197 198 199 200 201 202 203 204 205 206 207 208 209 210 211 212 213 214 215 216 217 218 219 220 221 222 223 224 225 226 227 228 229 230 231 232 233 234 235 236 237 238 239 240 241 242 243 244 245 246 247 248 249 250 251 252 253 254 255 256 257 258 259 260 261 262 263 264 265 266 267 268 269 270 271 272 273 274 275 276 277 278 279 280 281 282 283 284 285 286 287 288 289 290 291 292 293 294 295 296 297 298 299 300 301 302 303 304 305 306 307 308 309 310 311 312 313 314 315 316 317 318 319 320 321 322 323 324 325 326 327 328 329 330 331 332 333 334 335 336 337 338 339 340 341 342 343 344 345 346 347 348 349 350 351 352 353 354 355 356 357 358 359 360 361 362 363 364 365 366 367 368 369 370 371 372 373 374 375 376 377 378 379 380 381 382 383 384 385 386 387 388 389 390 391 392 393 394 395 396 397 398 399 400 401 402 403 404 405 406 407 408 409 410 411 412 413 414 415 416 417 418 419 420 421 422 423 424 425 426 427 428